Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

*1788 in one sum, or 180 monthly instalments of $12.50 each.

Public Savings Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $300. AGE, 35.

Public Savings Insurance Company of America hereby agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, in Indianapolis, Ind., as follows: To (the beneficiary) Mary Doe, wife of the insured, immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured and of the interest of the claimant during the continuance of this contract. (The insured) John Doe, of Indianapolis, county of Marion, State of Indiana.

PREMIUMS ON THIS POLICY WILL BE PAID BY THE COMPANY IF THE INSURED IS PERMANENTLY DISABLED.—After one full annual payment shall have been made, and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty, shall furnish satisfactory proof that he has been wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupation, the company, by an endorsement in writing upon this contract, will agree to pay for the insured the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. In any such case, premiums so paid shall not be a lien on this contract, and the cash, loan and other values of this contract in the schedule as given hereinafter, shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured.

In the event of total and permanent disability, as above, the insured may elect, in lieu of the option above mentioned, to receive, one year from the receipt of satisfactory proofs of such total and permanent disability, one-twentieth of the face of this contract in cash, and the further payment of a like amount upon each succeeding anniversary, until twenty annual installments shall have been paid. Should the insured die during the period mentioned, the remainder of the installments shall be payable in like manner to the beneficiary named herein. If, however, the insured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's obligation to pay the premiums, or the remainder of the annual installments of the face of this contract, shall cease, and the insured shall resume the payment of premiums on the first premium due date following such recovery.

GUARANTEED BENEFITS OF THIS CONTRACT.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days, during which this contract shall remain in force, will be allowed in the payment of all premiums except the first.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy, which with the application therefor, constitutes the entire contract between the parties hereto, shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue for the amount due, provided premiums have been duly paid, and there has been no violation of provisions relating to military and naval service in time of war. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be that which the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

AUTOMATICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE.—Should the insured fail to pay the third or any subsequent premium hereon without having exercised any of the several options set forth below, the company will, without any action on the part of the insured, grant the third option (extended insurance) as set forth below.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated at any time upon application of the insured, accompanied by evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, the approval of the president, and the payment of all arrears due, with interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Provided this policy is not assigned, the insured may, at any time, and from time to time during its continuance, change the beneficiary, to take effect only when such change and the written consent of the company thereto are endorsed upon the policy at the Home Office of the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If there be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of this policy shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

LOANS.—After the payment of three full years' premiums, the company will, upon request, loan an amount which, with one year's interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent. (6%), will not exceed the surrender value, as shown in the table below; provided (1) that this policy be duly assigned to the company as collateral security for such loan; (2) that the amount of loan available shall include any previous loan or other unpaid indebtedness; (3) that the premiums must be fully paid to the end of the current policy year; (4) failure to repay such loan or interest thereon shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such default, nor until thirty days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and of the assignees, if any.

YEARLY SURRENDER OPTIONS.—All premiums hereon having been fully paid in cash, and this policy being free from indebtedness, the insured, upon surrender and cancellation thereof within thirty days after the third or any subsequent anniversary of its date of issue, will be entitled to one of the following options, the respective values and extensions thereof being shown in the table of values given below. An extended insurance value is available at the end of the second year, as shown in the table. The cash values shown herein are at least equal to the amount available for the purchase of extended insurance. Provided, that in any settlement hereunder any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall first be deducted from the net value of the option selected, and the balance paid in cash, or applied as a net single premium upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent. interest, to purchase paid-up or extended insurance. First option, cash. Second option, paid-up insurance. Third option, extended insurance.

The election of the second or third option will be evidenced by the issuance of a new policy in lieu of this policy.

This policy is based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent. interest, and the reserve is computed upon that basis. Values for years subsequent to the twentieth shall be equal or equivalent to the full reserve. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance purchased by the whole or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year, and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana.

INSTALLMENT OPTIONS.—The insured, by written request on the company's form, may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim, provided the policy is in force and has not been assigned, from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page hereof, to payment by annual installments, as provided in the following table: For each $1,000 payable in one sum, $1,059.95 will be paid in five installments of $211.99 each, or $1,138.20 will be paid in ten installments of $113.82 each, or $1,219.95 will be paid in fifteen installments of $81.33 each, or $1,305.20 will be paid in twenty installments of $65.26 each, or $1,394.00 will be paid in twenty-five installments of $55.76 each, or any of the above annual installments will be paid in monthly installments if desired.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. Premiums are due and payable annually in advance, but may be paid semi-annually or quarterly, at the Home Office of the company, or may be paid to an agent of the company upon delivery of receipts signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the agent. If any premium, cash loan or interest thereon be not paid when due, this policy shall be void and all premiums forfeited to the company except as herein provided.

2. Due proofs of the death of the insured, and of the interests of the claimant, must be furnished to the company at its Home Office not later than three years after the death of the insured, on the company's blanks furnished for that purpose, which proofs shall comprise satisfactory statements establishing the claim.

3. In case of death from service in war without permission from the company, the full reserve for this policy at the time of such death only will be paid.

4. Any indebtedness to the company, including any balance of premium for the insurance year remaining unpaid, will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or any benefit thereunder.

5. This policy may be assigned upon written approval of the president or secretary, but the company will not resume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

6. Only the president, vice-president, secretary or medical director has power, on behalf of the company, to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time of paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any agent or person other than the above.

7. All statements made by the insured in the application herefor, shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

8. Suicide, while sane or insane, or death as the result of the violation of a law, within one year from the date of this policy, are risks not assumed by the company, but in such case the company will pay the amount of the premium actually paid hereon.

This agreement is made in consideration of the written and printed application for this policy, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part of this contract, and the payment of three hundred dollars in advance, in exchange for the company's receipt on the delivery of this policy, constituting payment for the period terminating on the first day of April, 1914, and of the payment of a like sum, the annual premium, to the company at its home office, in the city of Indianapolis, on the first day of April in every year thereafter until twenty full annual premiums shall have been paid.

AGREEMENT ON APPLICATION.

I hereby declare that I am in good health and of sober and temperate habits, and that all the statements and answers to the above questions are complete and true, and that the foregoing, together with this declaration, shall constitute the application, and become a part of the contract for insurance hereby applied for. And it is agreed that the policy herein applied for shall be accepted subject to the privileges and provisions therein contained, and said policy shall not take effect until the same shall be issued and delivered by the said company and the first premium paid thereon in full, while my health is in the same condition as described in this application.

Puritan Life Insurance Company.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $265.50. AGE, 35.

Puritan Life Insurance Company, Providence, R. I., in consideration of two hundred sixty-five and $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and of the payment of two hundred sixty-five and $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars on the ninth day of February in each year until the death of the insured, promises to pay upon receipt at the home office of the company in Providence, R. I., of due proof of the death of Roger Williams, of Providence, County of Providence, State of Rhode Island, herein called the insured, to Betsy Williams, wife, beneficiary, with the right of revocation, ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year.

The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, subject to any existing assignment of the policy, may designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured and the insured shall not have designated a new beneficiary the interest of such beneficiary shall be payable to the insured, his executors, administrators or assigns.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—The company will accept payment of premiums at other times than as stated above, as follows: Either semi-annually in two payments of $138.10 on the ninth day of February and August or quarter-annually in four payments of $70.40 on the ninth day of February, May, August and November. Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at said home office, or to an agent of the company upon delivery of the official receipt of the company, signed by one or more of the following officers, viz., president, vice-president, treasurer or secretary, and countersigned by said agent. A grace of one month subject to interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which month the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the month of grace the overdue premium will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in any settlement hereunder.

AUTOMATIC NON-FORFEITURE.—If any premium due hereon be not paid before the expiration of the grace for payment of same, it shall be charged against the policy as a loan with interest in advance at the rate of five per cent per annum, provided the loan value, as stated herein, at the due date of the premium, less any existing loan or other indebtedness with accrued interest, shall be at least equal to the amount of said premium and interest. If the loan value or balance thereof shall not be sufficient to pay the entire premium due and interest, then it shall be used, if sufficient, to pay the premium for a shorter period, but not less than an entire quarterly premium, and if not sufficient to pay a quarterly premium this policy shall cease to be in force, and any excess of the reserve carried hereon over the indebtedness shall be paid in cash on surrender of this policy. This provision is automatic, and will be carried out by the company without any action on the part of the insured. Any indebtedness thus created shall constitute a first charge against the policy in priority to the claim of any beneficiary or assignee; and at any time while the policy is thus maintained in force, the insured may, without medical examination, resume payment of premiums and continue the policy in force.

CONDITIONS.—Self destruction, sane or insane, within one year from date of the issuance of this policy, is a risk not assumed by the company under this contract.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy constitutes the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable one year from its date except for non-payment of premiums, and except as otherwise provided in this policy. All statements made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in a written application and a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to this policy when issued. If the age of the insured has been understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

PARTICIPATION.—If this policy is in force on the ninth day of February, 1914, and at the end of each year thereafter, during the continuance of this contract, the company will pay to the insured or assigns, a dividend, consisting of this policy's share of the divisible surplus profits of the participating business of the company.

DIVIDENDS.—Dividends at the option of the owner of this policy shall when allotted be either (1) paid in cash, or (2) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums, or (3) applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to the policy, or (4) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest at three per cent per annum and payable at the maturity of the policy, but withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy. Unless the owner of this policy shall elect otherwise within three months after the mailing by the company of a written notice requiring such election, the dividends shall be left to accumulate to the credit of the policy.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time while this policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment of this policy and on the sole security thereof, at a rate of interest not greater than five per cent per annum, which interest if not paid annually shall be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than, the reserve at the end of the current policy year on this policy and on any dividend additions thereto, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, less two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy and of any dividend additions thereto. The company, however, will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year. Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure and until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. No condition other than as herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such advance.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, if there be no indebtedness against the policy, the owner, within one month after any default and on the proper surrender of this policy to the company at its home office, may elect (a) to accept the value of this policy in cash, or (b) to purchase non-participating paid-up insurance, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy, or (c) to have the insurance continued in force from date of default, without future participation and without the right to loans, for its face amount, including any outstanding dividend additions, less any indebtedness to the company hereon. The amounts of cash surrender value, and paid-up insurance, also the period of continued insurance, are as shown in the following:

Values for later years will be computed on the same basis and be furnished upon request. All indebtedness on account of this policy, outstanding at the time of settlement, will be deducted from the reserve used in the calculation of the value above specified, and will reduce said paid-up or continued insurance value by the proportion that such indebtedness bears to said reserve.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case of continued temporary insurance under the above provisions, this policy, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, may be reinstated within the first three years of the term for which the insurance is continued by payment of arrears of premiums with interest at five per cent per annum.

OPTIONS AT MATURITY.—The insured, by written notice to the company at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of interest thereon at three per cent per annum payable annually, to the payee under this policy at the end of each year during the life of the payee and by the payment upon the death of the payee of the said net sum and accrued interest to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee, unless otherwise directed in said notice. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum. (3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the payee shall survive in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum. Instalments payable under options (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the payee shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the executors, administrators or assigns of the payee. If the insured shall not have directed otherwise the beneficiary may, after the death of the insured, by like written notice, and with the written consent of the assignee, if any, select either of the above options. Unless otherwise specified by the insured the payee may on any interest date receive the amount yet due under option (1), and may at any time receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as option (2) in the following table, provided that no such commutation will be made under (3), except after the death of the payee occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree, for myself and for any person who may have or claim any interest in any contract which may be issued upon this application, as follows: 1. That no statements or information made or given by or to the person soliciting or taking this application or by or to any other person shall be binding upon the company or shall in any manner affect its rights, unless reduced to writing and presented to and approved by the officers of the company at its home office. 2. That every statement and answer hereinabove contained is true. 3. That no contract issued hereon shall take effect until the first premium shall be actually paid while I am in good health.

Register Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDEND.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $360.30. AGE, 35.

The Register Life Insurance Company of Iowa, Davenport, Ia., hereby agrees to pay for the surrender of this policy at its home office in the city of Davenport, Ia., the sum of ten thousand dollars (herein called the sum insured) upon the receipt of due proof of the death of John F. Wilson, of Davenport, State of Iowa (herein called the insured), during the continuance of this policy.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to all the conditions, benefits and privileges described on the subsequent pages hereof, and which are hereby made a part of this contract.

In witness whereof the said Register Life Insurance Company of Iowa, has by its president and secretary (or assistant secretary), signed this contract in the city of Davenport, and State of Iowa, this first day of January, 1911.

CONSIDERATION. PREMIUMS WHEN PAYABLE.—The foregoing agreement is made in consideration of the application for this policy, which is made a part of this contract, and in further consideration of the annual premium of three hundred sixty and $\frac{30}{100}$ dollars, to be paid to the company in advance at its home office, in the city of Davenport, Ia., or to its authorized agent, at or before twelve o'clock M. of the first day of January in each and every year during the life of John F. Wilson, the insured, until twenty annual premiums have been paid.

DEATH BENEFICIARY.—The amount becoming due from the company by reason of the death of the insured shall be payable to the death beneficiary, Emma F. Wilson, if living, otherwise to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, less any indebtedness to the company on this policy, and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year; the cash value, loan value and dividends, hereinafter described, if paid during the lifetime of the insured, shall be payable to the insured only; and all such payments shall be subject to the rights herein granted for varying the provisions of this policy and to all loans made by the company as herein provided, and to any other indebtedness to the company on account of this policy.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary having a proper insurable interest with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect only upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company.

WHEN IN FORCE.—This policy shall not take effect until the first premium hereon shall have been duly paid during the good health of the insured, receipt for which payment shall be the delivery of this policy.

SUICIDE OR SELF-DESTRUCTION.—If within one year from the date hereof the insured shall, whether sane or insane, die by his own hand or act, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid on this policy.

RESTRICTIONS.—For one year from the date hereof residence or travel in Mexico or the Torrid Zone, and engagement in any of the following occupations or employments: Blasting, mining, submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, the manufacture, handling or transportation of inflammable or explosive substances, or in electrical employment where the voltage is over 600, service upon any railroad train or in switching or coupling cars, except as passenger or sleeping-car conductor, mail agent, express messenger or baggage master, or in ocean navigation, without a written permit therefor signed by the president, secretary or assistant secretary of the company, will render this policy void.

SERVICE IN WAR.—In case of death from service in war, the liability of the company under this policy shall be limited to the amount of the reserve to the credit of the policy on the day previous to the death of the insured.

INTESTABILITY.—After two years from the date of issue, this policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—Premiums on this policy are due and payable at or before noon, on the date specified herein, at the home office of the company, in the city of Davenport, Ia. Should default be made in the payment of any premium this policy shall cease and determine except as hereinafter otherwise provided. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly in advance, at the option of the insured, at the company's rates as shown on the filing page of this policy. No renewal premium shall be considered paid except in exchange for the company's receipt, bearing the printed or original signature of the president, secretary or assistant secretary and countersigned by the one to whom payment is made.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, upon discovery of the true age the difference in premiums paid and the premiums for the correct age, with interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, shall be paid on demand to the company or to the insured, as the case may be, and if not so paid, shall be deducted from, or added to, any sum payable under the policy.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—Upon request of the insured, together with the assigns of any, made prior to default in premium payment, the premium or premiums thereafter falling due during the time any such request shall remain unrevoked, and not paid when or before due, will be charged as a premium loan with interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, provided the then cash value (as stated in the table of values given in this policy) shall be sufficient to cover such loan. Any premium loan may be paid at any time.

GRACE IN PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—A grace of thirty days (during which time the policy will remain in force) will be allowed for the payment of any premium after the first, but for any reckoning herein named, the time when a premium becomes due shall be the day herein stipulated for such payment, without grace. If death occurs during the said thirty days of grace, the unpaid premium shall be deducted from the amount of the claim.

REINSTATEMENT.—Within five years after default in payment of premium, if this policy has not been surrendered, it may be reinstated, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and by payment of arrears of premiums, with interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, and by payment or reinstatement of whatever indebtedness to the company existed hereon at the date of default, with interest at the same rate from that date.

DIVIDENDS.—After one full annual premium has been paid, this policy, while in force (except as extended term insurance), shall share in such annual distribution of surplus as the company may make, according to the methods and rules adopted by the board of directors. Such dividends shall be due and payable only upon payment of the succeeding year's premium, and at the option of the insured may be used under one of the following methods: (First) May be used in the reduction of the succeeding year's premium. (Second) May be left with the company to purchase non-forfeitable paid-up participating additions to the face of the policy, payable with the policy, without re-examination; provided, however, that this method is selected when the first dividend is payable. These paid-up additions may be surrendered for their cash value (full reserve) at any time. (Third) May be left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy and withdrawable at any anniversary thereof, with interest at the rate of not less than three and one-half per cent per annum, for the purpose of reducing the total number of premiums required to mature the policy as a paid-up participating life policy, payable at death.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—This policy shall have no surrender value until two full annual premiums have been paid, but in case of default in payment of any subsequent premium, the value of this policy, at the end of each policy year, in cash or paid-up insurance, shall be as shown in table "A" of values on the following page for the year and amount there designated in figures; except if any indebtedness exist at the time of such default, the values hereof will be reduced in the proportion which such indebtedness bears to the tabular values given herein. To secure either of these options, the insured must notify the company in writing and surrender this policy and all valid claims hereunder within ninety days from the date the last premium fell due. If the policy be not surrendered as above, and provided the insured has not selected the automatic premium loan privilege, the insurance will be automatically extended from the date of default in premium payment (unless the premium be paid within the thirty days of grace), without action on the part of the insured, and without participation in surplus, for the time stated in table "A" of values on this page; provided, that any existing indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, if not paid, will reduce the amount of extended insurance in the ratio of such indebtedness to the reserve on this policy. Such extended insurance shall have a cash surrender value equal to the reserve thereon at the time of surrender.

The figures given in Table "A" show the minimum values guaranteed under this policy, for the years stated, upon the assumption that all premiums have been fully paid in cash, and that there is no indebtedness on the policy. These values will be increased by any existing dividend additions.

LOANS.—After two full years' premiums have been paid hereon before default in the payment of premium, and before the policy becomes a claim, the company will loan upon the sole security of this policy, the whole, or, at the option of the borrower, any part of the loan value shown by Table "A" at the end of the current policy year, less all indebtedness to the company herein, and any unpaid portion of the premium and interest on the loan for the remainder of the current policy year, provided the policy is returned to the company together with a loan agreement bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable annually in advance. Said loan agreement to be made on a blank furnished by the company and to be signed by the insured alone, provided the interest of the insured is not then assigned. Interest on any indebtedness hereon not paid when due shall be charged annually in advance as an indebtedness against the policy. Failure to pay any indebtedness or interest due thereon will avoid this policy when the total indebtedness to the company equals or exceeds the loan value at the time of such failure, but not before that time, nor until thirty days after notice of the same has been mailed by the company to the insured at his last known address.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until the original or a certified copy thereof be filed with the company at its home office. Any assignment made shall be subject to any indebtedness to the company hereon, and satisfactory proof of assignee's interest must be furnished on making claim. The company assumes no liability as to the validity of any assignment. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy or be used in defense to a claim hereunder unless it is contained in the written application for this policy, a copy of which is attached hereto. For the purposes of policy valuations and calculations of loan, surrender, paid-up and extended values, the reserve on this policy shall be computed by the first year preliminary term method, on the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest. All agreements made by the company are signed by one of its executive officers. No agent or other person not an executive officer can alter or waive any of the conditions of this policy or make any agreement binding upon the company. The insured is hereby notified, that by virtue of this policy he is a member of The Register Life Insurance Company of Iowa, and that the annual meeting of said company is holden at its home office in the city of Davenport, Ia., on the second Tuesday in January in each year at two o'clock p. m.

INSTALMENT PRIVILEGES.—If this policy be not assigned, the insured, or the beneficiary after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no election, by written notice to the company at its home office, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy paid as follows in lieu of in a single sum: (1) To have the whole, or any designated fraction, of the proceeds of this policy at its maturity retained by the company until the death of the beneficiary, the company in the meantime to pay the beneficiary interest on the amount so retained at the rate of three per cent per annum, the first interest payment to be made one year after the maturity of this policy, and the last interest payment to be made a pro rata one for the expired fraction of the year in which the beneficiary dies. At any interest date the beneficiary may withdraw the amount so retained by the company, in which case the interest payments will cease. (2) To have the whole, or any designated fraction, of the proceeds of this policy at its maturity paid in a specified number (not exceeding thirty) of equal annual instalments, as shown by the accompanying table, the first instalment being payable immediately. (3) To have the whole, or any designated fraction, of the proceeds of this policy at its maturity paid in equal annual instalments continuing during the lifetime of the beneficiary, as shown by the accompanying table, the first instalment being payable immediately.

When any of the instalments payable under privilege No. 2, or of the instalments certainly payable under privilege No. 3, shall fall due, the company if requested will pay the then present or commuted value of such instalments computed at three per cent interest compounded annually, as shown by the accompanying table. The commutation of a part or the whole of the instalments certainly payable under privilege No. 3 will not affect the amounts payable thereunder after the term during which the instalments certain would have been payable. The right of withdrawal under privilege No. 1, or of commutation under privileges No. 2 and 3, will be withheld from the beneficiary if the insured shall so direct. If settlement of this policy be made in accordance with privilege No. 1, or No. 2, or No. 3, the stipulated payments under privilege No. 1 or No. 2, or the instalments certainly payable under privilege No. 3, will be increased by such annual dividends as may be apportioned by the board of directors, but such dividends will be payable only in cash.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby apply to The Register Life Insurance Company of Iowa for a contract of insurance upon my life, and I do hereby declare that the statements and answers herein made, (including those made to the medical examiner) and signed by me, are complete and true to the best of my knowledge and belief; and I agree that this application, together with the medical examination and policy hereby applied for, shall constitute the entire contract between me and the company; I also agree that the contract shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Iowa.

Reliance Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $362.10. AGE, 35.

Reliance Life Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, Pa., promises to pay upon receipt at the home office of the company in Pittsburgh of due proof of the death of Richard H. Roe, of Pittsburgh, county of Allegheny, State of Pennsylvania, herein called the insured, if the death of the insured occurs within one year from the date hereof or subsequently if this contract be renewed and be in full force, to Mary C. Roe, wife, beneficiary with right of revocation, the sum of ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year.

All insurance provided by this policy is based upon the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part of this contract, and the payment of the annual premium of three hundred sixty-two dollars and ten cents on the sixth day of January, 1912, as the premium for one year's insurance, the payment of the first annual premium being hereby acknowledged; and this policy will be renewed as a limited payment life policy upon the further payment of a like amount on or before the sixth day of January in each and every year hereafter until twenty full years' premiums, including the first, shall have been paid, after which no further premiums will be required. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance. The privileges, conditions and provisions on the succeeding pages of this policy are made a part of this contract as fully as if stated over the signature hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed this sixth day of January in the year 1912.

PRIVILEGES, CONDITIONS AND PROVISIONS.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured, subject to any existing assignment of the policy, may designate a new beneficiary by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured and the insured shall not have designated a new beneficiary, the interest of such beneficiary shall be payable to the insured, his executors, administrators or assigns.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at said home office, or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary of the company and countersigned by said agent. A grace of one month, or thirty-one days, subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which period the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the days of grace, the overdue premium will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in any settlement hereunder. Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable.

SELF DESTRUCTION.—Self destruction during the first policy year, whether the insured be sane or insane, is a risk not assumed by the company, but in such case the company will return, in full, all premiums actually received.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy contains no restrictions upon the insured in respect to occupation, residence or travel from date of issue. The policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached, constitute the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premiums. All statements made by the insured in said application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the written application hereof, a copy of which is hereto attached. If the age of the insured has been mis-stated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the divisible surplus on the participating business, and beginning at the end of the first policy year, provided the second year's premium is paid in cash, dividends shall be declared annually during its continuance. The dividends shall be available to the insured or assigns under one of the following options: (1st) Drawn in cash; or, (2nd) left with the company, in which case compound interest at a rate of not less than three and one-half per cent per annum will be allowed thereon; or, (3rd.) applied towards the payment of any premium or premiums; or, (4th) applied to purchase paid-up additions to the policy. Such paid-up additions may be surrendered for cash at any time, and the cash value thereof shall not be less than the original cash dividends. If no option has been made, the dividend shall be applied under the fourth option.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time, while this policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment of this policy and on the sole security thereof, at a rate of interest not greater than five per cent per annum, which interest if not paid annually shall be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than, the reserve at the end of the current policy year on this policy and on any dividend additions thereto, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy and of any dividend additions thereto. The company, however, will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year. Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure and until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. No condition other than as herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such advance.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, the owner, within one month after any default, may elect (a) to accept the value of this policy in cash, or (b) to have the insurance continued in force from date of default, without future participation and without the right to loans, for its face amount, including any outstanding dividend additions, less any indebtedness to the company hereon, or (c) to purchase non-participating paid-up insurance, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy. The cash value will be the reserve at the date of default on this policy and on any dividend additions thereto, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy and of any dividend additions thereto, and less any existing indebtedness to the company on this policy. The term for which the insurance will be continued or the amount of the paid-up policy will be such as the cash value will purchase as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. If the owner shall not, within one month from default, surrender this policy to the company at its home office for a cash surrender value or for paid-up insurance as provided in options (a) and (c), the insurance will be continued as provided in option (b).

The figures in the following table are computed in accordance with the above provisions and upon the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy, and that there are no outstanding dividend additions:

The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance. All values for years subsequent to the twentieth will be equal to or equivalent to the entire reserve of the policy. Figures for later years will be furnished upon request.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company, until it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

REINSTATEMENT.—If default be made in premium payments and the policy has not been surrendered to the company and canceled, it may be reinstated at any time within three years, provided the insured shall furnish evidence of good health satisfactory to the company, and pay all over due premiums to date of reinstatement, with interest thereon at five per cent per annum.

OPTIONS AT MATURITY.—The insured, by written notice to the company at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee, if any, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of interest thereon at three and one-half per cent per annum, payable annually, to the payee under this policy at the end of each year during the life of the payee, and by the payment upon the death of the payee of the said net sum and accrued interest to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee, unless otherwise directed in said notice. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum. (3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the payee shall survive in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum. Instalments payable under options (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the payee, shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the executors, administrators or assigns of the payee. If the insured shall not have directed otherwise the beneficiary may, after the death of the insured, by like written notice, and with the written consent of the assignee, if any, select either of the above options. Unless otherwise specified by the insured the payee may on any interest date receive the amount yet due under option (1), and may at any time receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as option (2) in the following table, provided that no such commutation will be made under (3), except after the death of the payee occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY—If the insured has not attained the age of sixty years after one full annual premium has been paid and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, this policy will become fully paid-up, requiring no further payment of premiums by the insured, provided evidence, satisfactory to the company, shall be furnished by the insured that he has become totally and permanently disabled for life by bodily injury or disease, and is thereby prevented from performing any and every kind of duty pertaining to his occupation, or any other occupation or gainful pursuit. On receipt of such evidence the company will endorse the proper provision hereon. In such event the cash, loan, and surrender value shall increase from year to year, and this policy shall participate in any distribution of surplus in its class, in like manner as if the premiums had been regularly and duly paid by the insured. During the period of total and permanent disability, and at any time one year after the premium anniversary date first following the date of such disability, the company will, at the request of the insured and beneficiary or assignee, if any, pay a monthly income amounting to 1% of the face value of the policy, if there be no existing indebtedness, or if there be such indebtedness, 1% of the face value of the policy less such indebtedness; such payments to continue until the total amount of payments made shall equal the face of the policy, less all indebtedness, if any, at which time the company's liability under this contract shall cease. In the event of the death of the insured before the full amount of this policy has been paid to the insured, beneficiary or assignee, the company will pay the remaining amount due under this contract upon due proof of death. The cash, loan and surrender values will bear the same proportion to the full cash, loan and surrender values stated in table, on page 2, as the remaining amount of insurance under this contract bears to the original amount of insurance. If however, the insured shall recover, so as to be able to engage in any occupation for wages or profit during the premium payment period or before the full amount of the policy is paid, he shall then be required to pay all premiums becoming due under this contract after the date of recovery and the liability of the company will be limited to the face of the policy less all payments made to the insured and less all indebtedness thereunder.

The annual premium for this clause is five dollars and is included in the whole premium charged for this policy, and this clause may be canceled at any time by the insured, and thereafter the disability insurance shall cease and the premium on this policy shall be reduced by the amount named herein, provided the policy be returned to the company for proper endorsement.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby declare and agree, that all statements and answers written in this application marked Part I, and all those that I make to the company's medical examiner, marked Part II, are true, full and complete, and are offered to the company as a consideration for the contract of insurance, which I hereby agree to accept, and which shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been actually paid, while I am in good health, and the policy shall have been signed by the duly authorized officers of the company and issued. I also agree that in any distribution of surplus, or apportionment of profits, the principles and methods which may then be in use by the company for such distribution or apportionment and its determination of the amount equitably belonging to any policy which may be issued under this application, shall be conclusive upon and accepted by all parties having or claiming any interest thereunder.

ACCIDENT POLICY; ANNUAL PREMIUM, $15.

Reliance Life Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, Pa., in consideration of fifteen dollars ($15) premium, hereby insures under classification number one, Richard H. Roe of Pittsburgh, Pa., occupation manager, office duties and traveling only, herein called the insured, for twelve months, beginning at noon, standard time at the place where the insured resides, on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1914, and ending on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1915, subject to the provisions and conditions and limits herein, against loss resulting, independently of any and all other causes directly from bodily injury effected solely through external, violent and accidental means, herein called such injury, as follows.

SECTION I. LOSS OF LIFE INDEMNITY.—If such injury shall from the date of accident, render the insured continuously unable to transact each and every part of his business duties, and shall, during the period of such disability and within one hundred and four weeks (or within ninety days irrespective of such disability) result in loss of life, the company will pay to the beneficiary named herein the sum of five thousand dollars, ($5000). Indemnity for loss of life shall be payable to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns herein called the beneficiary. Payment of indemnity under this section shall be in lieu of all other indemnity and shall immediately terminate this policy.

SECTION II. TOTAL LOSS OF TIME INDEMNITY.—If such injury shall not result in loss of life, but shall, from the date of accident, render the insured continuously unable to transact each and every part of his business duties, the company will pay for the period of such disability and such total loss of time, not to exceed one hundred and four consecutive weeks, an indemnity per week of twenty-five dollars ($25).

PARTIAL LOSS OF TIME INDEMNITY.—If such injury shall not result in loss of life, but shall, from the date of accident, or immediately following a period of total loss of time, as above defined, partially disable the insured and prevent him from attending to one or more of the important daily duties pertaining to his occupation, the company will pay for the period of such disability and such partial loss of time, not to exceed twenty-six consecutive weeks, an indemnity per week of one-half of the weekly indemnity specified in this section for total loss of time. Payment shall not be made for more than one hundred and four weeks total disability and partial disability combined.

SECTION III. INDEMNITY FOR FREEZING, HYDROPHOBIA, ASPHYXIATION, BLOOD-POISONING.—Freezing, hydrophobia or asphyxiation suffered through accidental means, or blood-poisoning resulting directly from an accidental bodily injury, shall be deemed a bodily injury within the meaning of this policy.

SECTION IV. MEDICAL ATTENDANCE INDEMNITY.—If such injury shall not result in any one of the losses enumerated herein but shall require treatment by a physician, the company will reimburse the insured for the cost thereof, not to exceed an amount equal to the indemnity for total loss of time for one week as specified in Section II, provided the physician's receipt and affidavit on the company's form is furnished to the company at its home office in Pittsburgh within ninety days from the date of accident.

The privileges, conditions and provisions on the succeeding page of this policy are made a part of this policy as fully as if stated over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed by its president and secretary.

STANDARD PROVISIONS.

1. This policy includes the endorsements and attached papers, if any, and contains the entire contract of insurance except as it may be modified by the company's classification of risks and premium rates in the event that the insured is injured after having changed his occupation to one classified by the company as more hazardous than that stated in the policy, or while he is doing any act or thing pertaining to any occupation so classified, except ordinary duties about his residence or while engaged in recreation, in which event the company will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in the policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rate but within the limits so fixed by the company for such more hazardous occupation.

If the law of the state in which the insured resides at the time this policy is issued requires that prior to its issue a statement of the premium rates and classification of risks pertaining to it shall be filed with the state official having supervision of insurance in such state, then the premium rates and classification of risks mentioned in this policy shall mean only such as have been last filed by the company in accordance with such law, but if such filing is not required by such law then they shall mean the company's premium rates and classification of risks last made effective by it in such state prior to the occurrence of the loss for which the company is liable.

2. No statement made by the applicant for insurance not included herein shall avoid the policy or be used in any legal proceeding hereunder. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions. No change in this policy shall be valid unless approved by an executive officer of the company and such approval be endorsed hereon.

3. If default be made in the payment of the agreed premium for this policy, the subsequent acceptance of a premium by the company or by any of its duly authorized agents shall reinstate the policy, but only to cover loss resulting from accidental injury thereafter sustained.

4. Written notice of injury on which claim may be based must be given to the company within twenty days after the date of the accident causing such injury.

5. Such notice given by or in behalf of the insured or beneficiary, as the case may be, to the company at its home office in Pittsburgh, or to any authorized agent of the company, with particulars sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed to be notice to the company. Failure to give notice within the time provided in this policy shall not invalidate any claim if it shall be shown not to have been reasonably possible to give such notice and that notice was given as soon as was reasonably possible.

6. The company upon receipt of such notice, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not so furnished within fifteen days after the receipt of such notice, the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence character and extent of the loss for which claim is made.

7. Affirmative proof of loss must be furnished to the company at its said office in case of claim for loss of time from disability within ninety days after the termination of the period for which the company is liable, and in case of claim for any other loss, within ninety days after the date of such loss.

8. The company shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and so often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of claim hereunder, and also the right and opportunity to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law.

9. All indemnities provided in this policy for loss other than that of time on account of disability will be paid immediately after receipt of due proof.

10. Upon request of the insured and subject to due proof of loss, the accrued indemnity for loss of time on account of disability will be paid at the expiration of each sixty days during the continuance of the period for which the company is liable, and any balance remaining unpaid at the termination of such period will be paid immediately upon receipt of due proof.

11. Indemnity for loss of life of the insured is payable to the beneficiary if surviving the insured, and otherwise to the estate of the insured. All other indemnities of this policy are payable to the insured.

12. If the insured shall at any time change his occupation to one classified by the company as less hazardous than that stated in the policy, the company, upon written request of the insured and surrender of the policy, will cancel the same and will return to the insured the unearned premium.

13. Consent of the beneficiary shall not be requisite to surrender or assignment of this policy, or to change of beneficiary, or to any other changes in the policy.

14. No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after proof of loss has been filed in accordance with the requirements of this policy, nor shall such action be brought at all unless brought within two years from the expiration of the time within which proof of loss is required by the policy.

15. If any time limitation of this policy with respect to giving notice of claim or furnishing proof of loss is less than that permitted by the law of the state in which the insured resides at the time this policy is issued, such limitation is hereby extended to agree with the minimum period permitted by such law.

16. The company may cancel this policy at any time by written notice delivered to the insured or mailed to his last address, as shown by the records of the company, together with cash or the company's check for the unearned portion of the premiums actually paid by the insured, and such cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim originating prior thereto.

17. If the insured shall carry with another company, corporation, association or society other insurance covering the same loss without giving written notice to the company, then in that case the company shall be liable only for such portion of the indemnity promised as the said indemnity bears to the total amount of like indemnity in all policies covering such loss, and for the return of such part of the premium paid as shall exceed the pro rata for the indemnity thus determined.

20. The insurance under this policy shall not cover any person under the age of eighteen years nor over the age of sixty years. Any premium paid to the company for any period not covered by this policy will be returned upon request.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

A. No assignment of interest hereunder shall be valid unless consent thereto is endorsed hereon and is signed by an executive officer of the company.

B. This policy does not extend to nor cover any accidental bodily injury caused or contributed to, directly or indirectly, by sickness or disease, nor cover disappearance, nor war risk, nor loss due to hernia, however caused, nor loss resulting from any means or act which if used or done by the insured while in possession of all mental faculties would be deemed intentional or self-inflicted, nor loss suffered while or resulting from riding or being in or on any aerial device or conveyance.

HEALTH POLICY.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $27.50

Reliance Life Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, in consideration of twenty-seven and $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars (\$27.50) premium, hereby insures under classification number one, Richard H. Roe of Pittsburgh, Pa., occupation manager, office duties and traveling only, herein called the insured, for twelve months, beginning at noon, standard time at the place where the insured resides, on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1914, and ending on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1915, subject to the provisions and conditions and limits herein, against loss resulting directly and independently of any and all other causes from sickness or disease contracted while this policy is in force, which sickness or disease wholly disables the insured and necessitates treatment by a legally qualified physician, in the sum of: \$25 per week during confinement to the house; \$12.50 per week during non-confinement not to exceed fifty-two consecutive weeks in the aggregate.

STANDARD PROVISIONS.

1. This policy includes the endorsements and attached papers, if any, and contains the entire contract of insurance. No reduction shall be made in any indemnity herein provided by reason of change in the occupation of the insured or by reason of his doing any act or thing pertaining to any other occupation.

3. If default be made in the payment of the agreed premium for this policy, the subsequent acceptance of a premium by the company or by any of its duly authorized agents shall reinstate the policy, but only to cover such sickness as may begin more than ten days after the date of such acceptance.

4. Written notice of sickness on which claim may be based must be given to the company within ten days after the commencement of the disability from such sickness.

7. Affirmative proof of loss must be furnished to the company at its said office within ninety days after the termination of the period of disability for which the company is liable.

11. All the indemnities of this policy are payable to the insured.

Standard provisions 2, 5, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 20 of preceding form and also additional provision A also apply to this policy.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

B. This policy does not extend to nor cover any loss caused by any sickness or disease existing or contracted prior to the issue of this policy, nor loss caused by any sickness or disease unless disability resulting therefrom begins while this policy is in force.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed by its president and secretary.

*Adopted January 1, 1913.

Reserve Loan Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $309.40.

AGE, 35.

The Reserve Loan Life Insurance Company, Indianapolis, Ind., hereby promises and agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, at the home office of the company, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, within twenty-four hours after receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, hereinafter called the insured, of Indianapolis, county of Marion, State of Indiana.

This policy is issued in consideration of the payment in advance of three hundred nine and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars. It will be continued as a limited payment life policy upon the further payment of a like amount on or before 12 o'clock noon (Central Standard time), of the twenty-eighth day of January in each year thereafter until nineteen additional annual premiums have been paid or until the prior death of the insured.

This policy shall not take effect unless the insured is alive and in good health at the time of its delivery; nor then unless the first premium has been paid.

All the conditions stated on the back of this policy are hereby referred to and made a part of this contract as fully as if they were recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In testimony whereof, the Reserve Loan Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary, at Indianapolis, Ind., this twenty-eighth day of January, 1913.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

This contract is absolutely free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death, and no permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

The reserve on this policy and all surrender values contained therein are based on the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest, and in no case does the surrender charge amount to more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereby. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the whole or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year, and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana.

In the event of no indebtedness hereon, the values in the above table will apply. Any indebtedness hereon may be paid in cash and the values in the table will then apply, or if not so paid, the cash and loan values will be reduced by the amount of the indebtedness; the paid-up insurance will be reduced in the ratio of the indebtedness to the net value of such paid-up insurance; and the extended insurance shall be for as long a term as the balance, left after deducting the indebtedness from the net value of the extended insurance as shown in the table, will purchase as a net single premium. Premium payments for fractional parts of a year, if any, will proportionately increase the values in the table. Values after twenty years shall be equivalent to the full reserve on this policy.

LOAN VALUE.—At any time after two years from the date hereof and while this policy is in force, the company will, within ninety days after receipt of written request by the insured, loan upon the sole security of this policy up to the amount indicated in the table of guaranteed values opposite the current policy year. The company will require a satisfactory assignment of the policy as security, and will deduct from the loan any existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy, any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year and interest at the rate of six per cent per annum to the end of the current policy year. Failure to pay any loan or interest thereon shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness to the company shall equal or exceed the legal reserve on this policy, nor until thirty-one days after legal notice have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and assignee, if any, if such assignee has notified the company of his address.

CASH VALUE.—At any time after three annual premiums have been paid hereon, and within one month from date of default in payment of any premium, the company will, within ninety days after receipt of written request by the insured, with a full and valid surrender of this policy and all claims hereunder, pay a cash surrender value as indicated in the table of guaranteed values opposite the number of years for which annual premiums have been paid. Cash values are at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of extended insurance.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—At any time after three annual premiums have been paid hereon and within one month from date of default in payment of any premium, the company will upon written request by the insured, convert this policy into paid-up non-participating insurance in the sum shown in the table of guaranteed values, opposite the number of years for which annual premiums have been paid.

EXTENDED INSURANCE.—At the expiration of three years from the date hereof, if any subsequent premium be not paid when due, the company will, without action on the part of the insured, extend this policy as non-participating term insurance, without loan values, for the term provided in the table of guaranteed values, opposite the number of years for which annual premiums have been paid.

INCONTESTABLE.—If the premiums are duly paid as required this policy shall be incontestable after it has been renewed beyond the first year.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days (without interest), during which time this policy will remain in force, will be allowed for the payment of any annual, semi-annual or quarterly renewal of premiums; provided that if the insured should die within such period of grace the unpaid premium for the current policy year will be deducted in any settlement under the policy.

PREMIUMS.—Premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, in the city of Indianapolis, Ind., or to a designated collector, but in any case only in exchange for the company's receipt therefor, signed by the secretary and countersigned by such collector. Upon default in payment of any premium, or any note or interest thereon whether such note be given for the first or subsequent premium, this policy shall be null and void and all premiums forfeited to the company, except as herein provided.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—This contract is made with the person whose life is insured hereby, and the beneficiary shall have no interest in this policy until after the death of the insured. The insured during lifetime reserves the right, without the consent of the beneficiary, to surrender this policy to the company for cancellation, cash, paid-up or extended insurance. The insured may change the beneficiary named herein, provided this policy has not been assigned. Such change will take effect when endorsed hereon by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the amount which would have been payable to such deceased beneficiary, shall be payable to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy shall lapse because of default in payment of premium, or any note of interest thereon, it may be reinstated at any time, upon payment of overdue premiums with interest compounded at five per cent per annum, subject to evidence of good health satisfactory to the company.

POLICY TO CONTAIN ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application herefor (a copy of which application is attached hereto) shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement made by the insured shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in the written application therefor. No action at law or suit in equity shall be commenced or maintained hereon nor recovery had, unless such action or suit is commenced within five years after the cause of action shall accrue.

PROOFS OF DEATH.—Proofs of death of the insured and of the interest of the claimant must be furnished to the company at its home office in the city of Indianapolis, Ind. Any indebtedness, including any balance of the current year's premium remaining unpaid, will be deducted in the settlement thereof.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured was misstated in the application on which this policy was issued, the amount payable shall be the insurance which the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its home office in the city of Indianapolis, upon blanks furnished by the company. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

SUICIDE.—Self-destruction within one year from the date hereof, whether the insured be sane or insane, is not a risk assumed by the company, but in such cases the company will return the premiums actually paid hereon.

INSTALMENT BENEFITS.—Option 1. This policy is issued payable in one sum at the death of the insured, but the insured may at any time, while this policy is in force and unassigned, change the manner of such payment by one sum to payment by monthly or annual instalments. The first instalment to be paid at same time as cash settlement would otherwise have taken place, and each succeeding instalment to be paid on like date in each month or year thereafter until all instalments shall have been paid. On this plan the company will pay, in lieu of each one thousand dollars of insurance herein provided, the following amounts: $1,071.50 divided into fifty monthly instalments of $21.43 each $1,148.00 divided into one hundred monthly instalments of $11.48 each. $1,161.70 divided into ten annual instalments of $116.17 each. $1,258.20 divided into fifteen annual instalments of $83.88 each. $1,359.60 divided into twenty annual instalments of $67.98 each.

Option 2. In lieu of a cash settlement under this policy the insured may, at any time while this policy remains in force and unassigned, have the option of securing from the company an instalment policy; the amount of the instalment to be determined by the age of the beneficiary at the death of the insured, and by the following table of instalments for each one thousand dollars principal sum insured. Twenty instalments at least will be paid, but instalments will continue during lifetime of the beneficiary. The first instalment to be paid at the same time as cash settlement would otherwise have taken place, and each succeeding instalment on like date of each year thereafter during the lifetime of the beneficiary. If the beneficiary should die before the completion of the twenty instalment payments, the unpaid instalments will be paid thereafter to the executor, administrator or assigns of the beneficiary.

DOUBLE INDEMNITY AND TOTAL DISABILITY.—In consideration of the payment of twenty cents per thousand insurance, which is included in the premium named on the face of this policy. If fatal injuries are sustained by the insured by reason of the wrecking, collision, lurching or swaying, of any railway passenger car using steam or electricity as motive power, the insured being a passenger within such car at the time of such injury; or by the fall or negligent operation of any licensed passenger elevator, within which the insured shall at the time be riding as a passenger; or are caused by the burning of a building while the insured is therein, the amount payable to the beneficiary under this policy shall be double the principal sum insured hereby: Provided, that no fatal injury sustained while getting on or off or being upon the step or steps or platform of any railway, or street railway car, shall be covered by this double indemnity clause; or, should the insured suffer an injury through external, violent and accidental means, resulting in the severance of both hands at or above the wrist; or the severance of both feet at or above the ankle; or the severance of one hand and one foot at or above the wrist and ankle; or the total loss of the sight of both eyes; or the total loss of the sight of one eye and the severance of one hand at or above the wrist; or the total loss of the sight of one eye and the severance of one foot at or above the ankle; the insured shall be deemed totally disabled, and the full amount insured by this policy shall be payable to said insured upon due proof of such disability and the surrender of this policy for cancellation. The insured may cancel this double indemnity and total disability insurance on any anniversary of this policy, and after such cancellation the premium named on the face hereof shall be reduced by the premium charged therefor; or it will be automatically cancelled when premiums cease to be paid.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree that all provisions of law forbidding any physician who has attended or who may attend me, from disclosing any and all information which he has or may acquire by such attendance, are hereby expressly waived; that in any distribution of surplus the principles and methods which may then be in use by the company for determination of the amount and its apportionment are hereby accepted; that the policy shall not take effect unless I am alive and in good health at the time of its delivery to me; nor then unless the first premium is paid in cash or a note for extension of time for such payment is accepted by the company at its home office in Indianapolis, Ind., and that the method or plan of conducting the business of said company may at any time be changed to such plan as may be provided by any law of the State of Indiana relating to life insurance companies. I hereby agree that each statement made herein and in Part 2 of this application by whomsoever they be written, are full, true and complete, and that each of the same is material.

Royal Union Mutual Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—DEFERRED DIVIDEND.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $368.

AGE, 35.

The Royal Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, Des Moines, Ia., agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, at its home office, to Clara D. Moines (wife of insured), beneficiary, if living (with right of revocation), otherwise to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, within sixty days after the receipt of due proofs of the death of Graydon D. Moines, the insured, during the term of one year from the date hereof. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

The consideration for this insurance shall be the declarations, answers and agreements made in the application for this policy, a copy of which shall be endorsed hereon, or attached hereto, and made a part thereof, and the payment of three hundred sixty-eight dollars in advance on the first day of August, 1910.

In consideration of the said application, and the payment of like amounts on the same dates in the succeeding nineteen years or until the prior death of the insured, this insurance shall continue after the first year until the death of the insured.

OPTIONAL LIFE ANNUITY.—On the anniversary nearest the age of sixty-five of the insured, this policy may be surrendered, and the reserve will then purchase an annuity of eight hundred and twenty dollars, payable annually during the life of the insured; the first payment to be deferred one year.

The general conditions and benefits stated on the following pages hereof are hereby made a part of this contract as fully as if recited over the signatures hereto affixed.

Signed, sealed and issued in the city of Des Moines, Ia., this first day of August, 1910.

CONDITIONS, BENEFITS AND PRIVILEGES.

THE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application therefor, taken together, constitute the entire contract, which cannot be varied nor any of its terms waived, except in writing, endorsed hereon and signed at the home office by the president or secretary of the company, whose authority for this purpose shall not be delegated. And it is agreed that there are no erasures on this contract as issued and no part or parts of its printed or written context stricken out or altered. No agent can make, alter or discharge this contract or vary or extend its terms. All statements of the insured in his application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall void this policy unless it be contained in the written application therefor, and a copy of such application be attached to the policy when issued.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—Each premium is due and payable at noon on the dates specified, at the home office of the company; it may be paid elsewhere only to an authorized collector in exchange for the company's receipt signed by its president or secretary and countersigned by said collector. Failure to pay any premium or any note taken therefor, when due and payable, shall cause this policy to cease and determine, and unless reinstated all payments made thereon shall remain the property of the company, except as hereinafter provided. The mode of premium payment may be changed on any anniversary of the policy from annual to semi-annual or quarterly, or vice versa, at rates now in use, but the payment of any premium shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date on which the next payment is due.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—After this policy shall have been in force one year, thirty-one days of grace shall be allowed in the payment of premiums, during which period the premium shall be subject to an interest charge at a yearly rate of six per cent. If death occurs during said period the amount of the unpaid premium, with interest shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder. No agent or collector can extend the time for payment of premiums nor make any binding agreement in relation thereto.

REINSTATEMENT.—At any time after default in payment of premium hereon, or after any non-forfeiture or surrender value option (except cash surrender value) herein given, shall have been taken, this policy may be reinstated to its original form and amount by payment to the company of arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, and payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness existing against the policy at the time of the default, with interest at six per cent, provided that evidence of insurability, satisfactory to the company, be furnished, (without expense to the company.)

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of the designated beneficiary, the insured may at any time while the policy is in force, and subject to any existing assignment of the policy, designate a new beneficiary (with or without the right of revocation) by filing written request therefor at the home office, together with this policy; such change to take effect on the endorsement thereof on the policy by the company.

ASSIGNMENT OF POLICY.—No assignment hereof shall be binding upon the company unless a duplicate original thereof shall have been filed at the home office. Assignment blanks will be furnished upon application. Proof of interest may be required when the policy becomes payable or when any settlement thereof or thereunder is demanded. The company does not guarantee the validity of any assignment.

EXISTING INDEBTEDNESS DEDUCTED LOANS.—Any existing indebtedness to the company, including any balance of the premium for the then current insurance year remaining unpaid, shall be deducted in any settlement of this policy, or of any benefit or option thereunder.

LOANS.—At the end of the third or any subsequent policy year, there being no default in any payment, the company will loan, on proper assignment and delivery to it of this policy and on the sole security thereof, a sum equal to, or at the option of the owner of this policy, less than the cash surrender value at the end of such policy year, deducting therefrom interest in advance for one year and all other indebtedness to the company on said policy. Said loan shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, which, if not paid when due shall be added to the existing loan and bear interest at the same rate. Failure to repay said loan or pay interest thereon shall not void the policy unless the total indebtedness upon such loan and policy shall equal or exceed the cash value hereunder, in which event and whereupon the policy shall cease and become void.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year from date hereof, this policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the true age.

SELF-DESTRUCTION.—In case of self-destruction of the insured while sane or insane, within one year from date of this policy, the company will pay to the beneficiary, on satisfactory proof of death of the insured, and the surrender of the policy, fully receipted, ten per cent of the face hereof.

VALUATION FOR RESERVES.—The reserve on this policy shall be valued by the preliminary term method in accordance with the laws of Iowa, except valuations may be varied to comply with the laws governing valuations for the states in which such policies are delivered; but the basis shall be the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest.

FREEDOM FROM RESTRICTION.—This policy is absolutely free from restrictions as to residence, travel or occupation, from the date of its issue, except engagement at any time in military or naval service during war. Such engagements shall require the written permission of the company and the payment of an extra premium, at the established rate, while so engaged. In case of death during such engagement and without the company's written permission, the liability of the company hereunder shall be limited to the amount of the then legal reserve on this policy.

GUARANTEED SURRENDER VALUE AND NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.—At the end of the third or any subsequent policy year, premiums having been paid in full to the end of such year, and on default in payment of a subsequent premium or at any time within the period of grace thereafter, the owner of this policy shall be entitled to any one of the following guaranteed surrender value and non-forfeiture benefits, the amounts of the same being stipulated in the table given below, for the number of full years for which premiums shall have been paid, the net value of which shall not be less than the legal reserve on the policy and any existing additions thereto at the end of such years, computed by the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest, less a sum of not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy and of any existing additions thereto; (a) the cash values stipulated herein shall be at least equal to the sums which would otherwise be available for the purchase of paid-up insurance under options (b) and (c), and shall be paid on surrender of the policy to the company, properly receipted; (b) the policy, on presentation thereof to the company for endorsement and on written request of the insured, will be continued in force for the full amount of insurance hereunder and without further payment of premiums or medical re-examination and without the right to loans or dividends, for the period specified herein; (c) the policy, on presentation thereof to the company for endorsement, will be continued in force for the reduced amount of non-participating paid-up insurance stipulated herein, payable as originally provided. If no choice of other options has been made, option (c) shall become effective without action on the part of the insured; and whenever presented the policy shall be so endorsed. If quarterly or semi-annual premiums have been paid for one-quarter, one-half or three-quarters of a year beyond the end of the third year or of any year thereafter, the cash, paid-up, or extended insurance values shown herein will be proportionately adjusted as follows; one quarter, one-half or three-quarters of the difference between the value or extended insurance period for the end of the previous year and the value or period for the next year shall be added to the value or period for the previous year. The figures in the following table are computed in accordance with the above provisions and under the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy, and that all dividends have been drawn in cash.

DIVIDENDS.—In accordance with the method adopted by the company for the calculation and distribution of all dividends and surplus, the company will determine and account for the portion of the divisible surplus to be allotted to this policy, beginning not later than the end of the twentieth policy year, and at the end of each year thereafter. The insured shall have the option, on any anniversary of the policy after the twentieth of having any dividends which may then be available paid or applied as follows; (a) paid in cash, or (b) applied to the reduction of any premiums, or (c) applied as a single premium at the attained age at the company's rates then in force, without medical examination, to purchase additional participating insurance, or (d) left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, in which case the accumulation shall be payable at the death of the insured or may be withdrawn in cash on any anniversary of the policy. If the insured shall not have chosen options (b), (c) or (d), within thirty-one days from the time the dividends are declared, the same shall be paid in cash, or, if required by the laws of the state in which this policy is delivered, option (c) shall become effective.

OPTIONS AT THE DEATH OF THE INSURED.—The insured by written notice to the company, at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect that the net sum payable under this policy at the death of the insured shall be payable either in cash or as follows:

OPTION 1.—On demand of the beneficiary or at the death of the beneficiary, as may be directed by the insured in the said notice; interest on the said net sum, at the rate of three and one-half per cent to be paid by the company annually to the beneficiary until the said net sum is paid on the said demand or death.

OPTION 2.—By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years to the beneficiary or executors thereof, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of the said net sum. (See table, option 2 below.)*

OPTION 3.—By the payment of equal annual instalments, the first instalment being payable immediately, for a fixed period of twenty years, to the beneficiary or executors thereof, the said annual payments to continue during the life of the beneficiary after the said fixed period. (See table, options 3 below.)† Unless otherwise specified by the insured, the beneficiary may, on any interest date, receive the amount of the said net sum yet due, under Option 1, or may, at any time receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as Option 2 in the following table, provided that no such commutation will be made under Option 3 except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is agreed that, the policy issued on this application, being in force and not assigned, the insured shall control all surrender value privileges. Also if not assigned, and if right of revocation has been retained, the insured may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, but such change shall not take effect until written request, properly attested, has been furnished with the policy to the company at the home office during the lifetime of the insured, for the endorsement of the new nominee or nominees. It is also agreed as follows: (First) That in the event of self-destruction, whether sane or insane, within one year from date of this policy the company's legal liability shall be but ten per cent of the amount otherwise agreed to be paid on this policy in event of death. (Second) That the company's method for distribution of surplus shall be accepted. (Third) That any note or obligation given for premiums shall be accounted only as an extension of time for payment, and if not paid at maturity, all liability under any policy issued hereon shall at that date without grace cease, except for the non-forfeiture provisions of the policy; and the full amount of said note or obligation, with interest, or the reversionary value thereof shall first be deducted in any settlement hereunder, and shall be deemed as earned. (Fourth) That the company shall be liable under the policy contract immediately after the application has been approved in writing by the company at its home office, provided the first premium has been paid in cash on the date of the application; otherwise the company shall not be liable until the policy is delivered and the first premium thereon paid while I am living and in good health.

I hereby certify that I have reviewed the above, and that the declarations, statements and representations made by me in this application, and all answers taken down in writing hereon and in the medical examination, are hereby made the basis for the issuance of the policy hereby applied for, and I declare the same to be true.

Dated at Davenport, Ia., September 1, 1910. Drayton D. Moines (signature of applicant in his or her own hand).

TOTAL DISABILITY RIDER.

In consideration of the annual payment of forty-five cents per thousand dollars for this disability rider hereby issued under and attached to policy No. 01234, issued to Graydon D. Moines by the Royal Union Mutual Life Insurance Company of Des Moines, Ia., (which sum is included in the annual premium stipulated in said original policy), the following clause and agreement when attached to said policy is hereby added to and incorporated in said policy as fully as though originally set forth therein:

A. WAIVER OF PREMIUMS.—After this policy shall have been in force for one full year and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, the company will, upon receipt of due proofs that the insured has become wholly disabled by bodily injury or disease, and thereby prevented from engaging in any gainful occupation, waive each premium as it thereafter becomes due, during the insured's said disability. Should said disability occur before the insured attains the age of sixty years, the premiums so waived shall not be deducted in any settlement hereunder; but should disability occur after the insured has attained the age of sixty years, then in the case of any settlement hereunder the amount of the premiums waived shall be deducted from the face of the policy, and the cash surrender values herein shall be proportionately reduced.

B. INSTALMENT PAYMENTS.—In addition to waiving payment of premiums as aforesaid, if such disability shall have occurred before the insured has attained the age of sixty years, the company, one year after said proof of such disability, shall pay to the insured one-tenth of the face amount of the policy and a like amount in each insurance year thereafter during the continuance of such disability prior to the maturity of the policy; the policy must be returned to the company for the endorsement thereon of each payment. At the insured's option any such payment or payments may be left with the company to accumulate until the maturity of the policy at such rate of interest as the company may declare on funds so held by it but at a rate not less than three and one-half per cent, compounded annually. Each instalment shall reduce to that extent the amount of insurance in force, and the loan and cash surrender values provided for under this contract shall be calculated for the reduced amount insured. If at the time when any such instalment becomes payable there shall be an indebtedness on the policy in excess of the cash surrender value of the reduced amount of insurance, the company shall apply such part of the instalment as may be necessary to reduce the indebtedness to the amount secured by such cash surrender value. Whenever the total amount of said instalments, together with the amount of any remaining indebtedness to the company, shall equal the face amount of the policy, plus any paid-up dividend additions, unpaid dividends and dividends left to accumulate to the credit of the policy, then the company's obligations under the policy shall thereby be fully satisfied and discharged without further action.

C. RECOVERY FROM DISABILITY.—Should the company accept under this policy proofs of disability, it may nevertheless at any time thereafter, and from time to time, but not oftener than once a year, demand of the insured proof of the continuance of such disability, and upon failure to furnish such proof, or, if it appears that the insured has become able to engage in any occupation whatsoever for remuneration or profit, no further premiums shall be waived and no further instalment payments will be made by the company. But if the amount of the insurance shall then have been reduced under any of the foregoing provisions such reduced amount of insurance shall thereafter be the face amount of the policy, and the premiums thereafter falling due will be reduced in proportion to the reduced amount of insurance, and all benefits under the policy will be reduced accordingly. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot shall be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this rider.

In witness whereof, this rider is signed, sealed and issued in the city of Des Moines, Ia., this first day of February, 1915.

San Jacinto Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $302.80. AGE, 35.

San Jacinto Life Insurance Company, Beaumont, Tex., promises to pay ten thousand dollars to Mrs. Mary Doe, wife, if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, upon receipt of due proofs of the death of Richard Doe the insured, during the continuance of this policy.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment in advance of the sum of three hundred two dollars and eighty cents, being the premium for one year's term insurance from the date hereof, and the payment of the same sum on or before the twenty-first day of April in every year thereafter for nineteen years, or until the prior death of the insured, as renewal premiums to complete the contract.

The privileges, provisions and conditions, loan and non-forfeiture values stated on the following pages form a part of this contract as fully as if recited over the signatures hereto.

Executed, this twenty-first day of April, 1915, at the home office of the company in Beaumont, Texas.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue except for the non-payment of premiums.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days without interest charge shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which days of grace this insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the period of grace the premiums for the current policy year will be deducted from any amount payable hereunder.

OPTIONS IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—Renewal premiums shall be payable annually in advance, but the company will upon request make a written contract with the insured changing the payments to semi-annual or quarterly instalments. Premiums must be paid at the home office of the company or, at the pleasure of the company, to a designated collector, but in any case, only in exchange for the company's receipt therefor, signed by the president, vice-president or secretary and countersigned by such collector. If any premium, or obligation therefor, is not paid when due, this policy shall be ipso facto null and void, except as herein provided.

NON-FORFEITURE.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid hereon, if any premium shall not be paid when due, this policy shall become automatically non-forfeitable and the insured shall have the following options: (a) The insurance will, without action of the insured or payment of further premiums, be continued as paid-up term insurance during the term, including the period of grace, specified in "Column 2" of the "Table of Loan and Non-Forfeiture Values" endorsed hereon for the year to the end of which premiums have been paid in full, but any indebtedness to the company hereon will correspondingly decrease the term of the extension; (b) Or upon written request made by the insured within six (6) months from said due date, and the legal surrender of this policy the company will issue a paid-up life policy for the amount specified in "Column 3" of the "Table of Loan and Non-Forfeiture Values" endorsed hereon, for the year to the end of which premiums have been paid in full, but any indebtedness hereon shall correspondingly decrease the amount of paid-up insurance; (c) Or upon written request of the insured within six (6) months from said due date, and the legal surrender of this policy, the company will pay in cash therefor the amount specified in "Column 1" of the "Table of Loan and Non-Forfeiture Values" endorsed hereon for the year to the end of which premiums have been paid in full, less any unpaid indebtedness hereon.

CONVERSION PRIVILEGE.—At any time while it is in force under its original conditions, this policy may, without medical examination, be converted into any other form of policy issued by the company at this time, for an amount of insurance not greater than the amount of this policy, bearing the original date of this policy, and at a premium rate of the age of the insured at entry, upon payment to the company of the difference between the reserve value of this policy and the reserve value of the new policy at the date of conversion according to the standard named herein.

THE INSURED IS ENTITLED TO CASH LOANS ON THE SOLE SECURITY OF THIS POLICY AT ANY TIME AFTER THE PAYMENT OF THREE FULL YEARS' PREMIUMS.—The aggregate loans hereunder shall not exceed the sum stated in "Column 1" of the "Table of Loan and Non-Forfeiture Values" endorsed hereon for the year to the end of which premiums have been paid in full. Any unpaid balance of the current year's premium and all other indebtedness to the company on this policy will be deducted from such loan value. A loan agreement and assignment of the policy must be executed by the insured upon the company's form. Interest will be at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable in advance to the end of the current policy year and annually in advance thereafter. Failure to pay any loan or interest thereon shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value of this policy.

REINSTATEMENT.—Unless previously surrendered, this policy may be reinstated at any time within five years after default in the payment of any renewal premium, provided the insured applies therefor and furnishes evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and pays in cash all past due premiums with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum from date when due; and provided also, that any indebtedness hereon to the company at date of default with interest thereon to date of reinstatement shall be a first lien against this policy.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries, at any time and from time to time during the continuance of this policy, provided the policy has not been assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by a written request on the company's form filed at its home office, such change to take effect on the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company.

Any unpaid indebtedness on account of this policy will correspondingly decrease the values of the above table.

In case of default in payment of a premium due at an intermediate period, the non-forfeiture values will be computed on the same proportionate basis as the corresponding values for full years' premiums paid. Loan and cash values after the twentieth policy year will be the full reserve on this policy; on request to the home office of the company, such values will be furnished.

PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—While this policy is in force after the payment of one full annual premium, if satisfactory proof is furnished that the insured, prior to attaining the age of 60, has suffered bodily injuries through external, violent or accidental means or by disease (except insanity) and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, provided such disability is in no wise the result of self-inflicted injury or injury received while engaged in any unlawful act, the company will agree by endorsement in writing on this policy to pay annually to the insured while living and during such total and permanent disability, if there be no indebtedness against the policy, one-twentieth of the amount originally insured as stated on the first page. If there be an indebtedness, then the annual instalments under this provision shall be one-twentieth of the amount originally insured less such indebtedness. Each payment so made shall reduce by that sum the amount of insurance in force hereunder, and when the payments so made shall together with any indebtedness to the company equal the amount originally insured, the company's obligation under this contract shall be fully discharged. Said instalment payments are to be in lieu of all other benefits under this policy. The first instalment shall be paid immediately on acceptance by the company of due proofs of the said total disability. Should the insured die before twenty annual instalments shall have been paid, the balance due hereunder, which shall be the amount originally insured less the sum of all instalment payments which have been made together with any indebtedness to the company, shall be paid in one sum to the beneficiary hereunder. Payment of premiums on this policy shall cease when endorsement of the total disability benefit shall have been made hereon. If satisfactory proof is furnished of like total disability occurring after the insured shall have attained the age of 60, the company will allow the subsequent premiums to accumulate without interest as an indebtedness on this contract. Any medical adviser of this company shall have the privilege at any time to examine the person of the insured regarding any alleged disability.

It is further agreed, that should the insured subsequently recover from the said total disability, so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, payment of instalments shall immediately cease. This policy may then be reinstated for the full amount, and all the original benefits thereunder restored, without medical re-examination, on payment to the company of the total amount of instalments paid and all arrears of premiums, with compound interest at five per cent per annum; the said payments to be made in cash, or if not in excess of the reserve on the policy the amount of the said indebtedness may remain as a loan on the policy subject to other loan provisions herein.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.—(1) Only the president, vice-president or secretary has power on behalf of the company (and then only in writing) to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter made by any agent or person other than above. (2) If the age of the insured is misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be the insurance which the premium paid would have purchased under this policy at the true age of the insured. (3) The insured has the right to assign this policy. Any assignment must be made in duplicate, upon blanks furnished by the company, and one original copy shall be filed with the company at its home office. The company will assume no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment. Any claim arising under an assignment shall be subject to proof of interest. Any assignee of this policy will take same subject to any existing indebtedness against this policy, whether he has notice thereof or not, and subject to the right of the company to make loans to cover premium payments. If any such loans are thereafter made they shall be a lien against the policy superior to any rights of said assignee. (4) This policy is payable at the home office of the company. Before any amount shall be paid hereunder, due proofs of the death of the insured must be furnished on the company's forms at its home office and any indebtedness hereon to the company, including the amount necessary to complete the premium for the current policy year, must be settled. No suit or action shall be maintained on this policy unless it is commenced within three years from the time the cause of action accrues. (5) This policy constitutes the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the written application, and a copy of such application shall be endorsed hereon or attached hereto. (6) If at any time the insured shall engage in military or naval service in time of war, without written consent of the company, the amount payable under this policy shall be the reserve value thereof at the time of the death of the insured. (7) The reserve on this policy is computed according to the Combined Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of four per cent per annum. The net value of any paid-up, extended insurance or pure endowment, if any, granted hereunder equals the reserve at date of default, less a surrender charge, if any, not exceeding two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereunder. The cash value given in the table equals or exceeds the net value of the extended insurance. The loan value equals the reserve at the end of the current policy year, less indebtedness, unpaid premiums, interest in advance, and a charge not exceeding two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereunder. The values named in the Table of Loan and Non-Forfeiture Values show the values after the surrender charge, if any, has been deducted. (8) In case of death of the insured by self-destruction, while sane or insane, within one year from date of issue, a sum equal to the premiums actually paid hereon, and no more, shall be paid. (9) If there be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of this policy shall be payable to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured. (10) This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right, and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy.

INSTALMENT OPTIONS.—The proceeds of this policy are payable in one sum, but if the policy is not then assigned the insured may at any time direct that the proceeds shall be paid either in annual or monthly instalment. The following options set forth the amount the company will pay in instalments for each thousand dollars insurance provided for on the first page hereof.

Option No. 1.—($1,420) One Thousand Four Hundred and Twenty Dollars in twenty equal annual instalments of $71.00 each; or Option No. 2.—($1,300) One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars in fifteen equal annual instalments of $86.00 each; or Option No. 3.—($1,180) One Thousand One Hundred and Eighty Dollars in ten equal annual instalments of $118.00 each; or Option No. 4.—($1,440) One Thousand Four Hundred and Forty Dollars in 240 monthly instalments of $6.00 each; or Option No. 5.—($1,323) One Thousand Three Hundred and Twenty-three Dollars in 180 monthly instalments of $7.35 each; or Option No. 6.—($1,200) One Thousand Two Hundred Dollars in 120 monthly instalments of $10.00 each; or Option No. 7.—Annual instalments for twenty years and so many years longer as the beneficiary may live; the amount of each instalment to be determined by the following table, based on the age of the beneficiary at the birthday last preceding the death of the insured; but if this policy be on the endowment plan, and the insured survive the endowment period, the provisions of Option No. 1 shall apply.

The following table referred to in Option No. 7 is based on a policy the face amount of which is one thousand dollars:

The payment of the first instalment shall be made at the time the whole amount would have been payable, and subsequent instalments shall be payable annually or monthly thereafter according to the option which has been selected. The insured may change his selection under the above options; he may also revoke all selections and make the policy again payable in one sum. No selection, change or revocation shall take effect until endorsement on the policy by the company. After endorsement, the policy will be returned to the insured. The beneficiary cannot commute unpaid instalments unless given such a right by the insured in the instrument by which payment by instalments is directed. If the beneficiary should die before the full amount of instalments called for under the selection made by the insured shall have been paid, the remainder of the instalments will be commuted on the basis of four per cent compound interest and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. If this policy be on the endowment plan, and the insured survive the endowment period, but die before receiving all the instalments called for hereunder, the remainder of the instalments may be commuted as above and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I have verified each of the foregoing answers made in the application for insurance and to the Medical Examiner, and adopt them as my own, whether written by me or not, and represent that they are full, complete and true answers to the questions against which they are written. And I agree that their truth shall be a condition precedent to any binding contract issued upon the faith of the said answers.

I expressly waive, on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued hereunder, all provisions of law forbidding any physician or other person who has attended or examined me, or who may hereafter attend or examine me, from disclosing any knowledge or information which he thereby acquired.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Scandia Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS—DISABILITY BENEFITS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $361.70.

AGE, 35.

Scandia Life Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill., hereby agrees to pay ten thousand dollars to Mary Smith, wife of the insured, upon receipt at its home office in Chicago, Ill., of due proof of the death, while this policy is in force, of Henry Smith, the insured, with the right on the part of the insured to change the beneficiary as hereinafter provided.

PARTICIPATING IN SURPLUS.—Beginning with the end of the second policy year and annually thereafter, the proportion of the divisible surplus of the company accruing hereon shall be ascertained and distributed, and, at the option of the owner of this policy, the current dividend shall be either (1) paid in cash; or, (2) applied toward payment of premium or premiums; or, (3) applied to the purchase of a participating paid-up addition to the policy; or, (4) left on deposit with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, compounded annually and payable at maturity of the policy but withdrawable on any anniversary of its date of issue. Unless the owner hereof shall elect one of the foregoing options within three months after the company shall have mailed a written notice requiring such election, the dividend shall be paid in cash.

PAID-UP AND ENDOWMENT OPTIONS.—Whenever at the end of any policy year the reserve on this policy and on any outstanding dividend additions, together with accumulated dividend deposits, shall equal or exceed the corresponding net single premium for this policy at the attained age, the company will, upon written request being made, endorse this policy as a fully paid-up participating policy (subject to any existing indebtedness) and any excess of such total value over the premium named shall be paid in cash; or, whenever said total value at the end of any policy year shall equal or exceed the face amount of this policy, the company, upon a full and valid surrender of the policy and all claims thereunder, will pay, as a matured endowment, the amount of said total value less any existing indebtedness to the company on account of this policy.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—This policy does not take effect until the first premium shall actually have been paid during the good health of the insured. All premiums or instalments of premium are payable in advance at the home office of the company, or to any agent of the company upon delivery, on or before date due, of a receipt signed by the president or secretary of the company and countersigned by said agent. Except as hereinafter provided, the payment of any premium or instalment of premium shall not maintain this policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable.

GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days, subject to an interest charge at the rate of six per cent per annum, shall be granted for the payment of every premium or instalment of premium, except the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occurs within the days of grace the overdue premium and the unpaid portion of the premium for the current policy year, if any, shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy, if not previously surrendered, may be revived at any time within five years from date of default in payment of premium upon production of insurability satisfactory to the company, and the payment of the arrears of premiums with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum: any indebtedness which existed hereon at date of default, together with interest at the same rate to date of reinstatement, to be, at the option of the owner, either repaid in cash, or, if the loan value of the policy is sufficient, continued as an indebtedness against the policy.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year from the date hereof this policy shall be incontestable, except for non-payment of premium. During one year from the date hereof the liability of the company in case of death by the insured's own hand or act, whether sane or insane, shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid hereon.

CASH LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid and while this policy is in force, the company will advance on proper assignment of the policy, and on the sole security hereof, any amount not exceeding the cash value of the policy at the end of the current policy year. Any existing indebtedness to the company on or secured by this policy and any unpaid portion of the said current policy year's premium shall be paid out of such advance. Interest on the loan at the rate of six per cent per annum will be collected in advance to the end of the current policy year, and shall be payable at the same rate annually in advance thereafter, and if not so paid shall be added to the existing loan and bear interest at the same rate. Failure to repay any such advance or interest thereon shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company at the time of such failure shall equal or exceed the then loan value of the policy, nor until thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured of and the assignee, if any. The granting of any loan may be deferred by the company for not exceeding sixty days after the application therefor is made, unless the loan be solely for the purpose of paying premiums due on policies in this company.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOANS.—After the third year if any premium or premiums on this policy be not paid in cash, or otherwise settled for when due or within the days of grace, the company will charge up such premium or premiums with six per cent per annum interest in advance against the then loan value of the policy as stated above, provided that such loan value is sufficient. Any premium or premiums so charged shall be considered as a loan upon the policy and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as any loan made in accordance with the "cash loans" provision above. This automatic premium loan privilege is granted at the request of the insured in his application for this insurance, but may be revoked at any time upon written notice to the company at its home office; provided that such revocation shall not affect any loan previously made under this privilege.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, the owner, within two months after the date to which premiums have been paid, may elect (such election to be in writing) either: (a) To surrender this policy for its cash value less any indebtedness to the company hereon, (the balance being herein-after referred to as the "net cash value"); or, (b) to have the insurance continued in force from said date as non-participating term insurance, without the right to loans or cash value, for an amount equal to the face amount of this policy and any outstanding dividend additions less any indebtedness to the company hereon; or (c) to have the insurance continued for a reduced amount as non-participating paid-up insurance payable at the same time and under the same conditions as this policy. The cash value under option (a), after premiums have been paid for three full years or more, will be the reserve at the date to which premiums have been paid for the face amount of this policy and for any existing dividend additions hereto. The term for which the insurance will be continued under option (b) or the amount for which the insurance will be continued under option (c) will be such as the net cash value obtainable under option (a) will purchase at the attained age of the insured when applied as a net single premium according to the three and one-half per cent American Experience Table of Mortality. If this policy shall not within the aforesaid two months either have been surrendered to the company at its home office for its cash value as provided in option (a), or continued as paid-up insurance for a reduced amount as provided in option (c), the insurance will be automatically continued as non-participating term insurance as provided in option (b). The company may in its discretion defer the payment of the cash value of this policy for not exceeding sixty days after the application therefor is made.

TABLE OF GUARANTEED LOAN VALUES AND SURRENDER OPTIONS.

The figures in the following table are computed in accordance with the above provisions and upon the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy, and that there are no outstanding dividend additions. Due allowance will be made in computing benefits from this table for any portion of a year's premium paid over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated.

RESERVE STANDARD.—The reserve on this policy shall be based upon the three and one-half per cent American Experience Table of Mortality and shall during the premium-paying period be computed in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the state of Illinois for the modification of the preliminary term method of valuation. Subject to such modification the first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured shall have the right at any time while this policy is in force and not assigned to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, original or substituted, by filing with the company a written request for the change desired and presenting the policy for endorsement. Such change shall take effect only when endorsed on the policy by the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cease. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured, unless otherwise expressly stipulated in this policy.

SETTLEMENT.—This policy is payable at the home office of the company in Chicago, Ill. Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be deducted in any settlement hereunder; any part of the premium for the insurance year remaining unpaid at the death of the insured shall be considered an indebtedness to the company hereunder.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured was misstated in the application for this policy, the amount payable hereunder shall be the insurance which the actual premium paid would have purchased at the true age of the insured. Age will be admitted on satisfactory proof.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and both copies sent to the home office, one to be retained by the company and the other to be returned. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment, and any claim arising under an assignment will be subject to proof of interest and extent thereof.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—No agent has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any other policy of insurance, or to extend the time for paying a premium, nor can this policy be varied or altered or its conditions waived or extended in any respect, except by the written agreement of the company signed by the president or secretary.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application hereof, a copy of which is endorsed hereon or attached hereto, constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall void this policy unless contained in the written application hereof and a copy of the application is endorsed on or attached to this policy when issued.

INSTALMENT PRIVILEGES.—The insured at any time while this policy is in force and not assigned on written notice to the company and the return of the policy for such endorsement may change the mode of payment of the proceeds hereof as a death claim from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page hereof, to payment either by (1) equal annual instalments for a specified number of years in accordance with the following "table of limited instalments"; or, (2) equal annual instalments for a fixed period of twenty-five years and so long thereafter as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with the following "table of continuous instalments." The payment of the first instalment under either method shall be made immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments annually thereafter. The beneficiary can neither commute nor assign unpaid instalments, unless written authority therefor is filed with the company by the insured; but in the event of the death of the beneficiary before having received the full number of instalments certainly payable, the unpaid instalments certain, unless otherwise agreed in writing, shall be commuted and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. In commuting instalments the basis of interest shall be three and one-half per cent compounded annually. No commutation will be made during the life of the beneficiary when method (2) has been selected, except as to instalments payable during the fixed period of twenty-five years. Payment under method (2) cannot be selected if there is more than one beneficiary, or if the beneficiary is a corporation or a firm. The following tables are based upon $1000 of insurance and will apply pro rata to the amount payable under this policy, in event of the death of the insured while this policy is in force. If, however, the amount due is less than $500, it shall be paid in one sum and not in instalments.

* ILLUSTRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary should be thirty-five years of age last birthday, the amount of each annual instalment will be $47.79 for each $1000 of insurance, payable during the entire life-time of the beneficiary, but if the beneficiary should die before twenty-five instalments shall have been paid, unless directed otherwise, the company will pay the commuted value of the remainder of the twenty-five instalments in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

DISABILITY BENEFIT.—After one full year's premium shall have been paid and before default in payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty years, shall furnish to the company due proof that he has become totally disabled by bodily injury or disease so that he is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from performing any work for compensation or profit or from following any gainful occupation, the company by endorsement hereon will agree to pay for the insured the subsequent premiums, if any, as they shall become due. It is expressly provided, however, that as often as required by the company, the insured shall furnish satisfactory proof of the continuance of such total disability; and if the insured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's obligation to pay the premiums shall thereupon cease and the insured shall resume payment of the premiums on the first premium due date following such recovery. Any premium or premiums paid by the company as above provided shall not be a lien on the policy, and the loan and surrender values provided herein shall be the same as though premiums had been paid in cash. In addition to, or independently of, all other causes of total and permanent disability, the company will consider the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists, or both feet at or above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision. Upon the insured's attaining the age of sixty years, this disability provision shall be automatically cancelled, and any subsequent annual premium or premiums falling due under this policy will be reduced twenty-five cents for each one thousand dollars of insurance; or on any anniversary of said policy, this disability provision may be cancelled in writing by the insured, in which event the policy shall be returned to the company for endorsement, and all subsequent annual premiums falling due will be reduced twenty-five cents for each one thousand dollars of insurance hereunder.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment of the first premium of three hundred sixty-one dollars and seventy cents, constituting payment for the period terminating on the first day of March in the year 1916, and the payment of a like sum on said date and annually thereafter during the continuance of this policy until premiums for twenty years from the effective date hereof shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured. Any premium as above set forth may be paid in advance instalments, semi-annually or quarterly as follows: $188.10 semi-annually; or $95.90 quarterly. The insurance covered by the foregoing premiums shall be term insurance until the end of the first policy year and whole life insurance thereafter, the company setting aside for said year the reserve, if any, required by the reserve standard herefor.

EFFECTIVE DATE.—After payment of the first premium or agreed instalment thereof this insurance shall be effective from the first day of March in the year 1915.

Failure to pay any premium or instalment of premium when due shall terminate all obligations of the company under this policy except as herein otherwise provided.

In witness whereof, Scandia Life Insurance Company has caused this agreement to be signed by its officers this fourteenth day of April, 1915.

Scranton Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ENDOWMENT AT 80.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $340.70. AGE, 33.

Scranton Life Insurance Company by this contract of insurance agrees to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars, at its home office in the city of Scranton, Pa., upon receipt of due proofs of the death during the continuance of this policy of John Doe, the insured, of Scranton, county of Lackawanna, State of Pennsylvania, to the beneficiary, Mary Doe, wife of the insured, if living, or in the event of her prior death, then to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured; or the company agrees to pay, on the first day of January, 1959, the sum of ten thousand dollars, as an endowment, to the insured, if then living.

CONSIDERATION.—The foregoing agreement is made in consideration of the application for this insurance, a true and correct copy of which is hereto attached, and of the representations and contained in said application which is the basis of and part of this contract, and in further consideration of the payment in advance of three hundred forty dollars, seventy cents for one year's insurance from the date hereof. This policy will be renewed at the end of the first year, and shall continue until death or maturity, as above described, subject to the payment in advance of three hundred forty dollars, seventy cents on the first day of January, 1913, and the payment of a like amount thereafter on every anniversary date of this policy until twenty full years' premiums, including the first, shall have been paid hereon to the company, or until the prior death of the insured.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the conditions and provisions specified on the following pages hereof, which form a part of this policy as fully as if recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof the Scranton Life Insurance Company, of Scranton, has this first day of January, 1912, by its duly authorized officers, executed this contract at its home office in the city of Scranton, State of Pennsylvania, but the same shall not be binding until it is delivered to the insured during his lifetime and good health, nor until the first payment herein required has been received and accepted by the company.

BENEFITS, PROFITS AND PRIVILEGES.

DISABILITY PROTECTION.—If, while this policy is in force and before a default in the payment of any premium, the insured or his legal representative shall, on or before the first day of November in any year, furnish proof satisfactory to the company that the insured is disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be wholly, continuously and permanently prevented thereby from performing any work or service for compensation or profit, the company, by endorsement hereon and subject to the due payment by the insured of the premium for the then current policy year, will, from and after the next succeeding anniversary date of this policy, continue this insurance in force without further premium payment; and the surrender and loan values in the tabulated schedule herein shall increase from year to year in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid in cash by the insured; provided that notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the insured, or his legal representative, shall at any time, on demand, furnish the company due evidence of the continuance of such disability; and failing to furnish such evidence, the insured shall, on the first premium due date following such failure, resume payment of such premiums in cash, as required on page one of this contract. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot will be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision.

DIVIDENDS.—Five years from the date hereof, and at yearly intervals thereafter, the insured shall be paid in cash an equitable share of the accumulated surplus of the company, provided there shall have been no default in payment of premiums, and that this contract is otherwise in full force.

CASH LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time while the policy is in full force, will advance on proper assignment of the policy and on the sole security thereof, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than the reserve, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest, at the end of the current policy year on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto, less a sum not more than one and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy. Loans shall be made to mature upon the anniversary of this policy next succeeding the date of loan. Interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum and all other indebtedness hereon to the company will be deducted from any loan so made. Failure to repay any such advance or interest shall not void the policy unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month (not less than thirty days) after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the insured and the assignee, if any, at their respective addresses last known to the company.

GRACE WITHOUT INTEREST.—After this policy has been in force for one year, a grace of one month (but not less than thirty days) will be allowed in the payment of premium, but, during the grace period, any such overdue premium shall be considered in default. If death occur within the days of grace the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY AND ASSIGNMENT.—The policyholder may, without the consent of the beneficiary, effect a loan against this policy, surrender it to the company, receive any loan, surrender-value, or dividend-value, assign it as provided herein, or when right of revocation has not been waived, the insured by written notice to the company at the home office may at any time and from time to time while this policy is in force, change the beneficiary hereunder, such change to take effect only upon endorsement of the same on the policy by the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. No change of beneficiary shall be valid, if at the time of such change, this policy or any interest therein be assigned. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall immediately revert to and vest in the insured, unless otherwise specifically provided herein. This company shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any assignment of this contract or any interest therein, unless a duplicate or certified copy of such assignment is filed at the home office of the company. No responsibility is assumed by the company as to the sufficiency or validity of any assignment.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after fourteen months from its date of issue, except for non-payment of premium, and provided that any misstatement of the age of the insured will be adjusted by the company insuring such amount as the premium actually paid would have purchased at the correct age. It is further provided that in the event of suicide, committed while sane or insane during the first year of this contract, the limit of recovery shall be the premium paid.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse for non-payment of premium, it may at any time during the life of the insured be reinstated subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of past due premiums and all other indebtedness, outstanding at time of default, with interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum.

* Payable at age eighty, or at prior death.

GUARANTEED SURRENDER VALUES.—Upon legal surrender of this policy at the end of the third or any subsequent policy year, the insured may select in writing one of the following guaranteed options, according to the number of full years this policy shall have been in force at date of premium default. If no election be made within one month after premium default, the company, without action on the part of the insured, will continue this policy in force as term insurance for the period specified in the table, in addition to then existing paid-up insurance, if any, previously purchased by the application of dividend.

FIRST OPTION. CASH VALUE.—The cash value will be the reserve on this policy, at the date of default, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, with three and one-half per cent interest, less not more than one and one-half per cent of the face amount insured by this policy.

SECOND OPTION. PAID-UP INSURANCE.—A participating policy, requiring no further payment of premiums, to be issued for such amount as the cash value will purchase at date of premium default, according to said table of mortality and said rate of interest; such policy shall mature as an endowment at age eighty if the insured be then living.

THIRD OPTION. EXTENDED INSURANCE AND PURE ENDOWMENT.—The cash value will be used, according to the said table of mortality and said rate of interest, to purchase a non-participating policy for the sum of ten thousand dollars, to continue in force, without loan value or further premium payment, for the term specified in the table of extended insurance, said term including the days of grace; and the insured, if living at the end of such term, shall be paid in cash the pure endowment, if any, specified in the table. Within three months after premium default, the insured shall have the right to exchange this option for its equivalent of paid-up insurance as provided under the second option.

The figures in the table of guaranteed values, corresponding to the above options, are computed on the assumption that this policy, at the date of premium default, be free of indebtedness; otherwise, it is provided that any indebtedness existing against this policy at the time of surrender shall operate to reduce the above options as follows: (First) To reduce the cash value in the sum of such indebtedness; (second) to diminish proportionately the amount of paid-up endowment insurance; (third) to diminish the face amount of extended insurance (and pure endowment, if any,) in the ratio of such indebtedness to the net value of the extended insurance (and pure endowment, if any,) given in the table.

If the premiums on this policy be paid in quarterly or semi-annual instalments, due allowance will be made in computing benefits from the table for any such instalment paid in addition to the number of full years' premiums paid.

The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the whole or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year, and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Pennsylvania.

PROVISIONS.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—(1) No agent is authorized to make, alter or discharge this contract, waive any forfeiture thereof, make any contract binding on the company, accept any note in the payment of any premium, extend the time for paying the same, nor to assume its payment. (2) This policy and the application herefor constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured. (3) It is agreed that all statements made by the insured in the application for this insurance shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties; and that no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in a written application of which a copy has been endorsed upon or attached to this contract of insurance when issued.

PREMIUMS.—(1) All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company, but will be accepted if paid to an agent authorized to receive the same in exchange for a receipt signed by the treasurer or secretary, and countersigned by such agent. (2) Upon any anniversary of this policy, the mode of premium payment may, upon written request to the home office, be changed from annual to semi-annual or quarterly, or vice versa, at the premium rates in use by the company at the date hereof, but the payment of any premium or instalment thereof shall not continue this policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. (3) If any premium or instalment thereof be not paid before the end of the period of grace, then this policy shall immediately cease and become void, and all premiums previously paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided in this policy. (4) In the event of death, any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy-year shall be considered an indebtedness to the company against this policy.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be deducted in any payment or payments or in any settlement under this policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

All the statements made to the medical examiner, as well as those contained in part one of this application, are the basis and form a part of the proposed contract for insurance subject to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania. I hereby warrant all the foregoing statements and answers and all those that I made in part one of this application to be true, full and complete, and I offer said statements and answers to the company as a consideration of the contract which I hereby agree to accept, and which shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been paid to the company during my lifetime and continuance in good health, and the policy shall have been signed by the president, treasurer or secretary of the company, and issued. I hereby declare and agree that without the consent of the company first obtained in writing, I will not during the first year of said contract, engage in military or naval service in time of war unless drafted for such service, or travel or reside in the Torrid Zone, or make aeronautic ascensions, and I further agree that no statement or declaration made to any agent, examiner, or any other person, shall be binding upon the company or in any manner affect or prejudice its rights, unless such statements or declarations are reduced to writing in this application. I expressly waive, on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued hereunder, all provisions of law forbidding any physician or other person who examines me from disclosing any knowledge or information which he thereby acquires. I agree that in any distribution of surplus, the principles and methods which may then be in use by the company for such distribution, and its determination of the amount apportioned to such policy, shall be and are hereby ratified and accepted by and for me and every person who shall have or claim any interest in said contract. I certify that I have read the foregoing questions and that my answers and statements are correctly and completely recorded.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $20,000.

Security Life Insurance Company of America.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY WITH GUARANTEED CASH PAYMENT—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $379.70. AGE, 35.

Security Life Insurance Company of America hereby insures the life of John Henry Sample (hereinafter called the insured) of Chicago, State of Illinois, and agrees to pay ten thousand dollars to Mary Jane Sample, wife, in the manner herein provided at the executive office of the company, immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured and of the interest of the claimant.

This contract is made in consideration of the application therefor and in further consideration of the sum of three hundred seventy-nine and $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars to be paid in advance upon delivery of this policy, and thereafter to the company, at its executive office, the payment of a like sum on or before the fourteenth day of October, in every year until premiums for twenty years, including the first, have been paid. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance subject to provisions hereinafter.

CONTROL OF POLICY.—This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive any benefit, exercise any right and enjoy any privilege conferred on the insured by this policy.

Thirty-one days of grace, during which time this policy shall be continued in force, will be allowed for payment of all premiums after the first.

The benefits, stipulations and provisions on the following pages are a part of this contract.

In witness whereof, the Security Life Insurance Company of America has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary at its executive office, in the city of Chicago, State of Illinois, this fourteenth day of October, 1915.

BENEFITS, STIPULATIONS AND PROVISIONS.

PRIVILEGE 1. GUARANTEED REDUCTION OF PREMIUMS.—1. The company guarantees to reduce the premiums, which become due and payable hereon at the beginning of the second and each year thereafter, to and including the twentieth year, as provided in the schedule and as further provided in the coupon supplement attached to this policy.

PRIVILEGE 2. GUARANTEED REDUCTION APPLIED TO PURCHASE OF THE CASH PAYMENT.

—2. Twenty years from date hereof, this policy being then in force, and all premiums having been duly paid to that date and not otherwise, a cash payment of $2220 to the insured, if then living, will be guaranteed upon this policy, provided the insured has elected, after due notice therefor to the company prior to the first anniversary date of this policy, to apply the said guaranteed reductions to the purchase of said cash payment; the accumulations of the reserve for said payment shall begin upon payment of the second annual premium. The insured under this policy may then (First) surrender this policy, properly receipted, and withdraw $8130 in cash; or, (Second) convert the preceding withdrawal value to the purchase of a non-participating paid-up life policy of $13,930, provided the insured furnish evidence of good health satisfactory to the company; or, (Third) withdraw $2220, being the said cash payment guaranteed upon this policy, and continue this policy as a non-participating paid-up life policy. If none of the above options be selected within thirty days, the said cash payment plus interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum shall be payable at the maturity of this policy or be withdrawable upon request of the insured.

PRIVILEGE 3.—3. The insured may leave the said guaranteed reductions to the credit of this policy, with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum and payable at the maturity of this policy, but withdrawable upon any anniversary date thereof, provided election of this privilege be made prior to the first anniversary date of this policy.

TABLE OF GUARANTEES.—4. EXTENDED INSURANCE: AUTOMATIC.—After this policy shall have been in force for two years, it shall, upon non-payment of a premium when due, be automatically continued in force as non-participating paid-up term insurance, provided if the value applicable to this benefit be more than sufficient to purchase a period of extension for life, the excess shall be accumulated for a cash payment to the insured payable at the end of the twentieth year from the date of this policy, if he shall then be living. If any indebtedness exist against this policy at the time of such non-payment, then this benefit shall be recomputed, using as the value applicable thereto the reserve value of the original term insurance and cash payment, if any, less the said indebtedness.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—After this policy shall have been in force for two years, and provided it has not been extended as term insurance, the company will, upon written application therefor and surrender of this policy, issue a non-participating paid-up life policy, provided there be no indebtedness thereon. If said paid-up insurance shall exceed the face amount of this policy, the insured shall furnish evidence of good health satisfactory to the company.

CASH.—The insured may surrender this policy to the company within thirty-one days of default in payment of any premium and receive in cash the full legal reserve value of the actual extended insurance automatically available under this policy. Cash values allowed for complete policy years up to and including the twentieth year are given in the table and are subject to deductions of any indebtedness hereon.

This table of guarantees indicates the values if the insured has elected Privilege 2, that is, pays full premiums in cash and surrenders his coupons to purchase said cash payment of Privilege 2.

BASIS OF CONTRACT.—5. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the whole or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State in which the policy is delivered, provided that said term insurance shall expire upon the first anniversary date of this policy, and the contract shall then be renewed as a limited payment life policy by the further payment of premium as herein provided. This contract is based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest, and the loan, cash, paid-up insurance and extended insurance values are deducted from the reserve on this policy computed in accordance with said basis, less a deduction from said reserve of an amount not exceeding two and one-half per cent of the amount of insurance granted by this policy, except that no deduction will be made for the twenty-first and subsequent years.

PREMIUMS.—6. The insured shall have the option, at the time any premium falls due, of paying an annual, semi-annual or quarterly premium at the executive office of the company or to agents when they produce an official receipt countersigned by them, at the company's rates for this policy as specified below, and the receipt for said premium shall in all cases be signed by the president or secretary and will continue this policy in force only for the time until the next premium due date. Any semi-annual or quarterly premium remaining unpaid for the policy year of the death of the insured or any annual premium remaining unpaid if the death occurs during the days of grace shall be deducted from the amount payable under this policy. In case any premium should not be paid when due, according to the terms of this contract, then in every such case this policy shall cease and determine, except as otherwise herein especially provided. Annual premium, $379.70; semi-annual premium, $197.40; quarterly premium, $100.60.

PAID-UP POLICY.—7. Paid-up life policy within fifteen years. A non-participating paid-up life policy for the face amount of this contract will be issued to the insured, if he so elects prior to the following date, on the fourteenth day of October, 1930, upon the legal surrender of this contract to the company, provided the premiums be fully paid to said date and there be no indebtedness hereon, and provided further, that Privilege 2 has been duly selected.

LOANS.—8. A cash loan may be obtained upon the sole security of this policy at any time after three full years' premiums have been paid, this policy being then in force, and all premiums, including the current year's premiums, having been duly paid, for an amount less than or equal to the amount named in the table; but the company reserves the right to defer the granting of said loan for ninety days after the application therefor. Application for loans must be made in writing by the insured, and the loans will be subject to the company's loan agreement with interest at six per cent per annum in advance to the end of the current policy year. The amount of loan available shall include any, previous loans unpaid. Failure to repay such loan, or to pay interest thereon when due shall not void the policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value hereunder, at the time of such failure, nor until thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any.

INCONTESTABILITY.—9. This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premiums and except for naval or military service in time of war without a permit, which are risks not assumed by the company; provided that, in case of the death of the insured while engaged in such service without a permit, the amount payable hereunder shall be the reserve on the policy at date of death. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall void this policy unless it is contained in the application therefor.

ASSIGNMENT.—10. This policy may be assigned upon written approval by the company at its executive office, but the company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of the assignment.

BENEFICIARY.—11. The insured may at any time during the continuance of this policy, subject to the rules of the company regarding assignments and beneficiaries, change the beneficiary by written notice to the company at its executive office. Such change shall take effect upon its endorsement upon the policy by the company and shall be subject to the rights of the assignee, if any. If the designated beneficiary be not living at the time of the death of the insured, the amount then payable shall be paid to the insured's administrators, executors or assigns.

REINSTATEMENT.—12. In case of lapse or forfeiture of this policy for non-payment of premiums, it may be reinstated by the payment of defaulted premiums and by the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness, with five per cent compound interest, and upon receipt of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.

AUTHORITY.—13. This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached, shall constitute the entire contract. Only the president, vice-president, secretary or actuary can make or modify this contract and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above, and then only if in writing.

PROOFS OF DEATH.—14. Any cause of action at law or in equity arising on this policy contract shall be commenced within six years after such cause of action shall have accrued, provided that due proofs of death must be filed at the executive office of the company not less than sixty days before such suit shall be commenced.

MISCELLANEOUS.—15. In the event of self-destruction, sane or insane, or of death in consequence of violation of law, within one year from the date of the policy, the amount payable as a death benefit under the policy shall be equal to one annual premium on the policy and no more. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age. Any indebtedness under this contract existing at the time of the death of the insured shall be deducted from the amount payable under this policy unless otherwise herein provided for.

INSTALLMENT METHODS.—16. The insured at any time, this policy being then in force, may elect by written request on the company's form, that each thousand dollars of insurance due upon the maturity of this policy by death (after the deduction of any indebtedness thereon, if any) shall be paid to the beneficiary in accordance with either of the following instalment methods. In each case the first instalment shall be due upon the receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured, provided, that if there be more than one beneficiary this method shall not be available without the consent of the company.

Method 1.—In ten annual instalments of $116.17 each, amounting to $1161.70 for each $1000 of insurance as above; or Method 2.—In fifteen annual instalments of $83.89 each, amounting to $1258.35 for each $1000 of insurance as above; or Method 3.—In twenty annual instalments of $67.98 each, amounting to $1359.60 for each $1000 of insurance as above.

AGREEMENT FOR GUARANTEED ANNUAL REDUCTION OF PREMIUMS

The company guarantees to reduce the premiums, as provided in clause one, page two, of said policy, and as further witnessed by the coupons included in this supplement. Said coupons are based upon the payment of the annual premium upon its due date, but if the insured has elected to pay the premium in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, then said coupons may be used only at the time that the last semi-annual or quarterly payment for the current year shall have become due or shall have been paid to the company. No. 1. Each coupon will be accepted for its face value, when accompanied by the balance of the annual premium; or, No. 2. Each coupon will be accepted for its face value, when accompanied by the annual premium, and will be applied to the purchase of the cash payment referred to in clause two of said policy; or, No. 3. Each coupon will be accepted for its face value, when accompanied by the annual premium, and will be accumulated at three and one-half per cent per annum as referred to in clause three of said policy.

NOTE.—Either of Nos. 2 and 3 above must have been elected in accordance with the terms of said policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—It is hereby agreed that all the statements made herein (part one), and in any amendments or supplements hereto, and also those I make to the company's medical examiner (part two) which are hereby made a part of this application, are full, complete and true, and shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and are offered to the company as a consideration for the policy applied for, which policy I agree to accept, if issued as applied for, but the same shall not take effect until this application, which I agree to complete by submitting promptly to a medical examination, has been accepted by the company at the executive office in Chicago, Ill., and the policy to be issued thereon shall actually be delivered to and receipted for by me, and the first premium shall have been paid to and accepted by the company, or an authorized agent, all during the life and good health of the person herein proposed for insurance. I hereby waive, both for myself and for all persons who may hereafter claim any interest in the policy herein applied for, all my rights under any and all statutes that prohibit or restrict any physician who has attended me or prescribed for me, or who may in the future attend me or prescribe for me, from testifying in any court regarding my health, habits or any communications I may have made to him regarding the same, and I agree that such physician or physicians may testify as to all such matters as fully as if no legal prohibition or restriction on such testimony had ever existed.

PART II.—It is hereby agreed: That the foregoing statements and answers made to the company's medical examiner, are full, complete and true, and shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and are offered to the company as a consideration of the contract and to complete the application for insurance heretofore made.

Security Mutual Life Insurance Company (N. Y.).

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $362.20. AGE, 35.

Security Mutual Life Insurance Company by this policy of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, upon surrender of this policy properly receipted, at the home office of the company in Binghamton, N. Y., to Mary Doe, his wife, beneficiary, with the right of revocation, upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death, occurring during the continuance of this contract, of John Doe, the insured, less any indebtedness hereon to the company, and less any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment of the annual premium of three hundred sixty-two and $\frac{20}{100}$ dollars, and of the payment of a like sum upon each second day of August hereafter until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid or until the prior death of the insured.

FREEDOM FROM CONDITIONS.—This policy is free of conditions as to residence, travel and occupation.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by this policy for suitable endorsement hereon. Such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy, together with the application therefor, a copy of which application is endorsed hereon or attached hereto and made a part hereof, constitutes the entire contract between the parties, and shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue except for non-payment of premiums. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid or be used in defense of a claim under this policy unless it be contained in said application and a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to this policy when issued.

DIVIDENDS.—The proportion of the divisible surplus under this policy shall be ascertained and distributed annually and not otherwise. Upon payment of the second year's premium, and at the end of the second and of each subsequent policy year, dividends, at the option of the owner of this policy, and while the same is in force, shall be either: (1) Paid in cash; or (2) applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums; or (3) applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to the policy; or (4) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, and payable at the maturity of the policy or withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy.

Unless the owner of this policy shall elect otherwise within three months after the mailing by the company to such owner of a written notice requiring such election, the dividends shall be applied to the purchase of paid-up additions to this policy and the reserve value of such additions, at least equal to the dividends applied in purchase thereof, shall be withdrawable in cash on demand.

PREMIUMS.—Premiums are payable in advance at said home office, or to any agent of the company upon delivery, on or before date due, of a receipt signed by the president, a vice-president, comptroller or secretary of the company, and countersigned by said agent. The premium is always considered as payable annually in advance, but by an agreement in writing may be made at the company's published rates in semi-annual or quarterly payments. The payment of a premium or instalment thereof, shall not maintain this policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is due, except as herein provided. Premiums are deemed payable as stated in the application unless a written agreement providing otherwise is filed at the home office. If any premium remains unpaid at the expiration of the period of grace, the company will, upon written request by the parties in interest, apply the accumulated dividends under this policy to the premium payment then due, if sufficient to pay not less than one-quarter of an annual premium.

AUTHORITY OF AGENTS.—No person, except one of the executive officers of the company aforesaid, has authority to make, alter, modify or discharge contracts or, in event of lapse, to reinstate this policy, or to extend the time for paying a premium. Any modified form hereof shall comply with the laws of the state in which the insured is domiciled.

GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days, without interest, shall be granted for the payment of every premium except the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the days of grace, the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the age of the insured was misstated in the application, and there has been no adjustment on account thereof during the lifetime of the insured, the amount payable hereunder will be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

SUICIDE.—In event of death of the insured within one year from the date hereof by his or her own hand, whether sane or insane, the liability of the company shall not exceed the amount of premiums paid hereon.

LOANS.—The company within sixty days after application therefor is made, will loan upon the sole security of this policy, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, a sum not exceeding the amount specified in the table of loan values herein set forth, together with the reserve on any existing dividend additions under this policy, deducting herefrom all other indebtedness hereon to the company. Failure to repay any loan or interest shall not avoid this policy, unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the cash surrender value of the policy and any existing dividend additions thereto, and thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any. The whole or any part of a loan may be repaid at any time while this policy is in full force.

PREMIUM LOAN.—After two full annual premiums have been paid hereon, and upon the written request of the insured and assignee, if any, on a form furnished by and filed at the home office of the company prior to the expiration of the period of grace named herein, and upon the endorsement at said home office of an agreement to that effect on this policy, the premium or premiums falling due during the time any such request shall remain unrevoked, and not paid when or before due, will be charged against this policy as a premium loan, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, provided the tabular cash surrender value of this policy shall equal or exceed the amount of such loan, together with any other indebtedness on account of or secured hereby, and interest thereon. Any dividends held by said company to the credit of this policy shall be applied first to the payment of the premium, and future dividends hereon shall be applied to the reduction of the premium loan. The request for such loan agreement may be revoked at any time by a writing signed by the insured and the assignee, if any, and filed with the company at its home office.

EXCHANGE.—Upon written request of all parties in interest, this policy, while in force, may be exchanged on any anniversary without medical examination and at age of entry for any other form of policy then written, and not involving any other life, provided the actual insurance liability of the company shall not be increased nor the rate of premium diminished thereby. The difference between the reserves upon the respective policies shall be paid at the time of such exchange.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated after default in the payment of any premium, provided the cash value has not been paid and the extension period has not expired, upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness to the company hereon, and the payment of overdue premiums with interest at six per cent per annum.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—After three full annual premiums shall have been paid this policy may be surrendered by the owner at any time prior to any default or within three months after any default. Thereupon, (1) if there be no indebtedness hereon to the company, the owner may elect either (a) to continue the insurance in force for its face amount and any outstanding dividend additions, but without future participation, and without the right to loans; or, (b) to purchase participating paid-up life insurance payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy. The periods for which the insurance will be continued and the amounts of cash value and paid-up life insurance which will be allowed, exclusive of the application of dividend additions, are shown in the table of surrender values herein set forth.

Values for later years will be computed on the same basis and be furnished upon request.

(2) If there be an indebtedness hereon to the company, it shall be deducted from the amount which otherwise would be applicable as a surrender value to the purchase of temporary insurance for the period aforesaid, and the owner may elect either to have the remainder applied (a) to continue the insurance in force without participation and without the right to loans for the face amount of this policy and dividend additions, less the indebtedness; or (b) to purchase a proportionate amount of participating paid-up life insurance. In the event of any default in the payment of premium or otherwise, after this policy shall have been in force three full years, if the owner shall not exercise either of said options within three calendar months from such default, the insurance shall be continued as provided by option (a) in either paragraph (1) or (2).

Payment of the cash value specified in above table shall be made within sixty days after the application therefor is made, and shall be at least equal to the sum available for the purchase of paid-up life or continued insurance.

BASIS OF SURRENDER VALUES.—The values given in the foregoing table are based on the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three per cent per annum, in accordance with the select and ultimate method, less a sum not exceeding one per cent of the amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto. After the fifteenth year the surrender values will equal the full reserve, no surrender charge being made.

FRACTIONAL VALUES.—If in any policy year not less than one-quarter of an annual premium is paid hereon, a proportionate part of the increase in the foregoing values at the end of that year will be added to the values of the preceding year.

PAID-UP AND ENDOWMENT OPTIONS.—Whenever at the end of any policy year, and subject always to any existing indebtedness hereon, the dividend accumulations or the reserve on the paid-up additions, or both, together with the reserve on this policy, shall equal the reserve on the same basis on a fully paid-up policy of the same kind and amount at the then attained age of the insured, the company will endorse the policy as paid-up in full; or when such aggregate amount shall equal the face amount of this policy, the company will pay the policy as a matured endowment; provided, in either case, that proper request in writing is made therefor and a satisfactory release is given.

OPTIONS OF SETTLEMENT.—The insured or the owner, or the beneficiary after the insured's death, in case the insured shall have made no election, may by written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the net sum payable under this policy upon the death of the insured paid either in cash or as follows:

(1) By the payment of interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum on such net sum, payable at the end of each year during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and by the payment upon the death of the beneficiary of the said net sum, together with any accrued interest for the year then current, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns.

(2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum.

(3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of ten, fifteen, twenty or twenty-five years and for so many years longer as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum.

The commuted value of any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns.

Unless otherwise specified by the owner or by the beneficiary in making such election, the beneficiary may at any time surrender this policy for the commuted value of the payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as option (2) in the foregoing table; provided that no such surrender and commutation will be made under option (3), except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the period selected.

MONTHLY INSTALMENTS.—Semi-annual, quarterly or monthly instalments may be elected in lieu of annual instalments. The equivalent of each $100 of annual instalment will be two semi-annual instalments of $50.37 each, or four quarterly instalments of $25.28 each, or twelve monthly instalments of $8.45 each.

ENDORSEMENT.—No election, direction, designation, revocation or change affecting Options of Settlement hereunder, shall be operative unless duly made in writing and filed at the home office of the company (accompanied by the policy for proper endorsement) prior to or at the time this policy shall become payable.

PARTICIPATION.—All payments under options (1) and (2) and the stipulated payments under option (3) will be increased by such annual dividends as may be apportioned by the company.

In witness whereof, the Security Mutual Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be executed at Binghamton, N. Y., this second day of August, 1914.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—I agree: That this agreement, together with the answers and explanations given to the above several questions inclusive of those propounded by the medical examiner, and the written and printed statements to him made shall form the exclusive basis of the agreement between me and the Security Mutual Life Insurance Company of Binghamton, N. Y., and declare each and every of said statements and answers, whether written by my own hand or not, to be full, complete and true. That the policy hereby applied for shall not be in force unless actually delivered to and accepted by me during my lifetime and while in good health, and the first premium due thereon actually paid to said company, or its duly authorized representative.

PART II.—I hereby declare: That I have reviewed and understand all of the above questions and answers thereto, and they are hereby made part of my application for insurance in the Security Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Binghamton, N. Y.; that said answers and each of them, as written, are full, complete and true; that I am the person described above and in Part I of this application signed by me, and that each question in Parts I and II of my application was answered in writing before I signed the same.

WAIVER OF PREMIUMS IN CASE OF TOTAL DISABILITY.—After premium for one full year shall have been paid under this policy, and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, and before attaining the age of sixty years, if the insured shall furnish this company at its home office, Binghamton, N. Y., with due proof that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injuries or disease, so that he is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented from pursuing any and all gainful occupation, the company by endorsement on this policy will waive the payment of all premiums becoming due after the expiration of the then current policy year, during the continuance of such disability. In making settlement under this policy the company shall not deduct any part of the premiums so waived, and the loan and cash surrender values provided for under "non-forfeiture provisions" shall increase from year to year in the same manner as if the premiums so waived had been paid in cash.

This agreement is made in consideration of the payment of an additional premium of two and ⁴⁴/₁₀₀ dollars, which is included in the whole premium charged for this policy. The insured agrees that any medical examiner appointed by the company shall be permitted at least once in each year thereafter to satisfy himself by examination of the person of the insured as to the continuance of the disability, and if it shall appear to the company that the insured is able to perform any work or to engage in any occupation whatsoever for compensation or profit, no further premiums will be waived and all premiums thereafter falling due shall be paid by the insured according to the terms, provisions and conditions of the policy. It is further agreed that the insured may at any time discontinue the benefits provided by this rider, and thereafter the benefits hereunder shall cease and the premium on this policy shall be reduced by the additional premium specified in this rider, provided the policy shall be returned to the company for proper endorsement with written request therefor signed by the insured. In event the insured attains the age of sixty years without claiming the benefit of this rider, then the additional premium charged hereunder and the total disability benefits herein provided shall immediately cease and determine.

In witness whereof, the Security Mutual Life Insurance Company has caused this agreement to be executed and attached to policy No. 045673, this first day of February, 1916.

Security Mutual Life Insurance Company (Neb.)

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000, ANNUAL PREMIUM, $361.70. AGE, 35.

The Security Mutual Life Insurance Company of Lincoln, Neb., promises to pay ten thousand dollars in lawful money of the United States of America, at its home office in the City of Lincoln, Neb., immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death of James Wilson hereinafter called the insured, to May Wilson if living, otherwise to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured, provided that this policy is then in force.

This policy is issued in consideration of the representations and agreements made by the insured in the application therefor, and of the payment of three hundred sixty-one $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and of the further payment of the same amount on the first day of December in each year thereafter until twenty full annual premiums have been paid hereon, or until the prior death of the insured.

This policy having been in force two years and subject to the payment of the third annual premium shall, at the end of each year for which premiums have been paid, be entitled to a dividend from the divisible surplus as apportioned by the board of directors to policies of the same age and class. Such dividends may be at the option of the insured (1) applied to purchase additional insurance or, (2) applied in reduction of premiums or, (3) paid in cash. Unless the insured shall elect otherwise, the dividends will be paid in cash. Paid up additions may be surrendered at any time and their cash value applied in payment of premiums. When this policy becomes fully paid-up, the insured may elect to continue it as a fully paid-up participating policy entitled to annual dividends. This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is hereto attached, constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured, and shall be incontestable after two years from its date if the premiums, which shall never be increased, shall be paid as herein provided. The requirements, conditions and benefits printed or written by the company on the following pages are a part of this contract as fully as if they were recited over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof The Security Mutual Life Insurance Company of Lincoln, Neb., has caused this policy to be signed at its home office in the city of Lincoln, Neb., this first day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

REQUIREMENTS, CONDITIONS AND BENEFITS.

1. CONTRACT.—No change or modification of this contract can be made by any one except the president or secretary of the company at the home office in Lincoln, Neb., and any change so made must be in writing.

2. STATEMENTS BY THE INSURED.—All statements made by the insured in the application herefor in the absence of fraud shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the written application herefor and a copy of such application is attached hereto.

3. RIGHTS OF THE INSURED.—The insured, subject to the rights of an assignee, may at any time surrender, pledge or assign this policy to the company, or on written request to the company may change his beneficiary, but such change shall not take effect until the company, by its president or secretary, has endorsed its consent thereon. In no case shall the consent of the beneficiary be required.

4. SUICIDE AND SERVICE IN WAR.—If within two years from the date hereof the insured shall commit suicide while sane or insane; or if the death of the insured shall be the result of any illegal act, or if death be the result of engaging in military or naval service in time of war, without the consent of the company in writing, the liability of the company shall be only the amount of premiums actually paid hereon.

5. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company without notice, but will be accepted elsewhere in exchange for the company's receipt signed by the president, secretary, or treasurer, and countersigned by the receiving agent. Except as hereinafter provided, a failure to pay, when due, any premium or indebtedness against this policy shall render it void, and all premiums previously paid shall be forfeited to the company.

6. GRACE.—A grace of one month, without interest, will be allowed for the payment of any premium on this policy after the first year. The policy will remain in force during the period of grace, but if the insured should die during the period of grace, all over due premiums will be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

7. ASSIGNMENTS.—Any assignment of this policy, blanks for which purpose will be furnished by the company, must be made in duplicate and both copies sent to the home office for record, and until such assignments are actually received by the company, it shall not be held to have notice thereof. The company will assume no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

8. AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premiums paid would have purchased at the correct age.

9. REINSTATEMENT.—If default be made in the payment of any premium this policy unless previously surrendered to the company, may be restored to full force and effect upon written application to the company, and the payment with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, of all indebtedness against it, and all premiums in arrears; provided there is furnished evidence of the continued good health of the insured satisfactory to the company.

10. LIENS.—In the settlement of any claim whatever under this policy the company will deduct the amount of all indebtedness against it, and any unpaid premium, if any, or the current insurance year.

11. CHANGE OF FORM OF POLICY.—While this policy is in full force it may be changed at any anniversary of its issue without medical re-examination, to any form of life or endowment policy in use by the company at the time this policy was issued, provided the rate of premium is not diminished or the amount of insurance is not increased. For any such change the company will require the payment of the difference between the reserve of the respective policies and the new policy shall be of the same number, age at issue, and date of issue.

12. INDEBTEDNESS AGAINST THIS POLICY.—The phrase "indebtedness against this policy" and others of like import wherever used shall be construed to include all notes given to the company or to its agents for premiums or for loans made on this policy. Such indebtedness shall be secured by this policy whether or not it is assigned or pledged to the company or held by the company.

NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.

13. PAID-UP INSURANCE AUTOMATIC.—After three full annual premiums have been paid on this policy, if default be made in the payment of any subsequent premium, then, without any action of the insured, this policy will become a paid-up non-participating policy for the amount as shown in the following table of paid-up insurance values, provided there is no indebtedness on account of this policy.

14. CASH SURRENDER VALUES.—After the payment of three full annual premiums the company will, upon the surrender of this policy during the term of grace or within thirty days thereafter, pay to the owner the full cash value as shown in the following table of cash or loan values, less any indebtedness on account of this policy. Such payment will also include the cash value of any additions that may be standing to the credit of this policy. Payment of such cash value may be deferred by the company for not exceeding six months after the application thereof is made.

15. EXTENDED INSURANCE.—After the payment of two full annual premiums the company will, upon the surrender of this policy, during the term of grace or within thirty days thereafter, issue a non-participating paid-up term policy for the time specified in the following table of extended insurance provided there is no indebtedness to the company on account of this policy. Such term policy will not be entitled to loan or cash value.

16. CASH LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time, while this policy is in force, will advance on the proper assignment and delivery of this policy to the company and on the sole security thereof at a rate of interest not greater than six per cent per annum, which interest, if not paid annually, shall be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest, a sum equal to, or at the option of the owner of the policy less than the amount as shown in the following table of "Cash and Loan Values." The company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company on account of this policy and any unpaid premiums for the current year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the policy year. Such loan may be deferred by the company for not exceeding six months after the date of the application therefor. Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure and until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. No other conditions other than as herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such advance.

The above values are based on the American Experience Table of Mortality and Three and one-half per cent interest with no surrender charge.

The values as stated are for the face amount of the policy. If there should be additions to this policy, the values as above stated will be increased by the full amount of the reserve on such additions.

If there is any indebtedness on account of this policy, it shall be deducted from the cash surrender value as shown in the above table; the amount of paid-up insurance shall be such an amount as the reduced cash value will purchase according to the American Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum; or the extended insurance shall be for the face amount of the policy and for such time as the reduced cash value will extend the same, according to the American Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum.

17. Modes of Settlement when Policy Becomes a Claim.—The insured, or the beneficiary after the death of the insured, in case the insured shall have made no election, may, by written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the sum payable under this policy paid in one of the following ways: (First) By the payment of an annuity equal to three and one-half per cent of the sum payable under this policy, such annuity to be payable at the end of each year during the life of the beneficiary, and by the payment upon the death of the beneficiary of the said sum to the legal representatives of such beneficiary, unless otherwise directed in the said notice. (Second) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately in accordance with the following table for each $1,000 of said sum.

Any instalments payable according to either of the above tables, which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary, shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the legal representatives of the beneficiary. When an option calling for annual payments is elected, this policy shall be surrendered, upon its maturity, and a supplementary, non-participating contract shall be issued for the option elected. Unless otherwise specified by the insured, or by the beneficiary when making such election, the beneficiary cannot at any time surrender the instalment contract for the commuted value of the payments yet to be made.

18. When Paid up by Dividends.—When the cash value of this policy and the cash value of the paid-up additions together equal the single premium on the face amount of this policy at the attained age, it will, upon the request of the insured, be endorsed as a fully paid-up participating policy.

19. At the End of Twenty Years from the date hereof, The Security Mutual Life Insurance Company promises that if all premiums required by the terms of this policy have been paid, the insured, if then living, shall be entitled, subject to any indebtedness on account of this policy, and to the right of any assignee thereof, to select one of the following:

Options of Settlement.—(First) To surrender this policy properly receipted and withdraw in cash the entire reserve as shown in the table of "Loan and Surrender Values" and in addition thereto the cash value of any additions to the policy. (Second) To continue this policy and any paid up addition thereto as a fully paid up participating life policy entitled to annual dividends. (Third) To withdraw the cash value of any additions and continue the policy as a fully paid up participating life policy entitled to annual dividends. (Fourth) To apply the cash value of this policy and any additions thereto to the purchase of an annuity for the life of the insured.

If none of these options are selected within three months settlement shall be made as provided in option "Second."

The reserve liability of the company under this policy, unless otherwise provided by statute, shall be the preliminary term reserve, computed on the American Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent. interest.

All values stated in this policy are absolute guarantees.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART 1.—On behalf of myself and of every person who shall have or claim any interest in or under any policy that may be issued under this application by The Security Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Lincoln, Neb., I represent each of the above answers to be full, true and complete, and I agree: (1) That the foregoing application, together with the answers to be made to the medical examiner in continuation and forming a part thereof, shall be a consideration for, and the basis of, any such policy. (2) That in any distribution of surplus or dividends the principles and methods which may be adopted by the board of directors of the company, and their determination of the amount equitably belonging to said policy, shall be and the same are ratified and accepted. (3) That no statement or information given by or to the person soliciting or taking this application, or by or to any other person, shall be binding upon the company, or in any manner affect its rights, unless such statement, promise, or information is reduced to writing herein. (4) That the company shall incur no liability under this application until it has been received and approved, and a policy has been issued thereon; nor until the premium has actually been paid to and accepted by the company or its authorized agent during my lifetime and good health, notwithstanding any recital of such payment in the policy itself; provided, that when the premium has been paid in advance to an authorized agent of the company, and the company's binding receipt has been given by such agent, the liability of the company shall be as stated therein. (5) That if I commit suicide, while sane or insane, within two years from date hereof, the limit of liability of the company shall be the amount of premiums paid on the policy hereby applied for. (6) That if, within two years from the date hereof, I shall engage in the military or naval service in time of war without the consent of the company in writing, the limit of liability of the company shall be the amount of premiums paid on the policy hereby applied for. (7) That the contract evidenced by any such policy, and this application, shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Nebraska, the place where said contract is entered into, as well as the place where it is to be performed, being the home office of the company.

PART 2.—I represent on behalf of myself and of every person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued hereunder each of the above answers to be full, complete and true; that I am temperate in my habits, and that I am in sound physical condition and a proper subject for life insurance. And I expressly waive, on behalf of myself and of every such person, all provisions of law forbidding any physician or other person who has attended or examined me, or who may hereafter attend or examine me, from disclosing any knowledge or information which he thereby acquired.

Shenandoah Life Insurance Company.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING—DISABILITY.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $281.10. AGE, 35.

Shenandoah Life Insurance Company, Roanoke, Va., by this policy of insurance promises to pay at the home office of the company, in Roanoke, Va., ten thousand dollars, upon receipt at said home office, during the full continuance of this contract, of due proof of the death of John Doe (herein called the insured), of Roanoke, county of Roanoke, State of Virginia, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured (beneficiary).

This insurance is granted in consideration of the sum of two hundred eighty-one and $\frac{10}{100}$ dollars, paid in advance, for one year's term insurance, and in further consideration of the payment of a like amount, on or before the first day of February, in every year, until twenty annual premiums have been paid, and two hundred twenty-eight and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars on or before the first day of February in every year thereafter during the continuance of this contract, until the death of the insured; and in further consideration of all the conditions, benefits and privileges stated on the succeeding pages hereof.

This policy is absolutely free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or time of peace.

SPECIAL COUPON PRIVILEGE.—Coupons are attached to this policy, which will be accepted by the company on or after their respective due dates, in part payment of any premium from the second to the twentieth year inclusive. Otherwise the insured may accumulate the amounts and apply them in accordance with the guarantees and options hereinafter set forth. If a claim arises under the permanent disability benefit, the coupons thereafter falling due must be applied towards the reduction of any premiums paid by the company.

PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFIT.—If, after one full annual premium shall have been paid and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, the insured before attaining age sixty shall furnish to the company satisfactory proof that he has become totally disabled and shall, in consequence of bodily injury or disease, be permanently, continuously and wholly incapacitated for life, and thereby prevented from pursuing any gainful occupation, the company by an endorsement hereon will agree to pay the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter fall due under this policy during the continuance of such disability. Should the company assume the payment of premiums as herein provided the insured shall furnish proof of continued disability if called for as each succeeding premium falls due, and failure to submit such proof shall render this clause null and void.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.—A grace of one month (not less than thirty days) during which this contract shall remain in full force, will be allowed in the payment of all premiums, except the first.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary named herein, at any time during the continuance of this policy, provided it has not been assigned, change the beneficiary, to take effect only when such change and the written consent of the company thereto are endorsed upon this policy, at the home office of the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If there be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of this policy shall be paid to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid, subject to ninety days' notice at the company's option, while the policy is in force, the company will advance on proper assignment of this policy and on the sole security thereof, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than, the cash value at the end of the current policy year. The company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year. Failure to repay any such advance, or to pay interest, shall not avoid this policy, unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure. If interest is not paid annually, it shall be added to the principal as aforesaid and bear interest at the same rate.

AUTOMATIC NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, without action on the part of the insured, this insurance will continue from said date, during the term (including the period of grace) specified in the table of guaranteed loan and surrender values; unless the insured shall surrender the policy within three months after default, for the option of cash value or paid-up insurance as provided herein.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case of continued temporary insurance under the above provisions, this policy, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, may be reinstated within the first three years of the term for which the insurance is continued.

by payment of arrears of premiums with interest at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent per annum. If there was any indebtedness against the policy it may either be paid in cash with interest, or reinstated against the policy at the option of the insured.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, the owner, within three months after any default, and on proper surrender of this policy to the company at its home office may elect: (a) To accept the value of the policy in cash; or (b) to purchase paid-up insurance, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy; or (c) to have the insurance continued in force as term insurance from date of default, for its face amount, less any indebtedness to the company hereon, without the right to loans.

Loans will be granted at the beginning instead of at the end of the year, if so desired, provided the entire premium for the year has been paid.

The paid-up insurance and the automatic extended insurance quoted in the above schedule do not take into consideration the additional value which would be available if any coupons attached hereto have fallen due and have not been paid.

INDEBTEDNESS.—The figures in the above table give the values available at the end of complete policy years, if there be no indebtedness against the policy, and provided premiums have been paid in full for the number of years stated. Any indebtedness on account of this policy, outstanding at the time of any settlement due under this policy, including any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year, will be deducted from the sum insured, and also from the amount of cash or loan value or from the reserve used in the calculations above specified, and will reduce the amount of extended or paid-up insurance by the proportion that such indebtedness bears to said reserve.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—(1) The policy and the application therefor, including the medical examination, copy of which is attached hereto as part hereof, constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. No agent can make, alter or discharge this contract or extend the time for payment of premiums, nor can this contract be varied or altered, or its conditions waived or extended in any respect except by the written agreement of the company signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents or secretary, whose authority will not be delegated. (2) If the age of the insured has been understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age. (3) Self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from the date of issuance of this policy, is a risk not assumed by the company under this contract. (4) No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company, unless in writing, and until it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment. (5) Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at the home office, or to any agent of the company upon delivery of the official receipt of the company signed by one or more of the following officers, viz.: President, vice-president or secretary, and countersigned by such agent. If any premium, or any note or other obligation given therefor shall not be paid when due, this policy shall thereupon cease except as herein provided. (6) The plan of premium payment can be changed so that premiums may be paid quarterly or in semi-annual instalments according to the company's rates, or changed from such form to annual on any anniversary of this policy by application in writing to the home office of the company.

In witness whereof the company has caused this policy to be executed this first day of February, 1916.

OPTIONAL MODES OF SETTLEMENT.

The insured, or the beneficiary after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no contrary stipulation, may, by written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the net sum, payable upon the death of the insured, paid as follows instead of in one sum:

1.—FIXED INSTALMENTS.—In equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum; or

2.—INSTALMENTS TWENTY YEARS FIXED, LIFE THEREAFTER.—In equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years, and for so many years longer as the payee shall survive, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum; or

3.—ANNUITY.—As an annuity during the life of the payee, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of said net sum, the last annuity payment to be the regular payment immediately preceding the death of the payee.

SUPPLEMENTARY CONTRACT.—When any option calling for annual payments is elected, this policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity, and a supplementary non-participating contract shall be issued for the option elected, which shall specify to whom any unpaid instalments shall be paid in event of the death of the payee.

Unless otherwise specified by the owner or by the beneficiary in making such election the payee under options (1) or (2) may at any time surrender the contract guaranteeing the payment of instalments for the commuted value of the payments yet to be made computed upon the same basis as Option (1) in the following table; provided that no such surrender and commutation will be made under Option (2), except after the death of the payee occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $7,500.

Southeastern Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING— DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $302.20. AGE, 35.

Southeastern Life Insurance Company will pay at its home office in the city of Greenville, S. C., ten thousand dollars immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of John C. Calhoun (the insured) of Greenville in the county of Greenville, State of South Carolina unto Floride Calhoun, his wife (the beneficiary) if living, otherwise to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

Or the company will grant either of the following options, on the first day of February, 1936, at noon provided all premiums on this policy have been fully paid. (1) A cash surrender value of $5390. (2) A paid-up life policy of $10,000. (3) A life income of $434.70.

This policy shall be absolutely incontestable after one year except for non-payment of premiums.

This contract is made in consideration of the application for this policy, copy of which is endorsed hereon and made a part hereof, and the payment of the premium of three hundred two and $\frac{20}{100}$ dollars on the first day of February in each year during the continuance of this policy, or until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, and is subject to the privileges and provisions stated on the pages hereof which form a part of this contract as fully as if recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

This policy issued subject to disability clause hereto attached.

In witness whereof, the Southeastern Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its duly authorized officers, at its office in the city of Greenville, S. C., this twenty-fourth day of January, 1916.

PRIVILEGES AND PROVISIONS.

TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE.—From date of issue this policy shall be without restriction as to travel and residence.

GRACE.—In payment of any premium, except the first, on this policy a grace of thirty days will be allowed, during which time the policy will remain in full force (provided policy has not lapsed on account of the non-payment of other indebtedness).

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—While this policy is in full force and unassigned, the insured may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by written request. Such change shall take effect when endorsement thereof is made by the company upon this policy. Under a policy issued on the life of a woman the beneficiary cannot be changed to, or the policy assigned to the husband of the insured without consent of company.

SURRENDER OPTIONS.—After three full annual premiums shall have been paid the insured may within three months after default in the payment of any premium, but not later, surrender this policy, and (1) receive its cash surrender value, less any indebtedness to the company hereon. The cash surrender value shall be the reserve on this policy at the date of default less a surrender charge, which in no case shall be more than one and one-half per cent of the sum insured; or (2) receive paid-up insurance as is hereinafter provided, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy; or (3) receive extended insurance for an amount equal to the face of this policy, less any indebtedness to the company hereon, and for such term in years and days from the date of default as is hereinafter provided, but without the right to loans and cash surrender values.

The amount of paid-up insurance or the term for which the insurance will be extended shall be such as the cash surrender value, less any indebtedness to the company hereon, will purchase as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured at the date of default according to the combined experience table of mortality and interest at the rate of four per cent per annum.

If the insured does not elect one of the three above named options the following automatic non-forfeiture clause will apply.

AUTOMATIC NON-FORFEITURE CLAUSE.—After three full annual premiums shall have been paid on this policy, if any premium hereon, or other indebtedness, shall not be paid when due or within the period of grace specified in the policy, said premium and successive premiums or other indebtedness, as they become due, shall be charged as automatic policy loans with interest payable annually in advance, as long as the amount of the then loan value, in accordance with the loan privilege of the policy, and the table of loans set forth on the last page hereof, is sufficient to cover such loan and other indebtedness to the company. If at any time the amount of the then loan value, less all indebtedness to the company, be not sufficient to pay the entire premium then due, such value shall be used to pay the premium for a proportionate period; at the end of which period this policy will lapse. No grace will be allowed under this provision.

At any time while the policy is thus continued in force, payment of premiums may be resumed without evidence of insurability being required by the company, and in the event of such reinstatement, if any indebtedness against this policy, incurred through the provisions of this clause, remains unpaid by the insured, such indebtedness shall be a first lien in the company's favor upon the value of this policy, or the loan, with accrued interest from date of reinstatement, may be allowed to stand as a lien against a final settlement under this contract.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse by reason of the non-payment of any premium, or note given for any part thereof, and is not continued in force under provisions of the automatic non-forfeiture clause, it may be reinstated at any time, provided the insured shall furnish evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and pay all overdue premiums, and if required, any other indebtedness to the company under this contract to date of reinstatement, with interest thereon.

LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid in cash, and while this policy is in full force, the company will loan on the sole security of this policy, upon legal assignment of the same as collateral security, the cash value hereunder, any indebtedness to the company, and interest on the amount loaned to the end of the current policy year, being first deducted. Interest on such loans shall be payable annually in advance, and if not paid when due, shall be added to the amount of the loan and bear an interest charge. It is especially provided that the company shall have the right to defer any loan under this policy (excepting premium loans), or the granting of any cash surrender value under this policy for a period not exceeding sixty days after application for such loan or cash surrender value shall have been made. Failure to repay any loan or interest thereon shall void this policy whenever the total indebtedness shall exceed the then loan value of this policy.

AGE.—Any error made in stating age of the insured will be adjusted by the company paying such amount as the premiums actually paid would purchase at the premium rate for the correct age according to the company's present standard.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and sent to the home office, one copy to be retained by the company and the other to be returned to the insured. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

SUICIDE.—In the event of self destruction, whether sane or insane, within one year from the date of this contract, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premium paid hereon.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—This policy shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been actually paid and this contract delivered and accepted during the lifetime and good health of the insured. All premiums are payable at the home office of the company, but they may be paid to an authorized agent in exchange for an official receipt therefor, signed by the proper official of the company and countersigned by the agent delivering the receipt. Failure to pay any premium or note given therefor, when due, shall void this policy, and all payments made thereon shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided in the non-forfeiture provisions. Any indebtedness to the company on account of this contract, as well as the balance of the current year's premium, if any, will be first deducted in any settlement of this policy, or any benefit thereunder. This policy is issued on the preliminary term plan, and for the first year is term insurance, and in consideration of the payment of subsequent premiums as herein provided, it shall be continued as a limited payment life policy.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—Only the president, vice-president, secretary, actuary or treasurer has power on behalf of the company to make or modify this contract. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement of the insured shall avoid or be used in defense to a claim under this policy unless contained in the written application herefor, copy of which is endorsed hereon or attached hereto. The reserve to be held for the protection of this policy shall be the reserve according to the actuaries' or combined experience table of mortality, assuming interest at the rate of four per cent per annum.

This policy shall be held and construed to be made in the city of Greenville, S. C.

DISABILITY CLAUSE.

DISABILITY.—After the payment of one full annual premium, should the insured furnish due proof satisfactory to the company's medical director that he has become totally and permanently disabled by bodily disease or accident, and is thereby prevented from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company will allow the insured, while such disability continues total and permanent, and not otherwise: (1) To continue the policy in full force without further payment of premiums; or (2) after two years from date of such disability to receive the policy in ten equal instalments upon presentation of the policy and proper endorsement thereon, the first instalment being payable immediately and subsequent instalments annually thereafter.

If the insured should not live to draw all of the instalments, the remainder will be continued to the beneficiary, or commuted and paid in one sum.

No benefits for disability will be paid on account of partial or temporary incapacity, or in the event of total and permanent disability resulting from actual or attempted violation of the law, or from military or naval service in time of war; or after this policy becomes fully paid-up or is exchanged for a paid-up policy of any kind, or for total and permanent disability incurred after the insured attains sixty years of age. Any medical adviser of the company shall be allowed to examine the person of the insured in respect to any alleged disability.

In witness whereof, the Southeastern Life Insurance Company has caused this rider to be signed by its duly authorized officers, at its office in the city of Greenville, S. C., this twenty-fourth day of January, 1916.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is hereby agreed and warranted that should the company issue a policy upon this application, its interests shall not be affected by verbal statements made to its agents or others, or by the knowledge of such agent, but that it shall be affected only by the statements herein made (including those made to the medical examiner), which are hereby warranted to be true, full, and correct as facts, and they shall constitute the basis of any policy which may be issued hereon.

1. I agree that any policy which may be issued under this application shall not be valid until the first premium is paid to the company, or its authorized agent, and the receipt thereof countersigned by the agent, and delivered during my lifetime.

2. I also agree that if at any time I shall engage in naval or military service in time of war, I will pay an extra premium equal to that charged by the company in similar cases; and if this extra premium is not paid from the time of the assumption of the extra risk stated, it shall become a lien upon the policy without invalidating the policy.

3. Should more than one person claim an interest in this policy all claimants agree to enter their appearances in any suit of interpleader which this company may bring and failure to do so shall be a defense to a suit on this policy.

* Adopted October, 1913.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $25,000.

Southern Life and Trust Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS— DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $363.

AGE, 35.

Southern Life and Trust Company, Greensboro, N. C. This company hereby insures the life of the insured John Guilford of Greensboro, Guilford County, State of North Carolina, subject to the provisions within stated, for amount of insurance ten thousand dollars, payable immediately upon receipt and approval at its home office in Greensboro, N. C., of proofs of the death of the insured while this policy is in force, to the beneficiary Mary Jane Guilford, wife of the insured, if living, with right to the insured to change the beneficiary, or to such other beneficiary as may, according to the conditions stated herein, be finally designated and recognized by endorsement hereon, and if no such beneficiary be then living, then to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

Premium three hundred and sixty-three dollars. The stated premium shall be paid on or before the delivery of this policy, and annually thereafter on or before the tenth day of July in each year during the continuance of this policy, until twenty full years' premiums in all have been paid.

The privileges, options and provisions set forth on the second, third and fourth pages hereof form part of this contract and are binding on both parties hereto.

INTESTABILITY AND CONTRACT.—After one year from the date hereof this policy shall be incontestable for the amount due, if all premiums shall have been duly paid. This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is attached hereto, constitute the entire contract between the parties thereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid or be used in defense to a claim under this policy unless it is contained in said application.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been stated incorrectly, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

SUICIDE.—If the insured shall commit suicide, while sane or insane, within one year from the date hereof, this policy shall be null and void, except for an amount equal to the sum of the premiums paid hereon.

In witness whereof, The Southern Life and Trust Company, at its home office, in the city of Greensboro, North Carolina, has caused this contract to be signed by its president and treasurer, and to be countersigned by its vice-president or secretary, and dated the tenth day of July, 1915.

DIVIDEND OPTIONS.

ANNUAL DIVIDEND METHODS.—At the end of the second policy year and annually thereafter, if the insured is living and premiums have been duly paid hereon, this policy, if further continued in force by payment of premiums, shall be entitled to dividends as then apportioned, for use at the insured's option in one of the following methods: (First Method) To reduce the premium for the next policy year; or (Second Method) To purchase paid-up additional insurance, of the same kind as this policy; such paid-up additions may be surrendered at any time for their cash value, which shall be at least the amount originally applied to their purchase; or (Third Method) Left with the company, to accumulate at interest credited annually at the average net rate realized on its other funds. The accumulations thus created will be paid in addition to the amount provided for in this policy, in any final settlement, if not otherwise used, or may be withdrawn by the insured at any time.

AUTOMATIC PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS BY DIVIDENDS.—If thirty-one days after the due date of premium no selection has been filed at the home office of the company, dividends shall be applied according to the first method. The insured may, at any time, elect to change the method to be employed; provided, however, that if the first or the third method be employed at any time, the insured thereafter shall not be entitled to elect the second method without the consent of the company. When all premiums required by this policy shall have been fully paid, the dividends shall be paid in cash, unless the insured shall have selected either the second or the third method above provided.

DIVIDENDS APPLIED TO MAKE POLICY FULLY PAID-UP.—Whenever the reserve held on this policy, and on its paid-up additions, if any, together with any accumulated dividends credited hereon, shall equal the reserve on a fully paid-up policy of this same kind and amount for the then age of the insured at nearest birthday, then upon due request filed at its home office and the release of such dividends and paid-up additions, the company will endorse this policy as fully paid-up.

DIVIDENDS APPLIED TO MATURE POLICY AS AN ENDOWMENT.—Whenever the cash surrender value of this policy and of any paid-up additions hereto, together with any accumulated dividends credited hereon, shall equal the full amount of this policy, then or thereafter, during the lifetime of the insured, upon surrender of this policy and release of such dividends and paid-up additions at its home office, the company will pay to the insured or his assigns the amount of this policy as a matured endowment, less any indebtedness to the company hereon.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

POST MORTEM DIVIDEND.—On the death of the insured a dividend will be credited to this policy for the fraction of a year, if any, from the due date of the last annual dividend to the date of such death, provided at least one annual dividend has vested. Such dividend shall be that proportion of the last annual dividend paid corresponding to the fraction of the policy year elapsed, and shall be payable at the same time and in the same manner as the sum insured.

CASH OR PREMIUM LOANS.—After payment of premiums for three or more years while this policy is in full force the company will loan on the sole security thereof, properly assigned, an amount which with any existing loan thereon, and with interest to the end of the current policy year on the total loan, shall be equal to, or at the option of the owner less than the limit secured by the cash surrender value (Column 1 of the table on page three). The loan will bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum, payable on the premium-paying anniversary of the policy, and may be paid off at any time while this policy is in full force. If interest be not paid when due it shall bear interest, provided that at all times the entire indebtedness then outstanding shall be within the limit secured by the cash surrender value; otherwise non-payment of interest shall render the policy null and void thirty-one days after notice of such non-payment shall have been mailed to the registered address of the insured and of the assignee, if any. Loans in payment of premium shall always be made without postponement, but the granting of other loans may be postponed, in whole or in part, for a period not exceeding six months after application therefor has been filed at the company's home office, in case such course should appear necessary for the protection of the other policyholders.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOANS, WHEN THIS POLICY HAS BECOME ENTITLED TO LOAN VALUES.—Upon request of the insured and assignee, if any, filed at its home office prior to default in payment of any premium, the company, if any premium thereafter shall not be paid when due, shall first apply any withdrawable surplus to pay the same, and the remainder of the premium due, if any, shall be charged against this policy as a loan, if the loan value then available be sufficient to cover such advance; otherwise the company shall apply any withdrawable surplus, and any loan value then available, to pay the premium ratably for a shorter period, at the expiration of which this policy shall be null and void. Such loan shall be subject to the interest provisions in the previous paragraph. Notice of such advance shall be mailed to the insured and assignee, if any, and at any time while this policy is thus sustained in force, the payment of premiums may be resumed, without medical examination, but subject to payment of accumulated indebtedness or its settlement by regular loan secured by this policy. No grace shall be allowed in connection with this provision.

INSURANCE TO COVER POLICY LOAN INDEBTEDNESS.—The insured may obtain temporary insurance to cover any policy loan indebtedness against this policy on evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company. The said insurance shall not take effect until notification from the home office has been received by the insured and the proper premium therefor paid. The said insurance shall at no time exceed in amount the policy loan indebtedness and shall terminate on the next premium-paying anniversary of the policy, but may be renewed each year upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of the proper premium. Should the said insurance at any time exceed the indebtedness, it is understood and agreed that the company may cancel the excess without notice, returning any unearned premium. Should the policy loan be repaid, the said insurance shall terminate forthwith, any unearned premium being refunded. The premium to be paid for said insurance shall be for the attained age of the insured according to the table of rates given below for the unexpired number of months to the next premium-paying anniversary, any fraction of a month being considered as a full month, the attained age being the rated age of the insured at entry plus number of full years' premiums on this policy assumed to have been paid. The privilege of said insurance shall automatically cease at attained age sixty. At the maturity of this policy as a death claim, the said insurance shall be used to cancel the policy loan indebtedness. Premium rates for each month on the basis of $100 insurance as above:

GRACE.—In the payment of every premium after the first, thirty-one days of grace without interest are allowed, during which time the insurance shall continue in full force. In the event of death occurring within the days of grace the unpaid premium for the then current year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

REINSTATEMENT.—At any time after default in payment of premiums, unless this policy has been surrendered or its extension period has expired, it may be reinstated upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and the payment on reinstatement of all arrears of premium and indebtedness, with interest thereon at six per cent per annum, from date of default.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Subject to the interest of any assignee, provided the right to change the beneficiary has not been waived, the insured may change and successively change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by notice to the company, at its home office, in writing, accompanied by this policy, such change to become effective only when endorsed hereon by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured, unless otherwise expressly provided herein.

CHANGE OF PLAN.—Should the insured desire to change this policy to some other regular form of policy of the same amount, requiring the payment of a higher rate of premium yearly, he has, prior to default in payment of any premium, and subject to the interest of any assignee, the following options of conversion, without medical examination, before attaining the rated age of fifty: (First) To change to any such plan then issued by this company on the payment of the regular premium therefor, at the then age of the insured, less such yearly reduction of premium as may be allowed in consideration of the past payments on this policy; or (Second) To change to a new policy to be counted as from the same age and date as this policy and upon any of the higher rate plans of insurance now issued by the company, by paying the difference between the past payments under this policy and the corresponding payments that would have been required for such other policy, together with interest on such differences at the rate of six per cent per annum. Any loan value available by the terms of the new policy may be used in making settlement on conversion. Should the insured furnish evidence of continued good health satisfactory to the company, he can avail himself of either option at any time during the continuance of this policy.

NON-FORFEITURE PRIVILEGES.—After three years' premiums shall have been paid in full, if default shall be made in the payment of any subsequent premium, this policy will be entitled to the following privileges:

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—The insured on legal surrender of this policy to the company at its home office within thirty-one days after the due date of such premium may receive the cash surrender value (Column I below); provided, that the company reserves the right to defer such payment of cash surrender value, in whole or in part, with interest at six per cent per annum, for a period not exceeding six months from the date that written request therefor is filed with the company at its home office, in case the company should judge such course to be necessary for the protection of the other policyholders; or

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—In lieu of such cash surrender value, provided there be no prior indebtedness hereon, the insured may elect, by written request filed at the home office within the same period, and accompanied by this policy for proper endorsement, to have this policy continued from said date as paid-up insurance for a reduced amount, according to Column II of the table below, corresponding to the number of years' premiums paid; or AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If no election of paid-up insurance or cash value be made by the insured within the period designated, the insurance hereunder, including additions, if any, shall automatically be continued, from the date of default, for the period indicated in Column III of the table below, corresponding to the number of years' premiums paid. This policy so continued may be surrendered at any time for its full reserve value at the time of surrender.

CONDITIONED UPON THERE BEING NO INDEBTEDNESS HEREON.

If this policy has paid-up additions or dividend accumulations, its loan and surrender values shall be increased. Payment of part of a year's premium, not less than a regular quarterly instalment, shall ratably increase the values.

If this policy is continued in force beyond twenty-five years, this table will be extended on request.

* The maximum loan value is obtained by deducting interest in advance, from the values here given, to the end of the current policy year.

INDEBTEDNESS REDUCES THE VALUES OF THE ABOVE OPTIONS.—Any indebtedness to the company existing at the time of default in premium payment shall be deducted from the full cash surrender value, and the amount of extended term insurance or paid-up insurance, granted in such case, shall be reduced in the proportion such indebtedness bears to the full cash surrender value.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. This policy does not take effect until the first premium has been actually paid during the lifetime and good health of the insured.

2. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable at the home office of the company, but may be paid on or before the dates due to the company's agent in exchange for the company's official receipt, signed by one of the officers referred to below and countersigned by the agent. If any premium be not paid when due, this policy shall be void and all premiums forfeited to the company, except as herein provided. The premiums on this policy are computed on the basis that they will be paid annually, in advance, but for the convenience of the insured they may be paid semi-annually or quarterly.

3. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

4. MODIFICATION.—Only the president, a vice-president, the secretary or treasurer is empowered by the company to make this contract, or to modify any of its provisions, or to extend the time for paying any premium, or to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company in any manner whatsoever. These powers cannot be delegated, and must be exercised only in writing, which shall be the only evidence of such exercise.

5. SETTLEMENT.—Any payment or settlement hereunder shall be made at the home office of the company on proper legal surrender of this policy, and deduction shall then be made of any indebtedness to the company hereon, including, at the maturity of this policy, any deferred premium for the balance of the current policy year.

6. ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate, both to be sent to the home office of the company, one to be retained, and the other returned. Blanks for this purpose will be furnished when desired. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

7. The dividends on this policy shall be determined and apportioned by the company. No dividends shall be payable on this policy after default in premium payments, provided that, in the event of reinstatement, this policy will again be entitled to share in dividend apportionments.

8. Unless otherwise expressly provided by endorsement hereon, all rights under this policy, subject to any assignment hereof, may be exercised by the insured and for his sole benefit, without the consent of the beneficiary.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY—BENEFITS PROVISION.

Attached to, and made a part of policy No. 0789, amount of policy $10,000; life of John Guilford. If proof satisfactory to the company be furnished before default in payment of any premium that the insured, while under the rated age of sixty, has become wholly disabled by accident or disease, sustained or contracted after delivery of this policy, so that he has thereby become, and presumably will be for life, wholly, continuously and permanently unable to pursue or engage in any gainful occupation, or to perform any work mental or manual for compensation or profit (hereinafter referred to as "such disability"): (1) Upon written request by all parties in interest accompanied by this policy the company will agree, by endorsement hereon, to waive the payment of premiums as they become due during "such disability," but this policy shall be put into a special class as to dividends, and no further paid-up additions may be purchased, and (2) Six months thereafter if "such disability" continue the company will pay to the insured one-tenth of the face amount of this policy, and at successive intervals of one year after the date of payment of the first instalment, during "such disability" one-tenth of the face amount until the same shall have been fully paid; each instalment so paid shall reduce by the amount thereof the insurance in force, and the loan values and nonforfeiture privileges shall be proportionately reduced in amount. Any paid-up addition may remain in force until the last instalment is paid, when it shall be surrendered for its full reserve value. If at any time the cash surrender value of the reduced insurance is less than any indebtedness hereunder, the difference in amount shall be deducted from the succeeding instalment and the indebtedness correspondingly reduced. If the insured does not live to receive all of the instalments, or if this policy matures as an endowment during "such disability" and before ten such instalments have been paid, the insurance as reduced shall be paid, as provided on the first page hereof. (3) This policy must be forwarded to the home office of the company for the endorsement of each payment as the same becomes due. (4) Proofs of the continuance of "such disability" satisfactory to the company shall be furnished as often as requested by the company by written notice mailed to the registered address of the insured, and the company shall be permitted to examine the insured physically from time to time, but not oftener than once a year. If the insured neglects or refuses to furnish such proofs or to submit to such physical examination, or if it is established that the insured has wholly or partly recovered from "such disability" the company will discontinue payment of instalments and require the payment in cash of all premiums thereafter becoming due hereunder. The sum of all premiums previously waived upon the presumption of "such disability" shall thereupon become a lien upon this policy with interest payable annually.

(5) SPECIAL CAUSES OF DISABILITY.—The company will consider as "such disability" the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists or of both feet at or above the ankles or of one entire hand and one entire foot.

(6) MILITARY OR NAVAL SERVICE.—If the insured shall engage in military or naval service in time of war, the agreement as to benefits under this provision shall thereupon be null and void, and any unearned premium therefor shall be returned on demand.

(7) This disability provision is granted in consideration of a special annual premium of $4.00, which is included in the amount of premium required by this policy as stated on the first page thereof, and is subject to the same conditions as to payment except that said special premium shall in any event cease when the insured attains the rated age of sixty, or it may be discontinued on any anniversary of this policy on the written request of the insured accompanied by this policy for endorsement, in which latter event this disability provision shall become void.

INSTALMENT PRIVILEGES.—If this policy is not assigned, the insured, at any time while it is in force, or the beneficiary, upon the death of the insured while it is in force, may substitute for payment in one sum, payment by annual instalments as stated below, subject to the following provisions:

The first instalment will be payable upon receipt and approval of proofs of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments will be payable on the succeeding anniversaries of such payment thereafter; any existing indebtedness to the company on account of this policy to be deducted from the first instalment or instalments due. If the beneficiary should die before the completion of the instalment payments, the unpaid instalments will be paid thereafter to the executor, administrator, or assigns of the beneficiary. The insured may at any time subsequently change any selection of instalments as may be desired, as above illustrated, and may also revoke any selection, thereby making the policy payable in one sum. Each selection, change or revocation of selection must be requested by the insured in writing, and will not take effect until endorsed on the policy by the company at its home office. The beneficiary can neither assign nor mortgage the policy, unless such right is given to the beneficiary by the insured in writing, and is endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office, during the life of the insured. Provision may be made for payment in monthly, quarterly, or semi-annual instalments instead of annual instalments. The instalments as limited above, or the dividends in the case of continuous instalments, will be increased by the interest which may be apportioned thereto.

DECLARATION IN APPLICATION.

I declare that I am temperate in my habits and that my health now and ordinarily is good; and I agree that the above statements and the answers made, or hereafter to be made, to the medical examiner, in continuance of this application, are complete and true, and are offered to the company as the basis of the policy, should any be granted; that the methods which may be adopted by the company for any distribution of surplus and its determination of the amount apportioned to said policy are hereby accepted for every person who shall have an interest in said policy; and that all provisions of law forbidding any physician who has, or shall have attended me, from disclosing any and all information which he acquired or may acquire by such attendance, are hereby expressly waived, and such waiver is part of the consideration for any policy to be issued on this application. I also agree to accept said policy when issued and pay the first premium thereon, and that said policy shall not take effect until the first premium has been paid during my life and good health. I agree that if full settlement be not made for any premium when due, or if any check, note or other obligation given in settlement thereof be not fully paid when due, said policy shall thereupon become void except as expressly provided for in the policy; and that should I die by my own hand or act, voluntary or involuntary, whether sane or insane, within one year from date of execution by the company of any policy based upon this application, the liability of the company shall be held to be held to be waived and the policy null and void, except for an amount equal to the sum of the premiums paid thereon; that the premium or payment for the initial term may be used by the company to pay current death claims and expenses exclusively and that in such cases all necessary reserves may be accumulated solely from the subsequent premiums; and that the contract shall be held to have been made at Greensboro, in the State of North Carolina.

* Adopted June 5, 1915.

Southern States Life Insurance Company.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $263.50.

AGE, 35.

The Southern States Life Insurance Company of Alabama will pay ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness to the company, to Jane Doe, wife of the insured, the beneficiary hereunder, with right of revocation, at its general office in the city of Atlanta, Ga., immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of John Doe, of Atlanta, in the county of Fulton, and State of Georgia, the insured hereunder, while the policy is in full force.

INCONTESTABILITY.—The policy, if kept in force by the payment of premiums, shall be incontestable from date of issue, except in the event of self-destruction, whether sane or insane, within one year from such date, in which case the company will pay the amount of the premium received on the policy.

AUTOMATICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE.—After two full annual premiums shall have been paid on the policy, if any premium hereon, or other indebtedness, shall not be paid when due or within the period of grace hereinafter mentioned, said premium and successive premiums or other indebtedness, as they become due, shall be charged as automatic policy loans at six per cent interest, payable annually in advance, as long as the amount of the then loan value, in accordance with the loan privilege of the policy and the table of loans hereinafter set forth, together with the cash value of the accumulated dividends to its credit is sufficient to cover such loan and all other indebtedness to the company. If at any time the amount of the then loan value and cash value of accumulated dividends, less all indebtedness to the company, be not sufficient to pay the entire premium then due, such value shall be used to pay the premium for a proportionate period. No grace will be allowed under this provision. At any time while the policy is thus continued in force, payment of premiums may be resumed without any evidence of insurability being required by the company.

GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days, without interest, will be allowed in the payment of premiums (except under the automatically non-forfeitable provision) after payment of the first year's premium on the policy, during which period the policy shall remain in full force. If the policy becomes a claim by death during the grace period, the premium then due will be deducted in any settlement hereof.

DIVIDENDS.—The policy, if kept in force, shall at the end of the first year from the renewal date hereof and annually thereafter, share in the surplus as apportioned by the company, which apportionment shall be based upon the policy's contribution to the surplus funds of the company. Dividends may be applied either (1) towards payment of any premium due or (2) upon satisfactory proof of good health, to increase the sum insured hereunder, or (3) left to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest thereon compounded at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, and payable, in the event of death, with the sum insured, or withdrawable on any anniversary of the policy.

POLICY PAID UP BY APPLICATION OF DIVIDENDS.—Whenever, at the end of any policy year, the dividends left to accumulate to the credit of the policy, together with the accrued interest thereon, shall be sufficient to prepay all future premiums hereon, according to the standard then in use by the company, the insured shall be notified and may, at his option, so apply same.

POLICY MATURED AS AN ENDOWMENT BY DIVIDENDS.—Whenever at the end of any policy year, the accumulated dividends to the credit of the policy, together with the accrued interest thereon and the reserve, shall be equal to or greater than the original sum insured, the insured may, at his option, elect to have the same matured as an endowment for such combined amount.

SURPLUS PAID WITH SUM INSURED.—In the event of the death of the insured, all accumulated dividends to the credit of the policy, together with the accrued interest thereon, will be paid with the sum insured.

REINSTATEMENT.—The policy, provided it has not been surrendered to the company, may be reinstated at any time on application therefor, upon evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company, and upon payment of all arrears of premium with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum, and reinstatement or payment of all indebtedness thereon, outstanding at the time of lapse.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The beneficiary shall not, during the life of the insured, by virtue of the terms of the policy, have any vested interest hereunder. The insured, provided the policy is not then assigned, may change the beneficiary hereunder at any time, by filing with the company a written request accompanied by the policy; such change shall not take effect until it has been endorsed upon the policy by the company, whereupon the policy will be returned to the insured. The insured, without the consent of the beneficiary, may withdraw any surplus or other value, surrender the policy, effect a loan upon the same with the company or exercise any other right under the policy. If no beneficiary shall survive the insured, the payment of the sum insured hereunder, less any indebtedness due the company, shall be made to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT OF POLICY.—No assignment hereof shall be binding upon, or in any way affect the company, until it shall have been filed with the company, at its general office. Every assignment of the policy (blanks for which purpose are furnished by the company) must be made in duplicate and both copies sent to the general office of the company. One will be filed and one will be returned. The claim of any assignee shall be subject to proof of interest and to any indebtedness to the company, including advances of premiums under the automatically non-forfeitable provision, whether made before or after the assignment. The company will not be responsible for the validity of the assignment in any event.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the insured's age is mis-stated in the application, the company will adjust any settlement hereof by paying such amount as the premium actually paid would have purchased at the correct age, in accordance with the rates published in the company's rate book at the time of issue.

PREMIUMS, WHEN AND WHERE PAYABLE.—The policy shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been actually paid while the insured is in good health, and the possession of the policy is not evidence that the premium has been paid. All premiums are due annually in advance and payable at the general office of the company in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, but will be accepted elsewhere if paid to a duly authorized agent of the company in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the agent designated therein. Subject to the conditions in the policy the company will accept payment of renewal premiums as follows: One-half in cash on the due date of the premium and the balance by six months' note with interest at six per cent per annum, from date, or one quarter in cash and the balance in three notes of equal amounts, due three, six and nine months, respectively, with interest at six per cent per annum from date. Notes given as above must be for even dollars, the excess being included in the cash payment. If any premium or other indebtedness, or any obligation given for any premium, whether to the company or to any of its representatives, be not paid when due, the policy shall thereupon be void, except as herein provided.

INDEBTEDNESS.—The unpaid balance, if any, of the year's premium and all premiums for which notes have been given, whether to the company or to any of its representatives, or credit extended, and all interest and other obligations to the company remaining unpaid, shall be a first lien upon the policy and shall be deducted from any amount payable on account of the policy. All indebtedness to the company on the policy shall be subject to an interest charge of six per cent per annum, payable in advance.

AUTHORITY OF AGENTS.—No agent is authorized to make, alter or discharge this contract, to waive any forfeiture hereof, to make any agreement to bind the company or extend the time for payment of any premium.

CHANGE OF PLAN.—The policy may be exchanged on the due date of any annual premium, and without any medical examination, in accordance with the rules of the company, for any other form of policy then issued by the company, provided the amount of insurance under such policy be not greater, nor the rate of premium less than under this policy. Such exchange can only be made while the policy is in full force.

RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—The policy is free from all restrictions as to residence, travel, or occupation. No permit or additional premium will be required for military or naval service at any time.

LOAN AND SURRENDER PRIVILEGES.

LOANS.—Provided all premiums shall have been paid up to the then next anniversary of the policy, the company, at any time on demand, after the policy has been in force one full year from the payment of the first annual premium, will advance against the sole security of the policy, up to the respective sums mentioned in the table of loans herein set forth, less any indebtedness to the company. The interest upon all such indebtedness shall be at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable in advance. Any such loan shall be subject to the regulations of the company then in force in regard to policy loans. Unless the loan is for the purpose of paying premiums due the company, the granting of same may be deferred by the company for a period of ninety days after the receipt of the application therefor.

SURRENDER.—At any time after two full annual premiums shall have been paid hereon and while the policy is in full force, the insured shall be entitled, on written request and on surrender of the policy, to a participating policy, (1) for a fractional amount of insurance for the whole life of the insured, as shown by the table of paid-up values herein set forth, or (2) for the original sum insured hereunder, but for a fractional period, as shown by the table of period of extension herein set forth. These values shall be claimable only in the event that there be no indebtedness on the policy. If there be any indebtedness from the insured to the company, and if the policy is surrendered within three months after default on the part of the insured to pay any premium hereunder, the amount of such paid-up insurance will be such as the loan value, less any indebtedness, will purchase, applied as a single net premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at three per cent; or the amount of such paid-up term policy shall be the sum insured hereunder, less the amount of such indebtedness, and the period for which the insurance will be extended will be such as the loan value less such indebtedness, will carry the reduced amount according to said three per cent American Experience Table.

MODES OF SETTLEMENT.

MONTHLY INSTALMENTS.—If requested in writing by the insured or the beneficiary, the company will make any payments under the policy in monthly or annual instalments, at three per cent. interest. The insured, with power of revocation, or the beneficiary after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no election, may elect, by written notice to the company at its general office, to have the net sum payable under the policy upon the death of the insured, paid either in cash or as follows:

(1) By the payment of an annuity equal to three per cent of such net sum, payable at the end of each year from the date of the death of the insured, during the life-time of the beneficiary and by the payment upon the death of the beneficiary of the said net sum, together with any accrued portion of the annuity for the year then current, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns.

(2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with option 2 in the table following paragraph (3) for each one thousand dollars of said net sum.

(3) By the payment of equal instalments, payable at the beginning of each year from the date of the death of the insured, for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with option 3 in the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. Any instalments payable under options 2 and 3, which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary, shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. When any option calling for annual payments is elected, the policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity and a supplementary non-participating contract shall be issued for the option elected. Unless otherwise specified by the insured or by the beneficiary in making such election, the beneficiary may at any time surrender the contract guaranteeing the payment of the instalments for the commuted value of the payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as option 2 on the following table; provided that no such surrender and commutation shall be made under option 3 except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

This agreement is made in consideration of the statements and agreements contained in the application herefor, which is hereby made a part hereof, and of the payment of two hundred sixty-three and $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars, on or before the delivery of the policy, as the premium for term insurance for the first policy year ending with the twenty-seventh day of December, 1916, which insurance shall thereafter be renewed for the whole period of the life of the insured, without medical re-examination, by the payment of two hundred sixty-three and $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars, on or before the twenty-seventh day of December, 1916, and on each succeeding anniversary of said date, until the death of the insured. The premium hereon for the first year shall be applied to the expense account and mortality for the year.

Any premium due hereunder may be paid semi-annually or quarterly at the option of the insured, in accordance with the company's tables of semi-annual and quarterly premiums.

In witness whereof, The Southern States Life Insurance Company, of Alabama, at its general office in Atlanta, Georgia, has, by its president and secretary, executed this contract, this twenty-seventh day of December, 1915.

Southern Union Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—GUAR. ANNUAL REDUCTION.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $390.30. AGE 35.

Southern Union Life Insurance Company, Waco, Tex., by this contract of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, in Waco, Tex., as follows: To Mary Doe, the beneficiary, wife of the insured, immediately on receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured during the continuance of this contract. The insured John Doe, of Waco, county of McLennan, State of Texas.

SPECIAL DISABILITY PROVISION.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid, as hereinafter stipulated, and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premiums, if the insured shall furnish satisfactory proof that he has become wholly disabled or bodily injured or diseased, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company, by endorsement in writing upon this policy, will agree to pay for the insured the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. In such case the premiums so paid shall not be a lien upon this contract, and the cash loans and the values of this contract in the table on the second page hereof shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured. If, however, the insured recovers so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation during the premium paying period, the company's obligation to pay the premium shall cease, and the insured shall resume the payment of premiums in accordance with this contract on the first premium due date following such recovery.

This policy is non-forfeitable from date of issue.

This contract is absolutely free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

PREMIUM WHEN DUE.—This insurance is granted in consideration of the application herefor which is hereby made a part of this contract and the payment in advance of three hundred ninety and $\frac{30}{100}$ dollars, being the premium for term insurance for the first policy year ending on the eighteenth day of May, 1911. After the first policy year the insurance will be continued as whole life insurance upon the payment of the annual premium of three hundred ninety and $\frac{30}{100}$ dollars on or before the eighteenth day of May in every year during the continuance of this policy, until premiums for twenty policy years including the first have been paid.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—If premiums have been paid for two or more years the company will upon the request of the insured on the company's form therefor, and before default in payment of any premium hereon, advance any and all premiums hereon not paid in cash on or before the date when due or during the period of grace, together with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum in advance to the end of the current policy year and charge such advance as a loan against the policy subject to the same terms and conditions as any loan made under the "cash loan" privilege. However, the company will discontinue to so advance and charge up premiums upon the insured's written request, or if a premium so advanced and interest thereon as aforesaid together with all indebtedness hereon to the company exceeds the cash value of this policy at the end of the period which such premium would cover. While this policy is thus continued in force the insured may resume payment of premiums without medical examination.

CONDITIONS REGARDING PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company at Waco, Tex., or to an authorized agent of the company upon the delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by the authorized agent. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly, but should the insured not survive to complete premium payments for the current policy year, the amount necessary for such completion shall be considered an indebtedness hereon to the company. The annual premium is $390.30, the semi-annual premium is $202.96, and the quarterly premium is $103.43. If any premium is not paid on the date when due the policy shall be null and void except as hereinafter provided.

PERIOD OF GRACE.—In the payment of premiums under this policy, except the first, a grace of one month will be allowed without interest charge, but if death occurs during said month of grace the unpaid premium will be considered an indebtedness hereon to the company.

SURRENDER OPTION.—The insured may at any time after the third policy year surrender this policy within the period of grace for its full cash value or for a paid-up life policy.

CASH VALUE.—The cash value at the end of any policy year will be the same as the loan value at the end of the preceding year as stated in Column 1 of the table below, plus a proportional increase for any fraction of a year for which a premium has been paid and less all indebtedness hereon to the company.

PAID-UP LIFE POLICY.—The paid-up policy at the end of any year will be for the amount as stated in Col. II of the table, plus a proportional increase for any fraction of a year for which a premium has been paid. If there is any indebtedness hereon to the company the amount of paid-up life policy will be approximately reduced.

AUTOMATIC CONTINUED INSURANCE.—If a premium has not been paid within the period of grace and the policy has not been surrendered as provided above, the insurance will automatically continue as term insurance for the face amount hereof for such term as, at the end of any policy year, is stated in Column 3 of the table below. If premiums have been paid for a fractional part of a year, the term of continued insurance will be such as the net value of the tabular continued insurance for the last expired policy year, proportionately increased, will purchase at net single premium term rates. If there is any indebtedness hereon to the company the continued insurance will be for the face amount hereof less the indebtedness and for such term as the net value of the tabular continued insurance less all indebtedness hereon to the company will purchase at net single premium term rates. The continued insurance shall not be subject to cash loans.

REINSTATEMENT.—If any premium is not paid on the date when due, or within the period of grace, and this policy has not been surrendered, the company will reinstate the policy as of said due date at any time thereafter, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, together with the payment, or reinstatement of any indebtedness on this policy on said due date, with interest.

CASH LOAN.—At any time after the second policy year and while this policy is in full force, the insured can borrow from the company upon the sole security of this policy and proper assignment thereof any amount within the loan value specified in Column 1 of the table below, subject to the deduction of all existing indebtedness to the company on this policy and all unpaid premiums for the current policy year. Interest at the rate of five per cent per annum will be collected out of the amount of the loan to the end of the current policy year and be payable annually in advance thereafter. Failure to repay such loan or to pay any interest thereon shall not avoid the policy until the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the cash value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee of record, if any.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—This policy is issued with the understanding that the insured may, by written notice to the company at any time during the continuance of this policy, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, provided this policy or any interest herein has not been assigned. No such change shall take effect until it has been endorsed on this policy by the company. If all designated beneficiaries die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiaries shall vest in the insured, his executors, administrators or assigns.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and both sent to the home office, one to be retained by the company and the other to be returned. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

INSTALMENT OPTION.—The proceeds of this policy as a death claim may be left with the company in trust and will then be payable in annual instalments as set forth in the table of instalment options printed on the back hereof.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application hereof taken together constitute the entire contract. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the written application hereof.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

This policy is payable at the Home Office of the Company in Waco, Texas, and proof of interest of claimant will be required; any indebtedness to the Company will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or of any benefit hereunder. In case of death by self destruction, sane or insane, within one year from date of issue hereof, the amount payable shall equal the total amount of premiums paid. The reserve on this policy and the net value of the term of continued insurance and paid-up life policy hereunder shall be computed upon the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three and one-half per cent per annum. Only the president or secretary has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter made, unless made in writing by one of said officers.

This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred on the insured by this policy.

This policy shall be incontestable after it has been in force one year, providing the premiums have been duly paid.

In witness whereof, The Southern Union Life Insurance Company has caused this agreement to be signed by its president and secretary this eighteenth day of May, 1911.

THIS CONTRACT IS ISSUED ON THE GUARANTEED ANNUAL REDUCTION PLAN.—And if kept in force by payment of premiums in cash, the company guarantees that such reductions shall be as shown on the coupons hereto attached. If the insured shall elect to pay all premiums in full, without reduction, and leave with the company the amounts represented by the coupons on this contract, the company guarantees that this contract will be fully paid up after paying the premiums in cash for fifteen full years and delivering all attached coupons to the company. In case the insured should elect to leave the coupons to make this a fully paid up policy in fifteen years and should die while this contract is in force, but before it is fully paid-up as above provided, all of the coupons bearing date prior to said death shall be paid to the beneficiary with compound interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum in addition to the sum insured. In case the insured shall not elect as above provided, but shall nevertheless leave said coupons with the company, the same shall be payable, on presentation of the coupons at any time, with compound interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum for each full year said coupons are left with the company. This policy becomes an endowment at age sixty-four for $10,000 if there is no settlement at its maturity. If this policy be surrendered at the end of twenty years, with all coupons attached, premiums having been duly paid, the insured may receive either of the following special settlement options. (1) Cash not less than $8,130; (2) paid-up insurance not less than $14,180.

SAMPLE COUPON.—On or after May 18, 1912, Southern Union Life Insurance Company, Waco, Tex., will pay to the order of the insured under Policy No. 000 (or to the order of the assignee, if said policy is assigned), the sum of ninety and $\frac{41}{100}$ dollars, provided all premiums due on said policy up to and including said date have been paid. Payable at its home office.

INSTALMENT OPTIONS.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim, if not then assigned, from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page, to payment by annual instalments, as stated below. The annexed tables are based upon a policy of $1,000 and will apply pro rata to the amount payable under this policy.

CONTINUOUS INSTALMENTS.—Annual instalments to continue during entire lifetime of beneficiary, but twenty annual instalments at least to be paid.

The insured may subsequently change any selection of instalment benefits; and may also revoke any selection, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum. The payment of the first instalment shall be made immediately upon receipt of due proof of death of the insured and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter. Each selection, change, or revocation of a selection, shall be made by the insured in writing, and shall not take effect until indorsed on this policy by the company at its home office. The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments, unless such right is given to the beneficiary by the insured in writing, and indorsed on the policy by the company at its home office, during the lifetime of the insured.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree for myself and for any person who may have or claim an interest in any contract which may be issued upon this application, as follows: (1) That no statements or information made or given by or to the person soliciting or taking this application or by or to any other person shall be binding upon the company or shall in any manner affect its rights, unless reduced to writing and presented to and approved by the officers of the company at its home office. (2) That in case of suicide, committed while sane or insane, within one year from the date of the contract issued, the limit of the recovery thereunder shall be the premiums paid. (3) That every statement and answer hereinabove contained, and every statement I make to the company's medical examiner in Part II of this examination is true, and that the contract issued hereupon and which I agree to accept if issued as applied for, shall not take effect unless the first premium shall be actually paid while I am in good health.

Southland Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $307.90. AGE, 35.

Southland Life Insurance Company of Dallas, Tex., hereby insures the life of John Doe, the insured, of Dallas, county of Dallas, State of Texas, and agrees to pay at its home office, in the city of Dallas, ten thousand dollars to Mary Doe, wife, the beneficiary, (with right on the part of the insured to change the beneficiary) upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, provided this policy is then in full force and effect and is then surrendered and properly released.

This policy is issued in consideration of the payment, in advance, of the annual premium of three hundred seven dollars and ninety cents on the first day of May during the first year of this policy, and the further payment of three hundred seven dollars and ninety cents upon each first day of May hereafter during the continuance of this policy, until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the privileges and conditions set forth on the subsequent pages hereof.

In witness whereof, the Southland Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be executed as of the first day of May, 1914.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the insured has reserved the right to change the beneficiary, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company or to any agent of the company on or before date due, upon delivery of a receipt signed by an executive officer (president, a vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary) of the company and countersigned by said agent. The mode of premium payments may be changed, by the insured giving written notice to the company at its home office not less than forty-five days prior to any anniversary of this policy, from annual payments to semi-annual, or quarterly, or vice versa, at the premium rates and on the conditions in force at the date hereof. Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. The premium for the first policy year under this policy is the premium for one year's term insurance.

GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days, without interest, shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the period of grace, the unpaid premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—Upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, this policy, if it has not been surrendered, may be reinstated at any time after default, upon payment of arrears of premiums with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, together with the reinstatement or payment of any indebtedness and the interest thereon.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

CASH LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid, the company at any time while this policy is in force, will loan to the insured (or assignee if any) on the delivery of this policy and proper assignment by the insured (or assignee if any) and on the sole security thereof, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum payable annually in advance, a sum not exceeding the cash surrender value at the end of such policy year. The company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy, and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year. The granting of such loan may be deferred for a period not exceeding ninety days after receipt of application therefor, unless the loan is for the purpose of paying premiums due the company. Any interest if not paid when due shall be added to the principal and shall bear interest at the same rate, provided the entire indebtedness then outstanding shall be within limits of the cash surrender value. Failure to repay any such loan, or to pay interest shall not void this policy, unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value at the time of such failure, and until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any. The loan or any part thereof may be repaid at any time.

PREMIUM LIEN NOTE.—Whenever the net loan value of this policy shall be sufficient to pay one full annual premium with six per cent interest thereon for one year, the company will, before the expiration of the period of grace, accept a premium lien note in lieu of cash for such premium, said note to be a lien against the policy and subject to the same terms and conditions as cash loans, except that the policy need not be deposited with the company as a pledge. The total indebtedness on this policy, however incurred, shall never exceed its cash surrender value.

NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, the insured (or assignee if any), within one month after default in the payment of any premium or premium note may elect.

CASH VALUE.—(a) To surrender this policy for its cash value upon proper release signed by the insured (or assignee if any). Such cash value shall be equal to the net reserve thereon at date of default, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, less a sum not to exceed two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, and less any indebtedness to the company on the policy. The payment of the cash value may be deferred by the company for a period not exceeding ninety days after the receipt of the application therefor. The cash value shall be at least equal to the amount available for the purchase of paid-up life insurance or paid-up term insurance; or,

PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE.—(b) To have the policy continued in force from date of default, as paid-up life insurance. The amount of such paid-up life insurance shall be such as the net reserve on this policy at the time of default, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, less a sum not to exceed two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, and less any indebtedness to the company on this policy will purchase as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured according to the American Experience Mortality Table and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum; or,

PAID-UP TERM INSURANCE.—(c) To have the policy continued in force from date of default, as paid-up term insurance without the right to loans. The amount of such paid-up term insurance shall be equal to the face of the policy, less any indebtedness due the company under this policy. The term for which such paid-up term insurance will be continued shall be such as the net reserve on this policy at the time of default, computed according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum, less a sum not to exceed two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, and less any indebtedness to the company on this policy, will purchase as a net single premium, at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Mortality Table, and interest at three and one-half per cent per annum.

If the insured (or assignee if any) shall not within one month from date of default in the payment of any premium or premium note, elect one of the foregoing three options as provided in (a), (b) or (c), the insurance will be continued as provided in option (c).

TABLE OF LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.

The figures in this table are based on the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy and that the premiums have been paid in full for the number of years stated in the table. Due allowance will be made for the proportionate part of the year's premium paid over and above the number of full years indicated.

Values for later years will be furnished upon request.

The loan values provided for in this table for the end of policy years can be obtained (less interest) during such policy years, and as set forth in the above clause entitled "cash loans."

LOAN INSURANCE.—Whenever any indebtedness to the company has been incurred on this policy, the company will issue a certificate of loan insurance, not to exceed the amount of such indebtedness, subject to the following conditions: (First) The company must be furnished with satisfactory evidence of the insurability of the insured. (Second) The premiums for such loan insurance shall be paid in accordance with the following table of rates, same to be computed at the attained age of the insured at the time such loan insurance is granted or renewed, the minimum charge, however, to be not less than one dollar. (Third) The loan insurance shall be granted for the period from the time of issuance of the certificate of loan insurance to the next anniversary date of the policy but may be renewed from year to year upon evidence of insurability, and the payment of the premium for the attained age, but no loan insurance shall be granted or renewed

if the insured is more than fifty-five years of age. (Fourth) Upon satisfactory proof of death of the insured, such loan insurance shall be applied to the cancellation of the indebtedness against the policy. (Fifth) The company reserves the right to reduce the loan insurance to an amount not exceeding the indebtedness, in which case any unearned premium will be refunded.

For periods of less than one year, the premium shall be at the rate of one tenth of one year's premium for each month and fraction of a month.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy including the application, a copy of which is attached, constitutes the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue, except for the non-payment of premiums.

STATEMENTS.—All statements made by the insured, shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy, or be used in defense of a claim hereunder, unless it is contained in the written application and a copy of the application is attached to this policy as a part thereof when issued.

SUICIDE.—If the insured shall within one year from date of issue die by his own act, either sane or insane, this policy shall be null and void, but in such case the company will return the premiums actually received.

AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

CASH VALUE OF PAID-UP LIFE OR PAID-UP TERM INSURANCE.—If this policy shall lapse and shall be endorsed as paid-up life insurance or paid-up term insurance it may be surrendered at any time for its full reserve value at time of such surrender.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be deducted in any settlement hereunder. Any portion of the premium for the current policy year remaining unpaid at the death of the insured shall be considered as indebtedness.

RESIDENCE, TRAVEL, ETC.—This policy contains no conditions as to residence, travel occupation, or military or naval service.

RIGHT OF INSURED.—The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy.

AGENTS.—Agents are not authorized to modify this policy, or to extend the time for paying a premium, or in the event of lapse to reinstate this policy.

POLICY YEARS, ETC.—The policy years and all provisions for loan and surrender values shall be computed from the date of this policy.

MODES OF SETTLEMENT.—If there is no assignment of this policy the insured, or the beneficiary after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no election, may by written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the net sum payable under this policy upon the death of the insured, paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum on such net sum, payable at the end of each year during the lifetime of the beneficiary, and by the payment upon the death of the beneficiary of the said net sum, together with any accrued interest for the year then current, unless otherwise directed in said notice, to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. (3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years and for so many years longer as the beneficiary shall survive, in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum. Any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary shall be paid, unless otherwise directed in said notice to the beneficiary's legal representatives or assigns. When any option calling for annual payments is elected, this policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity and a supplementary non-participating contract shall be issued for the option elected. Unless otherwise specified by the insured or by the beneficiary in making such election, the payee or payees may at any time surrender the contract guaranteeing the payment of instalments, for the commuted value of the payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as option (2) in the following table; provided that no such surrender and commutation will be made under option (3) except after the death of the beneficiary occurring within the aforesaid twenty years:

Southwestern Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING— DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $299.50. AGE, 35.

Southwestern Life Insurance Company, Dallas, Texas, hereby insures the life of William Doe, of Dallas, county of Dallas, state of Texas (the insured) and immediately upon receipt at its home office in the city of Dallas of due proofs of the death of the insured occurring while this policy is in force, promises to pay ten thousand dollars at its home office in the city of Dallas to Minnie Doe, wife of the insured, as beneficiary, if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, subject to the right of the insured to change the beneficiary and subject to the privileges and conditions hereinafter set forth.

This policy shall be incontestable after the first policy year, except for non-payment of premiums or understatement of age.

This policy is unrestricted as to travel, residence and occupation of the insured in time of peace or war.

PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

I. PREMIUMS.—This insurance is granted in consideration of the payment in advance of the annual premium of two hundred and ninety-nine dollars and fifty cents, and of the payment of a like amount on or before the first day of November in each year thereafter until premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured, and in consideration of the application for this policy, which is hereby made a part of the contract.

The company accepts payment of premiums annually, or in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, and upon written request made at its home office, the premium payments in this policy may be readjusted accordingly at the end of any policy year. All premiums are payable at the company's home office in Dallas, Texas. The company may designate a collector to receive them elsewhere on or before the due dates, but no person is authorized to receive any premium on behalf of the company except in exchange for regular receipt signed by its president, vice-president or secretary, and countersigned by the designated collector. No notice of a premium, and no acceptance of a premium after maturity or elsewhere than at its home office, shall be deemed a precedent or a waiver of any provision of this contract, no matter how often repeated. Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable.

II. GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of one calendar month from the date when it would otherwise be payable shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, subject to a charge of interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, and during such month of grace the policy shall remain in force.

III. DISABILITY BENEFITS.—The company, by endorsement hereon, will waive payment of the premiums thereafter becoming due, if the insured before attaining the age of sixty years and after paying at least one full annual premium and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, shall furnish proof satisfactory to the company that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injury or by disease so that he is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby from performing any work for compensation or profit, or following any gainful occupation. Any premiums so waived shall not be deducted from the sum payable under the policy and the values provided for in section entitled "loan and non-forfeiture provisions" shall be the same as if such premiums had been paid in cash. Provided that, notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the insured shall at any time, on demand, furnish the company satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability; and if the insured shall fail to furnish such proof, or if it shall appear to the company that the insured is able to perform any work or to follow any occupation whatsoever for compensation, gain or profit, all premiums thereafter falling due must be paid in conformity with this contract. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot will be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision.

IV. SETTLEMENT.—Upon any settlement under this policy, all indebtedness to the company on the policy and all indebtedness of the holder of the policy to the company, and also any unpaid portion or instalment of the full premium for the current policy year, shall be deducted from any sum payable by the company. If the insured shall die by self-destruction, while sane or insane, within one year from the date hereof, the amount payable under this policy shall be the sum actually received by the company for premiums thereon, and no more. If the age of the insured be understated herein, this insurance shall be for such amount only as the premiums paid would have purchased at the true age and under the same table of rates.

V. LOAN AND NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—LOANS.—The company will loan to the insured upon proper assignment of this policy, and upon sole security thereof, at any time when the policy shall be in force, all or any part of the sum stated in column 1 of the table on the third page hereof, subject to the deduction of all premiums for the current policy year and all existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. The loan shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum payable in advance to the end of the current policy year and annually in advance thereafter. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid the policy until the total indebtedness to the company thereon shall equal or exceed its loan value. Completion of loans may be deferred for ninety days from date of written application for same unless proceeds are to be entirely used to pay premiums.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOANS.—If at any time after the expiration of the second policy year and while this policy is in full force any premium or instalment of premium shall not be paid or settled in any other way within the time allowed for its payment, the company, unless otherwise instructed in writing by the insured, will forthwith advance the amount of such premium, or instalment of premium with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum payable in advance, as a loan against this policy, provided the loan value hereof shall be sufficient to secure such loan with any other existing indebtedness and interest in advance on the total debt until the next premium or instalment thereof becomes due. In like manner the premiums will be so advanced and paid by the company and this policy so continued from time to time as long as the balance of the loan value hereof is sufficient to pay for one-quarter annual premium on this policy. At any time while this policy is thus continued in force, payment of premiums may be resumed by the owner of the policy without medical re-examination and all the rights of the insured under this policy will remain in full force and effect, subject only to the indebtedness hereon, the same as if premiums had been paid in cash by the insured. In any settlement of the policy, the indebtedness to the company hereon shall be a first lien in priority to the claim of any beneficiary or assignee. Such loan may be repaid at any time, but failure to repay it shall not avoid the policy until the total indebtedness thereon, shall equal or exceed the loan value, in which case this policy shall automatically cease and determine.

OTHER NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—If default shall be made in the payment of any premium or premium note after payment of premiums for three full years (there being no default if such premium has been paid under the automatic premium loan privilege above described) then (1) without any action on the part of the insured, this policy shall be extended as a policy of paid-up term insurance (without loan or surrender values) for the face amount thereof less all existing indebtedness and for such a term, beginning at the due date of the unpaid premium, as that the net value thereof shall equal the net value of the paid-up term insurance stated in column 2 of the table on the third page hereof less all existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. Or, (2) the company will pay the insured in cash the sum stated in column 1 of the table on the third page hereof, less all existing indebtedness to the company on the policy, for the legal surrender of the policy at its home office within one month from the date of such default. Or (3), the company will issue in exchange a policy of paid-up life insurance, in such a sum as that the net value thereof shall equal the net value of the paid-up life insurance stated in column 3 of the table on the third page hereof, less all existing indebtedness to the company on the policy, for the legal surrender of the policy, provided written application therefor is made by the insured to the company at its home office within one month from the date of such default. The reserves on this policy and all the net values above mentioned will be computed in accordance with the American Experience Table of Mortality, and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum.

TABLE OF LOAN AND NON-FORFEITURE VALUES.

If there be no indebtedness upon the policy, the loan and non-forfeiture values available thereunder will be as follows:

(Note:—The values stated in column 1 can be used only in payment of annual premiums on this policy until three full years' premiums have been paid. Loan and cash values after the twentieth year will be the full legal reserve of the policy, less all existing indebtedness to the company thereon. The amount of any such value will be stated upon application to the home office of the company.)

CREDIT FOR FRACTIONAL PREMIUMS.—If after the second policy year semi-annual or quarterly premiums are paid in addition to the premiums for complete policy years, the proportionate part of the current year's increase in the values will be added to the values of the preceding year.

LOAN INSURANCE.—Any indebtedness to the company against this policy may be covered by loan insurance as provided on the fourth page of this policy.

VI. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may have any beneficiary of this policy changed, and a new beneficiary designated by endorsement thereon at any time while the policy is in force and not assigned, upon making written application for such change at the home office of the company. The change shall take effect, and all interest of the former beneficiary shall cease, upon the making of such endorsement by the company.

VII. CHANGE OF MODE OF PAYMENT AS A DEATH CLAIM.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the policy as a death claim from payment in one sum as provided on first page to payment by annual instalments for a limited number of years or by continuous instalments during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, as provided on the fourth page of this policy.

VIII. REINSTATEMENT.—Unless previously surrendered, this policy may be reinstated at any time upon evidence satisfactory to the company of the insurability of the insured at the time of reinstatement, and the payment of all past-due premiums with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from their respective dates of maturity; provided, that any indebtedness to the company upon the policy existing at the date of such default together with interest shall constitute a first lien upon the policy as reinstated.

IX. ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy will be recognized by the company unless it be executed in writing in duplicate, and one of the duplicate copies filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

X. POLICY AND APPLICATION THE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the written and printed application therefor, contained in two parts, constitute the entire contract between the parties thereto. A copy of the application is attached hereto. All statements of the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. The president, vice-president, secretary, actuary, medical director, assistant secretary and assistant actuary of the company, by written instrument executed at the home office, have authority to make or modify this or any other contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium, but no other person has such authority; and the company shall not be bound by any information possessed by any other person nor by any promise or statement made by or to any other person at any time heretofore or hereafter. The insurance hereby granted is term insurance for the first policy year, and limited payment life insurance thereafter and the premium for the first policy year is to be treated as a premium for one year's term insurance.

XI. CONTROL OF BENEFITS.—At all times when this policy shall be in force and not assigned, the insured may receive every benefit and exercise every right conferred upon him thereby, without necessity of obtaining the consent of any designated beneficiary.

In testimony whereof, the Southwestern Life Insurance Company has caused these presents to be signed in its behalf by its president and secretary at Dallas, Texas, as of the first day of November, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

NOTICE.—The insured is requested to read carefully the copy of his application hereto attached, and to notify the company by a letter addressed to its home office of any mistake or erroneous statement therein contained.

INSTALLMENT BENEFITS.—At any time when this policy shall be in force and not assigned or pledged, the insured may change the mode of the payment thereof as a death claim, from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page, to payment by annual instalments, as stated below. In such case any instalments maturing after the death of the beneficiary shall be payable to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

The following tables are based upon a policy of $1,000, and the amounts shown thereby are to be increased proportionately for larger policies. These instalment benefits do not apply to policies of less than $1,000.

LIMITED INSTALLMENTS.—Annual instalments limited to the number selected. Any number from two to twenty-five may be selected by the insured.

Number of instalments	25	20	19	18	17	16	15	14	13	12
Amount of each instalment	58	68	70	73	76	79	83	88	93	100

Amount of each instalment	107	116	127	140	158	181	214	263	344	508

ILLUSTRATION.—If payment is to be made by twenty instalments, the amount of each will be sixty-eight dollars for each one thousand dollars of insurance. Total amount payable one thousand three hundred and sixty dollars.

CONTINUOUS INSTALMENTS.—Instalments to continue during entire life of beneficiary; twenty-five annual instalments guaranteed. (Payment by continuous instalments cannot be selected if there be more than one beneficiary.)

Age of beneficiary at death of insured.....	16 to 20	21 to 24	25 to 27	28 to 30	31 and 32	33 to 35	36 and 37	38 and 39
Amount of each instalment.....	$ 40	$ 41	$ 42	$ 43	$ 44	$ 45	$ 46	$ 47
Age of beneficiary at death of insured.....	40 and 41	42 to 44	45 and 46	47 and 48	49 to 51	52 and 53	54 to 57	58 and over
Amount of each instalment.....	$ 48	$ 49	$ 50	$ 51	$ 52	$ 53	$ 54	$ 55

ILLUSTRATION.—Under a policy for one thousand dollars, if at the death of the insured the beneficiary were thirty years of age at last birthday, the amount of each annual instalment would be $43, payable at least during the entire life of the beneficiary; but if the beneficiary should die before twenty-five instalments had been paid, the remainder of the twenty-five instalments would be paid annually to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured. Total payable could therefore not be less than one thousand and seventy-five dollars.

At any time when this policy shall be in force and not assigned, the insured may change or revoke any selection of instalment benefits theretofore made. No selection, change or revocation shall be made except upon written direction of the insured, or take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office. The first instalment shall be paid upon receipt by the company at its home office of due proofs of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter. The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments, unless such right be given expressly by the insured to the beneficiary in his written direction for payment by instalments. At the option of the insured instalments may be paid one-half each six months, one-fourth each three months, or one-twelfth each month during the selected term, instead of annually.

LOAN INSURANCE.—Any indebtedness to the company against this policy may be covered by loan insurance, and, upon due proof of the death of the insured, such loan insurance shall be applied to the cancellation of any such indebtedness. Loan insurance shall be subject to the following conditions

1. Evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company will be required. No loan insurance shall take effect until the insured shall have received from the company a certificate thereof.

2. Premiums must be paid in accordance with the rates in the following table. The premium for loan insurance shall be computed at the attained age of the insured at the time when such loan insurance is made or renewed, but will not be less than fifty cents whatever the insured's age or the amount of insurance. For periods of less than one year, the premium shall be at the rate of one-tenth of the one year's premium for each month or fraction of a month.

3. Loan insurance shall not be granted for any period extending beyond the next premium paying anniversary date of this policy, but may be renewed from year to year subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of premium at the attained age, but no loan insurance shall be granted or renewed after age fifty-five.

4. Whenever the loan insurance exceeds the indebtedness the company may cancel that portion of the loan insurance in excess of the indebtedness, and refund the unearned premium.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I agree, in behalf of myself and of every person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued in consequence hereof, as follows: (1) The company shall incur no liability upon account of this application or any policy issued in consequence thereof until such policy shall be actually delivered to me and accepted by me during my lifetime and good health, and the first premium thereon shall be actually paid to and accepted by the company or its duly authorized agent; but when so delivered and paid for the policy shall relate back to its date, and the first policy year shall begin with that date. (2) This application, consisting of Part 1 and Part 2, and the policy issued thereon shall constitute the entire contract; and the company shall not be bound or in any way affected by any promises or statements made by or to, or any information possessed by, any agent or other person, and not recorded in said application. (3) I hereby accept and ratify, in behalf of myself and of every person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued in consequence of this application, all the principles and methods which shall be adopted by the company for the apportionment and payment of any divisible surplus in which such policy may be entitled to share. (4) If within one year from the date of any policy issued hereon I shall die by self-destruction, sane or insane, the amount payable under such policy shall be the sum actually received by the company for premiums thereon, and no more.

This application is in two parts, Part 1 and Part 2, each signed by me. Each and every statement and answer contained in either of said two parts is full, complete and true as therein recorded.

Standard Life Insurance Co. of America (Pa.).

ORDINARY LIFE, GUARANTEED PREMIUM REDUCTION POLICY— NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $281.10. AGE, 35.

Standard Life Insurance Company of America hereby agrees to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars at its home office in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., upon the receipt of due proof of the death, while this policy is in force, of High Standard, hereinafter known as the insured, to Emma Standard, wife, hereinafter known as the beneficiary, or to such other beneficiaries as have been designated in the manner herein provided, less all indebtedness to the company on this policy or secured thereby, together with any unpaid premium or portion of premium for the then current year.

This insurance is granted for one year in consideration of the application hereto attached which, together with this policy, constitutes the entire contract, and the payment in advance of two hundred, eighty-one dollars and ten cents. The first year's insurance under this contract is preliminary term insurance.

In further consideration of the foregoing, this contract will be renewed on like terms, as an ordinary life guaranteed premium reduction policy by the payment of two hundred, eighty-one dollars and ten cents on or before the first day of April, 1913, and on each anniversary of this policy thereafter until the death of the insured.

The special benefits, privileges and provisions stated on the following pages hereof form a part of this policy as fully as if recited at length over the signatures hereto affixed.

In witness whereof, the Standard Life Insurance Company of America has this first day of April, 1912, by its duly authorized officers, executed this contract at its home office in the city of Pittsburgh, State of Pennsylvania, but the same shall not be binding until it is delivered to the insured during his lifetime and good health, nor until the first payment herein required has been received and accepted by the company.

BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office in Pittsburgh, but may be paid to an agent of the company in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or secretary. No modification of this contract shall be made except over the signature of one of such officers.

THIRTY-ONE DAYS' GRACE.—After the first year thirty-one days' grace is allowed for the payment of all premiums, during which period the policy remains in full force. Upon default in payment of any premium the company's only liability shall be such, if any, as is hereinafter provided.

GUARANTEED PREMIUM REDUCTION.—While this policy is kept in force by the payment of premiums in cash the company guarantees that after the second year such annual reductions shall be as shown on the coupons hereto attached. These guaranteed reductions may be used in any one of the following ways: First, to reduce the succeeding year's premium. Second, to purchase non-participating paid-up additions to the face of this policy. Third, to reduce the number of premium payments. Fourth, to allow guaranteed reductions to remain with the company and draw three and a half per cent interest per annum. The coupons accumulated under option four may be withdrawn at any time, or in event of death, will be added to the principal sum insured under this policy.

POLICY PAID UP.—If the guaranteed premium reductions are allowed to accumulate in accordance with options three and four mentioned above, this policy will become paid up in twenty-five years and no further premium payments will be required.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy is free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel, or the place of death from date of issue. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace. Self-destruction during the first year, whether the insured be sane or insane, is a risk not assumed by the company; in such cases only the net reserve on the policy will be paid. This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premium, subject, however, in case of misstatement of age to an adjustment of the insurance proportionate to the premium at the true age.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse, it may be reinstated at any time upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all past due premiums with interest at five per cent per annum and payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness hereon with interest at said rate, unless the cash value has been paid or the extended insurance period has expired.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be effectual against the Company unless it is made in duplicate and one copy filed at the home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If there be no existing assignment of this policy, the insured may designate a new beneficiary by filing at the home office written notice thereof or forms provided for this purpose.

PAID-UP VALUE.—In the event of the lapse of this policy after the premiums for three full years have been paid, the policy shall become effective automatically for paid-up insurance, payable at the same time as this policy, the amount granted being as stated in the table endorsed hereon for the number of years the policy has been in force. This paid-up insurance shall have increasing cash and loan values.

CASH VALUE EXTENDED INSURANCE.—In lieu of said paid-up insurance, the insured on satisfactory release and surrender of this policy within the days of grace, may procure either the cash value or extended term insurance as similarly stated in the table endorsed hereon.

LOANS.—After three years' premiums have been paid hereon, the insured, on the sole security of this policy properly assigned, may borrow at the interest rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually, an amount not exceeding the loan value shown in the table endorsed hereon, interest to the next anniversary of the policy being payable in advance. If interest is not paid when due, it shall be added to the existing loan and bear interest at the same rate. Non-payments of loan or interest shall not void the policy until the total indebtedness exceeds the cash value hereunder, nor until thirty-one days after the company has mailed notice of such termination to the insured and assignee of record, if any at their last known address. Payment of cash or loan values may be deferred for thirty days after the applications therefor.

DEDUCTION OF INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on this policy, including any unpaid premium or portion thereof for the then current policy year, shall be deducted upon settlement of any claim hereunder. If there be any such indebtedness the cash and loan values will be diminished thereby, and the paid-up or extended insurance will be proportioned to the cash value so diminished.

RESERVE.—The reserve on this policy is computed upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent. The cash or loan value is the same as the net value of the paid-up and extended insurance provided for herein and equals such reserve less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured.

* Extended insurance begins from date of defaulted premium and includes the days of grace.

TOTAL DISABILITY.—After one full payment shall have been made, or before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium on policy No. 09,876 issued by the Standard Life Insurance Company of America, if the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty years, shall become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease and shall furnish satisfactory proof that he will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing all gainful occupations, the Standard Life Insurance Company of America by an endorsement in writing upon this contract will agree to pay for the insured the premiums upon said policy No. 09,876 which thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. In any such case, the premium so paid shall not be a lien on said policy and the cash or loan values on said policy in the schedule on the third page thereof shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured. If, however, the insured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's obligations to pay the premiums shall cease and the insured shall resume payment of premiums in accordance with said policy from the first premium due date following such recovery. If the insured shall furnish satisfactory evidence of like total and permanent disability occurring after he shall have attained the age of sixty years, the subsequent premiums, without further action on the part of the insured, shall be allowed to accumulate, without interest, as an indebtedness on said policy. In any such case, the cash or loan values on said policy in the schedule on the third page thereof shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured.

This contract is issued in consideration of the application for policy No. 09,876 issued upon the life of High Standard and the payment of all premiums provided for therein in accordance with the terms thereof.

Failure to pay any premium when due will void this contract.

SAMPLE COUPON.—Guaranteed annual reduction at age 35 on ordinary life contract is $5.51 per $1000 insured, or 19.6 per cent.

GUARANTEED REDUCTION.—On demand on or after April 1, 1913, Standard Life Insurance Company of America, home office, Pittsburgh, Pa., will pay to the order of the insured under policy No. 09,876 (or to the order of the assignee, if said policy is assigned), a reduction of fifty-five and $\frac{10}{100}$ dollars, provided all full annual premiums due on said policy up to and including said date have been paid in cash. Payable at its home office.

CONDITIONS.

At any time if this policy is not assigned, the insured may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy at a death claim from payment in one sum, as provided on the first page, to payment by annual instalments, provided the amount of such proceeds be not less than $1000. The accompanying tables are based upon a policy insuring $1000, and will apply pro rata to policies of larger amount.

The insured, having changed the mode of payment to a limited number of annual instalments, may at any time subsequently change the number of instalments, as may be desired, according to the tables herewith, or may entirely revoke any change, thereby making the proceeds of this policy again payable in one sum.

Each change of mode of payment, or revocation of any change, must be requested by the insured in writing, and shall not take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company at the home office during the lifetime of the insured.

The payment of the first instalment shall be made immediately upon receipt and approval of proofs of the death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter, until the company shall have discharged its liability under this trust.

If the beneficiary should die before all instalments have been duly paid, the remainder of the guaranteed number of instalments may be commuted and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

Should the insured duly elect either of these trust options, this policy should be surrendered upon the death of the insured and a supplementary contract issued for the option selected.

The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments, unless such right is accorded to the beneficiary by the insured in writing, and is endorsed on this policy by the company at the home office during the lifetime of the insured.

The life income privileges shall not be available to the insured, if the proceeds of this policy in the event of death, be made payable to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured or to more than one beneficiary.

State Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $372.

AGE, 35.

The State Life Insurance Company, of Indianapolis, Ind., hereby insures the life of John Doe, hereinafter called the insured, of Indianapolis, State of Indiana, and agrees to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, Indianapolis, Ind., to Mary E. Doe, his wife, (or to such other beneficiary or beneficiaries as may be designated by the insured as hereinafter provided), if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns, upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death of the insured, and of the interest of the claimant, this policy being then in force, less any indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy, including any of the current year's premium remaining unpaid.

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—After premiums have been paid for two years from the date hereof (this policy being then in force, and provided there is no indebtedness against it), at the time any premium becomes due, or within the period of grace, or upon default in the payment of any premium when due, or within thirty-one days thereafter, the owner of this policy may select any one of the options in the following table, and in the event that no such selection is made, the company will continue this policy in force as extended insurance, according to the first option, and all other options will be deemed waived; such extended insurance being non-participating and without loan or cash values. The values in the table apply only in the event there is no indebtedness against the policy; but any such indebtedness may be paid in cash and the values in the table will then be applicable; or if not so paid, the cash and loan values will be reduced by the amount of indebtedness, and the amount of paid-up insurance will be reduced in the ratio of the indebtedness to the net value of such insurance, and the extended insurance shall be for such length of time only as the excess of the net value of extended insurance as shown in the table, over the indebtedness will purchase at the insured's attained age at the net single premium rate by the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest. Dividend additions to the policy, and additional premium payments for any fractional part of a year, if any, will increase the values in the table in proportion to the increase in the value of the reserve thereby.

The reserve on this policy is computed on the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality and three per cent interest. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance purchased by the whole or a part of the premium to be received during the first policy year, and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana. In every case the values in the foregoing table are equal to the full reserve on the policy less not to exceed one-half of one per centum of the sum insured. After the period covered by the foregoing table, and subject to the same conditions, the cash and loan values will be the full reserve less any indebtedness against the policy.

This contract is made in consideration of the application therefor, which is made a part hereof, and a copy of which is hereto attached, and in further consideration of the sum of three hundred and seventy-two dollars, to be paid in advance of the company on or before the delivery of this policy, and of the payment of a like sum on or before the ninth day of January in each year until twenty full years' premiums, including the first, have been paid or until the prior death of the insured.

I. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—The company will accept payment of premiums at other times than as stated above in advance, as follows: One hundred ninety-three and $\frac{41}{100}$ dollars semi-annually on each ninth day of January and July or ninety-eight and $\frac{69}{100}$ dollars quarter-annually on each ninth day of January, April, July and October. Except as herein provided, the payment of a premium or any instalment thereof, shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or any instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at said home office or to an agent of the company, upon delivery of the receipt therefor signed by the president or secretary of the company, and countersigned by the said agent. A grace of thirty-one days shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first year, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the period of grace, any unpaid premium for the current year will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in any settlement hereunder.

II. PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the surplus of the company, except during such time as it may be in force as extended insurance, as apportioned by the board of directors of the company, and at the end of the second year and annually thereafter the divisible surplus so ascertained accruing thereon will be credited to this policy as a dividend. Dividends thus credited, at the option of the owner of this policy shall be: First, paid in cash; or second, applied toward the payment of any premium; or third, applied to the purchase of paid-up participating additional insurance which may be surrendered at any time and the reserve value, not less than the original cash value, applied to pay current premiums; or fourth, left to accumulate to the credit of the policy with interest at not less than three per cent per annum, and payable at the maturity of the policy, or withdrawable on any anniversary of its date. Unless the owner of this policy shall elect otherwise, in writing, the apportioned dividends shall be held to the credit of the policy, in accordance with the fourth option, and if any premium is not paid at the expiration of the days of grace the company will keep the policy in force by applying said dividend accumulations to the payment due on the policy, provided such accumulations are sufficient to pay a quarterly instalment of an annual premium.

III. PAID-UP AND ENDOWMENT OPTIONS.—Whenever the reserve on this policy at the end of a policy year, taken together with the reserve on existing additions, shall be equal to or greater than the net single premium by the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three per cent interest for an amount of insurance equal to the face amount of this policy for the attained age of the insured, the company, at the written request of the insured, accompanied by the policy (provided this policy be free from indebtedness), will endorse the policy as full-paid participating insurance payable at the same time and in the same manner as the original policy for such an amount as said reserve will purchase when thus applied; or whenever said reserve at the end of a policy year, shall be equal to or greater than the face amount of this policy, the company, upon receipt of the policy with a full and valid surrender thereof and all claims thereunder, will pay in cash the face amount of this policy and any excess of said reserve, less any existing indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy.

IV. PRIVILEGE OF CHANGE.—This policy while in full force and before the insured has attained the age of sixty years, may be changed at any time without medical re-examination, for a policy of the same amount upon any plan issued by the company at the time this policy takes effect, and having a higher rate of premium. Such change shall be effective upon payment of a sum equal to the difference between the premiums on the new policy and the premiums paid on this policy, with compound interest at the rate of five per cent per annum from the due date of each payment to the date when the change is made, and upon the surrender of this policy. The new policy will take effect as of the date of this policy, and the premium will be based upon the same age as this policy. The cash value of any dividends standing to the credit of this policy, as well as any additional cash value of such dividends that would have been credited under the new policy, may be used in the settlement of the difference in premiums.

V. LOANS.—After two full years' premiums shall have been paid, at any time while this policy is in force, except such time as it shall be in force as extended insurance, the company will loan on the sole security of this policy upon proper and legal assignment and delivery thereof, a sum equal to, or at the option of the insured, less than the loan value of the policy in the table of options on the first page hereof according to the number of full years' premiums paid, at the time the loan is made, plus the value of the reserve on any dividend additions to the policy, less any existing indebtedness on or secured by the policy and any unpaid portion of the current year's premium. Interest in advance to the end of the current policy year, at five per cent per annum will be charged. Interest at the same rate will be due and payable annually in advance thereafter, and if not so paid will be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest: Provided, that unless applied for on the anniversary of the date of the policy, or within thirty-one days thereafter, the company reserves the right to defer such loan for not exceeding sixty days from the receipt of the application therefor. Failure to repay such loan, or to pay interest thereon when due, shall not void the policy, unless the total indebtedness thereon shall equal or exceed the amount loanable hereunder, at the time of such failure, in which case the policy shall immediately cease and become void: Provided, that such termination shall not take effect until thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any.

VI. TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—If the insured, after paying at least one full annual premium and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, and before attaining the age of sixty years, shall become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injury or by disease, so that he is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby from performing any work for compensation or profit, or from following any gainful occupation, the company, upon receipt at its home office, of due proof of such disability of the insured, will waive payment of the premiums thereafter becoming due, by a written endorsement hereon. Any premiums so waived shall not be a lien on this policy, and the values in the table of options on the first page hereof shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured. If the insured should so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the obligation on the part of the company to waive payment of premiums shall cease, and the insured shall resume payment of premiums in accordance with this contract, beginning with the first premium becoming due after the date of such recovery. Proofs similar to those required in the first instance of such continuous disability, must be furnished prior to the payment of each premium by the company, if requested. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of the entire hand and one foot, occurring before the age of sixty, will be considered total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision. Upon the written request of the insured and of the beneficiary and assignee, if any, after proof of total and permanent disability as aforesaid, and in lieu of all other values, benefits and options herein provided, the company will pay in full settlement of this policy, one-twentieth of the sum originally insured (exclusive of any accident benefit) and dividend additions if any, and will pay the same amount annually thereafter, until twenty such payments in all have been made, provided, that if there be any indebtedness against this policy, the amount of such annual payments will be reduced in the same proportion that such indebtedness bears to three-fourths of the sum insured. In the event of the death of the insured prior to the last of said payments, any remaining payments will be made to the beneficiary, if living, if not, then to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

VII. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured at any time and without cost, during the continuance of this policy, and subject to the rules of the company regarding assignments and change of beneficiaries, may change the beneficiary by written notice to the company, at its home office; such change shall take effect on the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company, and be subject to the rights of any assignee.

VIII. ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy, together with the application therefor, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statements shall avoid this policy unless it is contained in the application therefor.

IX. SUICIDE.—If the insured, whether sane or insane, shall die by his own hand or act, within one year from the date hereof, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid hereon.

X. REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated at any time succeeding default in premium payment upon evidence satisfactory to the company of the insurability of the insured according to the company's usage, and payment of all premium arrears, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, and the payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness which existed at the time of such default with interest from that date.

XI. ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until it is filed with the company at its home office. The company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of any assignment. All claims under assignments are subject to satisfactory proof of the assignee's interest in the life insured.

XII. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from the date hereof, except for non-payment of premiums. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

XIII. INSTALMENT OPTIONS.—The insured reserves the right to change the method of payment of this policy as a death claim without the consent of any beneficiary, by filing at the home office of the company a written request therefor, accompanied by this policy for endorsement of such change thereon, so as to provide that each $1000 of insurance due upon maturity of this policy by the death of the insured shall be paid to the beneficiary in accordance with any one of the following instalment options. In the event of there being more than one beneficiary entitled to share in the proceeds of the policy, the continuous instalment options cannot be selected, but the right under the limited instalment option shall be joint and vest in the survivors, and shall not be severed without the consent of the company. The first instalment will be paid in each case upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured, during the continuance of this policy, and of the interest of the claimant; subsequent instalments will be paid annually thereafter. Unless the insured shall make and file a written request therefor the company will not commute any instalment payments during the lifetime of the beneficiary. Option 1. In ten annual instalments of $113.80 each, amounting to $1138. Option 2. In fifteen annual instalments of $81.30 each, amounting to $1219.50. Option 3. In twenty annual instalments of $65.25 each, amounting to $1305. Option 4. In annual instalments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each instalment to be determined by the schedule below for this option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, nearest birthday, at the date of the death of the insured. If the beneficiary should die before twenty annual instalments have been paid, the company will pay any remaining instalments to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. Option 5. In annual instalments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each instalment to be determined by the schedule below for this option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, nearest birthday, at the date of the death of the insured.

XIV. INSTALMENT COUPONS.—Should the policy become a valid claim by death, and the insured has selected either the first, second or third of the instalment options as above provided, the company will upon surrender of the policy, issue to the beneficiary its instalment contract with coupons attached, numbered consecutively according to the number of such instalments under the option selected, and each coupon providing for the payment of one of the annual instalments, and should the fourth or fifth option be selected, the company will upon such surrender of the policy, issue to the beneficiary its annuity contract, providing for the payment of annual instalments, in accordance with the terms of the option selected.

XV. PREMIUMS.—In case any premium should not be paid when due, according to the terms of this contract, then and in every such case, this policy shall cease and determine, except as otherwise herein expressly provided. If any note or other obligation given for the first year's premium or any part thereof on this policy shall not be paid when due, this policy contract shall be and become null and void without any notice or action of the company, notwithstanding any receipt which may have been given for such premium.

XVI. AUTHORITY.—Only the president, a vice-president or the secretary (and then in writing only) has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above.

XVII. PROOFS OF DEATH.—In the event of the death of the insured while this policy is in force, application should be made to the company at its home office, for blank forms upon which to make proofs.

XVIII. CHANGE OF ADDRESS.—The insured should give prompt notice to the company of any change of residence or postoffice address. Notice of each and every payment due or to become due hereon at the date named is given and accepted by the delivery and acceptance of this policy, and any further notice of such payment due or to become due required by any statute is hereby expressly waived.

A BENEFIT BEYOND THE POLICY REQUIREMENTS.—By order of the Board of Directors, a dividend will be credited to this policy at the end of the first year, provided the full annual premium for the second year is paid.

State Mutual Life Assurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS—TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $366.10. AGE, 35.

The State Mutual Life Assurance Company of Worcester, Mass., in consideration of the application for this policy, which is made a part of this contract, a full copy of which application is hereunto annexed, and in further consideration of the payment, in advance, of the premiums required by this policy, does insure the life of John Ward of Worcester, County of Worcester and State of Massachusetts, herein called the insured, in the amount of ten thousand dollars, and promises to pay, at its home office, in Worcester, said amount to Mary Ward, wife of the insured, if living, or to such other beneficiary as may, according to the conditions stated herein, be finally designated and recognized by endorsement hereon, and if no such beneficiary be then living, then to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, upon due proof of the death of the said insured, during the continuance in force of this policy, the unpaid premium, or instalments thereof, if any, for the balance of the policy year then entered upon, and any other indebtedness to the company on account of this policy being first deducted therefrom.

The annual premium required by this policy is three hundred and sixty-six dollars and ten cents, and is due and payable on or before the ninth day of February in each year during the continuance of this policy, until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the provisions and conditions specified on the second and third pages hereof, which are hereby made a part of this contract.

This policy shall be incontestable after one year from the date of its issue, except for non-payment of premiums.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

POLICY AND APPLICATION ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all the statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy or be used in defense to a claim thereunder unless it be contained in the written application therefor and a copy of such application be securely attached thereto when issued. This policy shall not take effect until actually delivered and the first premium paid hereon during the lifetime of the insured. The possession of this policy is not evidence that the first premium has been paid. The first and all subsequent premiums are due and payable at the home office of the company in Worcester, Massachusetts, or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt for the premium, signed by the president, vice-president, or secretary, and countersigned by the agent or agency cashier designated thereon.

PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—The premiums on this policy are payable annually, in advance, but the insured may, with the assent of the company, pay the same, in advance, in semi-annual or quarter-annual instalments, according to the company's published rates therefor, provided such semi-annual or quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium amounts to at least the sum of $5.00. In case of failure to pay any premium when due, or within the grace period, this policy shall thereupon lapse and become void, and all premium payments previously made shall be forfeited to the company, and its only liability hereunder shall be such, if any, as is stated in this policy. This policy is issued by the company and accepted by the insured with the agreement that, subject to the provisions contained herein, no annual premium, or semi-annual or quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium, paid on this policy shall continue it in force beyond the date on which the next annual premium or semi-annual or quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium, shall become due.

GRACE PERIOD.—After the payment of the first regular premium, annual, semi-annual or quarterly, a grace of thirty-one days, without interest, will be allowed in the payment of all future premiums. During the period of grace this policy shall remain in full force.

PREMIUM LOANS.—If this policy be not assigned, upon request of the insured, made prior to any default in the payment of any premium hereunder, the company will make a loan to the insured, with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from due date of said premium, for the sole purpose of paying such premium, provided the cash surrender or loan value hereunder is sufficient to cover such loan with interest to the time the next premium (annual, semi-annual or quarterly) is due hereon. Any premium loan, with accrued interest, may be repaid at any time prior to default in premium payment, but until paid will be an indebtedness hereunder.

POLICY LOAN.—After two full annual premiums have been paid on this policy, and provided it is not continued as extended insurance, the holder hereof, upon its proper assignment and delivery to the company, shall, within thirty days of the application therefor, be entitled to a loan from the company on the sole security of this policy, with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, of a sum not exceeding its loan value, as shown by the accompanying table, less interest on the amount so loaned to the next anniversary of this policy, and less any indebtedness to the company under this policy and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid this policy while the total indebtedness hereon is less than such loan value at the time such default in payment occurs nor until thirty-one days after notice has been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and assignee, if any.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—This policy may be re-instated at any time after default in premium payment, provided it has not been surrendered for its cash value, or its extension period expired, upon the production of evidence, satisfactory to the company, of the insurability of the person whose life was insured and the payment of all over-due premiums and the payment or re-instatement of any other indebtedness to the company under this policy with simple interest at the rate of six per cent per annum.

CHANGE OF PLAN.—At any time while this policy is in full force, it may be changed, without medical examination, to any other form of policy in use by the company at the time this policy was issued, but without the right to disability benefits, provided the rate of premium be not diminished thereby, upon payment of the difference between the premiums under the new policy and the premiums paid under this policy (exclusive of the special premiums paid for disability benefits) for the same period and the same amount of insurance, with interest compounded annually at the rate of six per centum per annum, and with proper adjustment of differences in dividends apportioned under the two forms of policies. The new policy will be for the same amount, bear the same date, and written at the same age as this policy.

MODIFICATIONS.—Agents are not authorized to modify this policy or to extend the time of paying the premium.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—If the right to do so has been reserved in the application for this policy, the insured, if of full age, at any time during the continuance of this policy, may change and successively change the beneficiary hereunder, whether original or substituted, without his or her consent, provided that any proposed beneficiary shall have an insurable interest in the life of the insured, and, further, that any change in beneficial interest shall be subject to the right of any assignee. The insured may, however, declare the designation of any beneficiary to be irrevocable. During the lifetime of any irrevocably designated beneficiary, the insured shall not have the right to revoke or change the designation of that beneficiary, without his or her consent. If any beneficiary, revocable or irrevocable, dies before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured. Every change or designation must be made by written notice to the company at its home office, accompanied by this policy, and will take effect only when endorsed on this policy by the company.

WAR RISK.—Military and Naval service in time of war is a risk not assumed by the company or covered by this policy during the first year, and if the insured shall engage in such service during the first year this policy is in force, this policy shall thereupon become null and void and no claim shall exist thereunder except for the amount of the premium paid thereon.

SUICIDE.—If the insured shall commit suicide within one year from the date hereof, while sane or insane, this policy shall be null and void, except for the amount of the premium paid thereon.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be valid unless made in writing and filed with the company at its home office. By receiving or filing any assignment, the company assumes no responsibility as to its validity. The claim of any assignee shall be subject to any indebtedness to the company hereunder.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the age of the insured was incorrectly stated in the application for this policy, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age. Any error in age discovered during the lifetime of the insured will be subject to correction and adjustment of premium.

RESERVE.—The reserve on this policy will be based on the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent per annum.

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—After two full years' premiums have been paid on this policy, the holder hereof, within thirty days after default in the payment of a subsequent premium, may elect by a writing filed with the company at its home office, (a) to surrender the policy and, with the written assent of the person to whom it is made payable, receive its value in cash, or (b) take paid-up insurance, which shall be participating, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as in the original contract, or (c) have the insurance continued in force as extended insurance from the anniversary last passed for its face amount, including any outstanding dividend additions and less any indebtedness to the company hereon or secured hereby, but without the right to loans.

AUTOMATIC PAID-UP PROVISION WITH SPECIAL BENEFITS.—If the holder shall not within thirty days from default surrender this policy to the company for cash, as provided in Option (a), or elect by a writing filed with the company at its home office to take extended insurance as provided in Option (c), the insurance will be binding upon the company from the date of default without any further stipulation or act on the part of the insured, as provided in Option (b). The cash surrender value of paid-up insurance under Option (b), at any time, will be its net legal reserve. Paid-up insurance under Option (b) will have loan values and will participate annually in the divisible surplus of the company.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—Upon the written request of the insured, extended insurance, as described above under Option (c), may be made the automatic option in case of default in the payment of any premium by an endorsement on this policy, made at the home office of the company, provided such request is filed at the said home office when there is no premium due hereon and unpaid.

EXTENDED INSURANCE PARTICIPATING AND CASH VALUES.—If this policy is continued in force as extended insurance, it shall participate annually in the divisible surplus of the company and its cash surrender value will be its net legal reserve; and, upon proper request and release on the part of the insured, may be reconverted into a participating paid-up policy for an amount its cash value will purchase as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three per cent per annum.

TERM OF EXTENDED INSURANCE AND AMOUNT OF PAID-UP INSURANCE.—The term for which this policy will be continued as extended insurance or the amount of paid-up insurance, as given in the accompanying table, is such as the cash value will purchase as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three per centum per annum; but no provision contained herein shall operate to continue this policy in force beyond the term for which it was originally written.

CASH SURRENDER AND LOAN VALUES.—The cash surrender and loan value for each year, given in the accompanying table, is the reserve on this policy less a surrender charge having a maximum the second year (after payment of premiums for two full years) of ten dollars for each one thousand dollars of insurance hereunder, and decreasing annually thereafter by one dollar and twenty-five cents for each one thousand dollars of insurance hereunder. After payment of premiums for ten full years, the cash surrender and loan value for each year, including the intermediate years beyond twenty not given in the accompanying table, is the full reserve under this policy.

VALUES INCREASED BY ADDITIONS OR BY PAYMENT OF QUARTERLY OR SEMI-ANNUAL PREMIUMS.—The said values will be increased if there are any outstanding paid-up additions to this policy and diminished if there be any indebtedness hereunder. If any semi-annual or one or more quarter-annual instalments of the annual premium have been paid in any year, the values for that year will be the values at the end of the last policy year for which the annual premium was paid in full plus such proportionate part of the increase, in the values at the end of the succeeding year.

DIVIDEND PROVISIONS.

DIVIDENDS.—This policy shall participate in the surplus of the company. The proportion of the divisible surplus of the company contributed by this policy shall be ascertained and distributed annually as dividends, beginning at the end of the first policy year. Each such dividend shall, annually, at the option of the holder of the policy, (a) be payable in cash, or (b) be applied in reduction of premiums, or (c) to the purchase of a paid-up addition, which may be surrendered at any time for cash, or (d) be left with the company to accumulate to the credit of this policy and be payable at the maturity thereof or be withdrawable, either wholly or in part, in cash on demand by the holder of this policy or applied as hereinafter set forth. On dividends so left, interest will be allowed at not less than three per cent per annum, but no allowance for interest will be made for a fractional part of a year.

AUTOMATIC PAYMENT OF PREMIUM BY DIVIDENDS.—If no election is made by the holder of this policy prior to any anniversary thereof, the dividend for that anniversary will be held by the company as provided in Option (d) and if any premium on this policy (annual, semi-annual or quarter-annual) is not paid at the expiration of the days of grace, the company will keep this policy in force by applying the dividend accumulations to the payment due on this policy, if such accumulations are sufficient to make such payment in full; provided that nothing herein contained shall operate to continue this policy in force beyond the period for which any dividend accumulation so applied would carry the policy under its full premium rate, nor beyond the term for which this policy was originally issued. Any dividends which may be apportioned hereon while this policy is continued as extended insurance shall not be applied to continue this policy in force beyond the term of extension given in the accompanying table of values.

METHOD OF APPLYING DIVIDENDS TO PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.—The application of accumulations to the payment of premiums will be made as follows: The accumulations will be applied to the payment of the annual premium required by this policy. If not sufficient for the annual premium, then to the payment of a semi-annual instalment of the annual premium, and if not sufficient for a semi-annual, then to the payment of a quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium, and continuing in like manner so long as the remaining accumulations to the credit of this policy are sufficient to pay a quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium required by this policy. In case the failure to pay any semi-annual or quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium required by this policy occurs in any year after a payment of an instalment of such premium has been made by the insured, then the accumulations will be applied to the payment of unpaid quarter-annual or semi-annual instalments of the annual premium due during the year then entered upon. No remaining portion of such accumulations amounting to less than a quarter-annual instalment of the annual premium, according to the company's published rates therefor, will be applied to continuing this policy in force but will remain to the credit of this policy and be paid with the amount due hereunder when it becomes a claim.

DIVIDENDS APPLIED TO MAKE POLICY FULLY PAID-UP.—Whenever the accumulations from dividends (d) and the cash value of dividend additions (c), if any, together with the reserve on this policy, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three per cent per annum, shall be equal to the reserve computed in like manner on a fully paid-up policy of the same kind and amount at the age then attained by the insured, the company will, upon the execution and delivery of a proper form of request and release, on presentation of this policy at its home office in Worcester, make an endorsement thereon showing that it has become fully paid-up.

DIVIDENDS APPLIED TO ACCELERATE MATURITY OF POLICY.—Whenever the accumulations from dividends (d) and the cash value of dividend additions (c), if any, together with the reserve on this policy, computed as above, shall be equal to the face amount of this policy, the company will, upon the surrender of this policy, together with a legal release of all claims hereunder, pay as a matured endowment the amount of said policy less any existing indebtedness to the company on account of same.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFIT PROVISION.—If the insured hereunder, after the payment of one full year's premium on this policy, and while no premium is in default, shall furnish due proofs that, before reaching the age of sixty years, because of accident or disease he has become wholly, continuously and permanently unable to pursue any gainful occupation and presumably for life will be unable to perform any work, mental or manual, or engage in any business for compensation or profit, and that such disability was sustained or contracted after the date hereof, the company will with the written assent of all the parties in interest, pay to the insured, one tenth of the face amount of this policy, and a like amount annually thereafter, on the anniversary of the first instalment payment, during the continuance of such disability, until said face amount, less any indebtedness hereunder, shall have been paid in full, or until the maturity of the policy when any unpaid remainder of the sum insured, less any indebtedness, shall be paid as provided in this policy. The value of any dividend additions or accumulations then outstanding shall be payable with the final payment. The first instalment shall be paid one year after the receipt of such proof of said disability, and then only if it shall appear that the insured is still totally, permanently and incurably disabled as defined above. During said year any medical examiner, or other accredited representative of the company, shall be permitted to examine the person of the insured in respect of the alleged disability, at such time and in such manner as the company may desire. The payment of any premium during said year shall be waived, and this policy shall continue in force as if such premium had been paid. Each annual instalment so paid shall reduce by the amount thereof the insurance in force, and the values provided under non-forfeiture provisions hereunder shall be for the reduced amount, subject to any existing indebtedness. This policy must be forwarded to the home office for endorsement of the payment of each disability instalment. Whenever the cash surrender value of the reduced insurance is less than any indebtedness hereunder, the difference in amount shall be deducted from the succeeding instalment, and the indebtedness correspondingly reduced. Whenever the amount of the instalments paid together with any indebtedness hereunder, shall equal the face amount of the policy and the value of any dividend additions or accumulations, the liability of the company shall cease. By the acceptance of this contract the insured agrees that, after the said instalments become payable as above described, any medical examiner appointed by the company shall be allowed from time to time, but not oftener than once a year, to satisfy himself of the continuance of such disability by the examination of the person of the insured, and if it is established that the insured has recovered so as to be able to again engage in some gainful occupation, or has so engaged, or if the insured refuses to permit such examination by a medical examiner, no further instalment payments will be made by the company. But if the amount of insurance shall then have been reduced under the foregoing provisions, such reduced amount of insurance shall thereafter be the face amount of the policy and the premiums thereafter becoming due will be in proportion to the reduced amount of insurance, and all benefits under the policy will be reduced accordingly. During the period of disability, as defined above, the premiums hereon shall be waived. If this policy becomes paid-up for a reduced amount or is continued in force as extended insurance, no disability benefits shall attach to it nor to any dividend additions payable hereunder. The total and irrecoverable loss of the entire sight of both eyes, the severance of both hands above the wrist or both feet above the ankle, or similar loss of one foot and one hand, shall be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision. The provision for disability benefits herein set forth is granted in consideration of the payment of a special premium of six dollars and ten cents with each annual premium payable hereunder, and this amount is included in the whole premium charged for this policy. The special premium shall cease (1) on the completion of the premium payments required by the terms of this policy; (2) on the policy anniversary nearest to age sixty of the insured, if prior to completion of said premium payments; or (3) it may be discontinued on any anniversary of this policy on the written request of the insured, accompanied by this policy for endorsement, in which latter event this provision will become void.

INSTALMENT OPTIONS.

CONDITIONS OF INSTALMENT SETTLEMENT.—Settlement by instalments may be substituted for payment of the proceeds of this policy in one sum, according to one of the following options, and subject to the conditions stated below. If there be any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy when it becomes a claim, such indebtedness will be deducted from its proceeds and the balance due will be the basis of any settlement by instalments hereunder. The insured, at any time while this policy is in force, for an amount not less than one thousand ($1000) dollars and not assigned, may, by notice to the company in writing, choose one of the methods of settlement designated below,

After making a selection of manner of payment, the insured may revoke his selection and select another manner by notifying the company in writing. If such choice is not made by the insured, the same privilege shall be extended to the beneficiary at the time this policy becomes a claim, with the right to receive the present value of any unpaid instalments in one sum. After the death of the insured (selection of instalment option having been made), on the payment of the first instalment upon either of the plans mentioned below, this policy shall be returned to the company for proper endorsement or surrender to the company in exchange for an instalment contract in accordance with the instalment option selected. The first instalment shall be paid upon satisfactory proof of claim upon the company, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter upon the anniversary of the first instalment payment. The beneficiary shall not have the right to commute the instalment payable hereunder unless the insured, during his or her lifetime shall have given such right to the beneficiary, and notified the company in writing to that effect. Should the beneficiary under this policy, surviving the insured, die before receiving all the instalments payable, the then present or commuted value of all such instalments shall be paid in one sum to the executors or administrators of the said beneficiary, unless other provisions shall have been previously made for the continuation of the instalment payments.

EQUAL INSTALMENTS—OPTION A.—On the basis of each one thousand ($1000) dollars due, the proceeds may be paid in any number of equal annual instalments, from five to twenty-five, as may be designated, according to the following table:

Number of instalments....	5	6	7	8	9	10	11

Amount of instalments....	67.78	65.25	62.98	60.92	59.04	57.32	55.75

CONTINUOUS INSTALMENT —OPTION B.—On the basis of each one thousand ($1000) dollars due, the proceeds may be paid in five, ten, fifteen, twenty or twenty-five instalments, each for an amount determined by the attained age of the beneficiary and the number of the stipulated instalments selected at the time this policy becomes a claim, according to the following table; and in addition thereto similar amounts shall be paid yearly during the after lifetime of the beneficiary.

PARTIAL PAYMENT AND DEPOSIT—OPTION C.—The proceeds or any part of the proceeds of this policy, in even hundreds of dollars, to the amount of not less than $1000, may be left with the company and the person entitled thereto shall receive thereon at the end of each year interest at the rate of three per cent per annum. The amount so left with the company may be withdrawn at any time when an instalment of interest is payable, and if not withdrawn the said amount, together with any accumulation of interest accrued thereon from the date when the last full interest instalment was payable, shall be paid in full upon satisfactory proof of the death of the beneficiary.

PARTIAL PAYMENT AND INSTALMENTS—OPTION D.—The person legally entitled to the proceeds of this policy may elect to take part of said proceeds in cash and have the remainder, in even hundreds of dollars and to the amount of not less than one thousand ($1000) dollars, payable in accordance with one of the above instalment options.

MONTHLY, QUARTERLY OR SEMI-ANNUAL INSTALMENTS.—Provision may be made for payment in monthly, quarterly or semi-annual instead of annual instalments which shall be the full equivalent in value of the annual instalments specified.

INSTALMENTS INCREASED BY DIVIDENDS.—The stipulated instalments, payable under instalment options A and C and the first five, ten, fifteen, twenty or twenty-five under instalment option B, will be increased by any dividends which may be apportioned thereto.

INSTALMENTS INCREASED BY ADDITIONS.—Any outstanding paid-up dividend additions or dividend accumulations to the credit of this policy when it becomes a claim may be taken by the person legally entitled thereto, or included in the amount of the instalment settlement.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby certify that I have read all the statements and answers in Parts I and II of this application, and declare that they have been correctly recorded by the soliciting agent and medical examiner, and that no circumstance or information touching my past and present state of health and habits of life has been withheld or omitted. I agree that the insurance hereby applied for shall not take effect until this application has been approved by the company at its home office, and the first premium on the proposed policy shall have been paid and the said policy delivered to me while I am in the condition of health described herein, except in case a conditional receipt has been issued as hereinbefore provided. I also agree that military and naval service in time of war is not a risk assumed by the said company or covered by the proposed policy during the first year, and that should I engage in such service during the first year the proposed policy is in force, said policy shall thereupon become null and void and no claim shall exist thereunder except for the amount of the premium paid thereon. I further agree, that if within one year from the date of the proposed policy I shall die by my own hand or act, whether I be at that time sane or insane, the proposed policy shall thereupon become null and void except for the amount of the premium paid thereon.

* Adopted January 1, 1911.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $50,000.

Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT— FIVE-YEAR DISTRIBUTION.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $376.50. AGE, 35.

Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada in consideration of the representations and agreements contained in the application for this policy, a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof, and of the sum of three hundred seventy-six and $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars to be to it paid on the ninth day of January, 1913, and of the payment of a like amount yearly thereafter on the ninth day of January in every year during the continuance of this policy, until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, this company hereby insures the life of John Doe, of Linesville, State of Pennsylvania, merchant (herein called the assured), in the sum of ten thousand dollars, which shall be payable at its office, in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., to the executors, administrators or assigns of the assured, on receipt at its head office of due proofs of the death of the assured and of the title of the claimant, deducting therefrom any sums due to the company by either the assured or the beneficiary in connection with this policy, and the undue balance, if any, of the premium for the current policy year.

Both the sum assured and the premiums mentioned herein shall be paid in United States currency.

The privileges, options and mutual agreements set forth on the second, third and fourth pages hereof form part of this contract and are binding on both parties hereto.

Signed and sealed at Montreal, this tenth day of January, 1913.

DIVIDEND PROVISIONS.—This policy is issued on the five year distribution plan, the provisions of which are as follows: That this policy shall participate in profits at the expiration of every five years from the date on which the first premium falls due, and no allotment of profits shall be made hereon unless the assured be alive at the end of each such period and this policy be then in force. That profits so allotted to this policy may be taken in any one of the following forms: (One) As a bonus or reversionary addition to the sum assured. (Two) As a reduction of the premiums for the next five years. (Three) As a single cash payment. If either the second or third of the above methods be chosen, the assured cannot revert to the first method at any future division, except on producing a certificate of health satisfactory to the company.

ALTERNATIVE METHODS OF SETTLEMENT AT MATURITY.—The assured or the owner, or the beneficiary after the assured's death if the assured shall have made no election, may, by written notice to the company, elect that in lieu of payment in one sum the net amount payable hereunder may be: (1) Left as a deposit with the company during the lifetime of the beneficiary or payee bearing interest at the rate of three per cent per annum payable at the end of each year. At the death of the beneficiary or payee the said deposit with the interest accrued to the date of death shall be payable, unless otherwise directed in the said notice, to the legal representatives or assigns of the beneficiary or payee. The said deposit may be withdrawn at any time by the beneficiary or payee on giving three months' notice in writing to the company, provided the company has not been otherwise directed by the assured; or (2) converted into a specified number of equal annual instalments, in accordance with the table of instalments given below; or (3) converted into equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty years, and for so many years longer as the beneficiary or payee entitled to receive the first instalment shall survive. Each instalment shall be for the amount corresponding to the attained age of the beneficiary or payee on the date on which the single cash payment would have been payable, according to the table of instalments given below. Any instalments payable under (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the beneficiary or payee entitled to receive the first instalment shall be payable, unless otherwise directed in the said notice, to the legal representatives or assigns of the said beneficiary or payee. Unless the company shall have been otherwise directed by the assured in writing, the remaining instalments may at any time be commuted by the beneficiary or payee at the rate of three and one-half per cent compound interest, and the commuted value drawn in one sum; provided, however, that under (3) the instalments, contingent upon the beneficiary or payee living after the twenty guaranteed payments shall have been made, cannot be commuted. The above methods of settlement are based upon an assumed interest rate of three per cent, but if in any year the company shall declare for that year on funds held by it under such modes of settlement a greater interest rate than three per cent, the sum payable shall be increased accordingly. This policy shall be surrendered upon its maturity and a supplementary contract shall be issued for the option selected.

PRIVILEGES.

I. RESIDENCE AND OCCUPATION.—The assured may reside anywhere or engage in any occupation.

II. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the head office of the company or to an agent thereof, upon delivery of a receipt signed by either the president, managing-director or secretary of the company and countersigned by the said agent. Thirty days of grace are allowed for the payment of renewal premiums, without interest charge, during which time the assurance shall continue in force.

III. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and shall be, except for non-payment of premiums, incontestable after two years from the date of issue. All statements made by the assured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties; and no such statement shall void the policy unless it is contained in the written application, a copy whereof is attached to this policy when issued. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable shall be such sum as the premium paid would have purchased according to the rate at the true age.

IV. CASH VALUE.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid, this policy may, in the absence of any legal restriction to the contrary, be surrendered to the company for the amount of the cash value specified in the table of guaranteed values attached hereto, increased by the cash value of any existing bonus additions. Any indebtedness due to the company on this policy by either the assured or the beneficiary shall be deducted from the said cash value.

V. LOANS.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid the company will advance on the sole security of this policy any amount not exceeding the cash value of the policy as provided for in Privilege IV. above. The policy must be deposited with the company, together with a properly executed loan agreement on the company's form. The rate of interest shall not exceed six per cent per annum. This privilege is subject to the condition that there is no legal restriction to the contrary and that any indebtedness due to the company on this policy by either the assured or the beneficiary shall be deducted from the said loan. The company may also collect interest in advance to the end of the current policy year. Failure to pay any such loan or the interest thereon shall not void the policy unless the total indebtedness shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the assured and of the assignee, if any.

VI. PAID-UP ASSURANCE.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid, provided this policy be still in force, the company will, if this policy be surrendered to the company and discharged in writing before the expiration of the days of grace (and not otherwise), issue in exchange therefor a non-participating paid-up policy for the amount set forth in the table of guaranteed values attached hereto, increased by any existing bonus additions. This paid-up assurance shall be payable at the time this policy would have become due if it had been continued in force, and shall be subject to any indebtedness to the company on this policy by either the assured or the beneficiary.

VII. EXTENDED TERM ASSURANCE.—After this policy shall have been three full years in force, in the event of default in the payment of any premium, provided that there be no indebtedness to the company on this policy, and provided the policy be not surrendered in accordance with privilege IV. or VI., the assurance hereunder shall be automatically extended as term assurance from the date of default in premium payment, but without participation in profits or the right to loans or surrender values, for the full amount assured under this policy and existing bonus additions. The said assurance shall be for the period, including the days of grace, set forth in the table of guaranteed values attached hereto, and shall be payable only if the assured die within the specified time. The cash value of any existing bonus additions shall be applied to lengthen the said period. The net value of the said term assurance shall be equal to the cash value of this policy as specified in Privilege IV., and shall be at least equal to the reserve on this policy and existing bonus additions, according to the British Offices Om⁽⁵⁾ table with three per cent interest, less a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the said sum assured and existing bonus additions. If there be any indebtedness to the company on this policy, the assurance hereunder shall be automatically extended as above for an amount equal to the sum hereby assured and existing bonus additions less the amount of the said indebtedness, and the period of term assurance shall be such as the cash value of this policy as provided above, after deducting the said indebtedness, with purchase at net single premium rates by the British Offices Om⁽⁵⁾ table with 3 per cent interest, according to the attained age of the assured.

VIII. PAID-UP AND ENDOWMENT OPTION.—Whenever, at the end of any policy year, the reserve on this policy and existing bonus additions shall equal or exceed the net single premium for the attained age of the assured according to the British Offices Om⁽⁵⁾ three per cent table for an amount equal to the face value of this policy, payable at the same time and under the same conditions as this policy, the company, at the written request of the assured and of the beneficiary and assignee, if any, will endorse this policy (subject to any existing indebtedness) as a fully paid-up participating policy for such amount as the said reserve will purchase according to the said standard table of mortality and rate of interest; or, whenever the said reserve on this policy and bonus additions shall equal or exceed the face value of this policy, the company, upon a full and valid surrender of this policy and all claims thereunder, will pay in cash the full amount of this policy and any excess of the said reserve (less any indebtedness to the company).

IX. REINSTATEMENT.—In the event of default in the payment of any premium, and provided this policy has not been surrendered in accordance with privilege IV. or VI., it may be reinstated at any time upon written application by the assured with evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and upon payment of all arrears of premium with interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum compounded yearly, and reinstated, with interest, of any indebtedness existing at the time of default.

X. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—This policy is issued with the express understanding that the assured may, provided he have not assigned it or any interest therein, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries from time to time during the continuance of this policy by filing with the company a written request, in such form as the company may require, accompanied by this policy; such change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company.

PRIVILEGE XI.

TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.—At any time after one full year's premium shall have been paid, and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the assured, before attaining his sixtieth birthday, shall furnish proof satisfactory to the company that he has become wholly and permanently disabled by bodily injury or disease, and is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby from performing any work for compensation or profit, or from following any gainful occupation, then:

(1) The company by endorsement hereon will agree to pay for the assured the subsequent premiums, if any, as they shall become due, during the period of such total and permanent disability. Any premium so paid shall not be a lien on this policy, and the guaranteed values in the table attached hereto shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums had been paid in cash by the assured, and the policy shall continue to participate in profits. (2) The company will also, upon the written request of the assured and of the beneficiary and assignee, if any, and after payment of all indebtedness to the company in respect of the policy, agree by endorsement hereon to pay in lieu of all other values, benefits and privileges herein provided, and in full settlement of this policy, one-twentieth of the amount assured and existing bonus additions immediately, and a like amount yearly thereafter until twenty such instalments in all shall have been paid. Should the assured die before the twenty instalments shall have been paid, the remaining instalments shall be paid to the beneficiary as they become due. Provided always that notwithstanding proof of disability may have been accepted by the company as satisfactory, the assured shall as often as required by the company furnish satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability. If the assured shall fail to furnish such proof, or if he shall so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, then all premiums thereafter falling due must be paid as originally provided in the policy; and if option (2) shall have been availed of, the company's obligation to pay any further instalments shall immediately cease, and the original policy shall be restored for its face amount, less the sum of the instalments paid, the guaranteed values in the table attached hereto being reduced proportionately, but no reduction being made in the future premiums.

Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, shall be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning hereof.

NOTICE.—No person, except the president, managing director or secretary, has power to alter this contract, to extend the time for paying a premium, to bind the company by making any promise or by receiving any representation or information not contained in the application for this policy. No payment made to any person, except in exchange for the company's official receipt, will be recognized by the company. This policy does not take effect until the first premium has been actually paid, during the life and good health of the assured.

DECLARATION IN APPLICATION.

I declare that the above answers are full and true and that I am now and usually in sound health; and I agree that this declaration, with the answers to be given by me to the Medical Examiner, shall be the basis of the policy and of the interim assurance should any be granted; that the methods which may be adopted by the company for any distribution of surplus and its determination of the amount apportioned to said policy are hereby accepted for every person who shall have any interest in said policy; that I will accept said policy when issued and pay the first premium thereon, and that said policy shall not take effect until the first premium has been paid during my life and good health; that no premium shall be considered paid unless a receipt be given therefor, signed by the president, managing director or secretary; and that if I die by my own act, whether sane or insane, within two years from this date, then said policy shall be void.

Texas Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—DEFERRED DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $383.40. AGE, 35.

Texas Life Insurance Company hereby agrees to pay ten thousand dollars immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death of John Doe, the insured, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured and beneficiary, it being understood that the insured may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries as hereinafter provided.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the application herefor, a copy of which is attached to and made a part of this contract and of the payment in advance of three hundred eighty-three and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars, being the premium for term insurance for the first policy year ending on the first day of January, 1911. After the first policy year the insurance will be continued as whole life insurance upon the payment of the annual premium of three hundred eighty-three and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars on or before the first day of January in every year during the continuance of this policy, until premiums for twenty policy years, including the first, have been paid.

This policy shares in the profits of the company as follows: The accumulation period ends on the first day of January, 1930, if the insured be then living and all premiums have been paid, the company will apportion to this policy its share of the accumulated profits and the insured may then select one of the following:

OPTIONS OF SETTLEMENT.—(1) Surrender this policy for its entire cash value, viz: The guaranteed cash value of $6100 and the profits in cash then apportioned. (2) Receive the profits in cash; or (3) receive the profits converted into additional profit-sharing paid-up life insurance, subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and in any such case continue this policy for $10,000 as profit-sharing life insurance without further payment of premiums.

At the end of the accumulation period the company will send to the insured a written statement of the result under the foregoing options of settlement. If the insured's written selection of one of these options is not received at the home office within one month from maturity of this policy, it is agreed that settlement be made under option 1.

If this policy is continued beyond the accumulation period, profits will be apportioned annually at the end of each year thereafter during its continuance and shall be payable in cash.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—The company will pay for the insured the premiums required hereon for every policy year following the date of approval by the company of proof that the insured has become totally and permanently disabled as hereinafter defined, if premiums have been duly paid in cash by the insured to the end of the policy year in which such proof is approved. The premiums paid by the company in conformity with this provision will not be an indebtedness hereon and this policy will continue in full force towards maturity, sharing in the profits of the company among policies of its class, and with loan, cash and other guaranteed values increasing and progressing from year to year, in like manner as if the premiums were being duly and regularly paid by the insured. The total and permanent disability of the insured must be due to bodily injuries or disease, occurring while this policy is in full force, and must be such as to prevent the insured then and at all times thereafter from engaging in any gainful occupation; provided that if the insured should recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's obligation to pay further premiums shall cease and the insured be required to pay all premiums becoming due hereon after the date of such recovery. The irrecoverable loss of the entire sight of both eyes or the total and permanent loss, by removal or by disease, of the use of both hands, or of both feet, or such loss of the use of one hand and one foot, will be deemed total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision.

ANNUAL, SEMI-ANNUAL OR QUARTERLY PREMIUMS.—Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly in accordance with the rates in use by the company at the date hereof, and changed from one to another of such modes of payment upon the insured's written request therefor on the company's form; if the insured should not survive to complete premium payments for the current policy year the amount necessary for such completion will be deducted from the amount payable at death.

CONDITIONS REGARDING PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company in Waco, Tex., or to an authorized agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by the authorized agent. If any premium is not paid on the date when due, this policy shall be null and void, except as hereinafter provided.

This policy is non-forfeitable from date of issue as follows:

GRACE AND AUTOMATIC CONTINUED INSURANCE.—If any premium is not paid on the date when due, the insurance will continue in full force from such due date for the term of one month, which is the period of grace allowed hereunder; but if death occurs during said period any unpaid premium for the current policy year, will be deducted in any settlement of this policy. After the second policy year, if a premium is not paid within the period of grace, the insurance will automatically continue as term insurance, for the face amount hereof, for a further term, the total term of such continued insurance, including the period of grace, granted at completion of any policy year, being specified in the table below.

PAID-UP POLICY CASH VALUE.—In lieu of this aforesaid automatic term insurance, if premiums for at least three policy years have been paid, upon the insured's written request and legal surrender of this policy within one month from said due date, either a paid-up life policy will be issued, or the cash value of this policy paid, the amount of which, at the completion of any policy year, is specified in the table below.

The aforesaid automatic term insurance shall be without participation in profits, cash or loan values or further payment of premiums. The aforesaid paid-up life policy shall be without participation in profits.

SEMI-ANNUAL OR QUARTERLY PAYMENTS INCREASE VALUES.—In case of default in payment of a premium due at an intermediate period the non-forfeiture values will be computed on the same basis as the corresponding values for the end of the policy year last expired.

VALUES AUTOMATICALLY ADJUSTED IN CASE OF INDEBTEDNESS.—The foregoing table and provisions pertaining thereto are based on the assumption that there is no indebtedness to the company on this policy. If there is such indebtedness the cash value will be diminished thereby, the amount of paid-up life policy reduced proportionately, and the continued insurance modified in the following manner: The indebtedness will be deducted from the net value of the continued insurance and the balance used to continue this policy for its face amount less the indebtedness for such term as said balance may secure at net single premium term rates, by the standard hereinafter named, for the attained age of the insured.

REINSTATEMENT.—If any premium is not paid on the date when due, or within the period of grace, and this policy has not been surrendered, the company will reinstate the policy as of said due date at any time thereafter, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all arrears of premiums with interest, together with the payment, or reinstatement, of any indebtedness on this policy on said due date, with interest.

Loan values for subsequent policy years, being the full terminal reserve on the policy, will be furnished on application to the home office. All loan values under this policy are in excess of any legal requirements.

CASH LOANS.—At any time after the second policy year and while this policy is in full force, the insured can borrow from the company on the sole security of this policy properly assigned to and deposited with the company, any sum within the loan value specified in the table below, from which loan value any indebtedness hereon and any unpaid premiums for the current policy year will first be deducted. The company shall furnish the form for the assignment required hereunder and upon completion of the loan will issue its official certificate of deposit of the policy. Interest, at a rate of five per cent per annum, will be collected out of the amount of the loan to the end of the current policy year and thereafter be payable annually in advance. Failure to repay any such loan, or to pay interest thereon, shall not avoid this policy, unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value on this policy at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any.

INSTALMENT PRIVILEGE.—The insured may change the mode of payment of the proceeds of this policy as a death claim from payment in one sum to payment by annual instalments, as provided on the fourth page hereof; such instalments will be increased by dividends as provided on said page.

TRUST FUND PRIVILEGE.—The insured may place the proceeds of this policy as a death claim in trust with the company to secure a guaranteed annual cash income with dividends in addition thereto, as provided on the fourth page hereof.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may at any time during the continuance of this policy, with the consent of the company, provided the policy is not then assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries herein by filing at the home office a written request on the company's form therefor, duly acknowledged accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

This policy is unrestricted from date of issue as to travel, residence or occupation, in time of peace or war.

This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, if the premiums are duly paid.

AGE.—If the age of the insured is understated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—Any assignment of this policy must be made in duplicate and both sent to the home office, one to be retained by the company and the other to be returned. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy and the application herefor taken together constitute the entire contract. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the written application herefor.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—This policy is payable at the home office of the company in Waco, Tex., and proof of interest of claimant will be required; any indebtedness to the company will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or of any benefit hereunder. In case of death by self destruction, sane or insane, within one year from date of issue hereof, the amount payable shall equal the total amount of premiums paid. The reserve on this policy and the net value of the term of continued insurance and paid-up life policy hereunder shall be computed upon the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at three per cent per annum. The non-forfeiture values hereunder are based on the reserve at date of default in the payment of premium, and the loan values are based on the reserve at the end of the current policy year. The deduction from such reserve in determining such values is in no case in excess of twenty per cent of the reserve, or of two and one-half per cent of the sum insured hereunder. Only the president or secretary has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, or to extend the time for paying any premium, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter made, unless made in writing by one of said officers.

This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred on the insured by this policy.

In witness whereof, the Texas Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary executed this policy at Waco, Tex., this first day of January, 1910.

ANNUITY PRIVILEGES.—The proceeds of this contract, if in excess of $1000, may be placed in trust with the company for one of the following purposes: (1) To pay to the insured, as annuitant, if the proceeds become payable during his lifetime, annual life instalments or annual instalments limited to a period of years as per the accompanying tables; or, (2) to pay to the insured, as annuitant, interest on such proceeds during the continuance of the trust, at the rate of three per cent per annum, the principal or the part thereof, remaining with the company to be returned at the termination of the trust or the death of annuitant; or, (3) to pay to the beneficiary, as annuitant, from the time when the proceeds are payable, annual life instalments or annual instalments limited to a period of years, as per the accompanying tables; or, (4) to pay to the beneficiary, as annuitant, interest on such proceeds during the continuance of the trust, at the rate of three per cent per annum, the principal, or the part thereof, remaining with the company to be returned at the termination of the trust or the death of annuitant.

The payments guaranteed in this trust privilege are based on interest earnings of three per cent. If the interest earned by the company on the proceeds of policies placed in trust shall exceed three per cent in any calendar year, the company will add to any interest or instalment paid in the subsequent year a dividend to be apportioned by the company from such excess earnings. If the trust is created by the insured for the benefit of the beneficiary, the beneficiary cannot assign or commute the payments of life or limited instalments, nor, if the proceeds are placed in trust subject to interest, withdraw the principal or anticipate the interest, unless such right is given by the insured in writing and is endorsed upon this contract by the company at its home office during the lifetime of the insured. If the trust is created by the insured for his own benefit, the insured may at any time subsequently commute or assign the unpaid life or limited instalments, or at any time withdraw the principal, or any part thereof, remaining unpaid, with accrued interest.

If the trust is created by the beneficiary, the beneficiary may at any time subsequently commute or assign the unpaid life or limited instalments, or at any time withdraw the principal, or any part thereof, remaining unpaid, with accrued interest. No trust agreement shall be created or take effect other than by a writing subscribed by the company at its home office and by the persons creating such trust. Where a trust is revoked, and a new one is not created, and no other provision is made for the proceeds of the insurance, payment shall be made as directed in the contract. If the annuitant shall die before receiving all of the payments of life or limited instalments, the remainder thereof shall be made due thereafter to the executors, administrators or assigns of the annuitant; or, if the proceeds are subject to annual interest only, the principal, or any part thereof, remaining with the company shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the annuitant. The first payment of life or limited instalments shall be made as follows: Upon receipt of due proof of death of the insured, where the insurance is payable at the death of the insured, or upon the creation of the trust, where the proceeds are payable to the insured and the trust is created by him, or where the trust is created by the beneficiary. The first payment of interest shall be made one year from the date of the receipt of due proofs of death, where the insurance is payable at the death of the insured, or twelve months from the date of the creation of the trust, where the proceeds are payable to the insured and the trust is created by him, or the trust is created by the beneficiary.

If the annuitant is thirty-five years of age, last birthday, when the proceeds of the contract are payable, the amount of each annual income will be $45 for each $1000 of the proceeds of the contract, payable during the entire lifetime of the annuitant; but if the annuitant should die before at least twenty-five annual instalments shall have been paid, the remainder of such twenty-five annual instalments will continue to be paid annually to the executors, administrators or assigns of the annuitant.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby certify on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued under this application, as follows: (1) That all statements and answers written in this application marked Part 1, as well as those made and to be made to the medical examiner in continuation hereof, marked Part 2, are true and complete; that no material information or facts which should have been stated have been suppressed, and that the same are offered to the company as a consideration for the contract of insurance. (2) That if within one year from the date of any policy issued hereon I shall die by self-destruction, sane or insane, the amount due and payable as a death claim shall be the amount of premiums paid, and no more. (3) That no statements or answers made to or received by any person or to the company, shall be binding on the company, unless such statements or answers be reduced to writing and are made a part of this application. (4) That any policy issued hereon shall be in the form now in use by the company and together with this application and Part 2 thereof shall constitute the entire contract, which can only be varied by the president or secretary of the company, and then only in writing. (5) That the insurance under any policy issued hereon shall for the first policy year be term insurance expiring at the end of such year, and then, at age at issue advanced one year, commence and be continued as such insurance as may be provided in the policy. (6) That in any apportionment or distribution of profits or dividends the principles and methods which may be adopted by the company for such apportionment or distribution are accepted by me, for myself and all parties having or claiming any interest under any policy issued hereon. (7) That the insurance hereby applied for shall not take effect unless the premium is paid and the policy delivered to and accepted by me during my lifetime and good health, and that then the first insurance or policy shall end on the first anniversary of the date of this application, or in any event, on such date as may be fixed by the company in the policy.

Travelers Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY — NON-PARTICIPATING — DISABILITY.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $285.

AGE, 35.

The Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., by this contract of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company in Hartford, Conn., to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, immediately on receipt of due proofs of the death of John Doe, the insured, of Hartford, county of Hartford, State of Connecticut, during the continuance of this contract and before the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability set forth on the third page hereof.

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of the premium of two hundred eighty-five dollars, payable annually in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or a secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company. The first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the first day of March in each year until premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid or until prior death or until the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability. Premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office or to an authorized agent of the company.

DATE EFFECTIVE.—This insurance shall be effective from March 1st, 1916. The insurance years, and all subsequent provisions for cash loans, cash values, paid-up and automatic term insurance are computed from that date.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This contract shall be incontestable after one year from the date of issue, except for non-payment of premiums. It is free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

This contract is subject to the privileges and conditions recited on the subsequent pages hereof.

In witness whereof The Travelers Insurance Company has caused this instrument to be signed by its president and a secretary, at Hartford, Conn., this first day of March, 1916.

SPECIAL ANNUITY OPTION.—The cash value at end of twenty years may be converted into an annual income of $437.50 payable during the natural life of the insured, first payment twenty years from date of contract.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

CASH LOANS.—On demand in writing to the home office of the company, after three full years' premiums shall have been paid, the insured may borrow at any time during the year on the sole security of this contract an amount not exceeding the cash value at the end of the current contract year as specified in the table of cash values hereinafter set forth, provided: interest in advance at the rate of five per cent per annum shall be deducted from the loan; the contract shall be assigned to the company by all of the parties in interest thereunder; the premiums shall be fully paid to the end of the current contract year, or if not already so paid shall be deducted in the adjustment of the loan; the amount available at any time shall include any previous loan then unpaid. If the total indebtedness shall equal or exceed the cash value at the time of failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest when due, such failure shall render this contract null and void at the expiration of one month after due notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the person to whom the loan shall have been made and of the insured, or assignee, if any.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days during which the contract will remain in full force will be allowed in the payment of all premiums except the first.

REINSTATEMENT OF CONTRACT.—In case of default in the payment of any premium or interest the company will reinstate the contract at any time, if not previously surrendered for its cash value, upon written application by the insured to the company at its home office with evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, payment of all premiums that would have been paid in the intervening time if no default had been made with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum computed from the premium due date, and payment or reinstatement, with interest at like rate, of any indebtedness existing at the time of default.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY—SUCCESSION.—Provided this contract is not assigned, the insured may at any time and from time to time during its continuance change the beneficiary, to take effect only when such change and the written consent of the company thereto are indorsed upon the contract at the home office of the company, or attached thereto, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If the insured shall survive the beneficiary or beneficiaries or any of them named herein, the proceeds of the contract or the share of the deceased beneficiary or beneficiaries, as the case may be, shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, unless otherwise provided in or by indorsement upon this contract.

INSTALMENT OPTION.—The proceeds of this contract, if not less than $1000, may be placed in trust with the company to pay to the beneficiary from the time when such proceeds are payable, an annual income limited to a period of years, or an annual life income, according to the accompanying tables.

TRUST FUND OPTION.—The proceeds of this contract may similarly be placed in trust with the company, to pay to the beneficiary, during the continuance of the trust, interest on such proceeds at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, such proceeds to be returned at the termination of the trust, or to be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary in event of death prior to such termination.

NON-FORFEITABLE PRIVILEGES.

If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, and if there shall be no indebtedness to the company, the insurance will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance during the term, including the period of grace, specified in Column 3 of the accompanying table; or in lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract the company will, as the insured may elect, either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up insurance if any, specified in Column 2 or pay the cash value, if any, specified in Column 1.

If there shall be an indebtedness to the company, and if any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, an amount of insurance, equal to the face amount of this contract less the indebtedness, will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance, for the term, including the period of grace, which the excess of the cash value of the contract, if any, over the indebtedness will purchase at the then age of the insured, at the single premium rates according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest. In lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract, the company will, as the insured may elect, either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up life insurance which said excess will purchase at the then age of the insured, on the mortality and interest basis heretofore designated or pay said excess in cash.

The term insurance and the paid-up insurance specified above may be surrendered for cash and paid-up insurance shall be subject to cash loans.

If the premiums on this contract shall be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, due allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of the year's premium paid over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated.

CASH AND LOAN VALUES, PAID-UP AND AUTOMATIC TERM INSURANCE.—The values herein specified are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest and are at least equal to the entire legal reserve on this contract less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereby. At the end of the twentieth year and thereafter the surrender value is the full reserve according to this standard.

SETTLEMENT IN EVENT OF PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid upon this contract and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured shall furnish the company with due proof that he has since such payment and before having attained the age of sixty, become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company will pay to him during such disability and in full settlement of this contract, twenty annual instalments—the first instalment to be paid six months after receipt of due proof of permanent total disability. The amount of each such annual instalment shall be six and eight-tenths per cent of the amount of insurance stated on the first page hereof after deducting therefrom any indebtedness under this contract. Any instalments remaining unpaid at the death of the insured shall be payable as they become due to the beneficiary or beneficiaries of this insurance who shall have the right to commute such remaining payments into one sum on the basis of interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. The insured shall not have the right to commute any instalments becoming payable under this contract. If the insured shall furnish proof of like disability occurring after he shall have attained the age of sixty, the company will allow all premiums falling due more than six months after receipt of such proof to accumulate without interest as an indebtedness on this contract and in such case the values in the table on page two shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured. In addition to or independently of all other causes of permanent total disability the company will consider the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists, or of both feet at or above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot as permanent total disability within the meaning of this provision. The annual premium for the benefits provided in this clause is twenty-five cents per $1000 of insurance hereunder, which premium is included in the whole premium charged for this contract. It is agreed that the insured may at any time discontinue the benefits provided by this clause, and thereafter the benefits thereunder shall cease, and the premium on this contract shall be reduced by the amount provided in this clause if the contract shall be returned to the company for proper endorsement with written request signed by the insured.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—No agent can make, alter or discharge this contract or extend the time for payment of premiums nor can this contract be varied or altered or its conditions waived or extended in any respect, except by the written agreement of the company, in compliance with the law of the state in which the contract is issued, signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents or secretaries, whose authority will not be delegated.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured was incorrectly stated in the application for this contract, the amount payable hereunder shall be the insurance which the actual premium paid would have purchased at the true age of the insured. Age will be admitted on satisfactory proof.

NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due the liability of the company shall be only as hereinbefore provided.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment hereof shall be binding upon the company unless made by an instrument in writing indorsed upon this contract or attached hereto, nor unless a duplicate shall be furnished to the company forthwith upon its execution. The company shall not be held responsible for the validity of any such assignment. Any claim made under an assignment shall be subject to proof of interest and extent thereof.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this contract will be deducted in any settlement hereunder. Any part of the premium for the insurance year remaining unpaid at the death of the insured shall be considered an indebtedness to the company hereunder.

SUICIDE.—In case of suicide committed while sane or insane within one year from the date on which this insurance shall become effective the limit of recovery hereunder shall be the premiums paid.

ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This instrument and the application constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all statements purporting to be made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties and no such statement shall avoid the contract or be used in defence to a claim under the contract unless it be contained in the application herefor and a copy of such application is attached hereto.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree for myself and for any person who may have or claim an interest in any contract which may be issued upon this application, as follows: 1. That in case of suicide, committed while sane or insane, within one year from date of the contract issued, the limit of recovery thereunder shall be the premiums paid. 2. That every declaration herein above contained, is true; and that the contract issued hereupon shall not take effect unless the first premium shall be actually paid while I am in good health.

ORDINARY LIFE—PREMIUM REDUCTION CONTRACT—DISABILITY.
AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM 1ST YEAR $265.20. THEREAFTER $201.60. AGE, 35

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of the premium of two hundred sixty-five and $\frac{20}{100}$ dollars, payable annually in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or a secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company.

The first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the first day of March in each year during the continuance of the contract or until the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability.

See preceding contract for face of policy, except as above, also as to special privileges, total disability and general conditions.

SPECIAL ANNUITY OPTION.—The cash value at end of twenty years may be converted into an annual income of $240.40 payable during the natural life of the insured, first payment twenty years from date of contract.

CASH AND LOAN VALUES, PAID-UP AND AUTOMATIC TERM INSURANCE.—The values herein specified are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest and are at least equal to the entire legal reserve on this contract less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereby. At the end of the twentieth year and thereafter the surrender value is the full reserve according to this standard.

GUARANTEED REDUCTION IN ANNUAL PREMIUM.—At the beginning of the second year from the date on which this insurance shall become effective and annually thereafter the company will apply to the reduction of each annual premium as required by this contract a sum equal to 23.9 per cent of the first annual premium as follows: First annual premium, $265.20; annual guaranteed reduction commencing with second annual premium, $63.60; annual premium after first year, $201.60. Or in lieu thereof the guaranteed reduction may be applied annually by the insured to purchase a paid-up addition to this contract. When annual premiums are paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments the reduction will be in like proportion.

Existing paid-up additions may be surrendered separately for cash, according to the company's tables, or may be applied to increase the value of the contract if premiums shall be discontinued.

If the contract shall be surrendered for its cash value the cash value of the additions according to the company's tables will be added to the cash value of the contract; if surrendered for paid-up insurance the amount of such additions will be added to the paid-up insurance value; if automatically continued for the original amount of insurance or any part thereof the cash value of the additions will be applied at the single premium rates according to the mortality table heretofore designated to extend the term of such insurance.

CERTIFICATE OF MAXIMUM VALUES.—The insured under the above contract having elected in writing to pay annually a premium of $265.20 it is hereby agreed, provided the insured shall duly make such payments, that the values under this contract will be increased yearly to the figures shown in the accompanying table. The increased insurance in any contract year shall become effective immediately upon payment of the annual premium. The remaining values shall be available at the end of the year indicated. If the premium is payable semi-annually or quarterly, one-half or one-quarter, respectively, of the yearly addition will accrue as each partial payment shall be made. The insured may at any time hereafter by election in writing pay the reduced premium under this contract and this certificate shall thereupon become inoperative as to future paid-up additions and other values. The outstanding additions may be surrendered for cash at the end of any insurance year, in which event this certificate shall become void. If the insured shall have duly paid the premium herein specified for twenty full years, the special annuity option provided for in the contract shall be increased to $354. Nothing herein contained shall vary, alter or extend any of the agreements, conditions or obligations of this contract except as set forth herein.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE—WITH GUARANTEED ENDOWMENT ADDITIONS—DISABILITY.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $375.10. AGE, 35.

The Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn. by this contract of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company in Hartford, Conn., to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, immediately on receipt of due proofs of the death of John Doe the insured, of Hartford, county of Hartford, State of Connecticut during the continuance of this contract and before the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability set forth on the third page hereof.

GUARANTEED ENDOWMENT—CONTRACT FULLY PAID.—If the insured shall be living on the first day of March, 1936, and if the premiums in each year shall have been paid, the guaranteed endowment of $2840 shall be paid in cash to the insured, and this insurance shall be continued without further payment of premiums, or in lieu thereof and of all other benefits hereunder the insured may select one of the options designated on the second page of this contract.

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of the premium of three hundred seventy-five and $\frac{10}{100}$ dollars, payable annually in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or a secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company.

The first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the first day of March in each year until premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid or until prior death or until the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability.

Premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office or to an authorized agent of the company.

DATE EFFECTIVE.—This insurance shall be effective from March 1st, 1916. The insurance years, and all subsequent provisions for cash loans, cash values, paid-up and automatic term insurance are computed from that date. The accumulations for the guaranteed endowment shall commence with the second year.

See first policy given for remainder of face of policy.

OPTIONS AT END OF TWENTY YEARS.—The insured may select in lieu of all other benefits hereunder one of the following options to become available upon surrender of this contract at the end of twenty years, unless payments shall theretofore have been made under the provision entitled "settlement in event of permanent total disability." (1) A cash payment of $8500. (2) A paid-up contract for $15,010, without medical examination provided the insured shall notify the company in writing of the selection of this option between the sixteenth and eighteenth anniversaries of the issuance of this contract; otherwise, the insured shall furnish evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company. (3) An annual income of $657 payable during the natural life of the insured, first payment twenty years from date of contract. (4) A paid-up contract for the original amount of insurance and an annual income of $219.50, payable during the natural life of the insured, first payment twenty years from date of contract.

For special privileges, see first policy given.

NON-FORFEITABLE PRIVILEGES.

If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, and if there shall be no indebtedness to the company, the insurance will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance during the term, including the period of grace, specified in Column 3 of the accompanying table, and the amount of cash, specified in Column 4, if any, will be paid as a pure endowment to the insured at the end of the twenty years from the date on which this insurance shall become effective: or in lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract the company will, as the insured may elect, either pay the cash value, if any, specified in Column 1, or issue a contract for the amount of paid-up life insurance, if any, specified in Column 2.

If there shall be an indebtedness to the company, and if any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, an amount of insurance, equal to the face amount of this contract less the indebtedness, will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance, for the term, including the period of grace, which the excess of the cash value of the contract, if any, over the indebtedness will purchase at the then age of the insured, at the single premium rates according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest. Should the excess be more than sufficient to extend such insurance for life the amount of excess remaining will be applied to the purchase of a pure endowment payable to the insured if living at the end of twenty years from the date on which this insurance shall become effective. In lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract, the company will, as the insured may elect, either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up life insurance which said excess will purchase at the then age of the insured, on the mortality and interest basis heretofore designated, or pay said excess in cash.

The term insurance and the paid-up insurance specified above may be surrendered for cash and paid-up insurance shall be subject to cash loans.

If the premiums on this contract shall be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, due allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of the year's premium paid over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated.

CASH AND LOAN VALUES, PAID-UP AND AUTOMATIC TERM INSURANCE.—The values herein specified are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest and are at least equal to the entire legal reserve on this contract less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereby. The accumulations for the guaranteed endowment commence with the second year and the reserves are upon that basis. At the end of the twentieth year and thereafter the surrender value is the full reserve according to this standard.

For settlement in event of permanent total disability, see first policy given with the addition of the following paragraph.

If the insured shall have become permanently and totally disabled but shall be living on the date specified on the first page hereof for the payment of the guaranteed endowment, said guaranteed endowment shall be payable to him on the date specified irrespective of any instalment payments which may have been made following permanent total disability.

General conditions same as given in first policy.

TWENTY-YEAR ENDOWMENT—INCOME BOND—DISABILITY.

AMOUNT, $10,000 (IN 20 ANNUAL INSTALMENTS) COMMUTED VALUE, $7354.90. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $311.30. AGE, 35.

The Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., by this contract of insurance agrees to pay twenty annual instalments of five hundred dollars each at the home office of the company in Hartford, Conn., to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, the first such instalment to be paid immediately on receipt of due proofs of the death of John Doe the insured, of Hartford, county of Hartford, State of Connecticut during the continuance of this contract and either before its maturity as an endowment or before the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability.

MATURITY AS ENDOWMENT.—The insured, if living on the first day of March, 1936, provided the premiums payable in each insurance year shall have been paid, and provided this contract shall not have previously matured under the terms of the provision for permanent total disability set forth on the third page hereof, shall be entitled to receive in full settlement of this contract the annual instalments in the manner described above, the first instalment to be paid on the maturity date aforesaid, or in lieu thereof and of all other benefits hereunder, upon surrender of this contract, to take in cash the commuted value, $7354.90.

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of the premium of three hundred eleven and ³⁰/₁₀₀ dollars, payable annually in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or a secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company.

The first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the first day of March in each year until premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid or until prior death or until the payment of any benefit as the result of permanent total disability.

Premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office or to an authorized agent of the company.

DATE EFFECTIVE.—This insurance shall be effective from March 1st, 1916. The insurance years, and all subsequent provisions for cash loans, cash values, paid-up and automatic term insurance are computed from that date.

For remainder of face of contract see first policy given.

OPTIONS AT MATURITY.—If this contract shall mature as an endowment the insured may then select in lieu of all other benefits hereunder one of the following options: (1) Receive a cash payment of $3190 and a paid-up contract payable at death for $7350. (2) Receive a paid-up contract payable at death for $12,990. (3) Receive an annual income of $568.50 payable during the natural life of the insured. Options 1 and 2 are conditioned upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.

For special privileges as to cash loans, grace in payment of premiums, reinstatement of contract and change of beneficiary, succession, see first policy given.

PAYMENT OF INSTALMENTS.—If the beneficiary shall die before becoming entitled to the first instalment, the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured shall have the option at his death of taking in cash the present value of all instalments hereunder which may accrue after his death, computed at three and one-half per cent interest. The executors, administrators, or assigns of the beneficiary, in the event that the beneficiary shall die after the insured and before receiving all the instalments hereunder, may exercise the same option. At the maturity of the contract as an endowment, or thereafter upon any anniversary of the first instalment, the insured may likewise commute all future instalments. If the insured shall die after receiving one or more of the aforesaid annual instalments, and provided he shall not have exercised the privilege of commutation, the remaining instalments hereunder shall be paid after like proof of death to the beneficiary upon the same date in each year specified for the payment to the insured. The beneficiary cannot assign or commute future instalments unless this right shall be given by the insured to the beneficiary in writing and shall be endorsed on this contract by the company at its home office during the lifetime of the insured.

NON-FORFEITABLE PRIVILEGES.

If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, and if there shall be no indebtedness to the company, the insurance payable in instalments as hereinbefore provided will automatically continue from said due date as term insurance during the term, including the period of grace, specified in Column 3 of the accompanying table and the amount of cash, if any, specified in Column 4 will be paid as a pure endowment at the end of the period if the insured is then living; or in lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract the company will, as the insured may elect, either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up insurance if any, specified in Column 2, or pay the cash value, if any, specified in Column 1.

If there shall be an indebtedness to the company, and if any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, an insurance payable in instalments of the same number, and at the same periods as hereinbefore provided will automatically continue from said due date for the term, including the period of grace, but not extending beyond the endowment period, which the excess of the cash value of the contract, if any, over the indebtedness will purchase at the then age of the insured, at the single premium rates according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest. The amount of such instalments shall bear the same proportion to the original instalments that the said excess shall bear to the cash value hereof, provided that if any of said instalments shall thereby be reduced to less than fifty dollars annually, then in lieu of such instalments the insurance shall be extended for a like term for an amount equal to the commuted value of the reduced instalments. In either case should such excess be more than sufficient to purchase term insurance to the end of the endowment period, the amount remaining will be applied to the purchase of a pure endowment, payable to the insured, if living, at the end of the endowment period. In lieu of such term insurance, upon written request made by the insured within three months from said due date and surrender of the contract, the company will, as the insured may elect, either issue a contract for the amount of paid-up endowment insurance which said excess will purchase at the then age of the insured, on the mortality and interest basis heretofore designated, or pay said excess in cash.

The term insurance and the paid-up insurance specified above may be surrendered for cash and paid-up insurance shall be subject to cash loans.

If the premiums on this contract shall be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments, due allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of the year's premium paid over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated.

CASH AND LOAN VALUES, PAID-UP AND AUTOMATIC TERM INSURANCE.—The values therein specified are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest and are at least equal to the entire legal reserve on this contract less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured hereby.

* Payable at maturity as an endowment or at prior death of insured.

Loan values available during contract year.

MATURITY IN EVENT OF PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid upon this contract and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured shall furnish the company with due proof that he has since such payment and before having attained the age of sixty, become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company will pay to the insured during such disability, and in full settlement of this contract, the annual instalments in the manner described on the first page hereof, the first instalment to be paid six months after receipt of due proof of permanent total disability. Any instalments remaining unpaid at the death of the insured shall be payable as they become due to the beneficiary or beneficiaries of this insurance. The insured shall not have the right to commute any instalments becoming payable under this contract prior to the date specified for its maturity as an endowment, nor shall the beneficiary or beneficiaries have the right to commute any instalments unless such right shall have been given by the insured to the beneficiary in writing and shall be endorsed on this contract by the company at its home office during the lifetime of the insured. If the insured shall furnish proof of like disability occurring after he shall have attained the age of sixty, the company will allow all premiums falling due more than six months after receipt of such proof to accumulate without interest as an indebtedness on this contract and in such case the values in the table on page two shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured. In addition to or independently of all other causes of permanent total disability the company will consider the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists, or of both feet at or above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot as permanent total disability within the meaning of this provision. The annual premium for the benefits provided in this clause is twenty-five cents per $1000 of commuted value hereunder, which premium is included in the whole premium charged for this contract. It is agreed that the insured may at any time discontinue the benefits provided by this clause, and thereafter the benefits thereunder shall cease, and the premium on this contract shall be reduced by the amount provided in this clause if the contract shall be returned to the company for proper endorsement with written request signed by the insured.

For general conditions, see first policy given.

TEN-YEAR NON-RENEWABLE TERM.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $102.

AGE, 35.

The Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., by this contract of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company in Hartford, Connecticut, to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, immediately on receipt of due proofs of the death of John Doe the insured, of Hartford, county of Hartford, State of Connecticut, during the continuance of this contract and within ten years from the date this insurance shall become effective.

PREMIUM.—This contract is issued in consideration of the application for this insurance which is made a part hereof and copied hereon, and of the premium of one hundred two dollars, payable annually in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or a secretary and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company. The first such payment shall be made on the delivery of this contract, and a like payment on or before the first day of June in each year during the continuance of this contract. Premiums shall be payable in advance at the home office or to an authorized agent of the company.

DATE EFFECTIVE.—This insurance shall be effective from June 1st, 1914.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This contract shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premiums. It is free from conditions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death. No permit or extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war or in time of peace.

This contract is subject to the privileges and conditions recited on the subsequent pages hereof.

In witness whereof The Travelers Insurance Company has caused this instrument to be signed by its president and a secretary, at Hartford, Conn., this first day of June, 1914.

For conditions as to grace in payment of premiums, change of beneficiary, succession, instalment option, trust fund option and general conditions, see first policy given.

REINSTATEMENT OF CONTRACT.—In case of default in the payment of any premium hereon when due, the company will reinstate the contract at any time provided the term covered by the contract shall not have expired, upon written application by the insured to the company at its home office with evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of all premiums that would have been paid in the intervening time if no default had been made, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum computed from the premium due date.

OPTION TO CONVERT FORM.—Upon receipt of a written request from the insured within eight years from the date on which this insurance shall become effective and provided the insured shall not then be over fifty years of age this contract if in force and not assigned will be converted without medical examination into any life or endowment contract issued by the company at the time of such conversion. The new contract shall be for a like amount of insurance, shall bear the date on which the conversion shall be made and the premium thereon shall be at the attained age of the insured, according to the company's tables then in use. Or under the same conditions this contract may be converted into a like amount of insurance, under any life or endowment contract now being issued by the company upon payment by the insured of the sum of the annual differences between the premium for this contract and the premium for the new contract at the company's present rates for the age at which this contract is issued, with compound interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, and all of the benefits and concessions therein will relate back to the effective date of this contract.

The Two-Republics Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $306.80.

AGE. 35.

The Two-Republics Life Insurance Company, El Paso, Tex., promises to pay ten thousand dollars to Mary Roe (wife) (herein called the beneficiary), at its office in El Paso, Tex., immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death, during the continuance of this policy, of Richard Roe, of El Paso, County of El Paso, State of Texas (herein called the insured), less any indebtedness of the insured or beneficiary to the company.

This policy of insurance is granted for the term of one year, from the first day of October, 1914, in consideration of the payment of three hundred six and ⁸⁰/₁₀₀ dollars, and will thereafter be renewed and continued as a limited payment life policy upon payment of a like amount on the first day of October in every year during the continuance of this contract, or until the premiums for twenty years in all have been paid.

TABLE OF LOAN AND SURRENDER VALUES.

The following table shows the loan values available under this policy; also the options that will be available upon default in premium payments:

* Loans will be granted at the beginning instead of at the end of the year, if so desired, provided the entire premium for the year has been paid.

The surrender values in the above table are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent. interest per annum. If the premiums on this policy be paid in quarterly or semi-annual instalments, due allowance will be made in computing benefits from the above table for that portion of a year's premium paid over and above the full number of years indicated.

The benefits, agreement and provisions written and printed on the following page are hereby made a part of this contract.

In witness whereof, The Two-Republics Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary at its office in the City of El Paso, the first day of October, 1914.

BENEFITS, AGREEMENTS AND PROVISIONS.

PREMIUMS.—1. All premiums on this policy shall be payable in advance either at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company upon the delivery of a receipt signed by the president, vice-president or secretary of the company, and duly countersigned by such agent. Any unpaid part of the premium or premiums for the current policy year will be deducted in any settlement of this policy. If any premium or any extension note or other obligation given therefor shall not be paid when due, this policy shall thereupon cease, except as herein provided.

GRACE.—2. One month's grace (not less than thirty days) is allowed for the payment of every premium after the first without interest charge, during which month this insurance shall continue in force. If the insured should die during the period of grace the over-due premium will be deducted in any settlement under this policy.

INCONTESTABILITY.—3. This policy shall constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured, and is free of all conditions as to residence, travel or occupation, and shall be incontestable after one year from date, except for non-payment of premiums; provided that, in the case of the death of the insured, by his own hand while sane or insane within one year from the date of this policy, the company's liability shall be limited to the amount of the premium paid hereon; provided further that, in case of the death of the insured while engaged in naval or military service in time of war, unless the insured has first obtained written permission from the president or secretary to engage in such service, the company's liability hereunder shall be limited to the net reserve under this policy computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum.

REPRESENTATIONS.—4. All statements made by the insured in the application for this policy and to the Medical Examiner shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

AGE.—5. If the age of the insured has been understated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—6. The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries, and subject to the rules of the company regarding beneficiaries, at any time during the continuance of this policy, provided the policy has not been assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by written notice to the company at its home office, such change to take effect on the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary should die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—7. Any assignment of this policy must be filed at the office of the company in El Paso, Texas. The company will assume no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

REINSTATEMENT.—8. In the event of default in premium payments and the application of the value of this policy to the purchase of other insurance, and if such other insurance shall be in force and the original policy shall not have been surrendered to the company and canceled, this policy may be reinstated at any time upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payment of arrears of premiums, with interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum.

AUTHORITY.—9. Only the president, vice-president or secretary has power on behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance or to extend the time for paying any premium. The company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above.

LOANS.—10. At any time after two years' premiums have been paid, subject to 90 days' notice at company's option, and while this policy is in force, the company will advance, on pledge of the policy and on sole security thereof, a cash loan not exceeding the amount named in the "Table of Loan and Surrender Values" appearing hereon, the loan to bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable in advance. It is understood that the company reserves the right to deduct any indebtedness against the policy from said loan. Failure to repay said loan or interest will not avoid the policy so long as premiums continue to be paid and the amount of said loan with interest does not exceed the amount of the loan value as shown in said table.

NON-FORFEITURE.—11. If this policy should lapse through non-payment of premiums after it has been in force for two years, the company will, provided there is no indebtedness against it, and subject to the other conditions of the policy, extend automatically as a term policy, the amount insured by this policy for the time named in the "Table of Loan and Surrender Values." In lieu of the extended insurance on the second or any subsequent anniversary of this policy, or within one month thereafter this policy being in force and all premiums having been duly paid, the company will grant the following options: First. Paid-up insurance payable at death for the sum named in the "Table of Loan and Surrender Values," policy holder releasing any further claims hereunder; or, Second. Cash surrender value as fixed in said table, policy holder releasing any further claims hereunder. After the expiration of twenty years from the date hereof, the provisions as to loans and cash surrender values will still continue in force, and the amounts will be computed on the same basis as the amounts in the "table of loan and surrender values" given in this policy.

SPECIAL DISABILITY FEATURE.—12. After one full annual premium shall have been paid, and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if the insured, prior to attaining the age of sixty years, shall furnish to the company satisfactory proofs that he has become totally and permanently blind; or that he has suffered the loss of both legs or of both arms; or of one entire foot and one entire hand; or that he has become wholly disabled by bodily injury or by disease, and is and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company, by an endorsement in writing upon this policy, will continue the insurance in force during such disability without payment of premiums, and the value in the "table of loan and surrender values" shall increase the same as if the premiums were paid by the insured. At any time after such endorsement has been made, the company will, at the option of the insured, provided there is no indebtedness against the policy make an annual payment to the insured of one-tenth of the face of the policy, the first such payment to be made immediately upon acceptance by the company of satisfactory proofs of such disability, and subsequent payments shall be made on each anniversary date thereafter until such annual payments shall amount to $....., or the full face of this policy, when policy shall be declared fully paid, and no further liability against the company shall arise. Provided, however, that as often as required by the company the insured shall furnish satisfactory proof of the continuance of the disability; that should the insured so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation he shall resume payment of subsequent premiums as originally provided in the policy the annual payments by the company shall cease, and the face of the policy shall be decreased by an amount equal to the sum of the annual payments that shall have been made, and subsequent premiums to be paid by the insured shall be reduced in corresponding proportion.

INSTALMENT.—13. The proceeds of this policy may, by written request of the insured while this policy is in force, be made payable: First. In a limited number of annual instalments, as per following Option 1:

If the insured has requested that the proceeds of this policy shall be paid in instalments, the beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments unless the written consent of the insured has been filed with the home office, and endorsement made on this policy by the company during the lifetime of the insured.

CHANGE TO OTHER FORMS.—14. At any time, while in full force, and provided the insured is then less than sixty years of age, this policy may be exchanged, without medical re-examination, for a policy payable in like manner as this policy and for the same amount upon any plan then issued by the company, and having a higher rate of premium. Such change shall become effective upon payment of a sum equal to the difference between the premiums paid on this policy and what would have been required at the said higher rate with compound interest at five per cent per annum on the difference between the two premium rates, computed from the due date of each premium payment to the date when the change is made, and upon the surrender of this policy. The new policy will take effect as of the date of this policy, and the premium will be based on the same age as this policy. This provision for "change to other forms" will not apply where this policy is in force under its disability provision.

IMMEDIATE PAYMENT.—15. In event this policy shall become a claim, the beneficiary or beneficiaries can execute the form of draft, for two hundred dollars ($200), which is delivered with this policy, and on presentation to the home office, if properly executed, same will be paid in advance of receipt of proofs of death, and said amount will be deducted from any settlement made under this policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—I represent that all of the foregoing and following statements and answers are true, full and complete as contained in this application, whether written by my own hand or not, and are offered to The Two Republics Life Insurance Company as a consideration for and as a basis of the contract with said company under any policy that maybe issued upon this application. That no statements, promises or information made or given by or to the person soliciting or taking this application other than those written and contained herein shall have any binding force or in any way affect the rights of the company. That this application and the policy which may be issued hereon is to be construed under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Texas.

PART II.—I have verified each of the foregoing answers made in the application for insurance and to the Medical Examiner, and adopt them as my own, whether written by me or not, and represent that they are full, complete and true answers to the questions against which they are written. And I agree that their truth shall be a condition precedent to any binding contract issued upon the faith of the said answers. I expressly waive on behalf of myself and of any person who shall have or claim any interest in any policy issued hereunder, all provisions of law forbidding any physician or other person who has attended or examined me, or who may hereafter attend or examine me, from disclosing any knowledge or information which he thereby acquired.

Union Central Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—DISABILITY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $343.20, AGE, 35.

The Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, O., in consideration (1. Premium) of three hundred forty-three and $\frac{20}{100}$ dollars and of the payment of a like amount annually on the seventh day of October in every year during the lifetime of the insured or until twenty such annual premiums shall have been paid (\$11.90) of each of said annual premiums, being the consideration for the disability benefits hereinafter provided, hereby insures the life (2. Insured.) of Richard B. Roe in (3. Amount.) the amount of ten thousand dollars, payable, less any indebtedness and advances hereon and any unpaid portion of the premium for the current policy year, at its home office in Cincinnati, Ohio, to (4. Beneficiary.) Mary A. Roe, his wife if living at the death of the insured, otherwise to the administrators, executors or assigns of the insured, (5. Death Claim.) on receipt of due proof of death of said insured during the continuance of this policy. (6. Conditions.) All conditions, benefits and provisions stated on the subsequent pages are hereby made a part of this policy.

7. DATE.—In witness whereof, The Union Central Life Insurance Company has caused this contract to be signed in the city of Cincinnati, State of Ohio, this seventh day of October, 1914.

PREMIUMS AND DIVIDENDS.

8. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums shall be payable in advance, either at the home office, or to an authorized agent of the company on delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by such agent. Failure to pay any of the first three years' premiums, or instalment thereof, shall avoid and nullify this contract. After three full years' premiums have been paid, on failure to pay any subsequent premium, this policy shall lapse and its value shall be applied as set forth in article thirteen.

9. GRACE.—A grace of thirty-one days shall be granted for the payment of any premium after the first, subject to an interest charge of six per cent per annum, during which period the insurance shall continue in force.

10. DIVIDENDS.—This policy shall participate in profits, as apportioned by the directors. Beginning at the end of the first policy year, provided the second year's premium is paid, dividends shall be declared annually during its continuance.

11. DISPOSITION OF DIVIDENDS.—Dividends may be withdrawn in cash; or applied to the payment of premiums; or applied to the purchase of paid-up participating additions to the policy; or left to accumulate with interest at three per cent, increased from surplus interest earnings as apportioned by the directors, until the maturity of the policy, subject to withdrawal at any anniversary thereof. If the owner of this policy shall not exercise any other such option the dividend shall be applied, on the expiry of the days of grace, to the purchase of paid-up additions, except that if the policy shall lapse the dividend shall be paid in cash. Paid-up additions are convertible into cash at any time at the request of the insured for amounts not less than the original dividends.

12. PAID-UP BY DIVIDENDS.—On the written request of the insured this policy will be endorsed as fully paid-up with participation in profits, on any anniversary when its reserve value, together with any accumulated dividends or the cash value of any additions (which shall be surrendered for such purpose) equal the corresponding net single premium for this policy at the attained age. Any excess of such total value over the said single premium will be paid in cash.

POLICY VALUE.

13. POLICY VALUES.—After three full years' premiums have been paid the reserve value at the end of the policy year, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half ($3\frac{1}{2}$) percent (less a surrender charge in no case exceeding one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) percent of the amount of the insurance, and decreasing annually until the fourteenth year; after which the surrender charge, if made, shall not exceed one-tenth of one percent of the amount of the insurance), may be used at the option of the owner of this policy in any one of the following ways, all of equal value, as set forth in the following tables, provided there be no indebtedness or advances on this policy. If, on failure to pay a premium, no option is exercised, such value shall be applied as provided in Option 1.

14. OPTION 1—EXTENDED INSURANCE.—Applied to the extension of this policy as participating term insurance from the date to which premiums have been paid, without any further payment (Table 1). The value of any paid-up additions will be used to increase the term of extension.

15. OPTION 2—PAID-UP INSURANCE.—Applied to the purchase of paid-up participating insurance, on written request and the surrender of the policy before the expiration of the days of grace (Table 2). Any paid-up additions will be added to the amount of the paid-up insurance.

16. OPTION 3—LOAN.—Borrowed or taken in advance in whole or in part on the sole security of the policy, on assignment thereof, less the unpaid balance of the current year's premium and any indebtedness and previous advance on this policy, at six per cent interest payable annually on the anniversary of the policy, interest to be discounted and paid in advance (Table 3). Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall avoid this policy whenever the total indebtedness and advances hereon with interest shall equal or exceed the then loan value provided, however, that failure to repay any such advance, or to pay interest, shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness and advances hereon shall equal or exceed such loan value at the time of such failure, and until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and of the assignee, if any. The loan value will be increased by the value of any paid-up additions. Consummation of loans other than to pay premiums on policies in this company may be deferred by the company sixty days.

17. OPTION 4—CASH.—Collected in cash on written surrender of the policy before the expiration of the days of grace (table 4). Payment may be deferred by the company sixty days.

18. CREDIT FOR FRACTIONAL PREMIUMS.—If default shall occur at any time other than the end of the policy year the values for the preceding policy year shall be proportionately increased for the portion of the policy year for which premiums have been paid.

19. DEDUCTION OF INDEBTEDNESS.—If there be any indebtedness or advances on this policy, the cash value shall be reduced thereby; the paid-up value shall be reduced proportionately; and the extended insurance shall be for the face value of the policy less the indebtedness and advances and for such term as said reduced cash value will provide.

The loan value is available at any time during the policy year if premiums have been paid to the end of the year. Values for years not stated will be furnished on application.

GENERAL PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

20. CONTRACT.—This policy, together with the application, a copy of which is endorsed hereon or securely attached hereto, shall constitute and contain the entire contract. All statements shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties. No such statement shall avoid this policy or be used in defense to a claim thereunder, unless it is contained in the written application, and unless a copy of such application is endorsed on or attached to the policy when issued.

21. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premium.

22. AGE.—In the event of the age of the insured being misstated, the amount payable shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

23. REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated at any time within three years from the date of lapse, provided it has not been surrendered, on evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of premium arrears with six per cent interest per annum and the payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness and advance hereon, with accumulated interest.

24. PRIVILEGE OF CHANGE.—The insured shall have the privilege on thirty days' written notice and the surrender of this policy prior to lapse, to have substituted therefor without medical examination, at any time within five years of the due date of the first regular premium, a life or endowment policy (except a continuous instalment policy) of the same amount, with a higher premium, written at the same age and bearing the same date, by paying in cash the differences in premiums with interest at six per cent per annum, compounded annually from their respective due dates to the date of exchange; or, after five years, according to the company's rules then in force.

25. SUICIDE.—This policy shall be null and void, except for the amount of premium paid, if the insured shall die within one year by self-destruction, whether sane or insane.

26. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured shall have the right at any time to change the beneficiary, by written notice to the company at the home office, for which a form will be furnished on request. The insured may exercise every right and receive every benefit reserved to the insured or the owner of the policy during his lifetime, or agree with the company to any change in or amendment of the policy, without the consent of any beneficiary.

27. AUTHORITY.—None of the terms of this policy shall be modified, nor any forfeiture under it waived, save by an agreement in writing, signed by the president, vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary, whose authority for this purpose shall not be delegated

SETTLEMENT OPTIONS.

28. SETTLEMENT OPTIONS.—The insured under this policy, or the payee after the insured's death in case the insured shall have made no election, by written notice to the company at its home office, for which a form will be furnished on request, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy paid in either of the following ways in lieu of in a single sum.

29. OPTION 1. CERTAIN INSTALMENTS.—In equal annual instalments for any specified number of years (not exceeding twenty-five), the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each one thousand dollars of said net sum:

31. COMMUTATION.—Unless otherwise specified in electing such option, within sixty days after written request and on surrender of the policy, future instalments will be commuted into a single sum, discounted at three percent compound interest; provided that under Option 2 the unpaid certain instalments only will be commuted.

32. OPTION 3. RETAINED AT INTEREST.—Retained by the company at three percent interest payable annually during the lifetime of the payee. The principal sum and accrued interest may be withdrawn at any time, on sixty days' notice, unless otherwise specified in electing such option.

33. FRACTIONAL INSTALMENTS.—If desired, payment of instalments or interest will be made in semi-annual, quarterly or monthly instalments of the same aggregate annual amount, provided that no payment shall be for less than ten dollars.

34. SURPLUS INTEREST.—After the first instalment or interest year subsequent instalments or interest will be increased from surplus interest earnings as apportioned by the Directors, provided that under Option 2 such surplus interest shall not be paid beyond the period of certain instalments.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY BENEFITS.

35. DISABILITY BENEFITS.—In the event that the insured becomes disabled as a result of accident or disease, as defined below, after this policy has been in force for one full year, the amount of the policy, less any indebtedness and advances hereon, will be paid to the insured in instalments or retained by the company at interest, in accordance with any of the Settlement options herein, as the insured may elect, provided that payments under the option elected shall continue for five years or more, subject to the following conditions, compliance with which is essential to the validity of any claim hereunder.

36. DEFINITION OF DISABILITY.—The disability must be total, permanent and incurable, and of such a character that the insured is thereby prevented from performing any work, or following any occupation, or engaging in any business, for wages, remuneration or profit, the injuries specified in paragraph 37 alone excepted; and must not be due to any cause or condition existing at the time of application for this policy.

37. SPECIFIC INCLUSIONS.—Total and irrecoverable loss of sight of both eyes, loss of both feet above the ankle, loss of both hands above the wrist, or similar loss of one foot and one hand, shall be deemed to constitute total and permanent disability.

38. AGE LIMIT.—Such disability must occur before the premium anniversary nearest to age sixty-five of the insured, and no benefit will be payable in the event of disability occurring thereafter.

39. NOTICE AND PROOF.—Notice of such disability, with the address of the insured, must be given to the company within ninety days from the inception thereof, and due proof of same submitted on the company's forms within one hundred and twenty days thereof, and while this policy is in force and prior to default in any premium payment.

40. PROBATION.—The disability claim will not vest until one year has elapsed since receipt of such proof of such disability (except in cases specified in paragraph 37) and then only if it shall appear that the insured is still totally, permanently and incurably disabled, as defined above. During such period of one year, the payment of any premium falling due shall be waived and the policy shall continue in force as if such premium had been paid. If within said year it shall appear that the insured is not totally, permanently and incurably disabled, premiums due thereafter shall be paid according to the terms of the policy. During said year, any medical examiner, or other accredited representative of the company, shall be permitted to examine the person of the insured in respect of the alleged disability at such times and in such manner as the company may desire.

41. LIMITATIONS.—No disability benefit shall attach to any paid-up or extended insurance issued in pursuance of the non-forfeiture provisions of this policy; nor to any reversionary additions, which will be paid in accordance with the terms of the policy.

42. SETTLEMENT.—Payment hereunder shall be in full settlement of all claims under this policy, except as to reversionary additions as provided in paragraph 41 above. If settlement option 1 or 2 shall be elected, the first instalment shall be payable when the disability claim shall vest, and further instalments shall not be commuted during the lifetime of the insured; if settlement option 3 shall be elected, guaranteed interest shall begin to accrue from the date the disability claim shall vest and the principal sum shall not be withdrawn during the lifetime of the insured. On receipt, after proof of disability, of due proof of death of the insured, any sums remaining unpaid shall be paid to the beneficiary, his administrators, executors or assigns if such beneficiary shall be living at the death of the insured.

43. PREMIUM.—The total and permanent disability benefit herein set forth is issued for the special premium stated on the first page of this policy, which is non-participating and which will not affect any of the policy values. Said special premium will cease: (a) On the policy anniversary nearest to age sixty-five of the insured, if prior to the completion of the premium payments required by the terms of the policy. (b) At any time, on the written request of the insured, accompanied by the policy for endorsement, in which event the disability benefit will also cease, and the pro rata part of such special premium for the unexpired portion, if any, of the period covered thereby shall be returned to the insured.

FIVE-YEAR TERM, NON-RENEWABLE, CONVERTIBLE—DISABILITY—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $137.80 AGE, 35.

The Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, O., in consideration of one hundred thirty-seven and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, and of the payment of a like amount annually on the thirty-first day of December in every year during the continuance of this policy (\$8.70 of each of said annual premiums being the consideration for the disability benefits herein provided), hereby insures the life of Richard B. Roe for a term of five years ending on the thirtieth day of December, 1919, in the amount of ten thousand dollars, payable, less any indebtedness hereon and any unpaid portion of the premium for the current policy year, at its home office in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Mary A. Roe, his wife, if living at the death of the insured, otherwise to the administrators, executors or assigns of the insured, on receipt of due proof of death of said insured during the continuance of this policy.

All conditions, benefits and provisions stated on the subsequent pages are hereby made a part of this policy.

In witness whereof, the Union Central Life Insurance Company has caused this contract to be signed in the city of Cincinnati, State of Ohio, this thirty-first day of December 1914.

Paragraphs of preceding policy applying to this contract also are 9, 20, 21, 22, 25, 27, also settlement options and disability benefits except paragraph 41.

9. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums shall be payable in advance, either at the home office, or to an authorized agent of the company on delivery of a receipt signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by such agent. Failure to pay any premium shall avoid and nullify this contract.

11. DIVIDENDS.—This policy shall participate in profits, as apportioned by the directors. Beginning at the end of the first policy year, dividends shall be declared annually during its continuance, provided the second year's premium is paid; but if the policy shall be changed under the second option at the end of the first policy year, the first year's dividend shall be allowed as a credit on the first premium on the new policy.

12. DISPOSITION OF DIVIDENDS.—Dividends may be withdrawn in cash; or applied to the payment of premiums; or left to accumulate with interest at three per cent, increased from surplus interest earnings as apportioned by the directors, until the expiration of the policy, subject to withdrawal at any anniversary. If the owner of this policy shall not exercise any other such option the dividends shall be paid in cash. In the event of death the accumulated dividends with interest will be paid to the payee of the policy; in the event of lapse the accumulated dividends with interest will be paid to the insured.

GENERAL PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS.

16. REINSTATEMENT.—This policy will be reinstated at any time during its term within three years from the date of lapse, provided it has not been surrendered, on evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of premium arrears with six per cent interest per annum.

18. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured shall have the right at any time to change the beneficiary, by written notice to the company at the home office, for which a form will be furnished on request. The insured may exercise every right and receive every benefit reserved to the insured or the owner of the policy during his lifetime, or agree with the company to any change in or amendment of the policy, without the consent of any beneficiary. If this policy shall be changed under either option of the privilege of change the new policy will be written with such beneficiary as the insured may designate.

PRIVILEGE OF CHANGE.

20. PRIVILEGE OF CHANGE.—The insured shall have the privilege on thirty days' written notice at any time prior to the fifth policy anniversary, and on the legal surrender of this policy prior to lapse, to have substituted therefor, without medical re-examination.

21. FIRST OPTION.—A life or endowment policy (except a continuous instalment policy), of the same amount, written at the same age, and bearing the same date, by paying in cash the differences in premiums with interest at six per cent per annum compounded annually from their respective due dates to the date of exchange; or

22. SECOND OPTION.—A life or endowment policy of the same amount (except a continuous instalment policy) at the premium for the age of the insured attained at the date of exchange; provided, however, that the attained age of the insured shall not exceed sixty-five years.

23. LIMIT OF TIME.—If the change is not completed and settlement made before the fifth policy anniversary this privilege shall be void.

24. CREDIT ON NEW POLICY.—If this policy is changed under the second option, or exchanged for a new policy subject to satisfactory evidence of insurability prior to lapse or expiry, the reserve value of this policy, if any, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent, will be allowed as a credit on the first premium on the new policy.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I. I agree to be examined by the company's regularly appointed medical examiner, and that my statements in this application and to the medical examiner are made for the purpose of obtaining this insurance.

PART II. I hereby declare that my answers to the questions on Part I and Part II, which together constitute my application to the Union Central Life Insurance Company for life insurance, are complete and true, and I agree that they shall form a part of the contract issued by the said company on my life.

Union Mutual Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $363.70. AGE 35.

The Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, Portland, Me., does hereby promise to pay the sum of ten thousand dollars, at the office of the company in Portland, Me., to Mary Doe (wife of John Doe) or such other beneficiary as may be designated as hereinafter provided, or if no beneficiary survive the insured, to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, upon receipt of due proofs of the death of John Doe, of Portland, in the county of Cumberland and State of Maine; or, instead thereof, provided said sum, less existing indebtedness, if any, is not less than one thousand dollars, in equal annual instalments, in any number from two to twenty-five, upon the basis of the following table:

INSTALMENT OPTION.—The instalments in the following table are computed on the basis of one thousand dollars payable hereon. If said amount is more than one thousand dollars, the instalments shown in this table will be increased in the proportion that the amount payable hereon bears to one thousand dollars. Unaccrued instalments, at the option of the beneficiary, may at any time be commuted into one cash payment.

TRUST FUND OPTION.—Upon the maturity of this policy, the amount insured, or any part thereof, at the option of the beneficiary, may be left in trust with the company, and the company will pay, as long as said sum remains with it, interest thereon at the rate of three per cent per annum to said beneficiary. The principal of said trust fund left with the company, as herein provided, may, with accrued interest at the rate aforesaid, be withdrawn at any time by the said beneficiary, and upon the death of said beneficiary, shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the same.

GRACE IN PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—A grace of thirty-one days will be allowed in the payment of the second and subsequent premiums, the policy remaining in force during that time, and in the event of death within said time a deduction of the full year's premium, or that part of it remaining unpaid, will be made.

REINSTATEMENT IN CASE OF LAPSE.—In case of the lapse of this policy by reason of the non-payment of any premium hereon when due, it will be reinstated at any time upon receipt of a satisfactory health certificate and the payment of all overdue premiums and any other indebtedness due to the company upon this policy, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, provided that any extended insurance which may have been purchased with its value has not expired, and that it has not been surrendered for its cash value or for paid-up insurance.

INCONTESTABLE AFTER ONE YEAR.—After one year from its date of issue, this policy is incontestable except for non-payment of premiums.

FREEDOM OF TRAVEL AND OCCUPATION.—No permit or extra premium is required by this policy for any occupation or for travel or residence anywhere in the world.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, from time to time, while this policy is in force, change any beneficiary hereof, upon filing with the company at its office in Portland, Me., a written request therefor, accompanied by this policy for endorsement, provided, however, that in case the insured shall at any time designate any person as the absolute beneficiary hereof, or assign this policy, said right to change the beneficiary shall thereupon cease during the lifetime of such person or of said assignment. The right to change the beneficiary is reserved solely to the insured and cannot be assigned.

NON-FORFEITURE RIGHTS.

EXTENDED INSURANCE.—In case of lapse for the non-payment of any premium after the payment in cash of three full years' premiums, the insurance under this policy will be extended from the due date, without grace, of the first premium in arrears, for the period specified in the following table:

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—Or, in place thereof, upon written request made within two months of the due date, without grace, of the first premium in arrears, with the surrender of this policy by the insured at the company's office in Portland, Me., a paid-up, non-participating life policy will be issued for the sum specified in the following table;

CASH VALUE.—Or, instead of such extended or paid-up insurance, the cash value of this policy, as specified in the following table, will be paid in accordance with the conditions of the right entitled cash value, as hereinafter set forth.

A paid-up policy will not be issued for less than one hundred dollars, but in such case the insured will be entitled to extended insurance or the cash value of the policy.

CASH AND LOAN RIGHTS.

CASH VALUE.—The insured is entitled at the end of any policy year to the cash value of this policy as shown by the following table, and at any time during any policy year to said cash value less interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum to the end of such policy year, upon the following conditions: (1) Application in writing must be made to the home office. (2) This policy must be surrendered. (3) It must have been in force for at least three full years by the payment of premiums in cash. (4) It must be in force at the date of surrender by the payment of premiums in cash, or, if not in force, surrendered within two months from the due date, without grace, of the first premium in arrears. (5) The cash value as shown by the following table is subject to any indebtedness hereon to the company.

LOAN VALUE.—During any policy year after the payment in cash of three full years' premiums, the company will loan to the insured on the sole security of this policy a sum not exceeding the cash value of this policy at the end of said policy year, as shown by the following table, upon the following conditions: (1) That all accrued premiums hereon have been paid in full in cash to the time the loan is made. (2) That interest at the rate of five per cent per annum shall be paid in advance thereon to the next anniversary date of the policy, and annually in advance thereafter until the loan is paid. (3) That this policy shall be assigned to the company as collateral security. (4) That the loan value as shown by the following table is subject to any indebtedness hereon to the company, including any unpaid portion of the current year's premium. Failure to pay any loan made upon this policy, or interest thereon when due, shall not forfeit this policy unless the total amount of the loan with interest thereon at said rate shall equal, or exceed, the loan value hereof at the time of such failure to pay, nor, in any event, until one month after notice that the company will claim such forfeiture shall have been mailed to the last address known to the company of the insured, or the assignee hereof, if any.

PREMIUM LOANS.—After the premiums hereon have been paid in cash for three full years, the company will, upon the written request of the insured or any assignee of the insured, (revokable in writing at any time,) apply annually the loan value hereof to the payment of the premiums hereon as they severally become due, except that no such application will be made unless the then loan value, after deducting all indebtedness, is sufficient to pay a full year's premium and there has been no default in the payment of premiums hereon. The sums so applied, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum payable in advance, shall constitute an indebtedness against this policy for all purposes, and may be repaid at any time prior to default in the payment of premiums hereon. If the premiums on this policy are payable either quarterly or semi-annually, no such application will be made except for a full year's premium in advance at the annual rate.

TABLE OF VALUES.—The net value of the insurance and the cash and loan values, as shown by the following table, are based upon the payment of full year's premiums, and are each equal to the other. Each is also equal to the entire reserve upon this policy, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at the rate of three per cent per annum, less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount of this policy. If premiums are paid semi-annually or quarterly, said values (except loan value) arising upon any such intermediate payment may be determined by adding to the values for the full year next preceding such payment, as shown by said table, such proportion of the increase of values for the then current year as such intermediate payment bears to the full year's premium. If at any time there be any reversionary additions to this policy, or if there be any indebtedness existing against this policy, the figures in the following table will not apply, but amended figures will be furnished by the company on demand; the amended figures will be computed in the same manner as the figures in the following table, except that the computation will be based upon the amount of insurance with reversionary additions, if any, and subject to existing indebtedness against the policy, if any.

The loan values, provided for in the table of values, for the end of policy years can be obtained (less interest) during such policy years, as set forth in the above sections entitled "loan value" and "premium loans." Should this policy be continued beyond the period covered by the foregoing table, figures of values for succeeding years, computed on same basis, will be furnished upon application to the company.

PARTICIPATION IN PROFITS.—At the end of each policy year, so long as this policy is in full force by the payment of premiums, the divisible surplus accruing hereon as ascertained by the company, shall be apportioned to this policy, such apportionment at the end of the first and second policy years to be conditional upon the payment of the premium for the succeeding year. Such apportioned surplus will, annually, at the option of the insured, (1) be applied in reduction of the premiums on this policy; or (2) be used to purchase reversionary additions; or (3) be paid in cash; or (4) be left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy, with interest at the rate of three per cent per annum, which accumulations shall be payable at the maturity of the policy or may be withdrawn in cash at any time on demand of the insured. Such accumulations, when sufficient for the purpose, will be applied by the company to the payment of any premium upon this policy, which, at the expiration of the grace thereon, may be in default, and notice of such application, with a receipt for the payment of the premium, will be mailed to the insured. If the insured, on or before the anniversary date upon which the apportioned surplus for any year is payable, shall elect none of the aforesaid options, the apportioned surplus for such year shall be payable in reversionary additions. When option 1 or 3 is elected, the receipt of the insured shall be a valid release of the company. Whenever, upon any anniversary date of this policy, the accumulations under option 4 (if not withdrawn in cash by the insured nor applied by the company to the payment of premiums as in said option provided) or the reserve upon any reversionary additions standing to the credit of this policy under option 2, or both, together with the then existing reserve upon this policy, shall equal or exceed the reserve required for fully paid-up life insurance of the face amount of this policy, this policy shall, at the option of the insured, become a fully paid-up participating life policy for its face amount; or whenever upon any such anniversary date, the accumulations and reserves designated above shall equal or exceed the face amount of this policy, the company will, at the option of the insured, mature and pay this policy as an endowment policy; provided the insured shall, in either case, exercise his option by notifying the company in writing thereof within thirty days after notice by the company that the time for exercising such option has accrued.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums on this policy are payable at the office of the company in Portland, Me., but the company's agent holding its receipts, signed by the secretary and to be countersigned by the agent, for premiums payable hereon, is authorized to accept payment thereof in exchange for such receipts. A payment made to any other person, or in exchange for any other receipt, will not be binding on the company. If the premiums are not paid when due, or within the period of grace, this policy and the premiums paid hereon become forfeited and all liability of the company ceases, except as hereinbefore provided. If the premiums are made payable semi-annually or quarterly, that part of the full year's premium, if any, which remains unpaid when this policy becomes a claim shall be deducted.

PAYMENT OF POLICY.—The amount due upon this policy will be paid upon receipt of due proofs of death of the insured during the continuance hereof, but any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be deducted in any payment or settlement made hereunder.

AGE.—Should the age of the insured be incorrectly stated, the sum payable under this policy shall be the insurance which the actual premiums paid would have purchased at his true age, but, on proof, his age will be admitted in writing on the policy.

SUICIDE.—The suicide of the insured within one year from the date of this policy, whether voluntary or involuntary, or while said insured was sane or insane, is not a risk covered hereby.

ENTIRE CONTRACT AND MISSTATEMENTS.—This policy and application herefor constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all statements made by the insured in the application herefor shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall be used in defense to a claim under, or avoid, this policy, unless it is contained in the written application herefor and a copy of such application is endorsed hereon or attached hereto.

CHANGE OF CONTRACT.—Any change in the terms or beneficiaries of this contract or waiver of any of its terms or conditions or of any forfeiture must be in writing, signed by the president, vice-president, secretary, assistant secretary, actuary or assistant actuary, and endorsed on the policy. No person is authorized to make any changes in this contract or waive any forfeiture of it, except as herein provided.

ASSIGNMENTS.—No assignment of any interest in this policy shall be binding upon the company unless made in duplicate upon forms furnished by it and both copies sent to the home office before this policy becomes a claim. Upon receipt of such assignments, one copy will be returned and the other kept on the company's files. No responsibility for the validity of any assignment in any event will be assumed by the company.

EXERCISE OF RIGHTS AND OPTIONS.—The exercise of any right or option under the "participation in profits," "non-forfeiture rights" and "cash and loan rights" hereinbefore mentioned, by the insured, shall conclusively bind the beneficiaries in this policy and the assigns of such beneficiaries. All of said foregoing rights and options are mere personal rights of the insured, and are not assignable except to the beneficiaries hereof or the assigns of such beneficiaries.

DEFINITIONS.—The term "insured," whenever used in this policy, shall be construed as meaning the person upon whose life this policy is written; the term "beneficiary," as meaning the person, assignees excepted, to whom the proceeds of this policy are for the time being payable, and the term "indebtedness" shall include any loan made by the company, or any note given for or application of the loan value to a premium or any part thereof, upon this policy.

It is hereby agreed that the anniversary date of this policy is November 1st, 1911, from which date the policy year shall begin and all calculations hereunder shall be computed, and the same day of the month annually thereafter during the continuance of this policy.

All the foregoing agreements and promises are made in consideration of the written and printed application for this policy, which is hereby made a part hereof, and of the payment in advance of the sum of three hundred, sixty-three and $\frac{70}{100}$ dollars, and of a like amount payable in advance on the first day of November in every year until premiums for twenty complete years shall have been paid in cash, after which no further premiums will be required, said payments to be evidenced only by the production of the official receipts of the company therefor.

Portland, Me., November 1, 1911.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby apply to the Union Mutual Life Insurance Company for a policy of insurance upon my life, and I hereby agree that all the statements and answers herein contained are full, correct and true, and that they, together with the policy hereby applied for, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto; that said policy shall not take effect until the first premium shall have been paid during my good health, and that the distribution of surplus which may be adopted by the company is hereby accepted by me in my own behalf and for every person who shall have any interest in the policy now applied for.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $25,000.

Union Pacific Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $314.50. AGE, 35.

Union Pacific Life Insurance Company (hereinafter called the company), Portland, Ore., hereby insures the life of Thomas G. Brevans, hereinafter called the insured, of Tacoma, State of Washington, and immediately after receipt of due proofs of death of said insured, while this policy is in force, agrees to pay Eva D. Brevans, wife (hereinafter called the beneficiary), the sum of ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness due the company hereon.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue, except for non-payment of premium and except for military or naval service in time of war, without a permit first being obtained from the company. Suicide, whether sane or insane, within one year from date hereof, is not a risk covered hereby for an amount greater than the actual cash premiums paid hereon.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—This policy shall not take effect until the first premium hereon has actually been paid in cash during the good health of the insured.

ERROR IN AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount of insurance payable hereunder shall be the amount which the premium would have purchased at the premium rate for the correct age.

CONTRACT AND APPLICATION.—This policy and the application therefor constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall be used in defense to a claim hereunder unless such statement is contained in the written application herefor, a copy of which application is attached hereto.

ALTERATIONS.—Any alteration or modifications of this contract must be made in writing and be signed by the president, vice-president or secretary of the company.

REINSTATEMENT.—This policy may be reinstated at any time, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company. Any indebtedness hereon with interest at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum, shall be paid in cash or will be allowed to remain as a loan on the policy, if less than the loan value at date of reinstatement.

BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred on the insured by this policy, including the right to change the beneficiary by written notice to the company on the company's form, such change to take effect, however, only upon endorsement of the same upon the policy by the company. If the last nominated beneficiary shall not survive the insured, the sum insured shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company, unless a certified copy thereof be filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

TOTAL DISABILITY CLAUSE.—After one full annual payment shall have been made and before a default in the payment of any subsequent premium, if satisfactory proof shall be furnished that the insured before attaining the age of sixty years, has become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company, by an endorsement in writing upon this contract, will agree to pay for the insured the premiums, if any, which shall thereafter become payable during the continuance of such disability. If, however, the insured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation during the premium-paying period, the company's obligation to pay the premiums shall cease, and the insured shall resume payment of premiums in accordance with this contract on the first premium due date following such recovery.

LOAN VALUE.—At any time after the end of the second policy year and while this policy is in full force, the owner hereof may borrow from the company on the sole security of this policy, properly assigned to and deposited with the company, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner hereof, less than, the entire reserve hereon at the end of the then current policy year, as specified in column 1 of the table on the third page hereof; provided, however, any indebtedness hereon and unpaid premiums for the then current policy year will first be deducted. The company will furnish the form for the assignment required hereunder and upon completion of the loan will issue its official certificate of deposit of the policy. Interest at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum will be collected out of the amount of the loan to the end of the then current policy year, and thereafter be payable annually in advance. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid this policy until the total indebtedness to the company shall equal or exceed the reserve hereon, nor until at least one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any is recorded hereon.

THIS POLICY IS NON-FORFEITABLE FROM DATE OF ISSUE, AS FOLLOWS:

GRACE PERIOD.—If any premium due hereon during the second policy year is not paid on or before the date when due, the insurance will continue in force from such due date for the term of one month (not less than thirty days); if any premium due hereon during the third policy year is not paid on or before the date when due, the insurance will continue in force from such due date for the term of three months; if any premium due hereon after the third policy year is not paid on or before the date when due, the insurance will continue in force from such due date for the term of one month (not less than thirty days), during which term the payment of the overdue premium will be accepted, subject to an interest charge at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum.

CASH VALUE—PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE—EXTENDED TERM INSURANCE.—After three full years' premiums have been paid hereon, upon the insured's written request and legal surrender of this policy within the period of grace, the cash value hereof will be paid for the amount specified in column 1 of the table on the third page hereof; or the insured shall be entitled to a paid-up life policy payable at the same time and under the same conditions as this policy, for the amount specified in column 2 of the table on the third page hereof; or the insured shall be entitled to an extended term insurance policy for the full face of this policy, the term of which is specified in column 3 of the table on the third page hereof. The amounts of the cash values and paid-up life insurance and the term of the extended insurance shall be equal or equivalent to the entire reserve on this policy, at the date of default, without any surrender charge, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per centum per annum. If no guaranteed surrender option has been chosen by the insured, as above provided, within the period of grace after default in payment of premium, the company will, without request on the part of the insured, apply to this policy the paid-up life insurance option shown in column 2 of the table on the third page hereof.

METHODS OF PAYMENT OF DEATH BENEFIT.—The face of this policy, unless otherwise requested by the insured, will be paid in one sum as provided on page one hereof. The insured, however, during his lifetime, or the beneficiary after the death of the insured, in case the insured has made no selection, may, if this policy is not then assigned, and upon request to the company on the proper form, change the method of payment hereof, by selecting any one of the benefits shown on page four hereof.

Non-forfeiture values for this policy for years not included above will be equal or equivalent to the entire reserve on this policy, and semi-annual or quarterly premiums paid in addition to payments for entire policy years will cause an increase in the above values. All non-forfeiture values hereon are in excess of any legal requirements.

This policy is issued in consideration of the application herefor, and in further consideration of the sum of three hundred fourteen and $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars premium in advance, for one year's term insurance, and the further payment of a like amount on or before the fifteenth day of January in each year hereafter, until twenty full years' premiums in all have been paid or until the prior death of the insured.

In witness whereof, the Union Pacific Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president or vice-president and secretary, at its office in the city of Portland, Ore., this fifteenth day of January, 1914.

BENEFIT ONE. TRUST FUND.—The amount insured, or any portion thereof not less than one thousand ($1000) dollars, may be left during the lifetime of the beneficiary, in trust with the company, and the company will annually pay interest thereon at the rate of three and one-half per centum per annum, so long as the said amount insured or said portion thereof remains with the company. The said trust fund will be paid at the death of the beneficiary to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the beneficiary, and may be withdrawn at any time with accrued interest, unless the company is otherwise directed in the request selecting this benefit. The trust fund privilege may not be selected if the beneficiary under this policy be a corporation or a firm.

BENEFIT TWO. ANNUAL INCOME FOR NUMBER OF YEARS STATED.—The following table is for each $1000 of the amount insured. To find the annual income on this policy multiply the annual income per $1000 shown in the table by the number of thousands insured by this policy:

NUMBER OF YEARS.....	30	25	20*	15	10	5	4	3	2

*ILLUSTRATION.—If an annual income for twenty years is selected, the amount of each annual payment will be sixty-eight ($68.00) dollars for each one thousand dollars insured by this policy.

Any term of years shown in the above table may be selected.

The first income will be paid immediately after receipt of due proofs of death of the insured, and the remaining payments annually thereafter.

BENEFIT THREE. MONTHLY INCOME DURING LIFETIME OF BENEFICIARY.—The following table is for each $5000 of the amount insured. To find the monthly income on this policy multiply the monthly income for each $5000 shown in the table by the number of times five thousand insured by this policy. Two hundred and forty monthly payments at least, will be paid, in any event, covering a period of twenty years, and the monthly income will continue during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, should the beneficiary survive said period of twenty years.

*ILLUSTRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary shall be thirty years of age last birthday, the amount of each monthly payment under this policy will be nineteen dollars and twenty cents ($19.20) for every five thousand dollars insured by this policy, said monthly income continuing for at least twenty years and as much longer as the beneficiary shall survive.

The first monthly income will be paid immediately after receipt of due proofs of death of the insured and succeeding incomes on the first day of each month thereafter. This benefit may not be selected if there is more than one beneficiary under this policy, nor if the amount insured hereby is less than two thousand five hundred ($2,500) dollars.

GENERAL.—The insured may at any time change his selection of the "Methods of Payment of death benefit" under this policy; the insured may also revoke all selections, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum. If, upon the selection of benefit two or benefit three above, the beneficiary shall die before all the payments due thereunder have been made, the remainder of said payments will continue to be paid as selected by the insured under this policy, or, if the insured has made no such selection, will be commuted at three and one-half per centum compound interest and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. If the insured so directs during his lifetime, the beneficiary may neither assign nor commute any payments hereunder before same are due. No selection, change or revocation of any one of the above benefit shall take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office. After endorsement this policy will be returned to the insured.

* Triple Indemnity with Accident Disability Endorsement. Weekly Indemnity for total disability due to accident, paid prior to age 60.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $5,000.

United Life and Accident Insurance Company.

TRIPLE INDEMNITY—TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $5,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $191.70. AGE, 35.

The United Life and Accident Insurance Company of Concord, New Hampshire, promises to pay at its home office in the City of Concord, New Hampshire, upon receipt of due proof of the death of James Alfred Jones, of Concord, County of Merrimack, State of New Hampshire, hereinafter called the insured, while this policy is in force single indemnity, five thousand dollars without regard to whether such death of the insured shall be due to accident, sickness or old age; double indemnity and $5,000 additional, making ten thousand dollars in all, in event such death of the insured, occurring before age seventy, shall have been occasioned solely by external, violent, accidental means, resulting in such death within three months thereafter, except during military or naval service in time of war; triple indemnity or $10,000 additional, making fifteen thousand dollars in all, in event such death of the insured, occurring before age seventy, shall have been occasioned solely by accidental means while the insured is or on a public conveyance, including the platform, steps or running board thereof, provided by a common carrier for passenger service, or in a completed building which burns or collapses, or in consequence of a cyclone, tornado, the explosion of a steam boiler, or being struck by lightning, resulting in such death within three months thereafter, except during military or naval service in time of war, to Bertha May Jones, wife of the insured or such other beneficiary as the insured may hereafter designate in writing as hereinafter provided.

CONDITIONS AND PRIVILEGES.

NO RESTRICTIONS.—From date of issue this policy is subject to no restrictions as to travel, residence or occupation; provided, however, that in event of suicide, while sane or insane, during the first year, the amount payable shall be the reserve upon this policy.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year in force, this policy shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premium.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—A grace of thirty-one days will be granted for the payment of each premium upon this policy, after the first, during which grace this policy shall remain in full force, subject to the deduction of the forborne premium.

AUTOMATICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE.—If any premium shall not have been paid at the expiration of the grace, and if the insured shall have elected in writing to accept this provision instead of one of the Non-Forfeiture Options, hereinafter set forth, the company will charge the same against this policy as a loan bearing interest at six per cent. per annum, annually compounded, provided the then loan value, over and above all previous loans then outstanding and interest thereon to date, shall be sufficient to enable such advances; or, if insufficient to cover the entire premium then due, the company will so charge an instalment thereof for a shorter period, but not for less than one-quarter year. Notice of such automatic application or charge shall be mailed to the insured. At any time while the policy is thus maintained in force, the payment of premiums may be resumed and, subject to such indebtedness, this policy shall remain in full force as if all premiums had been paid in cash. When the total indebtedness to the company hereon shall equal or exceed the loan value, this policy shall be void thirty-one days after notice shall have been mailed to the insured, unless during such period the indebtedness shall be reduced to an amount not exceeding the loan value.

RE-INSTALLMENT.—At any time after this policy shall have ceased to be in force by failure to pay any premium or premiums, after the first, the company will re-instate the same upon application by the insured, accompanied by proof of good health satisfactory to the company and by the tender of all arrears of premiums, accumulated at interest at six per cent. per annum, annually compounded.

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—This policy, at any time after the first annual renewal premium shall have been paid, may be surrendered to the company while in force for: (1) Cash surrender value; or (2) Paid-up insurance without double or triple indemnity for accidental death; or (3) Extended insurance for five thousand dollars, without double or triple indemnity for accidental death. If no other election has been made by the insured in writing the insurance shall be continued in force as extended insurance.

The amount of such cash surrender value, paid-up insurance and the term of extended insurance shall be as per the following table:

NUMBER ANNUAL PREMIUMS PAID.	Cash or Loan Value.	Paid-up Insurance.	Term of Extended Insurance for $5,000.		NUMBER ANNUAL PREMIUMS PAID.	Cash or Loan Value.	Paid-up Insurance.	Term of Extended Insurance for $5,000.

11.....	1,270	2,720	21	0

The values and terms of extension available at the end of each succeeding year will be computed on the same basis.

If there be indebtedness, the same shall be deducted from the cash surrender value, and the amount of the paid-up insurance and of the extended insurance shall be reduced pro-rata.

The foregoing values and terms of extension and the values and terms of extension available at the end of each succeeding year, shall be at least equivalent to the legal reserve upon the policy at the end of the current policy year, less a sum not exceeding two and one-half per cent. of the single indemnity benefit and less any indebtedness to the company on the policy, and the cash value is also at least equal to the sum which would, if not withdrawn, be available for the purchase of extended insurance.

IMMEDIATE BENEFIT AND MONTHLY INCOME OPTION.—If at any time the insured so requests the company in writing, and provided this policy be in full force and not then assigned and that there be no indebtedness thereon to the company, the amount payable hereunder at the death of the insured will, in lieu of a lump-sum payment, be paid to the beneficiary as follows: For each $1,000 payable under this policy at the death of the insured, there will be paid to the beneficiary an immediate benefit of $125 and thereafter a monthly income of $5 payable on the first day of each succeeding month for a period of twenty full years; namely, $1,325 in all; and in such case the monthly income benefits will not be commuted by the company after the death of the insured during the lifetime of the beneficiary nor will the company consent to any assignment thereof without the previous written consent of the insured. Should the beneficiary, original or substituted, not survive the full period for which the monthly income is payable and if there be no contingent beneficiary, the monthly instalments remaining will be commuted at three and one-half per cent. per annum, compound interest, and paid in one sum to the estate of the beneficiary.

CASH LOANS.—After two full annual premiums have been paid the company will at any time advance upon this policy the amount of its then cash surrender value, less all indebtedness upon this policy and interest thereon, the same to bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable annually in advance; provided that failure to repay any advance, whether made in cash or in payment of premiums, or to pay interest, shall not avoid the policy until the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value.

MIS-STATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be mis-stated in the application for this policy, the insurance hereunder shall be the amount which the premiums actually paid would have purchased at the published rates of the company at the true age of the insured.

ASSIGNMENT.—This company shall not be deemed to have any knowledge of any assignment of this policy unless the same, together with a duplicate thereof, shall have been delivered to the company at its home office, together with this policy, for endorsement. The company will not be responsible for the validity of any assignment and due proof of interest must be tendered by the assignee on making claim.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Upon the written application of the insured to the company at its home office, while this policy is in force, accompanied by the policy, the company will at any time by endorsement hereon change the beneficiary to such person or persons as the insured may so designate, subject, however, to any assignment thereof. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

LOWEST COST GUARANTEED.—This policy does not participate in, and the cost of this insurance to the insured in no way depends upon, the profits or surplus of the company.

PRIVILEGES OF PREMIUM PAYMENT.—The payments of the first annual premium on this policy (or of all quarterly or semi-annual instalments thereof as the same become due) continues the insurance thereunder for the term of one year from the date hereof, i.e. until noon eighth day of February, 1916, from which date it will be renewed as a triple indemnity, twenty payment life policy by the payment of an annual renewal premium of $191.70 in advance, and thereafter on each succeeding anniversary of the date of this policy until twenty full annual premiums in all have been paid hereon, or the prior death of the insured, provided that after the insured has become sixty years of age the full annual premium shall be reduced to $..... The annual premiums upon this policy may be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments in advance, as per the table of premiums endorsed hereon; and a change in the method of payment may be made on any anniversary of the policy. The table of premiums endorsed hereon shows the amount of the annual premium and the amount of each semi-annual or quarterly instalment thereof:

TABLE OF PREMIUMS.—(In advance). Annually on the eighth day of February, $191.70, semi-annually on the eighth day of February and August, $99.70; quarterly on the eighth day of February, May, August and November, $50.80. The payment of a premium, or of a semi-annual or quarterly instalment of the annual premium, shall not have the effect to continue the insurance in force beyond the time when the next premium or instalment a semi-annual or quarterly instalment of the annual premium, shall not have the effect thereof shall become due and payable except as provided in the "Automatically Non-Forfeitable" provision of this policy. In payment of a death claim on this policy, an amount equal to any unpaid portion of the full annual premium will be deducted. All premiums are payable in advance at the home office of the company in the City of Concord, New Hampshire, but may be paid to an agent in exchange for a receipt signed by the president, secretary or treasurer of the company and countersigned by the agent.

PROVISIONS AND CONDITIONS.—No agent has authority to amend or modify any of the terms of this policy, or to waive any provision thereof or the payment of any premium thereon. The net premium and reserve under this policy are computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent. interest. This policy and the application herefor, a copy of which is attached to and endorsed upon this policy and made a part thereof, together constitute the entire contract. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall void the policy, unless it is contained in the written application herefor. In event the insured shall engage in military or naval service in time of war, unless a written permit shall have been previously obtained and provision made for payment of additional charges therefor, this policy shall notwithstanding remain in full force, but the insured shall be indebted to the company in the amount of fifty dollars per $1,000 insured thereunder, which, together with interest thereon at six per cent per annum, annually compounded, shall be deducted in any settlement of this policy. In case the insured shall have paid in advance upon making application herefor the first annual premium (or the first semi-annual or quarterly instalment thereof) in exchange for the binding receipt of the company, this policy shall, upon approval of such application by the company, take effect as of the date thereof; if a premium or instalment thereof has not been so paid in advance, this policy shall not take effect until the delivery of the same to the insured and the payment of the first annual premium (or the first semi-annual or quarterly instalment of the same) during the lifetime and good health of the insured.

In witness whereof, the United Life and Accident Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed at its home office in Concord, New Hampshire, by its president and secretary and countersigned by its registrar, this eighth day of February, 1915.

ACCIDENT DISABILITY ENDORSEMENT.

For and in consideration of twenty-five dollars per annum, which sum is included in the total premium named on the first page of this policy, the United Life and Accident Insurance Company hereby agrees to pay to the insured a weekly indemnity at the rate of fifty ($50.00) dollars per week during the time the insured shall be totally and continuously unable to pursue any gainful occupation for not to exceed 52 weeks, and thereafter a weekly indemnity at the rate of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars per week throughout the period of such disability; but all such weekly indemnities are payable only in case the disability is caused directly and exclusively by bodily injury sustained solely through accidental means, (not including injury sustained during military or naval service in time of war,) during the premium payment period of this policy and before attaining the age of sixty years.

The indemnity for disability is entirely independent of the life insurance under this policy and no deduction will be made from the sum payable at death because of any indemnity paid hereunder; but this accident insurance cannot be renewed or be maintained in force unless this entire policy is maintained in full force by payment of premiums as provided therein.

"STANDARD PROVISIONS."

1. This policy includes the endorsements and attached papers, if any, and contains the entire contract of insurance. No reduction shall be made in any indemnity herein provided by reason of change in the occupation of the insured or by reason of his doing any act or thing pertaining to any other occupation.

2. No statement made by the applicant for insurance not included herein shall avoid the policy or be used in any legal proceeding hereunder. No agent has authority to change this policy or to waive any of its provisions. No change in this policy shall be valid unless approved by an executive officer of the company and such approval be endorsed hereon.

3. If default be made in the payment of the agreed premium for this policy, the subsequent acceptance of a premium by the company or by any of its duly authorized agents shall reinstate the policy, but only to cover loss resulting from accidental injury thereafter sustained.

4. Written notice of injury on which claim may be based must be given to the company within twenty days after the date of the accident causing such injury.

5. Such notice given by or in behalf of the insured or beneficiary, as the case may be, to the company at Concord, New Hampshire, or to any authorized agent of the company, with particulars sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed to be notice to the company. Failure to give notice within the time provided in this policy shall not invalidate any claim if it shall be shown not to have been reasonably possible to give such notice and that notice was given as soon as was reasonably possible.

6. The company upon receipt of such notice, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not so furnished within fifteen days after the receipt of such notice, the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, character and extent of the loss for which claim is made.

7. Affirmative proof of loss must be furnished to the company at its said office within ninety days after the termination of the period of disability for which the company is liable.

8. The company shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and so often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of claim hereunder, and also the right and opportunity to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law.

9. All indemnities provided in this policy for loss other than that of time on account of disability, will be paid immediately after receipt of due proof.

10. Upon request of the insured and subject to due proof of loss all accrued indemnity for loss of time on account of disability will be paid at the expiration of each four weeks during the continuance of the period for which the company is liable, and any balance remaining unpaid at the termination of such period will be paid immediately upon receipt of due proof.

11. All the indemnities of this policy are payable to the insured.

12. If the insured shall at any time change his occupation to one classified by the company as less hazardous than that stated in the policy, the company, upon written request of the insured, and surrender of the policy, will cancel the same and will return to the insured the unearned premium.

14. No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after proof of loss has been filed in accordance with the requirements of this policy, nor shall such action be brought at all unless brought within two years from the expiration of the time within which proof of loss is required by the policy.

15. If any time limitation of this policy with respect to giving notice of claim or furnishing proof of loss is less than that permitted by the law of the state in which the insured resides at the time this policy is issued, such limitation is hereby extended to agree with the minimum period permitted by such law.

20. The insurance under this policy shall not cover any person under the age of fifteen years nor over the age of sixty years. Any premium paid to the company for any period not covered by this policy will be returned upon request.

These "standard provisions" shall apply only to this accident disability endorsement.

This accident disability endorsement shall not be in any way binding upon the company, unless it is signed by the secretary or assistant secretary of the company.

Signed this eighth day of February, 1915.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is hereby agreed that all the foregoing statements and also those I make to the company's medical examiner, which are hereby made a part of this application, are offered to the company as a consideration for the policy applied for, which policy I agree to accept, if issued as applied for, but the same shall not take effect until this application, which I agree to complete by submitting to a medical examination without delay, has been accepted and approved by the company at its home office in Concord, New Hampshire, and the first premium shall have been paid to and accepted by the company or its authorized agent, during my lifetime and good health; provided, that if the premium on the policy herein applied for shall be paid by me at the time of making this application, the insurance shall be in force from the date of the acceptance of the risk by the company.

I hereby elect, in accordance with the terms of the policy, if any, to be granted hereon, that, in event of my failure to pay any premium when due, the same shall be advanced on the "automatically non-forfeitable" provision of such policy, instead of one of the "non-forfeiture options" set forth therein, taking effect automatically as provided by law.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—INCREASING INSURANCE—ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $386.10. AGE, 35.

United States Annuity and Life Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill., will pay ten thousand dollars (hereinafter called the initial amount) together with a yearly addition of two hundred and ninety dollars for each annual premium paid hereon, (as shown in the table below), and also the entire earnings to the credit of this policy to Julia Stiles, wife (subject to the right of the insured to change the beneficiary, as hereinafter provided), at the home office of the company, in Chicago, Ill., immediately upon receipt by the company of due proofs of death of John C. Stiles, the insured of Chicago, State of Illinois during the continuance of this policy.

At the expiration of twenty years from the date hereof, if this policy shall have been kept in full force by the payment of all premiums, and the insured be then living, this policy will become a paid-up policy for ten thousand dollars; and the company will pay to the legal holder hereof all earnings remaining to the credit of this policy, in excess of the cash value of said paid-up policy.

This policy is issued for a term of one year from the date hereof, in consideration of the application herefor, a copy of which is hereto attached, and made a part hereof, and the payment in advance, to the company or its authorized agent, of the premium of three hundred and eighty-six dollars and ten cents (being the premium to provide the term insurance for one year ending on the first day of February, 1917), and will be renewed for the further term of nineteen years upon the payment at the home office of the company, in Chicago, Ill., of a like amount in advance on or before the first day of February, in every year hereafter, during the life of the insured, until twenty full annual premiums have been paid.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the agreements, benefits and conditions stated on the following pages, which are hereby referred to and made a part hereof.

In witness whereof, the said United States Annuity and Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, signed and delivered this contract at Chicago, Ill., as of the first day of February, 1917.

AGREEMENTS, BENEFITS AND CONDITIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, in Chicago, Ill., or to the company's authorized agents, in exchange for receipts signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the agents designated therein. Premiums are payable annually in advance, but may be paid in semi-annual, quarterly or monthly instalments, in advance, at the company's table rates. Any unpaid part of a year's premium will be deducted in any death settlement on this policy.

One month's grace will be allowed upon any payment of premium after the first year without interest. During this month the insurance shall continue in force; if the insured shall die during the month of grace, the overdue premium will be deducted in settlement under this policy.

If any premium, or any semi-annual, quarterly or monthly instalment, or any no therefor, or any indebtedness secured by this policy, shall not be paid when due, the policy shall thereupon cease, except as to the non-forfeiture options hereinafter recited provided that this policy, if not previously surrendered to the company, may be reinstated at any time within three years after such default, by payment of the past due premiums, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, upon evidence of insurability, satisfactory to the company, and in such form as the company may require.

VALUATION.—For the first year succeeding the date hereof, the reserve value of the policy shall be computed for one year term insurance, except as modified by statute. For subsequent years, such net premium and valuation for an age at issue advance one year shall be computed, as will provide for the benefits and guarantees stipulated in this contract.

EXPENSE OF MANAGEMENT LIMITED.—The expense under this policy shall be limited to the loading provided for that purpose in each premium payable thereon, together with any mortality savings of the first policy year, except as hereinafter stated.

EARNINGS.—This policy shall be credited with its apportioned share of the net earnings after the first policy year, arising from the following sources: Excess interest on the reserve, gains from lapsed and surrendered policies and savings from mortality, less amounts paid for taxes, license fees, registration fees, medical examination and inspection fees, together with any governmental charges for examination expenses.

ANNUAL DIVIDENDS.—All earnings shall be apportioned annually after the second year, and at the option of the insured may be withdrawn in cash, applied to reduce the premiums on this policy, used to purchase additions to the sum insured, or left to accumulate at three per cent interest. If the insured shall not elect any other option the dividend shall be paid in cash, on demand.

NON-FORFEITURE OPTIONS.—After payment of premiums for two or more full years, and within one month after default in the payment of any subsequent premium, the company will, upon surrender of this policy at its home office, grant any one of the following options: (a) A cash payment equal to the cash surrender value of this policy less any indebtedness hereon to the company (this balance is hereafter called the net cash value). The cash surrender value shall be equal to the reserve value at date of default, less a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the initial amount insured. (b) A participating paid-up life policy for such an amount, as the net cash value above defined will purchase. (c) Non-participating extended insurance for the initial amount of this policy for such a term of years as the net cash value above defined will purchase but not to exceed the term of years shown in the table on page three. Should the net cash value be greater than the reserve value required for such extended insurance, the excess will be retained by the company, payable upon surrender of this policy to the insured, if living at the expiration of the term of extended insurance, or on due proof of the prior death of the insured to the legal holder of this policy in addition to the initial amount insured. Until the time for the payment of the amount so retained, the company will pay to the insured on demand, interest equal to three and one-half per cent of the amount so retained, payable one year after date of such default, and annually thereafter. Any instalments of interest not so paid, shall be added to the amount retained and subsequent interest payments shall be proportionately increased. This option shall take effect only upon written request of the legal holder of this policy, filed with the company at its home office, and indorsement hereon by the company. All values and equivalents mentioned in the above options, shall be determined according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest. If no election shall have been made in accordance with the above provision within the month of grace provided by this policy, option (b) shall automatically apply.

LOANS.—After payment of premiums for three or more years, upon written request the insured may borrow from the company, upon the sole security of this policy, the whole or any portion of the cash value of the policy at the end of the current policy year as above defined, less any existing indebtedness to the company on this policy and subject to interest in advance at six per cent per annum to the end of the current policy year; provided that this policy unincumbered be legally assigned to the company as security upon the company's form of assignment for that purpose, and provided all premiums shall have been paid for the policy year in which the loan is taken. Failure to pay any such loan or the interest thereon shall not avoid the policy, unless the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed such loan value; nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured or of the assignee if any. The company shall have the right to defer the payment of the cash value or the making of the loan (unless for an amount sufficient only to pay premiums then due the company) for a period not exceeding six months.

SPECIAL.—When the guaranteed cash value together with all earnings to the credit of this policy is sufficient to provide a paid-up policy for the amount hereby insured, this policy shall become a participating paid-up policy with dividends payable annually, upon the request of the insured and indorsement hereon by the company.

MODIFICATIONS.—This policy and the application therefor, a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof, constitute the entire contract between the parties. All statements made by the insured shall in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy unless it is contained in the written application, a copy of which is attached hereto. No person, except the president, vice-president or secretary of the company, has power, on behalf of the company, to make or modify this contract, to extend the time for payment of premiums, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by making any promise, or by accepting any representation or information not contained in the application for this policy. These owers will not be delegated, and can be exercised by said officers only in writing. This policy shall not take effect until the first premium thereon shall have been actually paid during the lifetime and good health of the insured.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company, on account of or secured by this policy, will be deducted in any settlement, from the amount payable under this policy, from the cash value; other non-forfeiture options will be correspondingly diminished. In the case of extended insurance, such reductions shall apply first to the amount retained by the company and the corresponding interest, and then to the term of extended insurance.

ASSIGNMENTS.—The company shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any assignment of this policy, unless such assignment be in writing, and unless the original or a duplicate shall have been filed at the home office of the company and its receipt duly acknowledged. Any claim under an assignment shall be subject to proof of interest. The company will assume no responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Subject to the rights of any assignee, the insured may, at any time, and from time to time, during the continuance of this policy, change the beneficiary, by filing at the home office of the company a written request therefor (executed in duplicate) such change to take effect only when the company's acceptance of said request shall be endorsed thereon, and also upon the duplicate, which shall be attached to this policy; whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cease. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall immediately vest in the insured.

INTESTABILITY.—This policy is unrestricted as to change of occupation, naval or military service, residence or travel, and after two years from the date hereof, shall be absolutely incontestable for any cause except non-payment of premiums, subject to the following provisions as to proof of age: The company will admit the age of the insured at any time on satisfactory proof, but if not so admitted, and if the age is shown to have been misstated, the amount of insurance payable shall be such amount as the actual premiums would have purchased at the true age.

LIMITATION.—The liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid on this policy, if, within two years from the date hereof, the insured shall die, either by suicide (whether sane or insane), or in consequence of his or her criminal act.

TABLE OF NON-FORFEITURE VALUES.—The figures in the following table are computed in accordance with the provisions on page two, upon the assumption that there is no indebtedness on this policy. Any indebtedness hereon will be deducted from the cash value and will reduce the paid-up and extended insurance values correspondingly as provided on page two.

The above values will be increased proportionately in case of the payment of part of a full year's premium in addition to any complete number of years. Values of this policy for years not stated in table will be equal to the full reserve of the policy and of additions thereto, computed on the same basis.

INSTALMENT OPTIONS.

This policy is issued payable in one sum at maturity or on the death of the insured, but the insured may at any time from the date of issue, provided this policy is not then assigned, change the manner of such payment from one sum to such number of instalments as he (the insured) may elect, as provided in the annexed tables; he may at any time subsequently, change the number of instalments to such other number, provided in the annexed tables, as may be desired, or entirely revoke any change thereby making the proceeds of this policy again payable in one sum, by giving written notice to the company at its home office, Chicago, Ill., accompanied by this policy.

The insured may also, at any time during his lifetime, in like manner direct that the beneficiary shall have the right, when any instalment become due, to commute and receive in one sum the then present cash value of all unpaid instalments. The beneficiary, without such direction, shall not have such right. If the beneficiary should die before all instalments have been duly paid, the remainder of the instalments shall be commuted on the basis of three per cent compound interest and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary.

The first instalment under this policy shall be due immediately at maturity or upon receipt of due proofs of death of the insured, and subsequent instalments shall be paid annually thereafter, upon each succeeding anniversary of such first payment, until all instalments due shall have been paid.

The following tables are based upon $10,000 of insurance and will apply pro rata to the amount payable under this policy, at maturity or in event of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy. If the amount insured hereunder is less than $1000, or if there is more than one beneficiary, the instalment options shall not apply.

At the expiration of twenty years from the date hereof, if this policy shall have been kept in full force by the payment of all premiums, and the insured be then living, this policy will become a paid-up policy for ten thousand dollars.

This policy is issued for a term of one year from the date hereof, in consideration of the application herefor, a copy of which is hereto attached, and made a part hereof, and the payment in advance, to the company or its authorized agent, of four hundred three dollars and forty cents (being the premium to provide the legal reserve and term insurance for one year ending on the first day of August, 1916), and will be renewed for the further term of nineteen years upon the payment at the home office of the company, in Chicago, Ill., of a like amount in advance, on or before the first day of August, in every year hereafter, during the life of the insured, until twenty full annual premiums have been paid.

This policy is issued and accepted subject to the agreements, benefits and conditions stated on the following pages, which are hereby referred to and made a part hereof.

In witness whereof, the said United States Annuity and Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, signed and delivered this contract at Chicago, Ill., as of the first day of August, 1915.

AGREEMENTS, BENEFITS AND CONDITIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, in Chicago, Ill., or to the company's authorized agents, in exchange for receipts signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the agent designated therein. Premiums are payable annually in advance, but may be paid in semi-annual, quarterly or monthly instalments, in advance, at the company's table rates. Any unpaid part of a year's premium will be deducted in any settlement of this policy.

One month's grace will be allowed upon any payment of premium after the first year, without interest. During this month the insurance shall continue in force; and if the insured shall die during the month of grace the overdue premiums will be deducted in any settlement under this policy.

If any premium, or any semi-annual, quarterly or monthly instalment, or any note therefor, or any indebtedness secured by this policy, shall not be paid when due, this policy shall thereupon cease, except as to the non-forfeiture options hereinafter recited; provided that this policy, if not previously surrendered to the company, may be reinstated at any time within three years after such default, by payment of the past due premiums with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and in such form as the company may require.

VALUATION.—For the first year succeeding the date hereon the reserve value of this policy shall be computed for one year term insurance, except as modified by statute. For subsequent years, such net premium and valuation for an age at issue advanced one year shall be computed as will provide for the benefits and guarantees stipulated in his contract.

TOTAL DISABILITY.—If after payment of at least one full year's premium on this policy and before default in the payment of any subsequent premium and before the sixtieth anniversary of the insured's birth, the company shall receive due proof that the insured has from any cause whatsoever become totally disabled and will thereby be prevented permanently and continuously from engaging in any occupation for compensation or profit, the company will waive the payment of each premium as it thereafter becomes due during such disability. Waiver of premiums, as aforesaid, shall be equivalent to payment in cash by the insured, and shall not impair the values or benefits otherwise provided by this policy. Notwithstanding that proof of disability may have been accepted as satisfactory by the company, the insured shall, when required by the company, but not more than once a year, furnish satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability. The company reserves the right to require for this purpose, a medical examination of the insured by any physician whom it may designate. If the insured shall so far recover from his disability as to be able to engage in any occupation for compensation or profit, or shall fail to furnish proof of the continuance of such disability when required by the company as above, waiver of premiums shall cease, and any premiums thereafter falling due shall be payable as originally provided in this policy. With-

The above values will be increased proportionately in case of the payment of part of a full year's premium in addition to and complete number of years. Values of this policy for years not stated in table will be equal to the full reserve of the policy computed on the same basis.

For provisions as to modifications, indebtedness, assignments, change of beneficiary, incontestability, limitation and instalment options see preceding policy.

COUPON PROVISIONS.—The following coupons are attached to policy No. and are made a part thereof. When due, they may be surrendered for cash or applied to reduce the premiums on this policy. If not so used, the amounts designated therein will, from their respective due dates, be held by the company to the credit of the insured, subject to payment at any future date, with interest compounded annually at three and one-half per cent. Upon payment of sixteen full annual premiums hereon in cash, provided all coupon amounts above mentioned shall have been left with the company to accumulate, and upon surrender of all coupons hereto attached, and presentation of this policy for indorsement, this policy will be fully paid up for life, for the initial amount of insurance stated on page one. If this policy is terminated by the death of the insured, or surrendered under any of the non-forfeiture provisions herein, any coupon amounts then standing to the credit of the insured shall be paid in cash.

SAMPLE COUPON.—On or after August 1, 1916, the United States Annuity and Life Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill., will pay to the order of the insured, under policy No. (or to the order of the assignee, if the said policy is assigned), the sum of twenty-three and $\frac{10}{100}$ dollars, provided all premiums due on said policy to and including the above date have been duly paid. Payable at its home office. Remaining eighteen coupons are for the following amounts: \$26, \$29, \$31.90, \$34.80, \$37.60, \$40.50, \$43.30, \$46, \$48.80, \$51.50, \$54.20, \$56.90, \$59.50, \$62.20, \$64.80, \$67.30, \$69.90, \$72.40

* Adopted January 16, 1911.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

United States Life Insurance Company.

ORDINARY LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $219.80 AGE, 35.

The United States Life Insurance Company, in the City of New York, in consideration of the annual premium of two hundred nineteen dollars and eighty cents, and of the payment of a like amount upon each fifteenth day of January hereafter until the death of the insured, promises to pay at the home office of the company in New York City, upon receipt at said home office of due proof of the death of John Doe, of New York, county of New York, State of New York, herein called the insured, ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness hereon to the company and any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year upon surrender of this policy, properly receipted, to Mary Doe, beneficiary, with right of revocation.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of the death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary with or without reserving right of revocation by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—The company will accept payment of premiums at other times than as stated above, as follows: One-half in cash on due date of premium, and balance by six months' note with interest at six per centum per annum; or, one-quarter in cash and balance in three notes of equal amounts at three, six and nine months, respectively, with interest at six per centum per annum.

N. B.—Notes must be for even dollars, the excess being included in the cash payment.

Except as herein provided the payment of a premium or instalment thereof shall not maintain the policy in force beyond the date when the next premium or instalment thereof is payable. All premiums are payable in advance at said home office or to any agent of the company upon delivery, on or before date due, of a receipt signed by an executive officer, viz.: the president, vice-president, second vice-president, secretary, Assistant secretary or actuary of the company and countersigned by said agent. A grace of thirty days subject to an interest charge at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first year, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the days of grace the unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

CONDITIONS.—This policy contains no restriction upon the insured in respect either of travel, residence or occupation, excepting always that if within one year from the date of issue of this policy the insured shall go within the tropics, or north of the parallel of sixtieth degree north latitude, or engage in military or naval service in time of war, the liability of the company in case of death of the insured shall be limited to the return of the premiums actually paid hereon; and in the event of the death of the insured by self-destruction, whether sane or insane, within one year from the date of issue of this policy, the liability of the company shall be only for the return of the premiums actually paid hereon.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable, except for non-payment of premiums, after one year from its date of issue. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

NON-PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall not participate in the profits of the company.

LOANS.—The company at any time will advance upon the sole security of this policy, at a rate not greater than six per centum per annum, a sum not exceeding the amount specified in the table of loan values herein set forth, deducting therefrom all other indebtedness hereon to the company. Failure to repay any such advance or interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed eighty per centum of the net value of the policy, and thirty days' notice shall have been given by the company.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its said home office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

No person except an executive officer of the company as aforesaid has power to modify or in event of lapse to reinstate this policy or to extend the time for paying a premium.

In witness whereof, the company has caused this policy to be executed this fifteenth day of January, 1907.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

It is hereby declared and agreed: 1st. That all the statements and answers in this application are true, full and complete; that this application and declaration shall, with the policy herein applied for, be the sole basis of the contract between me and the company, and shall be binding on all parties in interest under such policy; and no information or statement, unless contained in this application, made, given, received or acquired, by any person at any time shall be binding on the company; and that the policy to be issued hereon shall take effect only upon payment of the first premium, and delivery of the policy during my lifetime, and while I am in sound health and insurable condition. 2d. In the event of my death by self-destruction, sane or insane, within one year from the date of issue of any policy that may issue hereon, the liability of the company shall only be for the return of the premiums paid thereunder. 3d. That any policy to be issued hereon shall not be entitled to participate in the profits or surplus of the company.

* Adopted April, 1912.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Volunteer State Life Insurance Company.

WHOLE LIFE POLICY—FIVE YEAR DIVIDEND.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $268.40. AGE, 35.

In consideration of the application for this policy, which is hereby made a part of this contract, and endorsed hereon, and of the payment in the manner specified of the premium herein stated, the Volunteer State Life Insurance Company hereby insures the life of Andrew Jackson, of Hermitage, county of Davidson, State of Tennessee, for the amount herein named, payable as specified and subject to all privileges and provisions contained herein.

The amount of insurance is ten thousand dollars, payable in one sum at the home office of the company in Chattanooga, Tenn., upon receipt of due proof of death of the insured and surrender of this policy, properly receipted, unto Rachel Donelson Jackson, wife, if living, if not, to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured.

This insurance is issued for a term of one year from the first day of April, 1912, and is based upon the payment of two hundred sixty-eight and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars on the delivery of this policy as the premium for one year's insurance, and in consideration of one full year's premium being paid, this contract shall be continued as a whole life policy upon the further payment of two hundred sixty-eight and $\frac{40}{100}$ dollars on or before the first day of April in each and every year thereafter during the life of the insured.

All premiums are payable at the home office of the company in Chattanooga, Tenn., or as provided under the heading "provisions" on third page hereof.

PARTICIPATION.—This policy shall participate in the surplus earnings of the company apportioned and accruing to policies of this class, and its proportion of the divisible surplus shall be ascertained by the company and distributed at the end of each five-year period from date hereof, provided the policy be then in full force. Such dividend may be withdrawn in cash, applied to purchase a paid-up addition to the policy, or to reduce the premium hereon. Unless the insured shall notify the company in writing within three months from the end of each dividend period which mode of settlement is desired, the company reserves the right to make the selection.

PRIVILEGES.

CASH LOANS.—The company will, at any time after three full years' premiums have been paid, advance upon the sole security of this policy, when legally assigned, a sum equal to the amount specified in the table below, plus the full legal reserve on all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, less any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy. The interest on such loan shall not exceed six per cent per annum and shall be payable annually in advance. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay the interest thereon or to pay any loan and interest under the automatic loan clause shall not void this policy unless the total indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall equal or exceed the then total loan value at such time of failure, nor until one month after the company shall have mailed notice of such fact to the last known address of the insured, also to the assignee, if any.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOANS.—In the event the insured should, at any premium date or within the days of grace thereafter, after three full years' premiums have been paid hereon, fail to pay or cause to be paid the then current premium, if the policy be not surrendered by the insured with a choice of one of the options herein guaranteed, and if, at the time of the non-payment of premium there is a loan value hereon in excess of all indebtedness that may then exist against the policy together with interest, the company will apply such available loan value towards the payment of the premium then due, with interest thereon at a rate not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum, chargeable annually in advance; and will continue to carry said policy in force, in the form as written and at the rate of premium as provided for in the face hereof, subject to its terms and such indebtedness the same as if the premium had been paid in cash, and will continue to so apply such loan value as long as such value, at the rate of premium provided in the face hereof, will suffice to pay for even one day's premium. At any time while this policy is thus in force the insured may resume payment of premiums thereon without medical re-examination, and in that event, any indebtedness against the policy may either be paid in cash or allowed to remain as a loan hereon. All such indebtedness shall be a first lien on the policy, and the policy will lapse unless premium payments are resumed by the insured within the actual period of extension.

OPTIONS ON SURRENDER OR LAPSE.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, it may be surrendered to the company at any time prior to default in premium payment, or within the days of grace thereafter, and as full consideration therefor, one of the following options may be accepted:

1. CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—Accept the cash value indicated by the following table, plus the full legal reserve on all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, less any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy; or,

2. PAID-UP LIFE POLICY.—Accept a non-participating paid-up life policy for the amount indicated by the following table, plus all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy; provided however, that if there be any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, the amount of such paid-up life policy will be reduced in the proportion that the total indebtedness bears to the then total cash surrender value; or,

3. PAID-UP TERM POLICY.—Accept a non-participating paid-up term policy without the right to loans for the full amount insured by this policy, plus all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, to be dated on the day to which premiums have been duly paid and to continue in force for the term indicated by the following table; provided, however, that if there be any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, the amount of such paid-up term policy shall be the face value of this policy, plus all dividend additions apportioned and credited hereon, less the amount of such indebtedness, and the term for which such paid-up term policy shall run shall be changed to that term for which the cash surrender value of this policy, herein specified, after deducting such indebtedness, will carry the modified amount at the single premium term rates of this company.

Values for later years will be computed on the same basis and furnished upon request. The reserve maintained on this policy and the loan and surrender values in the above table are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent ($3\frac{1}{2}\%$) per annum.

INSTALMENT OPTION OF SETTLEMENT.—The amount insured under this policy is payable in one sum, but if the amount payable be not less than $1000, it may, at the option of the insured or beneficiary, be made payable instead in either, five, ten, fifteen, or twenty equal annual instalments. The amount of such instalments shall be based upon the amount insured under this policy, together with any paid-up additions hereon, and shall be determined from the table opposite. The first instalment shall be payable at the same time the original amount would have been payable under this policy, and subsequent instalments shall become payable on succeeding anniversaries of the payment of the first instalment and continue until all of said instalments shall have been paid. Unless the company shall have been otherwise directed by the insured in writing all unpaid instalments, at the time any instalment is due, may be commuted at the rate of three per cent per annum, compound interest, and the equivalent withdrawn in one sum.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—In the payment of any premium under this policy, except the first, a grace of one month will be allowed, during which time the policy will remain in force. If death should occur within the month of grace, the unpaid premium for the current year will be deducted from the amount payable hereunder.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—Should the insured, after having paid the premium for at least one full year, and sixty days before any subsequent premium is due, and before attaining the age of sixty years, furnish proof satisfactory to the company that he has become wholly disabled by bodily injury or disease while this policy is in force, so that he is and will be permanently, continuously, and wholly prevented thereby from performing any work for compensation or profit, or from following any gainful occupation, the company will, by endorsement hereon, agree to pay for the insured subsequent premiums hereon as they fall due during such total disability. Any premiums so paid by the company shall not be deducted from the sum payable under the policy, or from the loan and surrender options herein provided for, but such values shall increase as though the premiums were actually paid by the insured in cash; provided that satisfactory evidence of such continued total disability be furnished on or before each annual premium due date in lieu of payment of premium, and that the insured shall, at any time, on demand, furnish the company satisfactory proof of the continuance of such disability, and shall, on request, submit to be examined by a physician named by the company, and if the insured shall fail to furnish such proof, or if it shall appear to the company that the insured is able to perform any work or to follow any gainful occupation, then all premiums thereafter falling due must be paid in conformity with this contract. Without prejudice to any other cause of disability, the entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands above the wrists, or of both feet above the ankles, or one entire hand and one entire foot, will be considered as total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision, and not subject to further proof of disability.

REVIVAL OF POLICY.—If this policy be lapsed for non-payment of premium, it may be revived any time after the date of lapse upon written application and the payment of arrears of premiums, with interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum; provided, however, that evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company be furnished to the company and its approval expressed, all according to its usages and requirements in such cases. In the event of the revival of this policy, the loan value hereon will be the same as if it had never lapsed, and the full amount thereof, less any indebtedness, will be available as a loan in the payment of arrears.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time while this policy is in force, by written notice to the company at its home office, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries under this policy, such change to take effect only upon the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary or beneficiaries shall cease; provided, however, that no such change of beneficiary shall be valid if the policy or any interest therein be assigned at the time of such change.

CHANGE IN POLICY FORM.—This policy may be changed at any time while in force, and not assigned, for any other form of policy issued by the company at the time of such exchange, provided the amount of insurance is not increased nor the premium rate lowered, and provided that the difference in past premiums, with interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum is paid on such difference between the premium rate of the policy exchanged and the policy applied for. Such exchange may be made without medical examination, and the new policy shall bear the same date as this policy.

PROVISIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—The premiums on this policy are payable in advance. If the premiums be made payable in quarterly or semi-annual instalments, any instalments of the annual premium for the current year remaining unpaid at the maturity of the policy shall be considered an indebtedness to the company on account of this policy. Premiums are payable at the home office of the company, but may be paid to an authorized agent of the company on or before the dates when due, in exchange for official receipts signed by the president, vice-president, or secretary, and countersigned by such agent. If any premium be not paid when due, the liability of the company shall be only as hereinbefore provided.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy will be deducted from any payment or payments in any settlement under this policy.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—No condition, privilege, or provision of this policy can be waived or modified in any case except by an endorsement hereon signed by the president, one of the vice presidents, the secretary, the assistant secretary, or the actuary. No agent has power on behalf of the company to modify this contract of insurance, to extend the time for paying a premium to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by making any promise or representation.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding on the company unless such assignment shall be in writing and acknowledged under oath, and the original or certified copy thereof filed with the company at its home office and its receipt duly acknowledged. The claims of any assignee shall be subject to proof of insurable interest and the company will not assume any responsibility for the validity of an assignment.

SUICIDE.—Suicide within two years from the date of this policy, whether the insured be sane or insane, is a risk not assumed by the company, but in case of such suicide the company will return the premiums actually paid in cash.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after two years from its date except for non-payment of premium and engaging in military or naval service in time of war, for which written permission must be obtained from the company.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be the amount of insurance which the premiums paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

ENTIRE CONTRACT CONTAINED IN THIS POLICY.—This policy contains the entire contract between the parties hereto.

STATEMENTS OF THE INSURED.—All statements purporting to be made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it be contained in a written application.

This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right, and enjoy every privilege conferred upon him by this policy.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

West Coast-San Francisco Life Insurance Co.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE, DEFINITE BONUS POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING—DISABILITY BENEFIT.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $383.10. AGE, 35.

West Coast-San Francisco Life Insurance Company, San Francisco, Cal., agrees to pay ten thousand dollars at the home office of the company, in San Francisco, Cal., as follows: The beneficiary to Jane Doe, wife of the insured, immediately upon receipt of due proofs of the death of the insured, during the continuance of this policy, with the right on the part of the insured to change the beneficiary. The insured, John Doe of San Francisco, State of California.

TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY.—The company will pay the premiums on this policy beginning with the next annual premium following the receipt of satisfactory proof of the total and permanent disability of the insured, provided that such total and permanent disability is due solely and entirely to bodily injuries or disease occurring while this policy is in full force, and before the insured has attained the age of sixty years, and that such disability is such as to prevent the insured then and at all times thereafter from engaging in any gainful occupation. If the insured shall recover so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the company's obligations to pay further premiums hereon shall cease and the insured shall be required to pay all future premiums becoming due hereon after the date of such recovery. Any such premiums paid by the company shall not be a lien hereon and the guaranteed values shall continue to increase and progress from year to year in the same manner as if the insured had paid the premiums hereon. The loss of the entire sight of both eyes by removal or disease or of the use of both hands or both feet or of the use of one hand and one foot, will be deemed total and permanent disability within the meaning of this provision. The insured may cancel this total and permanent disability benefit at any time prior to attaining the age of sixty years and thereupon the premium on this policy will be reduced by fifty cents per annum per thousand dollars of insurance.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the application herefor and of the payment of three hundred eighty-three ¹⁰/₁₀₀ dollars on February 11th, 1916, as the premium for one year's term insurance and of the payment of a like sum on or before the anniversary of the same date in every year during the continuance of this policy until premiums for twenty full years shall have been paid hereon. The benefits and provisions on the succeeding pages of this policy are made a part hereof.

In witness whereof, West Coast-San Francisco Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be executed at the city of San Francisco, as of the eleventh day of February, 1916.

BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

All premiums hereon are due and payable at the home office of the company in the city of San Francisco, but may be paid to agents of the company producing receipts signed by the president, a vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary and countersigned by such agents. The annual premium hereon may be paid in semi-annual or quarterly instalments at the premium rates in use by the company at the date hereof, covering one half year or one quarter year, for which said instalment is paid, but no longer. In case of the death of the insured, any premium or instalment of premium falling due during the current policy year shall be deducted from the payment hereunder. This policy shall lapse if any premium is not paid as herein provided and no right hereunder shall exist except as herein expressly provided. Thirty days' grace without interest shall be allowed in payment of any premium after this policy has been in force one year.

RESERVE BASIS.—The reserve basis used in computing the premiums and values under this policy is the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at three and one-half per cent, and any value which may be given under the policy, including those tabulated herein, shall be at least the equivalent of the entire net reserve of this policy, less a surrender charge of not more than the amount allowed by the laws of the State in which this policy shall be delivered.

REINSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse for the non-payment of any premium it may be revived at any time by the insured furnishing evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and the payment of all premiums and other indebtedness in arrears hereon, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right to change the beneficiary has been reserved, or in case of the death of any beneficiary, the insured, if there be no existing assignment of the policy made as herein provided, may, while the policy is in force, designate a new beneficiary by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company accompanied by the policy for suitable endorsement thereon. Such change shall take effect when endorsed on the policy by the company and not before. If any beneficiary shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured. The insured may, without the consent of the beneficiary, except in the case of a permanent beneficiary, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured by this policy.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from date of issue except for non-payment of premium.

ASSIGNMENT.—This policy may be assigned, provided application for such assignment be made upon the company's forms in duplicate and both copies sent to the home office, where one will be filed and the other returned to the insured. The company will assume no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid hereon, if this policy shall cease and become void by the non-payment of any premium when due, the company will, without any action on the part of the insured extend the insurance provided herein for its face amount, as non-participating term insurance, for the period shown in the table endorsed hereon, provided, however, that any indebtedness to the company under this policy shall be deducted from the cash value, and the remainder used as a basis of a new computation of extended insurance.

CASH VALUE AND PAID-UP INSURANCE.—In lieu of said automatic extended insurance the insured, upon written application and satisfactory release and surrender of this policy within two months, may procure either the cash value or paid-up non-participating insurance as similarly stated in the table endorsed hereon.

LOANS.—After three years' premiums have been paid hereon, the insured, on the sole security of this policy properly assigned, may borrow at the interest rate of six per cent per annum an amount not exceeding the loan value shown in the table endorsed hereon, interest to the next anniversary of the policy being payable in advance. If interest is not paid when due, it shall be added to the existing loan and bear interest at the same rate. Except in case of a loan for the purpose of paying premiums then due the company, payment of cash, or loan values may be deferred for ninety days after the application therefor.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on this policy shall be deducted upon settlement of any claim hereunder. If there be any such indebtedness, the cash and loan values shall be diminished thereby, and the paid-up insurance shall be apportioned to the cash value so diminished.

POLICY THE ENTIRE CONTRACT.—This policy, together with the application, a copy of which is attached hereto, contains the entire contract between the parties hereto, and all statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid the policy or be used as a defense to a claim thereunder, unless it be contained in the application for the policy. Only the president, vice-president, secretary or actuary (and they only in writing signed by them), have power in behalf of the company to issue permits, or make or modify this or any contract, or to extend the time for making any premium payment, and the company shall not be bound by any promise or representation heretofore or hereafter given by any person other than the above-named officers, and by them only in writing and signed as stated.

MILITARY OR NAVAL SERVICE.—Engaging in any military or naval service within one year from date of issue, except in time of peace, is not a risk assumed under this policy, unless the company shall have first issued a written permit.

PROOFS OF DEATH AND ADMISSION OF AGE.—Proofs of death of the insured shall be made on the forms prescribed by the company, and no suit under this policy shall be sustainable unless commenced within one year from the date of the death of the insured. The company will admit the age of the insured upon satisfactory proof; failing such proof, if the age shall have been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be the amount of insurance which the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age of the insured.

DEFINITE BONUS FUND.—The company guarantees that it will set aside, from all full years' premiums paid to the company after the first on account of this policy, the sums set forth in the schedule of contributions in the table of payments on the fourth page hereof. The said sums so set aside shall be placed in a fund to be known as "the definite bonus fund," applicable to policies on the definite bonus plan issued in the same calendar year as this policy. The company agrees that no deductions shall be made from said fund for any purpose whatsoever but that all contributions to said fund shall be accumulated at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, compounded annually, from the dates of the respective payments. At the end of each five-year period from the date hereof, if the insured is living and if all due premiums hereon have been paid, the company shall apportion to this policy as a definite bonus a sum bearing the same proportion to the total amount of said fund as the total contributions thereto from premiums paid on this policy during said period bear to the aggregate total contributions thereto during said period from premiums paid on all policies in the definite bonus class issued in the same calendar year as this policy and that are in full force at said time and on which all due premiums have been paid. The sum thus apportioned to this policy may, at the option of the insured be used as follows: (1) In cash; or, (2) in equivalent paid-up non-participating insurance subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company; or, (3) allowed to accumulate at three and one-half per cent interest compounded annually and withdrawable at any time. If no option is selected within thirty days after the end of the period the company will assume that option number one is chosen and the sum apportioned will be paid in cash. If the entire definite bonus hereunder is allowed to accumulate as provided under option number three, the company guarantees that without medical re-examination this policy together with its share of definite bonus may be surrendered. (1) At the end of fifteen years for a fully paid-up policy of the initial face amount hereof together with an amount in cash of at least $178.30, or (2) at the end of twenty years for a fully paid-up policy of the initial face amount hereof together with an amount in cash of at least $2226. After this policy shall have been in force three full years, upon written request from the insured, the company will furnish a statement of the amount of this policy's share of the definite bonus fund then accumulated and held awaiting apportionment, subject to all of the terms and conditions of this agreement.

Values available after the twentieth policy year will be based upon the full legal reserve of this policy. The amount of any such value will be stated upon application to the home office of the company.

GUARANTEED INSTALMENT OPTIONS.—The amount insured under this policy is payable in one sum, but if the amount payable be not less than $1000 it may be made payable instead in equal annual instalments from two to twenty-five, or in a first large instalment, followed by subsequent annual instalments of smaller equal amounts or may be made payable to the beneficiary, if such beneficiary be one natural person, in equal annual instalments, to continue for twenty years and so long thereafter as the beneficiary may live. The amount of each instalment shall be based upon the amount insured under this policy, and shall be determined from the following tables:

GUARANTEED OPTION—CHANGE OF PLAN.

This policy may, at the option of the insured, at any anniversary of its date of issue, and without medical re-examination, be exchanged for any other form of policy issued by the company, provided the amount of insurance under such policy shall not be greater or the rate of premium less than under this policy, and provided application for such change be made in writing to the company, and the first premium on the new policy be paid while this policy is in force. Such change may be effected in one of the following methods, to-wit:

First.—The company will issue a new policy, to date concurrently with the date of exchange, in which case the entire net reserve value of this policy will be applied toward the payment of premiums on the new contract; or,

Second.—The company will issue a new policy, to date concurrently with the original issuance of this contract, upon payment by the insured of the difference between the annual premiums on the two policies, with interest thereon compounded at six per cent per annum from the beginning of the policy.

GUARANTEED ANNUITY OPTIONS.

If this policy shall have been maintained in full force and all premiums as they fall due hereunder paid in full, and there be no existing indebtedness under the policy, the company guarantees on surrender of this policy: (1) At the end of twenty years from the date hereof, or (2) on attainment of age sixty-five, to issue to the insured, in lieu of all other benefits hereunder, an annuity bond guaranteeing for life the following annuities, first payments payable respectively on the dates specified:

1. $479.60 annually or $234.80 semi-annually. First payment February 11th, 1937.
or 2. $795.10 annually or $386.40 semi-annually. First payment February 11th, 1947;

ACCIDENT AND DISEASE DISABILITY INSURANCE.—Attached to and made a part of policy No. 04567, dated February, 11, 1916, on the life of John Doe, and subject to all the conditions of said policy, as to method of premium payment, "grace" period and lapse.

West Coast-San Francisco Life Insurance Company (called the company). In consideration of the payment of forty dollars as the premium for one year (which payment may be made in semi-annual instalments of $20, or quarterly instalments of $10, covering the period of half-year's or quarter-year's insurance for which the instalment is paid); hereby also insures the said applicant (called the insured), subject to the conditions and provisions herein contained against. First—Disability as hereinafter set forth, resulting directly and independently of all other causes, from bodily injuries effected through external, violent and accidental means. Second—Disability as hereinafter set forth resulting directly and independently of all other causes from disease, which disease is contracted and begins not less than fifteen days after the date hereof.

ACCIDENT BENEFITS.—(a) Fifty dollars per week while disability so accidentally caused, consists of continuous total loss of business time and such disability immediately follows the accident, herein called total disability. (b) One half of the amount stated in clause (a) per week while disability, so accidentally caused, is not total but consists of continuous inability to prosecute one or more important daily business duties, from either the time of accident or the termination of such total disability. Liability under clause (b) is limited to twenty-six weeks, and under clause (a) and (b) together, fifty-two weeks.

DISEASE BENEFITS.—(c) Fifty dollars per week, while disability so caused by any disease consists of continuous confinement inside the house, accompanied by regular visits by a legally qualified physician. (d) Two-fifths of the amount stated in clause (c) per week, in case of valid claim under clause (c) while disability so caused by disease continues after termination of such confinement and visits and consists of inability to transact any and every kind of business. Liability under clause (d) is limited to twenty-six weeks, and under clause (c) or clauses (c) and (d) together, fifty-two weeks, and no disease benefits shall be payable for the first three days' disability.

PROVISIONS.—If the insured be injured after having changed his occupation to one classed by the company as more hazardous than that stated in the application for this policy, or be injured while doing any act or thing pertaining to any more hazardous occupation, the company's liability shall be only for such proportion of the accident benefits as the premium hereon would purchase at the rate fixed by the company for like insurance for such more hazardous occupation, and according to the company's rates and classification of risks filed with the insurance commissioner at, or prior to the date of issuance of the policy under which indemnity is claimed. If the insured has or shall become entitled to or make claim for accident benefits under any policy issued by the company, it shall not for any portion of the same period of time be liable for disease benefits under any policy. Any accident or disease benefits paid shall be deducted from any amount payable as advances under the provisions of said life insurance policy as to "benefits for permanent disability," if the sole or contributory or secondary cause of such permanent disability is also the sole or contributory or secondary cause of the disability on account of which accident or disease benefits were paid. Accident and disease benefits shall be payable to the insured if living at the time of actual payment, otherwise to the person or persons entitled to receive payment of moneys payable on account of the death of said insured under said life insurance policy. Written notice of any accident and injury or any disease with full particulars must be given the company at its home office San Francisco, Cal., within twenty days from the date of the accident or beginning of disability from disease, and satisfactory written affirmative proof of the character and effects of any accident and disability or any disease and disability must be furnished the company within ninety days after the termination of such disability if it be less than thirteen weeks, otherwise within ninety days after the termination of each thirteen weeks' period of continuous disability, and each such period shall constitute a separate and distinct claim and shall be payable within sixty days of the receipt by the company of such satisfactory proof. The company shall have the right and opportunity to have the person of the insured examined when and so often as it requires in case of injury or disease. In case of failure for any cause to so furnish such notice or proof, or to allow such examination, no claim shall arise or be valid for disability. Legal proceedings for accident or disease benefits shall not be brought before three months nor after six months from date of filing proofs at the company's home office. This accident insurance covers freezing and unprovoked assaults (including assaults by burglars and robbers), but neither accident nor disease insurance covers disability due to the use of intoxicants or narcotics or disability from injuries received while affected by or under their influence. This accident and disease insurance may be cancelled at any time by the insured filing written notice at the home office of the company at San Francisco, or by the company mailing written notice by registered letter to the insured at either last known residence or the residence given in the application for said life insurance policy, together with draft or money order for the unearned portion of the premium. Such cancellation shall be without prejudice to any claim arising from disability contracted and beginning prior to the date of such cancellation. Disease insurance ceases upon the insured becoming fifty-five years of age, and accident insurance, upon his becoming seventy years of age, and both disease and accident insurance upon default in payment of any premium, also when premiums upon said life insurance policy cease to be payable.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

Do you agree (1) that only the officers of the company, at its home office, can accept or reject this or any application? (2) That no knowledge of any person and no statement made or given by or to any person shall bind the company or in any manner affect its rights unless such knowledge and statement are set forth in writing in this application? (3) That no policy issued hereunder shall take effect until the first premium shall have been paid and accepted by said company or its authorized agent and such policy delivered to and accepted by you while you are in good health. (4) That unless written permission is first expressly granted by the company no policy shall be valid if during the first year following its date you engage in any of the following extra hazardous occupations or employments: submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, manufacture or handling of any highly explosive substance. (5) That, if during the first year following the date of said policy you commit suicide, sane or insane, or die in consequence of your own unlawful act, the only liability under said policy shall be for a fixed sum equivalent to five per cent of the principal sum of said policy.

* Adopted March, 1915.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $10,000.

Western and Southern Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $297.60. AGE, 35

The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, by this policy of insurance agrees to pay ten thousand dollars, on receipt at the home office of the company, in Cincinnati, Ohio, upon blanks furnished by the company, of due proof of the death of William F. Clark of Cleveland (hereinafter called the insured) in the State of Ohio to Carrie M. Clark, wife, beneficiary, (with right of revocation) if living, otherwise to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the insured; less any indebtedness hereunder to the company, and any unpaid portion or instalment of the premium for the then current policy year.

This policy is conditioned upon the payment of premiums as follows: Two hundred ninety-seven and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars, annually, in cash in exchange for a receipt signed by the president or secretary, and countersigned by the authorized agent designated thereon, on delivery of this policy during the life and sound health of the insured, and on or before the fifth day of April in every year during the continuance of this policy until twenty full years' premiums shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company in Cincinnati, or they may be paid to agents on or before the dates when due, in exchange for official premium receipts signed by the president or secretary of the company.

The company will accept payment of premiums at other times than as stated above, as follows: Semi-annually, one hundred fifty-four and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars, or quarterly, seventy-eight and $\frac{90}{100}$ dollars, but in any event this policy shall continue in force only for the period actually paid.

A grace of one month, subject to an interest charge at the rate of five per cent per annum, shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which month the insurance shall continue in force. If the insured shall die during the month of grace the overdue premium will be deducted from any amount payable hereon in any settlement hereunder.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case of default of any premium the company will, within three years after such default, reinstate this policy, if not previously surrendered for its cash value, upon written application by the insured to the company at its home office, with evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, the payment of all premiums that would have been paid in the intervening time if no default had been made, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, and the payment or renewal of any indebtedness existing at the time of default.

POLICY VALUES.—The insured, if living on the fifth day of April, 1935, provided the premiums theretofore payable in each insurance year shall have been paid in cash, and there is no indebtedness hereunder, may select one of the following options: 1. Continue this policy without further payment of premiums. 2. A cash payment of $5660 and surrender this policy. 3. An annual income of $420, payable during the natural life of the insured, and surrender this policy. The first payment to be made at time of said surrender.

Agents are not authorized to alter this policy or waive or modify any of its conditions, in any respect, nor to extend the time for the payment of premiums.

TRUST FUND AND INSTALMENT PRIVILEGES.—The insured, by written notice to the company at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect to have the net sum payable under this policy, if not less than $1000, paid either in cash or as follows: (1) By the payment of interest thereon at three per cent per annum, payable annually, to the payee under this policy at the end of each year during the life of the payee, and by the payment upon the death of the payee of the said net sum and accrued interest to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee—unless otherwise directed in said notice. (2) By the payment of equal annual instalments for a specified number of years, the first instalment being payable immediately in accordance with the accompanying table (B) for each $1000 of said net sum. (3) By the payment of equal annual instalments payable at the beginning of each year for a fixed period of twenty-five years and for so many years longer as the payee shall survive, in accordance with the accompanying table (A) for each $1000 of said net sum. Instalments payable under options (2) or (3) which shall not have been paid prior to the death of the payee, shall be paid—unless otherwise directed in said notice—to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the payee.

* ILLUSTRATION.—If, at the death of the insured, the beneficiary is fifty years of age, the company will pay the beneficiary annually $52 for every $1000 of insurance, so long as the beneficiary shall live. At least twenty-five annual payments will be made, and should beneficiary die in say ten years the remaining fifteen payments would be made to the executors or assigns of the beneficiary.

† ILLUSTRATION.—If the insured should direct that the policy should be paid in twenty annual instalments, the beneficiary would receive $65 per $1000 of insurance every year for twenty years; a total of $1300.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING PRIVILEGE.—If the trust is created by the insured for the benefit of the beneficiary, the beneficiary cannot assign or commute the instalments, nor, if the proceeds are placed in trust subject to interest, withdraw the principal or anticipate the interest—unless such right is given by the insured in writing, and is endorsed on the policy by the company at its home office, during the lifetime of the insured. If the trust is created by the beneficiary, the beneficiary may at any time subsequently, commute or assign the unpaid instalments, or at any time withdraw the principal or any part thereof remaining unpaid, with accrued interest.

HOW TRUST MAY BE CREATED.—Trust agreement for interest or instalment payments may be created at any time by the insured, but shall only be created and take effect when made in writing, subscribed by him, and by the company at its home office.

Trust agreement may be created by the beneficiary after the death of the insured, and when the proceeds of this policy become payable to the beneficiary. When a trust is revoked and a new one is not created, and no other provision is made for the proceeds of this insurance, payment shall be made in cash, as provided in this policy.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

1. This policy cannot be varied or altered, or its conditions waived or extended in any respect, except by written agreement of the company, signed by the president, vice-president or secretary, whose authority in this respect will not be delegated.

2. All statements made by the insured in the application for this policy, a true copy whereof is hereto attached, shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations, and not warranties.

3. No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until it be filed with the company at its home office, and a duplicate of such assignment must be attached hereto. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

4. In case of suicide while sane or insane, within two years from the date on which this insurance begins, the limit of recovery shall be the amount of premiums paid hereon.

5. If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

6. No action or suit to recover any claim hereunder shall be commenced after five years from the time such action shall accrue, and it is expressly agreed that if such suit or action be commenced after such period, the lapse of time shall be conclusive evidence against such claim, all statutory provisions to the contrary notwithstanding.

VALUE OF THIS POLICY AS SECURITY FOR CASH LOANS.—After three years' premiums have been paid, the company, at any time while the policy is in force, will advance, on proper assignment of this policy and on the sole security thereof, at six per cent interest per annum, a sum equal to, or, at the option of the owner of the policy, less than, the cash value at the end of the current policy year on this policy, specified in Column 1 of the accompanying Table (C).

The company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy, and any unpaid balance or instalment of the premium for the current policy year with interest in advance on the loan to the same date. Interest on loans, if not paid annually, shall be added to the principal and bear the same rate of interest. Loans may be deferred by the company for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made. Failure to repay policy loan, or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy unless and until the total indebtedness to the company hereon shall equal or exceed the loan value of this policy at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall be mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and of the assignee, if any. No condition other than herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such loan or advance.

Values for years beyond this table, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, will be furnished on request.

VALUES OF THIS POLICY IF PREMIUMS ARE DISCONTINUED.—After this policy shall have been in force for three full years, the owner, within two months after any default in premium, may elect to accept the value of this policy in cash, specified in Column 1 of the accompanying Table (C), or to have the insurance continued in force from date of default as term insurance (specified in Column 3), or to purchase paid-up insurance (specified in Column 2), payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy. The cash value will be the reserve at the date of default on this policy, computed according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum; less not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by this policy, and less any existing indebtedness to the company on this policy. Payment of such cash value may be deferred by the company for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made. The amount of paid-up insurance, or the term for which the insurance will be extended, will be such as the cash value will purchase as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum. If the owner shall not within two months from default, surrender this policy to the company at its home office for a cash surrender value or for endorsement as paid-up insurance, the insurance will automatically continue as term insurance from date of said default, as stated in Column 3 of accompanying table. Any existing indebtedness due the company on account of or secured by the policy shall reduce the amount or term of such extended insurance in the ratio of such indebtedness to the net value of such insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Provided the right of revocation has been reserved in the application herefor, and this policy has not been assigned, the insured may at any time, and from time to time, change the beneficiary, to take effect when such change has been endorsed on this policy with the written approval of the president or secretary of the company, whereupon all rights of former beneficiary shall cease. In the event of prior death of an irrevocable beneficiary not a creditor, the insured may designate a new beneficiary with or without the right of revocation. If there shall be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of the policy shall be payable in cash to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

CONTRACT INCONTESTABLE.—This policy and the application herefor, a true copy of which is endorsed hereon or securely attached hereto, constitute the entire contract between the parties, and shall be incontestable after two years from its date, except for non-payment of premiums.

PROVISION OF NON-FORFEITURE.—This policy is non-forfeitable after three full years' premiums have been paid, and may be surrendered at any time thereafter for its then value in cash, or the equivalent in paid-up or extended insurance.

In witness whereof, The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary at Cincinnati, Ohio, this fifth day of April, 1915.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby declare and agree, that I am now in good health, and ordinarily have good health; that I am temperate in my habits, that in my statements and answers in this application and to the medical examiner, no information has been withheld touching my past and present state of health and habits of life, occupations, employments and residence; that the statements and answers to the printed questions above, together with this declaration, as well as those made to the company's medical examiner, shall constitute the application and be the basis of this contract. It is also understood and agreed on behalf of myself and any beneficiary under any policy issued hereunder by The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company on my life, that the company shall incur no liability until this application has been received, approved, the policy issued thereon by the company and delivered and the first premium paid in cash during my lifetime and good health.

Maximum amount carried on a single life, $10,000.

Western Life Insurance Company.

AMOUNT, $10,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $369.30. AGE, 35.

The Western Life Insurance Company will pay ten thousand dollars to Martha Washington, wife of the insured, if living, otherwise to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, or to such other beneficiary as may have been duly designated, at the home office of the company, in Des Moines, Iowa, immediately upon receipt of satisfactory proofs of the death of George Washington (the insured) while this contract is in force.

This contract is granted in consideration of the application therefor, which application is hereby made a part of this contract, and a copy is attached hereto or endorsed hereon, and in further consideration of the sum of three hundred, sixty nine dollars and thirty cents in advance, being the premium for one year's term insurance, and payment of further sums of three hundred, sixty-nine dollars and thirty cents on or before the first day of February in every year during the continuance of this contract until twenty full annual premiums have been paid.

ADDITIONAL INDEMNITY.—Should the insured meet with accidental death while a passenger on a common carrier, all as hereinafter defined, and while this contract is in full force and effect, all as provided on the succeeding pages of this contract, the company will pay to the beneficiary or beneficiaries hereunder the sum of twelve thousand dollars.

PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—Should the insured become permanently totally disabled, as hereinafter defined, before attaining the age of fifty-five years, and while this contract is in full force and effect, the company will pay to the insured annual advances on account of the amount payable as a death claim hereunder, all as provided on the succeeding pages of this contract. The privileges, conditions, loan and surrender values, stated on the following pages, form a part of this contract as fully as if recited over the signatures of the president and secretary, hereto affixed.

Dated, signed and sealed at Des Moines, Iowa, this first day of February, 1915.

This policy is protected by a deposit of the full legal reserve, in approved securities actually deposited with the auditor of the state of Iowa under chapters 6 and 8, title 9 of the code.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.—Arranged in condensed form for ready reference and convenience of the insured, but governed by the conditions as hereinafter specified in detail.

1. This contract is incontestable after one year.
2. This contract grants freedom of residence and travel from date of issue.
3. This contract grants freedom of occupation after one year.
4. This contract has no restrictions as to time, place or manner of death after one year.
5. The insured may reinstate this contract at any time, in the event of lapse on satisfactory proof of condition of health.
6. This contract may be exchanged for another without re-examination.
7. Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly and on the payment of any premium thirty days' grace allowed without interest.
8. This contract grants loan, cash surrender, extended insurance and automatic paid-up values, after three years.
9. The insured may change the beneficiary at will, or assign this contract.
10. This contract participates in the surplus of the company.
11. This contract pays the beneficiary a special mortuary dividend in addition to the face of the contract.
12. This contract pays extra for accidental death occurring while a passenger on a common carrier.
13. This contract provides that all premiums stop and the insured receives annual advances in case of permanent total disability.
14. On maturity of this contract, any cash settlement may be converted into a monthly or yearly income or an annuity for life.
15. This contract pays the beneficiary immediately upon receipt of proofs of death.
16. The reserve on this policy is based upon the combined experience table at 4% interest and preliminary term method.

PRIVILEGES AND PROVISIONS, WITH DETAILED CONDITIONS GOVERNING EACH.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This contract shall be incontestable after one year from date.

FREEDOM OF RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—Is granted from date of issue.

FREEDOM OF OCCUPATION.—No restrictions as to occupation after one year.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—This contract will be re-instated on the written application of the insured at any time after nonpayment of any premiums, subject to evidence of good health, satisfactory to the company, and payment of premiums to date of re-instatement, together with any indebtedness to the company under this contract existing at the time of lapse, with interest at not to exceed 6 per cent per annum.

CONVERTIBILITY.—This contract may be converted at any time without medical re-examination, to any other contract issued by this company, on which a higher premium is charged, at the age at which this contract was issued, providing the difference in back premiums is paid in full at 6 per cent interest.

GRACE.—Thirty days' grace will be allowed in the payment of any premium on this contract, during which time the insurance will be in full force and effect, but if not then paid this contract will be absolutely void, except as hereinafter provided in the non-forfeiture provision, and all premiums paid shall be forfeited to the company. The sending of a notice of premium payment, or other notice after the forfeiture, or lapse shall not be a waiver or evidence of waiver of such lapse or forfeiture.

FACILITY FOR MAKING PAYMENTS.—The premiums hereon may be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly after the first contract year, as herein provided.

EXTENDED INSURANCE.—After this contract shall have been in force for three full years, in the event of the failure to pay any premium upon written request of the insured while in good health and within sixty days of the due date hereof, the contract may be continued in force as non-participating term insurance for the time stated in the table below in column four, provided that if any indebtedness exists against this contract at the time of non-payment, the time of continuance shall be correspondingly reduced.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time during the continuance of this contract, provided the contract is not then assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries or assign this contract pursuant to the laws of Iowa, by written notice to the company at its home office, accompanied by this contract, such change to take effect on the endorsement of the same on the contract by the company; but the company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any such change or assignment.

LOANS.—After this contract shall have been in force for three full years, and while it continues in force under its original conditions, the company will, in conformity with its rules then in force, loan to the insured the amount of cash stated in the table below in column one, at the interest rate of 6 per cent, payable in advance, except that no loan will be made for a shorter period than one year, provided all premiums be fully paid to the end of the contract year in which loan falls due.

AUTOMATIC PAID-UP INSURANCE.—After this contract shall have been in force for three full years, in event of the failure to pay any premium, and the insured has made no written request within sixty days of the due date hereof for cash settlement or extended insurance, the company will automatically issue a non-participating paid-up policy for the amount stated in the table below in column two, less the paid-up insurance value of any indebtedness against this contract.

VALUATION FOR RESERVE.—The reserve on this policy shall be valued by the preliminary term method in accordance with the laws of Iowa, except valuation may be varied to comply with the laws governing the valuations for the states in which such policies are delivered; but the basis shall be the combined experience table and four per cent interest.

CASH VALUE.—After this contract shall have been in force for three full years from the date hereof, and provided it has not been extended as term insurance for more than six months, the company will, upon a full and valid surrender of this contract, pay the insured as a cash surrender value, the amount stated in the table below in column three, less any indebtedness against this contract.

DIVIDENDS.—This contract is issued on the accumulative dividend plan and no distribution of surplus will be made hereon, except in the case of special mortality dividend until the first day of February, 1935, at which time, if in force, the insured or assigns shall be paid the full share of the profits of the company that shall then be apportioned to this policy as a cash dividend under one of the following options:

FINAL OPTIONS.—Option One—Surrender this contract for its guaranteed cash value, five thousand three hundred and ninety dollars, and in addition thereto its cash dividend then apportioned; or Option Two—Surrender this contract for the amount of paid up insurance or annual income for life that Option One will purchase; or Option Three—Receive the dividend in cash and surrender this contract for the amount of paid up insurance named in the table below in column two; or Option Four—Receive the dividend in cash or converted into an annual income for life, and continue this contract under the same conditions as heretofore, and participate annually in profits thereafter. The insured must notify the company in writing within sixty days of dividend date which one of the above options of settlement he selects, or the dividend will be converted into an annual income for life, as provided in Option Four. Any paid-up insurance under the above options in excess of the face value of this contract is subject to evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company, and the amount of paid-up insurance will be computed by the company's present printed table of single premium rates.

POWERS NOT DELEGATED TO AGENTS.—No agent has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any contract of insurance, to extend the time for paying any premium, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by any promise, or making or receiving any representation or information. These powers can be exercised only by the president and secretary jointly and by written instrument, and cannot be delegated.

RISKS NOT ASSUMED WITHIN ONE YEAR.—This contract shall cease and be null and void and of no effect:

1. If within one year from the date hereof, the insured shall commit suicide or die by his own hand or act, whether sane or insane at the time, or if the death of the insured shall occur while engaged or in consequence of having been engaged in blasting, underground mining (except quartz), submarine labor, aeronautic ascensions, manufacture or handling of inflammable or explosive substances, or in any capacity upon any steamship or other vessel, except as captain, purser or engineer, or handling electric wires or electrical machinery with a voltage in excess of six hundred volts, or in handling electric wires as a lineman or repairer, or in employment upon any train or tracks of a steam railway except as conductor on a passenger train or sleeping car, or section foreman, or shall occur at the hands of justice or in consequence or as a result of any violation of law, or shall engage in the manufacture or sale of alcoholic liquors as a beverage.

2. If the insured shall engage in any military or naval service in time of war, insurrection or riot without the written permission of the company and an additional premium paid therefor, the liability of the company shall cease, and in case of death from such service without such written consent, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of the then legal reserve on this policy.

Inasmuch as the foregoing risks are not assumed by this company within one year it is further provided that in the event of the death of the insured (on account of any of the above ways), the amount payable hereunder shall be restricted to the amount of the premiums paid on this contract at the time of the death of the insured.

PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.—Should the insured, before attaining the age of fifty-five years, become permanently totally disabled, as hereinafter defined, while this contract is in full force and effect under its original conditions and prior to default in payment of any premium, the company will pay annually as an advance to the insured while living, one-tenth of the amount payable under this contract upon the death of the insured, all provided as follows:

1. This company's maximum aggregate liability for such advance payments under this and any and all contracts upon the same life shall not, in any event, exceed two thousand dollars, and in no case shall there be more than ten payments, nor shall the total amount payable annually exceed two hundred dollars and all payments shall be deducted from the amount payable upon the death of the insured.

2. In case of any and every such advance payment, this and every other contract upon the same life providing for any such advance payment must be produced at the home office of the company to have the amount of payment or payments endorsed thereon in reduction or extinguishment of the amount payable upon the death of the insured.

3. The premiums payable after permanent total disability, and notice and original and continued proof thereof, as hereinafter provided, shall be such only as will maintain in full force the insurance, if any, in excess of two thousand dollars.

4. Within sixty days after the happening of the disability, full particulars thereof must be given in writing to the company at its home office, together with the then address and whereabouts of the insured, and, within ninety days after the happening of the disability, there must be given the company at its home office, upon blanks furnished by the company, satisfactory proofs of disability, and, after the payment of the first advance, similar proof must be made, if required by the company, of such continuing total disability, prior to each subsequent annual advance payment.

5. Any medical adviser of the company shall be allowed to examine the person of the insured in respect to any alleged disability in the manner and at all times the medical adviser may require.

6. No suit on account of alleged permanent total disability shall be maintainable, if commenced before the expiration of one year from the date of the happening of the disability.

7. If there is a failure to comply with any one of the foregoing provisions, no claim on account of disability or for any advance payment shall arise or be valid or enforceable.

8. Any valid claim for such advancement shall extinguish all other rights, options, values and benefits under this contract, except: (a) as to balance, if any, of amount payable upon death of insured not exhausted by such advance payment or payments actually received by the insured; and (b) as to such insurance, if any, in excess of two thousand dollars, the maximum limit of liability for such advances which is kept in force by continuing premium payments.

Values for succeeding years not given above will be furnished on application to the company. Any indebtedness to the company must be paid in cash, or the amount or extent of the above values shall be correspondingly diminished or reduced.

9. The disability above referred to must be permanent and total, and such that there is neither then, nor at any time thereafter, any work, occupation, or profession that the insured can ever sufficiently do or follow to earn or obtain any wages, compensation or profit, and must not result directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from any form of insanity or from disease complicated with insanity.

Accidental injuries which, independently of all other causes and within ninety days from the happening of the accident, result in the irrecoverable loss of the entire sight of both eyes, or in the amputation of both entire hands at or above the wrists, or in the amputation of both entire feet at or above the ankle, or in the amputation of one entire hand at or above the wrist and one entire foot at or above the ankle, shall also be deemed to constitute permanent total disability.

SPECIAL MORTUARY DIVIDEND.—In the event of the death of the insured after five years from the date hereof, and during the accumulation period, the contract being in full force for its full face value, and all premiums having been fully paid, the beneficiary hereunder will be paid a mortuary dividend in cash of so much of the accumulated fund that shall then be apportioned on account of this contract in addition to the full amount of the insurance under this contract.

ADDITIONAL INDEMNITY.—During the premium paying-period of this contract, and before applicant attains age sixty-five, excluding any time while the same may be in force as extended insurance, all premiums having been duly paid, and this contract being then in full force and effect, in the event of the death of the insured, resulting from bodily injury, sustained and effected directly through external violent and accidental means, while a passenger on a common carrier, as hereinafter defined (suicide, sane or insane, not included), exclusively and independently of all other causes, provided such death shall occur within ninety (90) days from the date of the accident, the company will pay to the beneficiary or beneficiaries hereunder, in the event of the death of the insured, an additional indemnity benefit, as herein provided:

1. This company's maximum aggregate limit of liability for such additional indemnity under this and any all policies, upon the same life shall not, in any event, exceed two thousand dollars.

2. If such death results from accident and is sustained (1) while the insured is a passenger and is on board a railway passenger car provided by a common carrier of passengers and propelled by mechanical power; (2) or while the insured is a passenger and on board a steam vessel licensed for and regularly employed in the transportation of passengers; (3) or while he is a passenger and is within a passenger elevator (mine elevators excepted); (4) or in consequence of the destruction of a building by fire while he is therein (firemen, volunteer or paid, not included), then the amount payable as an additional indemnity benefit shall be double the amount payable as a death claim hereunder, not to exceed $2,000.00, as herein provided.

3. This additional indemnity benefit shall in no case be construed to include death by accident in any manner whatsoever unless said accidental death occurs while this contract is in full force and effect and does not include accidental death if such accidental death occurs while the insured hereunder is taking advantage of any of the special benefits of this contract, but more especially permanent total disability benefits.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.—1. Notice of each and every premium to become due hereon is given and accepted by the delivery and acceptance of this contract, and any further notice is hereby expressly waived by the insured. Notification of premiums becoming due is regularly sent to the insured, but without any agreement on the part of the company to do so, and without any responsibility for omission or miscarriage.

2. Every premium is due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, in the city of Des Moines, Iowa, unless otherwise agreed in writing, but may be paid to an agent or collector on the date when due, but only in exchange for an official receipt fully signed by the president or secretary and countersigned by the agent or person to whom payment is made as evidence of such payment to him. If any premium is not paid as herein specified, this policy shall become void, and all payments previously made shall remain the property of the company, except as herein provided. The premium hereon may be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, in advance, after the first policy year, in accordance with the statement of rates endorsed hereon, but in any event this policy shall continue in force only for the period actually paid.

3. Only the president and secretary have power to make or modify any contract of insurance of this company and only when they jointly execute a written instrument.

4. Proofs of death and validity of the claim must be furnished to the company at its home office, on its blanks, within four months after the death of the insured. No suit or action shall be maintained on this contract unless said suit or action is commenced within one year from the day of the death of the insured.

5. If the age of the insured is understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be the amount of insurance or other benefit the actual premium paid would have purchased at the true age of the insured.

6. Any indebtedness to the company, including any unpaid balance of the premiums for the insurance year, will be deducted in any settlement on this contract.

INSTALMENT OPTIONS.—The company will at the written request of the insured at any time make the insurance hereunder payable in equal annual instalments as provided in any one of the following options, provided this contract has not been assigned; but no such change shall take effect until it is endorsed by the company on this contract. The first instalment shall be paid on the death of the insured, or at the end of the endowment period if this contract be on the endowment plan. Unpaid instalments can neither be assigned nor commuted, and in the event of the death of the beneficiary after the death of the insured any unpaid instalments shall revert to the administrators, executors or assigns of the beneficiary. The payment of all benefits hereunder shall be subject to the same conditions and proofs as are required by this contract for the payment of the original insurance hereunder. Option No. 1.—In ten annual instalments of $116 each, amounting to $1,160 for each $1,000 of insurance hereunder; or Option No. 2.—In fifteen annual instalments of $84 each amounting to $1,260 for each $1,000 of insurance hereunder; or Option No. 3.—In twenty annual instalments of $68 each, amounting to $1,360 for each $1,000 of insurance hereunder; or Option No. 4.—In twenty-five annual instalments of $58 each, amounting to $1,450 for each $1,000 of insurance hereunder; or Option No. 5.—In annual instalments for twenty years and so many years longer as the beneficiary may live; the amount of each instalment to be determined by the following table based on the age of the beneficiary at the birthday last preceding the death of the insured; but if this policy be on the endowment plan, and the insured survive the endowment period the provisions of Option No. 3 shall apply.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree as follows: 1st. That this application and the answers made to the medical examiners and the policy issued thereunder shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto. 2nd. That I will be examined for the policy herein applied for, within 30 days, by one of the company's designated, regular medical examiners. 3rd. That I will pay the first annual premium thereon, and accept the policy, if issued according to this application.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $300.

AGE, 35.

Western Reserve Life Insurance Company, of Muncie, Ind., hereby agrees, while this policy is in force, to pay at its home office within thirty days after receipt of due proof of the interest of the claimant and of the death of John Doe of Muncie, county of Delaware, State of Indiana, the insured, ten thousand dollars, less any indebtedness on account of this policy to Mary Doe, wife if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrator, or assigns, or to such other beneficiary as may be designated by the insured, subject to the conditions and privileges on the following pages hereof, which are hereby made a part of this contract.

This insurance is granted in consideration of the agreements and representations contained in the application herefor, a copy of which is hereto attached and made a part hereof, and of the payment, in advance, of three hundred dollars, on or before the tenth day of March in each and every year for twenty years from date hereof, or until the prior death of the insured.

The full legal reserve on this policy is deposited with the auditor of State of Indiana, in approved securities required by and in accordance with the compulsory reserve deposit law of Indiana.

In witness whereof, the Western Reserve Life Insurance Company, by its proper officers has issued, executed and signed this policy at Muncie, Ind., on the tenth day of March, 1914.

CONDITIONS AND PRIVILEGES.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company, Muncie, Ind. They may, however, be paid elsewhere to an authorized agent or collector, but only in exchange for a receipt duly signed by the president or secretary of the company, and countersigned by the agent or collector to whom payment is made. The failure to pay any premium, or any note, or interest upon notes given to the company for any such premium or part of premium, on or before the days upon which such premium, note or interest becomes due, shall void and nullify this policy without action on the part of the company or notice to the insured or beneficiary, and all payments made upon this policy shall be deemed earned as premiums during its currency, and shall remain the property of the company, except as herein-after provided.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—In case the age of the insured shall have been understated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age according to the published premium rate now in use for the correct age.

SUICIDE.—If within one year from the date hereof the insured shall die by suicide, whether sane or insane, or in consequence of his (or her) own criminal action, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premium paid on this policy.

ASSIGNMENTS.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless made in writing, duly witnessed and filed with the company at its home office. The company assumes no responsibility for the validity of any assignment.

MODIFICATIONS.—No agent has power on behalf of the company to change, modify or alter this policy, to change or extend the time for paying any premium hereunder, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by any promise or by making or receiving any representation or information. These powers may be exercised only by the president, vice-president or secretary, and cannot be delegated. No change, modification or alteration of this policy shall be binding unless endorsed hereon and signed by the president, vice president or secretary of the company.

MILITARY SERVICE.—Military or naval service in time of war, without a permit, are risks not assumed by the company under this policy; and in case of death while engaged in such service without such permit, the amount payable hereunder shall be the full reserve on this policy at date of death.

TRAVEL, ETC.—This policy is absolutely free of conditions as to residence, occupation, travel and habits of life, except military or naval service in time of war.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy, together with the application therefor, a copy of which is attached hereto or endorsed hereon, constitutes the entire contract between the parties hereto, and is incontestable after one year from its date, except for non-payment of premiums or violation of the conditions hereof in relation to military or naval service in time of war without a permit. All statements by the insured in said application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

GRACE IN PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—Thirty days' grace will be allowed in the payment of premiums hereon after this policy has been in force one year, without interest, during which time this policy shall remain in full force. If the insured shall die within any such period of grace, the unpaid premiums for the then current policy year shall be deducted by the company in any settlement hereunder.

CHANGE IN PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—The mode of premium payments may be changed at the time any premium falls due from annual to semi-annual, or quarterly, or vice-versa, according to the company's schedule for this kind of policy, endorsed on the back hereof, but the payment of any premium shall not have the effect to continue this policy in force for a period longer than designated in the receipt therefor. In case the premium on this policy is paid semi-annually, or quarterly, the company shall deduct in any settlement hereunder on account of the death of the insured an amount equal to the premiums that otherwise would have accrued on this policy during its then current year.

REINSTATEMENT.—In case there has been default in the payment of any premium falling due hereunder, or of any note or interest thereon, by reason whereof this policy shall have become lapsed, this policy may be reinstated at any time, providing the same has not been surrendered to the company and cancelled, upon written application therefor and the payment of all overdue premiums with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum, subject to evidence of good health of the insured satisfactory to the company.

CHANGE IN BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time during the continuance of this policy, providing same has not been assigned, change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by filing with the company, at its home office, a written request therefor, accompanied by this policy; such change to be effective only from and after the endorsement of the same on this policy by the company.

CHANGING PLAN OF INSURANCE.—This policy, at any anniversary of its date of issue, upon written application to the company at its home office, may be exchanged for any other form of policy issued by the company, without medical re-examination, providing the amount of insurance under such policy shall not exceed or the rate of premium thereof be less than as herein provided for, and provided the first premium on the new policy shall be paid while this policy is in force. Such change may be effected in one of the following methods, to-wit: (a) The company will issue a new policy, to date concurrently with the date of exchange, in which case the entire net reserve value of this policy will be applied toward the payment of premiums on the new policy; or, (b) the company will issue a new policy to date concurrently with the issuance of this policy upon the payment by the insured of the difference between the reserve upon this policy at date of such change and the amount of reserve required for a policy to which the change is requested at the end of the same period.

INSTALMENT OPTIONS.—This policy is issued payable in one sum at maturity or on the death of the insured, but the insured, at any time, this policy then being in effect and not assigned, may elect by written request on the company's form, that each $1000 of insurance due hereunder upon the maturity of this policy shall be paid to the beneficiary in accordance with either of the following instalment options, the first instalment being due in each case when the one sum becomes payable as hereinbefore provided. Such election may be changed subsequently in like manner to any other option provided below, or revoked entirely. The beneficiary can neither assign nor commute unpaid instalments, without the previous written consent of the insured, given to the company and by it endorsed on this policy at its home office during the lifetime of the insured. Option 1. In five annual instalments of $211.99 each, amounting to $1,059.95. Option 2. In ten annual instalments of $113.82 each, amounting to $1,138.20. Option 3. In fifteen annual instalments of $81.33 each, amounting to $1,219.95. Option 4. In twenty annual instalments of $65.26 each, amounting to $1,305.20. Option 5. In annual instalments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each instalment to be determined by the schedule below for this option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, nearest birthday, at the date of the death of the insured. In case of the death of the beneficiary before twenty annual instalments have been paid, the company will pay the commuted value of the remainder of said twenty instalments in one sum to the estate of the beneficiary. Option 6. In annual instalments during the life of the beneficiary, the amount of each instalment to be determined by the schedule below for this option, in accordance with the age of the beneficiary, nearest birthday, at the date of the death of the insured.

The values in the above table are for the end of the respective policy years, and they and the reserve on this policy are based upon the American Experience Table with three and one-half per cent interest. Values for later years shall be equivalent to the full reserve then due on this policy, and will be furnished upon request. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance, purchased by the whole or part of the premium to be received during the first policy year and the policy shall be valued according to its terms and the laws of the State of Indiana.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—After three full annual premiums shall have been paid hereon, if default be made in the payment of any subsequent premium, this policy, without action upon the part of the insured, will become a non-participating policy for paid-up term insurance for the number of years and days stated in the above table for the end of the last year for which full annual premiums shall have been paid, subject to all the conditions of this policy, except the further payment of premiums, all other loan or surrender values being waived while this policy is in force as extended insurance; provided, that any existing indebtedness to the company on account of, or secured by this policy, if not paid in cash, shall be deducted from the net value of such paid-up term insurance and the difference shall be applied to purchase paid-up term insurance for such an amount as this difference, considered as a net single premium upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest, will purchase for such time.

CASH.—After this policy shall have been in force three full years, upon a full and valid surrender thereof and of all claims thereunder at the home office of the company, within one month (including the days of grace) after the date upon which the last unpaid premium hereon became due as provided herein, the company will, upon request of the holder hereof, pay to the insured within six months of the date upon which such premium became due, the cash value specified in the above table to be paid at the end of the last year for which full annual premiums have been paid, less the amount of any unpaid note given to the company for premiums hereon and any existing indebtedness to the company on account of or secured by this policy; the cash value herein specified shall not, in any event, be less than the sum available for the purchase of extended insurance, as above indicated.

LOANS.—After three full years' premiums shall have been paid hereon, no default having been made in the payment of any premiums hereunder, the company, at any time thereafter while this policy is in force, will loan within six months after receipt of written application therefor, upon the sole security of this policy, any sum not exceeding the amount specified in the above table to be loaned during the last year for which complete annual premiums have been paid, plus the value of the reserve on any dividend additions to this policy; providing: (1) That this policy be duly assigned to the company as security for such loan; (2) that such loan shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum and that interest at such rate shall be paid in advance for the remainder of the current policy year; (3) that in determining the loan available hereunder, there shall be deducted from the loan value herein specified any existing indebtedness on or secured by this policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the then current policy year; (4) that failure to repay to the company any such loan, or interest thereon, when due, shall not void this policy until the total indebtedness to the company on or secured by this policy shall equal or exceed the loan value of this policy at the time of such failure, nor until thirty days after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured, and to the assignee, if any.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—After three or more full years' premiums shall have been paid hereon, if default be made in the payment of any subsequent premium, upon written application therefor by the insured within sixty days (including the days of grace) of such default, the company will, upon a full and valid surrender of this policy and all claims thereunder at the home office of the company, issue a paid-up non-participating life policy for the amount stated in the above table for the last year for which complete annual premiums shall have been paid; provided, that any existing indebtedness to the company on or secured by this policy, including any unpaid note given for premiums hereon, if not paid in cash, shall be deducted from the net value of such paid-up life insurance and the difference shall be applied to purchase paid-up life insurance for such an amount as this difference, considered as a net single premium upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest, will buy.

AUTOMATIC PREMIUM LOAN.—Upon written request of the insured and beneficiary named herein, accompanied by this policy for endorsement hereon, the company will agree that if any premium hereon shall not be paid before the expiration of the days of grace, the company will charge such premium as a loan against this policy at five per cent interest, if the cash value of the policy available at that time be sufficient to cover such loan and interest thereon from the due date of such premium to the due date of the next premium; provided, that if the available cash value be not sufficient to cover such premium and interest the company shall apply the available cash value to the payment of the premium and interest thereon for such period as the same will pay. While this policy is thus in force, the payment of premiums may be resumed by the insured without medical examination, and the accumulated loans and interest may be repaid or allowed to stand as a lien against the policy. Such request for automatic premium loans may be revoked at any time by written notice to the company accompanied by this policy for endorsement, provided that such revocation shall not affect any lien charged against the policy while such option remained in force.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I hereby agree that all provisions of law forbidding any physician who has attended or who may attend me, from disclosing any and all information which he has or may acquire by such attendance, are hereby expressly waived; that in any distribution of surplus, the principles and methods which may then be in use by the company for determination of the amount and its apportionment are hereby accepted; that the policy shall not take effect unless I am alive and in good health at the time of its delivery to me; nor then unless the first premium has been paid in cash or a note for extension of time for such payment is accepted by the company at its home office in Muncie, Ind., and that the method or plan of conducting the business of said company may at any time be changed to such plan as may be provided by any law of the State of Indiana relating to life insurance companies. I hereby agree that each statement made herein and in Part II of this application by whomsoever they be written are full, true and complete, and that each of the same is material to the risk.

I hereby agree for myself and any person who may at any time have or claim any interest in any policy issued upon this application, that the place of the contract is the home office of the company, in Muncie, Ind., and that said contract shall in all things be governed by the law of said State, and that no statement, promise or information made or given by or to the person taking this application, or any other person, shall be binding upon the company or in any way affect its rights, unless reduced to writing and presented to the company at its home office.

Western States Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—COUPON SAVINGS—NON-PARTICIPATING—DOUBLE INDEMNITY—DISABILITY

AMOUNT, $5,000. ANNUAL PREMIUM, $196.60. AGE, 35.

Western States Life Insurance Company (hereinafter known as the company) agrees to pay (endowment option) to John Doe, of San Francisco, county of San Francisco, State of California, hereinafter known as the insured, five thousand dollars, (which sum shall be the face amount of insurance under this policy) at the home office of the company in San Francisco, Cal., on the first day of January, 1947, if the insured shall then be alive, and if the annual premium, hereinabove stated, shall have been paid in full in cash, without deduction and according to all of the provisions of Coupon Option IV on the second page hereof, and in addition thereto any accumulations in excess of the said face amount which may then exist to the credit of this policy under the provisions of the said option, during the years and under the conditions hereinafter prescribed; or (insurance) will pay five thousand dollars to Mary Doe, wife of the insured, hereinafter known as the beneficiary (with the right of revocation reserved to the insured) immediately upon receipt, at the home office of the company, of due proofs of the death of the insured, if he shall die while this contract remains in force, together with any additional insurance or coupon accumulations which may then exist to the credit of this policy under the provisions of the guaranteed coupon options on the second page hereof; or (double insurance) will pay ten thousand dollars to the said beneficiary on receipt, at the home office of the company, before the date of maturity of the endowment and before the payment of any disability benefit hereunder, of due proofs that the death of the insured was caused directly and wholly through external, violent and accidental means, exclusively and independently of all other causes, while traveling as a passenger on a street car, railway train, steamship licensed for regular transportation of passengers, or other public conveyance operated by a common carrier, and that such death occurred within sixty days after such accident, together with any additional insurance or coupon accumulations which may then exist to the credit of this policy under the provisions of the guaranteed coupon options on the second page hereof, provided that this policy shall not have become paid-up under coupon Options I or III herein.

This policy is absolutely free from conditions or restrictions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death, from the date of its issue. Neither a permit nor extra premium will be required for military or naval service in time of war, or in time of peace.

TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.—After one full annual premium shall have been paid, and before default in payment of any subsequent premium, if due proofs shall be furnished to the company that the insured has become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease, and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby for life from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company will agree, by endorsement in writing on this contract, to pay the face amount of insurance under this policy, in twenty equal annual instalments, or ninety-three per cent of the said face amount in fifteen equal annual instalments, or eighty-five per cent of the said face amount in ten equal annual instalments to the insured or the executors of the insured, and will continue to make annual payments of the same amounts during the life of the insured, after the said twenty, fifteen or ten instalments shall have been paid; the said instalments and payments to be in lieu of all other benefits under this policy. The first instalment shall be paid immediately on acceptance by the company of due proofs of the said total disability. Payment of premiums on this policy shall cease when endorsement of the disability benefit shall have been made hereon. The loss of the sight of both eyes, or the severance of both hands or of both feet, or of one entire hand and one entire foot, will constitute total and permanent disability, without prejudice to other causes of disability, under the conditions specified herein. It is further agreed, that should the insured subsequently recover from the said disability, so as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, payment of instalments shall immediately cease. This policy may then be reinstated for the full amount, and all the original benefits thereunder restored, without medical re-examination, on payment to the company of the total amount of instalments paid and of all arrears of premiums, with compound interest at five per cent per annum; the said payment to be made in cash, or, if not in excess of the reserve on the policy, the amount of the said payment may remain as a loan on the policy subject to other loan provisions therein. Any medical adviser of this company shall have the privilege at any time to examine the insured regarding any alleged disability. This benefit shall not be available if disability occurs after the insured shall have attained the age of sixty years, nor if the extended insurance benefit, provided herein, shall have become operative.

LIFE ANNUITY OPTION.—On the date of the payment of the endowment hereinbefore provided, if this policy be then in force for the face amount of insurance hereunder, and the extended insurance provision therein shall not have become operative, and no indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall exist, an annuity policy, in lieu of all benefits hereunder, will be issued by the company on written request of the insured and on surrender to the company of the policy, and all of the coupon and interest credits thereon, guaranteeing an income payable annually to the insured during his or her life, of the amount stated below, the first payment thereof to be made on the following date, provided that the said endowment shall become payable under all conditions hereinbefore prescribed: $638.45 on the first day of January, 1948.

GUARANTEED COUPON OPTIONS.

OPTION I. TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE, DECREASING PREMIUM.—Beginning with the second year, each annual premium payable hereon may be reduced by the amount shown on the coupon, attached hereto, which bears the date on which said annual premium shall become due, and the company will accept on that date or within thirty-one days thereafter, the said coupon in partial payment of the annual premium then due. In case this option shall be taken, the policy will thereupon become a twenty payment life decreasing premium contract and the double insurance benefit provided herein shall not be payable if the death of the insured shall occur after twenty years from the date of this policy; or

OPTION II. COUPON SAVINGS.—If the premium for the year commencing on the date of any coupon remaining attached hereto shall have been paid in full in cash without use of the said coupon, the amount shown thereon shall be placed to the credit of the policy, and interest thereon, compounded annually at the rate of three and one-half per cent shall also be credited from the same date; any part of the amounts so credited may be withdrawn by the insured at any time on surrender to the company of the coupons representing such credits, and interest on the amount so withdrawn shall then cease. Any balance remaining to the credit of the policy under this option shall be paid in cash by the company to the insured or the beneficiary in any settlement thereunder; or

OPTION III. PAID-UP POLICY FOR FACE AMOUNT IN FIFTEEN YEARS.—If all premiums due hereon shall have been paid in full in cash, and all of the amounts credited as in Option II shall have remained with the company, the insured shall have the option, at the end of fifteen years from the date of the policy, of then surrendering to the company the accumulated amount of the coupon and interest credits and the coupons representing the same, whereupon this policy shall become fully paid-up for the face amount of insurance hereunder, and endorsement to that effect shall be made by the company on the policy on presentation at its home office. In case this option shall be taken, the double insurance herein provided shall not be payable if the death of the insured shall occur after fifteen years from the date of this policy; or OPTION IV. ENDOWMENT.—If all premiums due hereon shall have been paid in full in cash and all of the amounts credited as in Option II shall have remained with the company at compound interest during thirty-one years from the date of this policy, and no coupons shall have been detached therefrom, it may mature as an endowment at the end of that period, on written request of the insured, and on surrender to the company of the policy and coupons, together with all coupon and interest credits then existing, and the amount of said endowment shall not be less than the face amount of this policy, and shall be composed of the then full reserve on the policy and of the said coupon and interest credits.

ADDITIONAL CASH PAYMENTS.—Any balance of coupon accumulations above the amount necessary at net single premium rates to make the policy paid up, or to mature it as an endowment for the face amount thereof, under the provisions of the above options, shall be paid in cash to the insured; or

OPTION V. ADDITIONAL INSURANCE.—If the premium for the year commencing on the date of any coupon shall have been paid in full in cash without the use of the said coupon, the amount shown thereon may, on the said date or within thirty-one days thereafter, on written request of the insured and on surrender of the said coupon to the company, be applied by the company, without medical examination, as a single premium, at the company's rates then in force, and at the age of the insured at that time, to purchase additional paid-up non-participating life insurance. Such additional insurance may be surrendered on any subsequent anniversary of the policy or within thirty-one days thereafter, for its cash surrender value or the said value may be applied to reduce any subsequent premium, or may be drawn in cash by the insured. The said additional insurance may be applied, on any policy anniversary or within thirty-one days thereafter, to increase the paid-up value, or its cash value applied to increase the cash or loan values, under this policy. If the extended insurance specified on the third page hereof shall have become operative, any said paid-up insurance remaining in force shall be paid to the beneficiary hereunder with the face amount stated on the first page of this policy, if the insured shall die before the end of the extended insurance period or the cash surrender value of such remaining additional insurance shall be paid to the insured, if living, on the expiration of the extended insurance period, or said value may previously be paid to the insured on demand. If any coupon shall be applied in accordance with this option, this policy shall thereupon become a twenty payment life contract. The above options refer only to those coupons which shall have been attached hereto at the time this policy was issued and to the provisions and amounts then appearing thereon. The total increased insurance and paid-up values provided under this option, and the total cash surrender values and coupon accumulations under Option II are shown in the following table:

SETTLEMENTS UNDER COUPON OPTION II, END OF TWENTY YEARS.—If all premiums on this policy shall have been paid in full, and all coupon accumulations shall have remained with the company until the end of twenty years, as in Coupon Option II herein, and no indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall exist, the insured may then have the choice of one of the following options on surrender of this policy: (1) Receive in cash $3,869.85; or (2) receive in cash $1,039.85 and a policy of paid-up life insurance of $5,000; or (3) receive a policy of paid-up life insurance of $6,835; or (4) receive a paid-up policy guaranteeing a life annuity, first payment at the end of one year, of $325. Option (3) shall only be available on receipt of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company.

NOTE.—Coupons provide for a reduction in annual premiums after the first year as follows: (Basis of $5,000)—$28.75, $29.95, $31.20, $32.40, $33.60, $34.75, $35.95, $37.10, $38.25, $39.40, $40.55, $41.70, $42.85, $43.95, $45.05, $46.15, $47.25, $48.35, $49.40.

GUARANTEED NON-FORFEITURE VALUES AND BENEFITS.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—If any premium is not paid on the day it falls due the policyholder is in default, but after payment of the first premium hereon, thirty-one days of grace (without interest) will be allowed in payment of subsequent premiums, during which time the policy shall remain in full force. In case of death during the grace period, any premiums remaining unpaid shall be deducted from the amount of insurance payable hereunder.

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If any premium payable after the second year from date hereof shall not be paid on or before the date when due, the full amount of insurance hereunder will, without action upon the part of the insured, automatically continue from said due date as term insurance, during the term, including the period of grace, specified in column three of the accompanying table; such term insurance to be without disability or double insurance benefits.

LOANS.—At any time after two full years' premiums shall have been paid hereon, and while this policy is in force, the company will advance, on the execution of a proper loan agreement by the insured and by the irrevocable beneficiary or assignees if any, under this policy, and on the sole security thereof, an amount which, with interest thereon to the end of the current policy year, shall be equal to, or at the option of the owner less than, the cash value at the end of said year, as shown in column one of the table of values given below; the amount of such advance shall be reduced by any existing loan hereon with accrued interest and by any unpaid portion of the premium due or to become due during the said policy year and by interest on the said loan to the end of the said year. Interest on the loan will be at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable in advance at the beginning of each policy year, and this interest, if not paid annually, shall be added to the existing loan and shall bear interest at the same rate. Failure to repay any such advance or to pay interest shall not avoid this policy unless the total indebtedness hereon to the company shall equal or exceed the cash value at the time of such failure, nor until one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured or of the assignee of record, if any, at the home office of the company.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—In lieu of the automatic term insurance, the company will endorse on the policy the amount of paid-up life insurance, if any, specified in column two of the accompanying table, upon written request therefor made by the insured within six months from said due date. Such paid-up insurance shall be without disability or double insurance benefits.

CASH VALUES.—Upon written request, and on surrender of the policy to the company within ninety days after default in payment of any premium payable hereunder, the company will pay the cash value, if any, specified in column one of the accompanying table, which is the net value of the extended or paid-up insurance stated above. If any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall exist at the time the above values become available, such indebtedness shall reduce the amount of the said loan, cash or paid-up values, or shall shorten the extended insurance period, which values or period shall then be adjusted on the basis originally used in their calculation. The cash value and the net value of the term insurance and paid-up insurance specified above shall not be less, at the time the same become available, than the reserve on the policy at the end of the year for which premiums are paid, less a sum not greater than one per cent of the amount insured under this policy.

The above values are computed on the assumption that all coupon amounts have been used to reduce the premiums or drawn in cash.

In case of default in payment of a premium due at an intermediate period, the above values will be computed on the same basis as the corresponding values for the end of the policy year last expired. Values for any subsequent years not shown above will be based on the full reserve on this policy, and will be furnished on request of the insured.

REINSTATEMENT PRIVILEGE.—At any time after default in payment of any premium hereon, or after any non-forfeiture or surrender value option, except cash surrender value herein given shall have been taken, this policy may be reinstated to its original form and amount on payment to the company of arrears of premiums and by payment or reinstatement of whatever indebtedness to the company existed hereon at the date of default, with interest on such premiums and indebtedness at the rate of five per cent per annum, from the date of such default; provided, that such reinstatement shall require evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company. The first year's insurance under this policy is term insurance.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—When the right of revocation has been reserved, or in case of death of any beneficiary under either a revocable or irrevocable designation, the insured may at any time and from time to time, subject to any existing assignment of the policy and during its continuance, name a new beneficiary with or without right of revocation, by filing written notice thereof at the home office of the company, accompanied by the policy for a suitable endorsement thereon, whereupon all rights of the former beneficiary shall cease. If there be no beneficiary living at the death of the insured, the proceeds of this policy shall be paid to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured.

CHANGE TO OTHER PLANS OF INSURANCE.—The insured may within three years from date hereof on any anniversary of the same date, while this policy shall be in force, on written request to the company, signed by the insured and irrevocable beneficiary and assignees of record, if any, change the form and plan of this policy to any form or plan issued at the date hereof, requiring a larger premium for the same face amount of insurance specified herein, and the company will issue a new policy in place of this policy, containing the same number and date hereof, on surrender of this policy to the company and on its cancellation and on payment to the company of the differences in premiums from the date of this policy, together with compound interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, on the said differences from that date to the date of such change, provided that no indebtedness to the company on account of this policy shall then exist.

INCONTESTABILITY.—If the death of the insured shall occur after one year from the date of this policy, and if all premiums shall have been duly paid thereon, it shall be incontestable, except in case of suicide of the insured, committed while sane or insane within one year from the date hereof, in which case the amount of insurance payable hereunder shall be only the total net amount of premiums which shall have been paid to the company in cash, less any indebtedness to the company, on account of this policy, then existing.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.—(1) No agent can make, alter or discharge this policy or extend the time for payment of premiums, nor can the policy be varied or altered or its conditions waived or extended in any respect, except by the written agreement of the company, signed by the president, or vice-president, or secretary, or assistant secretary, whose authority will not be delegated. (2) If the age of the insured shall have been incorrectly stated in the application for this policy, the amount payable hereunder shall be the insurance which the actual premium paid would have purchased at the true age of the insured, unless a different method of adjustment be required by the laws of the State in which this policy shall be delivered. (3) If any premium shall not be paid on or before the date when due, the liability of the company hereunder shall be only as hereinbefore provided. (4) No assignment hereof shall be binding upon the company unless made by an instrument in writing endorsed upon this policy or attached hereto, nor unless a duplicate shall be furnished to the company forthwith upon its execution. The company shall not be held responsible for the validity of any such assignment. Any claim made under an assignment shall be subject to proof of interest and extent thereof. (5) Any indebtedness to the company, including any balance of the premium for any insurance year remaining unpaid, will be deducted in any cash settlement of any benefits under this policy or will reduce, proportionately, any future benefit thereunder. (6) The reserve on this policy shall be computed, for purposes of policy valuation and calculation of premiums and loans and surrender value benefits, by the first year preliminary term method, on the basis required by the laws of the State in which this policy shall be delivered, and the American Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest. (7) This policy and application therefor (a copy of which application is attached hereto) constitute the entire contract between the parties thereto. All statements of the insured in the said application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy unless it be contained in the written application therefor and a copy of such application be attached to the policy when issued.

PREMIUMS.—The consideration for this insurance and all benefits hereunder shall be the declarations, answers, and agreements made in the application for this policy, which is made a part hereof, and the payment of one hundred and ninety-six and $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars in advance before this contract shall take effect, which sum consists of the initial reserve at the date of this policy and the term premium for an insurance terminating on the first day of January, 1917.

In consideration of the said application and the payment to the company of a like amount in the succeeding nineteen years or until prior settlement or death of the insured, at the home office of the company on or before the same days in such years, or upon the presentation of a receipt for the said amounts signed by the secretary of the company and countersigned by an authorized agent of the company, this contract shall be renewed and continued until the death of the insured unless terminated prior thereto under its provisions.

The insured shall have the privilege, on written request and on any anniversary of the date of this policy, of paying the premiums hereon semi-annually or quarterly, and such semi-annual premiums shall be fifty-two per cent and such quarterly premiums twenty-six and one-half per cent of any annual premium payable hereunder.

In witness whereof, Western States Life Insurance Company has caused this policy to be signed by its president and secretary, or assistant secretary, at the home office of the company at San Francisco, California, this first day of January, 1916.

OPTIONS AT THE DEATH OF THE INSURED OR AT MATURITY.

The insured, by written notice to the company, at its home office, and with the written consent of the assignee and irrevocable beneficiary, if any, may elect that the net sum payable under this policy at the death of the insured, or at maturity, shall be payable either in cash or as follows:

Option (1) On demand of the beneficiary, as may be directed by the insured in the said notice, or on demand or death of the insured after maturity, interest on the said net sum, at the rate of three and one-half per cent, to be paid by the company annually to the beneficiary until the said net sum is paid on the said demand.

Option (2) By the payment of equal annual or monthly instalments for a specified number of years to the beneficiary or executors thereof, or to the insured or executors after maturity, the first instalment being payable immediately, in accordance with the following table for each $1000 of the said net sum. (See table, Option 2.)

Option (3) By the payment of equal annual or monthly instalments, the first instalment being payable immediately, for a fixed period of twenty years, to the beneficiary or executors thereof, or to the insured or executors after maturity, the said payments to continue during the life of the beneficiary or the insured after the said fixed period. (See table, Option 3.)

Unless otherwise specified by the insured, the beneficiary, or the insured after maturity, may, on any interest date, receive the amount of the said net sum yet due, under Option 1, or may, at any time, receive the commuted value of payments yet to be made, computed upon the same basis as Option 2 in the following table, provided that no such commutation will be made under Option 3 except after the death of the beneficiary, or the insured, occurring within the aforesaid twenty years.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

I agree as follows: 1. That the insurance hereby applied for shall not take effect unless the first premium is paid and the policy delivered to and received by me during my lifetime, and that, unless otherwise agreed in writing, the policy shall then relate back to and take effect as of the date of this application. 2. That any payment on account of the first premium before delivery of the policy to me shall be binding on the company only in accordance with the company's receipt therefor on the coupon receipt form duly filled out and detached from this application, which is the only authorized form of receipt for such payment. 3. That the agent taking this application has no authority to make, modify or discharge contracts, or to waive any of the company's rights or requirements.

* Adopted January 1, 1910.

Maximum amount carried on one life, $12,500.

Western Union Life Insurance Company.

TWENTY-PAYMENT LIFE POLICY—NON-PARTICIPATING.

AMOUNT, $10,000.

ANNUAL PREMIUM, $264.00.

AGE, 30.

Western Union Life Insurance Company of Spokane, Wash., will pay ten thousand dollars, at the home office of the company immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of George Washington, the insured, while this policy is in full force, to Martha Washington, wife of the insured, beneficiary, subject to the right of the insured to change the beneficiary as hereinafter provided, and subject to the privileges and provisions of this policy.

TOTAL DISABILITY.—If the insured, before attaining the age of sixty years, shall furnish due proof that he has, before default in the payment of any premium, become wholly disabled by bodily injuries or disease and will be permanently, continuously and wholly prevented thereby from pursuing any and all gainful occupations, the company will pay for said insured all premiums which shall become due and payable during the continuance of such disability. The premiums so paid shall not become a charge against the insured, and the values in the table on page two hereof shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were being paid by the insured. The insured shall, however, upon due date of any premium, if so requested by the company, furnish due proof of the continuance of such disability. If the insured shall fail to furnish such proof, the company's obligation to pay the premiums hereunder shall cease and the insured shall then resume payment of premiums. The entire and irrecoverable loss of the sight of both eyes or the severance of both hands at or above the wrists or of both feet at or above the ankles, or of one entire hand and one entire foot as above, shall also be deemed to constitute total and permanent disability.

NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.

AUTOMATIC LOANS.—After three full years' premiums have been paid hereon, if any premium hereunder shall not be paid when due, and if no surrender option has been chosen by the insured within the period of grace, the company will, without request of the insured, pay the amount then due, with interest thereon to the end of the period covered by such payment in advance at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, out of the loan value of the policy, provided that such loan value as shown in the table below, in excess of all indebtedness to the company then existing hereon, shall be sufficient to pay such premium together with the interest mentioned. If the premium is so paid it shall be considered as a loan upon the policy and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as any loan made in accordance with the "cash loan" provision below, and this policy shall be continued in force the same in all respects as though said loan had been requested by the insured. The same benefit will be applied from time to time as the premiums hereunder become due and are not paid, as long as the then loan value hereunder less all indebtedness then existing hereon shall be sufficient to pay for one day's insurance on a quarterly premium basis. The insured may resume the payment of premiums hereunder at any time, without medical re-examination, while the policy is so continued in force. The indebtedness hereon may be repaid in cash wholly or in part, or may be allowed to remain as a loan against the policy, subject to interest as provided herein.

CASH LOANS.—At any time after three full years' premiums have been paid hereon, the company will loan, upon proper assignment of this policy and upon sole security thereof, all or any part of the then loan value as stated in the table given below, subject to the deduction of all premiums for the then current policy year and all then existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. Interest on the loan at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum will be payable in advance to the next anniversary of the policy, and annually in advance thereafter. Failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon shall not avoid this policy until the total indebtedness to the company thereon shall equal or exceed its loan value.

CASH VALUES. PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE. EXTENDED INSURANCE.—If default shall be made in the payment of any premium hereon after the payment of premiums for three full years, and if there be no indebtedness hereunder, the insured shall, upon written request and surrender of this policy within the period of grace after such default, be entitled to (1) a cash value; or (2) paid-up life insurance payable at the same time and in the same manner as this policy; or (3) extended insurance for the face amount hereof. The amounts of the cash value and paid-up life insurance and the term of the extended insurance are given in columns 1, 2 and 3, respectively, of the table below. The three options are of equal value, and are based upon the reserves on this policy, at the end of policy years, according to the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent per annum, less not more than two and one-half per cent of the face amount of this policy. If there be any indebtedness hereunder at the date of such default, the values given in the table below shall be reduced in the following manner: such indebtedness shall be deducted from the cash value shown in column 1 and the balance of such cash value shall be either (1) paid in cash to the insured; or (2) applied as a net single premium at the then attained age of the insured and according to the mortality table and interest rate above mentioned to purchase paid-up life insurance payable at the same time and in the same manner as this policy; or (3) applied as a net single premium at the then attained age of the insured and according to the mortality table and interest rate above mentioned to purchase extended insurance for the face amount hereof.

GENERAL BENEFITS AND PROVISIONS.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After one year from date hereof this policy shall be incontestable, except for non-payment of premiums. If the age of the insured has been mis-stated, the amount payable under this policy shall be the amount which the premiums paid would have purchased at the correct age. This policy and the application herefor constitute the entire contract between the company and the insured. All statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and no such statement shall avoid this policy unless contained in the written application herefor. If the insured, whether sane or insane, shall die by self-destruction during the first policy year, the amount payable hereunder shall be the amount of premiums actually paid hereon.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—In the payment of all premiums hereunder after the first policy year there will be allowed a grace of one month (not less than thirty days), without interest, during which time this policy shall remain in full force and effect.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, including any unpaid portion of the premium for the then current policy year, will be deducted in any settlement under this policy.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—After the first policy year, premiums hereunder are due and payable in advance at the home office of the company in Spokane, Washington, but may be paid to any authorized agent of the company producing a receipt signed by the secretary of the company and countersigned by such agent. On any anniversary of this policy the mode of premium payments will be changed by the company, upon due request from annual to semi-annual or quarterly, or vice-versa, in accordance with the premium rates in use by the company at the date of issue hereof. No payment of premium or part thereof shall have the effect of continuing this policy in force longer than for the period covered by such payment, except as otherwise provided herein. Rights of the insured.—The insured may, without the consent of any beneficiary hereunder, receive every benefit, exercise every right and enjoy every privilege conferred upon the insured herein.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—At any time when this policy is in force and not assigned, the insured may have any beneficiary thereof changed, and a new beneficiary designated by endorsement on the policy, upon making written application therefor at the home office of the company. The change shall take effect, and all interest of the former beneficiary shall cease, upon the making of such endorsement by the company. If any beneficiary hereunder shall die before the insured, the interest of such beneficiary shall vest in the insured, unless otherwise provided on page one hereof.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company until a duplicate copy thereof upon the company's form has been filed with the company and receipt thereof acknowledged. The company does not assume any responsibility for the legality of any assignment.

REINSTATEMENT.—After default in the payment of any premium or of any indebtedness or interest thereon, this policy may be reinstated at any time upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of all past-due premiums with interest thereon at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum from their respective due dates, provided, that any indebtedness to the company under this policy at the date of such default, together with interest thereon to the date of reinstatement at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, shall be reinstated as a first lien upon this policy or paid to the company in cash.

ALTERATIONS.—No change or modification of this policy will be valid unless endorsed herein and signed by the president and secretary of the company.

INSTALMENT BENEFITS.—The insured, or the owner or the beneficiary after the death of the insured, in case the insured shall have made no election, may, by written notice to the company at its home office, elect to have the amount payable under this policy upon the death of the insured, paid in accord with one of the benefits on page four.

CONSIDERATION.—The consideration for this contract is the application herefor, which is made a part hereof and a copy of which is attached to this policy when issued, and the advance payment in cash to the company of an annual premium of two hundred sixty-four dollars and no cents, for term insurance for one year ending on the first day of February, 1917, and the payment of an equal amount upon said date and annually thereafter until premiums for twenty full years in all shall have been paid, or until the prior death of the insured.

Executed at the home office of the Western Union Life Insurance Company at Spokane, Wash., this first day of February, 1916.

INSTALMENT BENEFITS REFERRED TO ON PAGE THREE OF THIS POLICY.

BENEFIT ONE. TRUST FUND.—The amount insured, or any portion thereof not less than one thousand ($1000) dollars, may be left during the lifetime of the beneficiary, in trust with the company, and the company will annually pay interest thereon at the rate of three and one-half per centum per annum, so long as the said amount insured or said portion thereof remains with the company. The said trust fund will be paid at the death of the beneficiary to the executors, administrators, or assigns of the beneficiary, and may be withdrawn at any time with accrued interest, unless the company is otherwise directed in the request selecting this benefit. The trust fund privilege may not be selected if the beneficiary under this policy be a corporation or a firm.

BENEFIT TWO. ANNUAL INCOME FOR NUMBER OF YEARS STATED.—The following table is for each $1000 of the amount insured. To find the annual income on this policy multiply the annual income per $1000 shown in the table by the number of thousands insured by this policy:

Number of years.....	30	25	20*	15	10	5	4	3	2
Annual income per $1000.....	$ 52	$ 58	$ 68	$ 84	$ 116	$ 214	$ 264	$ 345	$ 508

* ILLUSTRATION.—If an annual income for twenty years is selected, the amount of each annual payment will be sixty-eight ($68) dollars for each one thousand dollars insured by this policy.

Any term of years shown in the above table may be selected. The first income will be paid immediately after receipt of due proof of death of the insured, and the remaining payments annually thereafter.

BENEFIT THREE. MONTHLY INCOME DURING LIFETIME OF BENEFICIARY.—The following table is for each $5000 of the amount insured. To find the monthly income on this policy multiply the monthly income for each $5000 shown in the table by the number of times five thousand insured by this policy. Two hundred and forty monthly payments, at least, will be paid, in any event, covering a period of twenty years, and the monthly income will continue during the entire lifetime of the beneficiary, should the beneficiary survive said period of twenty years.

* ILLUSTRATION.—If at the death of the insured the beneficiary shall be thirty years of age last birthday, the amount of each monthly payment under this policy will be ~~nineteen~~ nineteen dollars and twenty cents ($19.20) for every five thousand dollars insured by this policy, said monthly income continuing for at least twenty years and as much longer as the beneficiary shall survive.

The first monthly income will be paid immediately after receipt of due proof of death of the insured and succeeding incomes on the first day of each month thereafter.

This benefit may not be selected if there is more than one beneficiary under this policy, nor if the amount insured hereby is less than two thousand five hundred ($2500) dollars.

GENERAL.—The insured may at any time change his selection of the "methods of payment of death benefit" under this policy; the insured may also revoke all selections, thereby making this policy again payable in one sum. If, upon the selection of benefit two or benefit three above, the beneficiary shall die before all the payments due hereunder have been made, the remainder of said payments will continue to be paid as selected by the insured under this policy, or, if the insured has made no such selection, will be commuted at three and one-half per centum compound interest and paid in one sum to the executors, administrators or assigns of the beneficiary. If the insured so directs during his lifetime, the beneficiary may neither assign or commute any payments hereunder before same are due. No selection, change or revocation of any one of the above benefits shall take effect until endorsed on this policy by the company at its home office. After endorsement this policy will be returned to the insured.

AGREEMENT IN APPLICATION.

PART I.—I hereby agree that this application, the medical examination in continuation hereof and the bond hereby applied for, taken together, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties hereto, and hereby warrant that all the answers to questions as above set forth and those that shall be made to the medical examiner are true and form the basis of an insurance contract, which contract shall not take effect until the bond shall have been issued and delivered and the first premium thereon paid during my good health.

PART II.—The statements and the answers to the questions thereto contained in Part I and in Part II, of this application, are warranted by me to be true. I agree that they shall be the basis of and form part of the proposed contract for insurance. I further agree as a valid and binding consideration in connection therewith, that any policy issued on this application shall be null and void if, within one year from the date of said policy I shall engage in blasting, mining, submarine operations, or in the production of highly inflammable or explosive substances, or any electrical employment where the voltage used is over six hundred; or if (without the written consent of the company) I engage in ocean navigation, in switching or coupling or uncoupling of cars, or am employed in any capacity on the trains of a railroad except as sleeping car conductor, mail agent, express agent, or baggage master. I hereby declare and warrant that I am in good health and of sober and temperate habits, and that in the event of my death by my own act, whether sane or insane, within one year from date of this policy, recovery shall be had against the company for a sum not to exceed the amount of the premium paid. I certify that I have carefully read the foregoing and that my answers are correctly recorded by the medical examiner.

American National Insurance Company.

INDUSTRIAL WHOLE LIFE POLICY.

In consideration of the application for this policy, which is hereby made part of this contract, and of the payment in advance of the weekly premium hereinafter stated in schedule below, which, it is agreed, shall be paid to the company or its authorized representative, on or before every Monday during the continuance of this contract the American National Insurance Company promises to pay at its home office in Galveston, Texas, unto the beneficiary of the insured named below, or if the insured survive the beneficiary, then to the executors, administrators or assigns of the insured, the amount of insurance in the schedule hereafter referred to within twenty-four hours after acceptance at its said office of satisfactory proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy, which is issued and accepted subject to the privileges and concessions, agreements and conditions named hereinafter and on the reverse side hereof, each of which are hereby referred to and made part of this contract.

PRIVILEGES AND CONCESSIONS.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date of issue for the amount due, provided premiums have been duly paid, except for fraud.

OCCUPATION, RESIDENCE AND TRAVEL.—There are no restrictions under this policy after the delivery of the same as to travel, residence or occupation, except as to the provision regarding military service in the time of actual war.

GRACE IN PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.—Should the insured die while the premiums on this policy are in arrears for a term not exceeding four weeks, the company will pay the benefits provided herein subject to the conditions of this contract.

RE-INSTATEMENT.—Should this policy lapse for the reason of the non-payment of any premium it may be re-instated at any time upon written application and payment of all arrears, subject to the satisfactory evidence of the sound health of the insured.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—This policy is issued with the express understanding that the insured may from time to time during its continuance change the beneficiary or beneficiaries by filing with the company a written request on blanks furnished by the company, accompanied by this policy for its proper endorsement by the president, vice-president or secretary of the company, provided this policy has not been previously assigned.

PAID-UP INSURANCE.—After three or more years' premiums have been paid hereon, if this policy shall become forfeited for the non-payment of any premiums and the insured shall be over 15 years of age at the date of such forfeiture, the company agrees to issue a non-participating paid-up life policy for an amount which the legal reserve value of this policy, at the time of surrender, shall purchase as a single premium, provided this policy and receipt books hereto belonging are surrendered to the company within eight weeks from the date of such forfeiture and application made for paid-up policy on blanks furnished by the company for that purpose.

CASH SURRENDER AND LOAN VALUES.—After ten years from the date hereof, and at the end of any fifth year thereafter, the company will pay the insured, as a cash surrender value for this policy, such an equitable amount as the legal reserve which may have accumulated shall warrant, provided this policy is duly surrendered to the company within three months after the expiration of said ten years or any fifth year thereafter, or the company may grant the insured, on application, a cash loan at five per cent interest per annum, payable in advance, within the limits of the cash surrender value referred to upon the due assignment of this policy to the company as a collateral security for such loan.

SCHEDULE (ABOVE REFERRED TO).

Name of Insured.	Age Stated to be at Next Birthday,	Weekly Premium	Amount of Insurance if Life is Rated at or over 10 Years of age Next Birthday,
Amos N. Carpenter.	35 Years.	10 Cents.	$126.*
Name of Beneficiary.
Anna N. Carpenter.

* One-half only of the above sum payable if death occur within six calendar months from date of this policy; and the full amount if death occur thereafter. If the age of the insured is not correctly stated no greater amount will be paid than the premium herein would have purchased at the true age.

AGREEMENTS AND CONDITIONS.

FIRST.—All premiums are payable at the company's home office, but may also be paid to an accredited representative of the company. Payments to be recognized by the company must be entered when paid in the premium receipt book belonging with the policy. If for any reason the premium is not called for when due, by an accredited representative of the company, it shall be the policyholder's duty, before said premium shall be four weeks in arrears, to bring said premium to the company's home office or to one of its district offices.

SECOND.—The insured may serve in the navy or army of the United States or in the State militia in time of peace or for the purpose of maintaining order in case of riot; in time of actual war, however, a written permit must be obtained from the company for such service and an extra premium paid. Should the insured die from service in actual war without such permit, the company's liability will be restricted to the net reserve on this policy, computed according to the legal standard of the State of Texas.

THIRD.—Proofs of death under this policy shall be made upon blanks to be furnished by the company, and shall contain answers to each question propounded to the claimant, physicians, and other persons, and shall contain the record, evidence and verdict of the Coroner's inquest, if any be held. All the contents of such proofs of death shall be evidence of the facts therein stated in behalf of, but not against the company. In event of the death of the insured the company may pay the sum of money due under this policy to the families, heirs, blood relatives, affianced husband or affianced wife, or to persons dependent upon the insured at the time of death, and the production by this company of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons shall be conclusive evidence that such sum has been paid to the persons entitled thereto, and that all claims under this policy have been fully satisfied.

FOURTH.—This policy is void if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company, and is in force at the date hereof, unless this policy contains an endorsement, signed by the president, secretary or manager of industrial department, that such prior policy may be in force. The company shall not be presumed or held to know of the existence of any previous policy, and in such case the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition; or if any of the representations upon which this policy is issued are not correct; or if the said weekly premium is not paid according to the terms of this contract. If for any cause this policy becomes void, all premiums paid hereon will be forfeited to the company, except as in the privileges and concessions herein provided.

FIFTH.—Cessation of premium payments. Should the insured survive to the first anniversary of date of this policy after age seventy-four, no further payment of premiums will be thereafter required.

SIXTH.—This policy is issued upon an application which omits the warranty usually contained in application, and contains the entire agreement between the company and the insured and the holder and owner hereof. Its terms cannot be changed or its conditions varied, except by a written agreement, signed by the president, secretary or manager of the industrial department. Therefore, agents (which term includes superintendents and assistant superintendents) are not authorized and have no power to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or receive premiums on policies in arrears more than four weeks, or to receipt for the same in the receipt book, and all such arrears given to an agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them, and shall not be credited upon the policy, whether entered in the receipt book or not.

Double the above amount if the weekly premium is 10 cents.

When the amount insured according to the terms of this table reaches $190, it will continue at that sum till the death of the insured, when that sum will be payable, subject to the terms and conditions of this policy.

Colonial Life Insurance Company of America.

INDUSTRIAL LIFE POLICY—ADULT—NON-PARTICIPATING.

The Colonial Life Insurance Company of America, home office, Jersey City, N. J., hereby insures the person herein designated as the insured, subject to the conditions, agreements and privileges outlined below and on the subsequent pages hereof, and agrees to pay at its home office in Jersey City, New Jersey, the benefit stated in the schedule below, to the executors or administrators of the insured immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy, unless payment be made under the provisions of the next succeeding paragraph.

FACILITY OF PAYMENT.—It is understood and agreed that the company may make any payment or grant any non-forfeiture privilege provided for in this policy to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured, or to any person appearing to the company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured, for his or her burial, or for any other purpose, and the production by the company of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons or of other sufficient proof of such payment or grant of such privilege to any or either of them shall be conclusive evidence that such payment or privilege has been made or granted to the person or persons entitled thereto, and that all claims under this policy have been fully satisfied.

SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.—Name of insured, Eugenie Ehrhardt; amount of benefit, $222; date of policy, January 4th, 1915; age next birthday, nineteen years; weekly premium, ten cents.

If the insured shall die within six calendar months from the date hereof, the company will pay only one-half of the amount of benefit above stated. After the said six calendar months the policy will be in force for the full amount.

In witness whereof, the Colonial Life Insurance Company of America has caused this policy to be executed at its home office on the above-named date.

CONDITIONS AND AGREEMENTS.

A. CONSIDERATION.—This contract is made in consideration of the payment of the weekly premium hereinbefore stated on or before each Monday during the continuance of this policy.

B. PRELIMINARY CONDITION.—No claim will be paid on this policy in case the insured dies before the date hereof, nor unless on said date the insured was alive and in sound health, but in either event the premiums paid hereon, if any, shall be returned.

C. ALTERATIONS AND WAIVERS.—This policy contains the entire agreement between the company and the insured and the holder and owner hereof. Its terms cannot be changed or its conditions varied, except by a written agreement, signed by the presidents, one of the vice-presidents, or the secretary of the company. Therefore, agents (which term includes managers and assistant managers) are not authorized and have no power to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or to receive premiums on policies in arrears more than four weeks, or to receipt for the same in the premium receipt book belonging with this policy, and all such arrears given to an agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them and shall not be credited upon the policy, whether entered in the premium receipt book or not.

D. GRACE PERIOD.—A grace of four weeks shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the weeks of grace, the overdue premiums shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder, but neither this concession nor the acceptance of any overdue premiums shall create an obligation on the part of the company to receive premiums which are in arrears over four weeks. After the expiration of the said period of grace the company's liability under this policy shall cease, except as herein provided.

E. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable at the company's home office, but may be paid to an accredited representative of the company. Payments to be recognized by the company must be entered when paid in the premium receipt book belonging with the policy. If for any reason the premium is not called for when due by an accredited representative of the company, it shall be the policyholder's duty before said premium shall be four weeks in arrears to send or bring said premium to the company's home office or to one of its district offices.

F. REVIVAL OF POLICY.—If this policy lapse for the nonpayment of premium it may be revived, if not more than fifty-two premiums are due, upon payment of all premiums in arrears, provided evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company be furnished, but such revival shall not take effect unless at the date thereof the insured is living and in sound health.

G. INCONTESTABILITY.—If the insured shall die one or more years after the date hereof, and if all premiums due shall have been paid, this policy shall be incontestable, except for fraud and as provided in paragraphs H and J.

H. MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be misstated, the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

I. POLICY WHEN VOID.—If this policy be assigned or otherwise parted with, or if any erasure or alteration be made herein except by endorsement signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents or the secretary of the company, this policy shall be void; or, if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company and is in force at the date hereof, unless this policy contains an endorsement signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents or the secretary of the company that such prior policy may be in force, then this policy shall be void. The company shall not be presumed or held to know of the existence of any previous policy, and in such case the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition. If this policy lapses for non-payment of premium, all premiums paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as herein provided.

J. NAVAL AND MILITARY SERVICE.—The insured may serve in the navy or army of the United States or in the national guard in time of peace or for the purpose of maintaining order in case of riot; in time of actual war, however, a written permit must be obtained from the company for such service and an extra premium paid. Should the insured die from service in actual war without such permit, the company's liability will be restricted to the net reserve on this policy computed according to the legal standard.

LIMITATION OF INSURANCE.—In the event of the death of the insured before reaching the age of twenty-one years, the maximum amount payable under all policies of this company and all other companies and societies shall not exceed that given in the table below at the age at date of death:

If Under Age	$	If Under Age	$	If Under Age	$
10.....	240	14.....	520	18.....	700
11.....	300	15.....	520	19.....	784
12.....	380	16.....	520	20.....	855
13.....	460	17.....	612	21.....	930

If the amount of all other insurance payable under policies issued prior to this policy is less than that stated in the table above, then the amount to be paid under this policy shall be the difference between the amount in said table and the total amount of such other prior insurance; but in no case shall the amount to be paid under this policy exceed the benefit named in the schedule on the first page hereof. Should the amount payable under this policy be reduced in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the company will refund a proportionate part of the premiums paid; and should there be no amount payable, the full amount of premiums paid will be refunded.

NON-FORFEITURE PRIVILEGES.

AUTOMATIC PAID-UP LIFE POLICY.—If this policy lapses for non-payment of premium after premiums have been duly paid for three full years, the company, without any action on the part of the holder of the policy, will continue the policy as an automatic paid-up life insurance policy, payable at the same time and under the same conditions as the original policy for a reduced amount of insurance. In computing paid-up life benefits, proportionate increases will be made for each completed quarter of a year's premiums paid over and above the full number of completed years' premiums.

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—After this policy has been in force for ten years or more, upon written request to the company and the surrender of this policy and all receipt books or other evidence of payment of premium, the company will pay a cash surrender value. In computing cash surrender benefits, proportionate increases will be made for each completed quarter of a year that the policy has been in force over and above the full number of completed years.

If there be any indebtedness under this policy, such indebtedness will be deducted from the cash surrender value, or the amount of the paid-up life insurance policy will be reduced in the same proportion as the cash surrender value is reduced.

The non-forfeiture privileges of this policy are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality, with three and one-half per cent interest per annum, and the net value of any such non-forfeiture privilege is at least equal to the entire reserve on this policy according to the foregoing standard, less a surrender charge during the first nineteen years, which in no case exceeds two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGE.—If this policy is not satisfactory to the insured it may be surrendered within two weeks from the date hereof at the office of the manager whose name appears on the premium receipt book belonging hereto. The premiums paid will be returned to the insured.

Commonwealth Life Insurance Company.

WHOLE LIFE INDUSTRIAL POLICY.

Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, Louisville, Ky., in consideration of the payment of the premium stated in the schedule below, on or before each Monday during the continuance of this contract, does hereby agree, subject to the conditions, provisions and privileges below and on the second and third pages hereof, each of which is hereby made a part of this contract, and contracted by the insured to be a part hereof, to pay to Mary Doe, the beneficiary if living, otherwise to the insured's executors, administrators or assigns the amount named in the schedule below, upon the receipt of satisfactory proof of the death of the insured and upon the surrender of this policy and all receipt books.

Provided, however, that no obligation is assumed by this company prior to the date and delivery of this policy, nor unless on said date the insured is alive and in sound health.

OTHER INSURANCE PERMITTED.—A person insured under this policy is permitted to carry additional insurance in other companies, and the carrying of such additional insurance will in no way affect the validity of this policy.

Name of insured, John Doe; age next birthday, five years; weekly premium, five cents.

SCHEDULE REFERRED TO ABOVE INFANTILE TABLE.

The tables below are for a premium of five cents per week.

¶ ACCIDENTS.—In event of death of the insured by accident during the first six months, the benefits payable herein are the same as provided for in the schedule hereon, when the policy has been in force more than six months, but less than a year.

In witness whereof, the president and secretary of said company have signed this policy at its home office in the city of Louisville, Ky., this first day of April, 1912.

CONDITIONS.

1. PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable at the home office of the company in Louisville, Ky., but may be paid to an authorized representative of the company; but no payment will be recognized by the company unless entered at the time in the premium receipt book of this policy. For purpose of valuation, as required by law, the first fifty-two weeks under this policy is term insurance, and, after the payment of the premiums for the first fifty-two weeks, the policy shall be a life policy. If, for any cause, this policy shall become void, all premiums paid thereon shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided for in the clause in this policy referring to cash surrender, extended or paid-up insurance.

2. GRACE PERIOD.—Should the death of the insured occur while any premium is in arrears not exceeding four weeks, the company will nevertheless pay the policy, subject to its conditions.

3. NO RESTRICTION.—From date of issue, this contract shall be without restriction as to travel, residence, occupation or place of death.

4. INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after two years from date except for fraud or misstatement of age, and in the latter event, the amount payable in settlement of the policy shall be such as the premiums paid would have purchased at the correct age.

5. AGREEMENT.—Unless otherwise stated in the blank space below in a waiver signed by the secretary, this policy is void if the insured before its date has been rejected for insurance by this or any other company, or has been attended by a physician for any serious disease or complaint within five years from date of this policy; or has had before said date any scrofula or consumption, or chronic bronchitis, or cancer, or disease of the heart, liver or kidneys; or if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company and is in force at the date hereof, unless this policy contains an endorsement signed by the secretary that such prior policy is in force. The company shall not be presumed or held to know of the existence of any previous policy, and in such case the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition.

6. ALTERATIONS OR WAIVERS.—No person except the president, vice-president, secretary or assistant secretary of the company, can alter this contract or waive any condition, privilege or provision thereof. Therefore agents, (which term includes superintendents and assistant superintendents) are not authorized and have no power to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or receive premiums on policies in arrears more than four (4) weeks, or to receipt for the same in the receipt book, and all such arrears given to an agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them, and shall not be credited upon the policy, whether entered in the receipt book or not.

7. In case of self-destruction within one year from date of issue, whether the insured be sane or insane, the liability of the company shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid hereon.

PROVISIONS.

1. TIME OF PAYMENT.—The amount of insurance provided in the schedule on the first page hereof, will be paid by the company, subject to the terms and conditions of this contract, at its home office, in the city of Louisville, Ky., immediately upon receipt of satisfactory proof of the death of the insured, made upon blanks furnished by the company at its said office, and upon surrender of this policy and all premium receipt books.

2. CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—Subject to the approval of the company, the insured, at any time during the continuance of this policy, provided the policy be not then assigned, may change the beneficiary or beneficiaries, by written notice to the company at its home office, accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect on the endorsement of the same on the policy by the company. After endorsement the policy will be returned.

3. EXCHANGE.—After this policy has been in force for five years by the payment of all due premiums, and the insured has attained the age of sixteen years, it may be exchanged for any form of ordinary policy issued by the company, by the insured standing a satisfactory medical examination and paying the premiums for the attained age, and the company will give credit on the ordinary policy for the full legal reserve on this policy.

PRIVILEGES.

1. PRIVILEGE OF SURRENDERING POLICY WITHIN TWO WEEKS.—If the terms of this policy are not satisfactory, or if its conditions are not accepted and agreed to, the policy may be surrendered for cancellation at the office of the superintendent of the district at the address shown on the premium receipt book covering this policy, within two weeks from the date hereof; and if so surrendered within said period, the premiums paid hereon will be refunded.

2. SURRENDER VALUE.—If premiums on this policy have been paid for five full years, or more, and it should then lapse, paid-up or extended insurance or cash surrender value will be allowed, in accordance with Chapter 32, Section 659, Kentucky Statutes, Acts of 1902, upon proper legal surrender of the policy and the receipt book belonging thereto.

Home Life Insurance Company of America.

WHOLE LIFE INDUSTRIAL POLICY.

The Home Life Insurance Company of America hereby insures the life of the person herein designated as the insured, and agrees to pay the benefit stipulated in the following schedule unto the beneficiary named below, subject to the conditions, privileges and provisions contained on the second, third and fourth pages hereof, which are hereby made a part of this contract.

In witness whereof, the Home Life Insurance Company of America, Inc., has caused this policy to be signed by the president and secretary, at its executive office in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., this third day of April, 1911.

CONDITIONS.

This contract is made in consideration of the delivery of this policy during the life time and good health of the insured, and the payment of the weekly premium hereinbefore stated to the company or to its authorized representative on or before every Monday during the continuance of this contract, until the seventy-fifth birthday of the insured.

The amount of benefit provided in the schedule on the first page hereof shall be paid by the company at its executive office in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., unto the beneficiary named herein, unless settlement shall be made as provided in article entitled "beneficiary," under the head of "provisions," immediately upon approval of due proof of the fact and cause of the death of the insured and the surrender of this policy and the premium receipt book during the continuance of this contract.

PRIVILEGES.

If this policy be continued in force, the company will grant automatic extended insurance, paid-up life insurance or cash surrender values as follows:

AUTOMATIC EXTENDED INSURANCE.—After this policy has been in force three full years, if any premium shall not be paid when due, the company, without any action on the part of the insured, will grant extended insurance dating from the day to which premiums have been duly paid and to continue for the period indicated in the following table. The amount of insurance payable if death occur within the said period shall be the same amount as that which would have been payable if this policy had been continued in force by the payment of the premiums.

OR, IN LIEU OF THE ABOVE, PAID-UP LIFE INSURANCE.—After this policy has been in force three full years, if any premium shall not be paid when due, the company, upon written request at any time prior to or within four weeks after the date when said premium was due, and the legal surrender of this policy to company, will grant non-participating paid-up life insurance as specified in the following table.

OR, IF THIS POLICY BE LAPSED AFTER TEN YEARS, IN LIEU OF EITHER OF THE FOREGOING OPTIONS, CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—After this policy has been in force ten full years the company, upon written request and the legal surrender of this policy to the company, will pay as a cash surrender value for this policy the amount fixed by the following table.

NOTE.—Tables of automatic extended insurance, paid-up life insurance and cash surrender values after twenty years will be furnished on application.

The surrender values under this policy are based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality with three and one-half per cent interest per annum, and the net value of any such surrender value, for the first fifteen years is at least equal to the entire reserve on this policy, according to the foregoing standard, less a surrender charge which does not in any case exceed twenty per cent of the reserve, or one and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy; thereafter such net value is the full reserve by said standard.

In computing benefits from the foregoing tables, due allowance will be made for each completed quarter of a year's premium paid over and above the full number of years' premiums indicated.

PROVISO.—The values in the foregoing tables of automatic extended insurance, paid-up life insurance, and cash surrender values are based on the assumption that there is no indebtedness on the policy. If there be any indebtedness on the policy the value of any surrender value shall be reduced by the amount of such indebtedness and the term of extended insurance, or the paid-up life insurance, or the cash surrender value reduced accordingly.

PROVISIONS.

THE INSURANCE UNDER THIS POLICY BEGINS at 12 o'clock noon, of the date hereof, and the company's liability is limited to a return of the premiums paid hereon if the insured die before said date, or if on said date the insured be not in sound health.

PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable on Monday of each week, in advance, at the executive office of the company, but may be paid to an authorized representative of the company, but payments to be recognized by the company must be entered at the time of payment in the premium receipt book belonging to this policy. If, for any reason, the premium be not called for when due by an authorized representative of the company, it shall be the duty of the policyholder, before said premium shall be in arrears four weeks, to bring or send said premium to the executive office of the company or to one of its district offices.

PERIOD OF GRACE.—Should the insured die while the premium on this policy is in arrears for a period not exceeding four weeks, the company will pay the benefits herein provided, subject to the conditions of the policy.

POLICY WHEN VOID.—If, at any time, more than four weeks' premiums are due this policy shall thereupon become void; or if there be in force upon the life of the insured an industrial policy previously issued by this company, this policy shall be void unless it contains an endorsement, signed by the president or the secretary, acknowledging the first policy to be in force at the same time. If for any cause this policy be or become void, all premiums paid hereon shall be forfeited to the company except as provided herein.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy be lapsed for non-payment of premium, the company will reinstate the contract at any time within one year from the date to which premiums have been duly paid, provided all arrears are paid, and evidence of insurability, satisfactory to the company, be furnished.

BENEFICIARY.—The insured may, at any time, change the beneficiary under this policy with the written approval of the company and the corresponding endorsement on the policy. In any event, however, the company may make any payment provided for in this policy to the executor, administrator, husband or wife, or any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or to any other person appearing to the company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured, for his or her burial, and the production of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons shall be conclusive evidence that all claims under this policy have been satisfied.

ASSIGNMENT.—No assignment of this policy shall be binding upon the company unless it be filed with the company at its executive office. The company assumes no responsibility as to the validity of any assignment.

MIS-STATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be incorrectly stated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age. Age will be admitted on satisfactory proof.

ALTERATION OF CONTRACT.—No person except the president or secretary of the company has power to modify, or in the event of lapse, to reinstate this policy, or to extend the time of payment of a premium. No agent has power in behalf of the company to waive any forfeiture or to bind the company by making any promise or making or receiving any representation or information.

INDEBTEDNESS.—Any indebtedness to the company will be deducted in any settlement of this policy or any benefit hereunder.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year except for non-payment of premiums.

LIMITATION.—No suit or action at law or in equity shall be maintained hereon unless actually begun within five years after the cause of action shall accrue.

ENTIRE CONTRACT CONTAINED IN THIS POLICY.—This policy contains the entire contract between the parties hereto.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGE.—This policy, if not satisfactory to the insured, may be surrendered within two weeks after its date, at the office of the superintendent, whose name appears on the receipt book accompanying this policy, and the premiums paid hereon will be returned.

John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company.

WEEKLY PREMIUM LIFE POLICY, PAID-UP AT AGE, 75— PARTICIPATING.

The John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, Mass., in consideration of the representations and agreements in the application herofor, which is copied hereon and made a part hereof, and of the premium stipulated herein, to be paid on or before each Wednesday, grants this insurance with the privileges and benefits and subject to the conditions and provisions on this and the three following pages, which are made a part of this contract.

Policy number, 0000000. Date, January 1, 1912. Weekly premium, ten cents. Age next birthday, thirty-five years.

Name of insured, John Hancock. Name of beneficiary, Dorothy Q. Hancock. Relationship to insured, wife.

Full policy amount, one hundred and thirty-six dollars. During the first six months from the date hereof, the sum insured hereunder will be one-half only of the full policy amount in case of death from any cause other than accident. In case of death from accident during the first six months and thereafter in case of death from any cause, the sum insured will be the full policy amount.

On satisfactory proof of the death of the insured, made in the manner and to the extent required herein and upon surrender of the policy and premium receipt books, the company will pay the amount due hereunder. The company may make payment either to the beneficiary above named, if living, or to such other living beneficiary as may be duly and finally designated, and recognized by endorsement hereon, or to the executor or administrator of said insured or to any relative by blood or connection by marriage, or to any person appearing to the company to be equitably entitled thereto by reason of having incurred expense in any way on behalf of the insured for burial or for any other purpose; and the receipt of any such payee shall be conclusive evidence that payment has been made to the person or persons entitled thereto and that all claims under this policy have been fully satisfied.

This policy shall not take effect unless upon its date the insured shall be alive and in good health and the premium duly paid.

In witness whereof, the said John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company has, by its president and secretary, executed and delivered this contract on the date herein above set forth.

LIMITATION OF PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—If the premiums shall be duly paid until the anniversary of the date of this policy next following the insured's seventy-fourth birthday, it will be continued in force thereafter without the payment of further premiums.

CHANGE OF BENEFICIARY.—With the consent of the company, the insured, if of lawful age, may from time to time change the beneficiary by request to the home office upon the company's prescribed form accompanied by this policy, such change to take effect only upon endorsement hereon by the company.

INCONTESTABILITY.—After this policy shall have been in force for two full years, it shall be incontestable except for non-payment of premiums, or for assignment or pledge, or for failure to have the policy endorsed in case of previously issued insurance as herein provided, but it shall nevertheless be subject to adjustment for error in age. In case of error in age, no greater sum will be paid hereunder than the premiums paid would have purchased for the true age according to the table of rates and benefits on which this policy is based. No suit shall be maintained under this policy unless commenced within six years from the time when cause of action accrues.

DISTRIBUTION OF SURPLUS.—Beginning not later than the end of the fifth year from its date, if all the premiums then due shall have been paid, this policy shall annually participate in such distribution of the surplus as the company may apportion. Dividends will be applied in payment of premiums unless the holder elects to receive them in cash.

REINSTATEMENT.—At any time within one year from default in payment of premiums, if the cash surrender value has not been paid or the extension term expired, this policy may be reinstated upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and approved at its home office, and upon payment of arrears of premiums and payment or reinstatement of any indebtedness hereon or secured hereby.

CLAIM CONCESSION.—This policy will be paid subject to its conditions if the insured die while premiums are in arrears not more than four weeks, but neither this concession nor the acceptance of any overdue premium shall create an obligation on the part of the company to receive premiums which are in arrears, nor shall it be a waiver of their payment on Wednesday of each week in advance.

NON-FORFEITURE BENEFITS.—Automatic extended term insurance after three years. After premiums shall have been paid on this policy for three full years, then, in case of failure to pay any subsequent premium, the policy, without any further stipulation or act, will be binding on the company for its full amount as extended term insurance, commencing from the date to which the premiums shall have been paid, the length of the term to be determined by the period of premium payments, according to Table A. The insurance will wholly cease and expire at the end of the term of extension to which the policy is entitled under its conditions.

ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS OF PAID-UP POLICY OR CASH SURRENDER VALUE AFTER FIVE YEARS.—After premiums shall have been paid on this policy for five full years, then, in case of failure to pay any subsequent premium, if the holder hereof, instead of having the policy continued as extended insurance as above provided, shall elect in place thereof to avail himself of either one of the following options, and shall signify his preference by writing filed with the company at its home office while the extended insurance is in force and not later than thirteen weeks from the date to which the premiums shall have been paid, the company will, upon surrender of the policy :

OPTION 1.—Issue in exchange therefor a paid-up policy according to Table B, payable at the same time and on the same conditions as this policy.

OPTION 2.—Or, with the written assent of the person to whom the policy is payable, pay the cash surrender value according to Table C, within sixty days after written demand therefor.

The figures in Tables A, B and C are for the end of the full paid policy year, on the assumption that there is no indebtedness then existing hereon. The figures for additional years will be furnished on request. If neither the option of paid-up policy nor of cash surrender value be chosen as above provided, then the policy will be continued as extended insurance, subject to its terms.

This policy is based on reserves calculated upon the standard industrial mortality table with interest assumed at three and one-half per cent. The values and extension terms stated herein are the equivalents of the reserve at the end of each full paid policy year, less an amount not exceeding two and one-half per cent of the full policy amount. They will be increased by a proportionate part of the difference between such reserve and that of the succeeding year for each thirteen weeks premiums paid beyond the full paid policy year, and will be lessened by deduction from such reserve of any indebtedness to the company on or secured by the policy.

A paid-up policy issued under the terms hereof will have a surrender value which will be its net value at the date of the demand therefor, less any indebtedness on or secured by the policy; and if this policy shall become extended insurance after payment of premiums for five full years, it will have a surrender value, similarly determined, but decreasing and expiring with the extension term. The company will pay such value within sixty days after written demand therefor, upon surrender of the policy, with the written assent of the person to whom it is payable.

ALTERATIONS, ERASURES AND WAIVERS.—No modification, change or alteration hereof or endorsement hereon will be valid unless signed by the president, a vice-president, the secretary or an assistant secretary, and no other person is authorized on behalf of the company to make, alter or discharge this contract or to waive forfeiture. Agents are not authorized to waive any of the terms or conditions of this policy or to extend the time for payment of premiums or other moneys due to the company, or to bind the company by making any promise or by accepting any representation or information not contained in the application for this policy.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—Premiums hereon are payable at the home office of the company in Boston, but may be paid to any of its authorized agents, subject to the conditions of the policy. Should such agent fail to call for any premium when due, it will be the duty of the insured to make immediate payment of the premiums either to the district office or to the home office. Failure of the agent to collect premiums will not relieve the insured from the obligation to pay the premiums when due, nor will the company assume any liability for such failure. No payment of premium shall be valid unless entered in the premium receipt book at the time of payment, by the agent, or other representative of the company, authorized to receive it, nor if made when more than four weeks in arrears, except as herein provided under "reinstatement."

POLICY WHEN VOID.—This policy shall be void, if in the application therefor, there is any misrepresentation, wilfully made or relating to a matter increasing the risk of loss, or if any premium shall not be paid when due, except as herein provided; or if the policy be assigned or pledged; or if any erasure or alteration be made otherwise than as herein provided; or if an industrial or weekly premium policy previously issued by this company on the life of the insured shall be in force on the date hereof or running as extended insurance, unless this policy bears an endorsement signed by the president, a vice-president, the secretary or an assistant secretary, authorizing its continuance in addition to such previously issued insurance. The company shall not be presumed or held to know of the issue of any prior policy or the existence of any previous application upon which a policy may not have been issued, and the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition.

PROOF OF CLAIM.—In case of death of the insured, proofs of claim shall be made on blanks to be provided by the company and shall contain full answers of the claimant, physician and other persons to all the questions asked therein and shall conform to all the requirements thereof.

INDUSTRIAL WHOLE LIFE INSURANCE.

The Life Insurance Company of Virginia in consideration of the weekly premium stated in the schedule below, which it is agreed shall be paid in advance to the company, or to its authorized representative, on or before every Monday during the continuance of this contract, agrees to pay at its home office, in the city of Richmond, Va., in accordance with the provisions of article third on the second page hereof, the amount of benefit provided for in the said schedule, within twenty-four hours after acceptance at its home office of satisfactory proofs of the death of the insured, named below, during the continuance of this policy, which is issued and accepted subject to the conditions and agreements below and on the following pages hereof, which are hereby referred to and each one of which is hereby made part of this contract: Provided, however, that no obligation is assumed by the company prior to the date and delivery of this policy, nor unless on said date the insured is alive and in sound health.

SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.—Number of policy 045678; weekly premium, 10 cents; name of insured, Richard Doe; age next birthday, thirty-five years; date of policy, April 1, 1915; amount of insurance, $138. If the death of the insured shall occur within the first six months of this policy, from any cause other than accident, only one-half the amount of this policy shall be payable. If death occur from accident during the first six months, or from any cause after six months, the full amount will be payable.

In witness whereof, the said The Life Insurance Company of Virginia has, by its president and secretary, executed this contract at Richmond, Va., on the date named in said schedule.

CONDITIONS AND AGREEMENTS.

PERIOD OF GRACE.—Should the death of the insured occur while any premium hereon is in arrears not exceeding four weeks, the company will nevertheless pay the policy, subject to its conditions.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured is not correctly stated herein, no greater amount will be paid than the premium hereon would have purchased at the true age of entry.

FACILITY OF PAYMENT.—The company may make any payment provided for in this policy, to husband or wife, or any relative by blood, or lawful beneficiary, or connection by marriage of the insured, or to any other person who may appear to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured for his or her burial, or for any other purpose; and the production by the company of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons, or of other sufficient proof of such payment to any or either of them shall be conclusive evidence that such benefits have been paid to the person or persons entitled thereto, and that all claims under this policy have been fully satisfied.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy be lapsed for non-payment of premiums, it will be reinstated within one year from the date to which premiums have been duly paid, upon the payment of premiums in arrears, provided evidence of insurability of the insured, satisfactory to the company, be furnished, but such reinstatement shall not become effective unless at the date thereof the insured is alive and in sound health.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.—Each premium is due and payable at the home office of the company but will be accepted elsewhere by a duly authorized agent, who shall at the time of payment enter same in the receipt book belonging to this policy. If for any reason the agent shall not call for the premium when due it shall be the duty of the policyholder to bring or send said premium to the home office, or to the company's agent and in event of a failure to perform this duty within four weeks from the date on which said premium was due, this policy shall thereupon become void.

POLICY WHEN VOID.—This policy contains the entire contract between the company and the insured, and is non-participating; it shall be void if any premium shall not be paid according to the terms hereof; and it is agreed that this provision, which avoids the policy in case any premium shall be overdue, shall not be considered in any respect waived by any act of grace by the company in the acceptance of overdue premiums upon this or any other policy. This policy shall be void if upon its date and delivery the insured be not alive and in sound health, or if this policy be assigned or otherwise parted with. If for any cause this policy is or shall become void, all premiums paid hereon shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided herein.

LIMITATIONS OF INSURANCE.—The liability of the company under this policy shall be limited to the amount of premiums paid hereon if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company and is in force on the date hereof, unless such previous policy has been specified in the application for this policy, in which case this policy shall contain an endorsement, signed by the president or secretary, setting forth all prior policies specified in said application.

LIMITATION.—No suit shall be brought against the company after one year from the date of the death of the insured. Proofs of death under this policy shall be presented to the company within one year from the date of the death of the insured, and shall be made upon blanks to be furnished by the company, and shall contain answers to each question propounded to the claimant, physicians and other persons, and shall contain the record, evidence and verdict of any coroner's inquest, if one shall be held. If any limitation set forth in this section is prohibited by the statutes of the State in which this policy is issued, the foregoing limitation shall be considered to be amended to agree with the minimum period of limitation permitted by such statute.

ALTERATIONS AND WAIVERS.—Agents (which term includes superintendents and assistant superintendents) are not authorized to make, alter or discharge contracts or waive forfeitures. They have no power, on behalf of the company, to receive a premium more than four weeks after the day on which the same is due, nor receipt for same in the premium receipt book, and any payment of such premium to an agent, or to the company at its home office, shall not be entitled by virtue of the contract to be credited upon the policy, whether entered in the receipt book or not, and shall be returned upon demand. Any erasure or alteration made herein except by endorsement signed by the president or secretary, shall be void.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year from its date except for non-payment of premiums.

AUTOMATIC PAID-UP INSURANCE.—This policy shall lapse, and, together with all premiums paid hereon, shall be forfeited to the company on the non-payment of any premium, as herein provided. But if premiums, and all notes given for same, have been duly paid for at least three full years of insurance, and there is no indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, it will, without any action on the part of the insured, immediately become paid-up, for an amount computed according to the table below; said paid-up insurance to be payable on the death of the insured, subject to all conditions and agreements of this policy, except as to the payment of premiums and cash surrender values. If, however, there is any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, the said amount of paid-up insurance shall be reduced in the same proportion that said indebtedness bears to the amount used to purchase said paid-up insurance.

Paid-up insurance after twenty years will be furnished on application.

CASH SURRENDER VALUES.—If, after the payment of the weekly premium hereon for ten years or more, this policy shall become void by reason of default in payment of premiums, the company will, in lieu of the paid-up insurance as provided on the third page hereof, pay to the insured, unless settlement shall be made under the provisions of article third on the second page hereof, as a cash surrender value, the amount computed according to the table of cash surrender values below, provided this policy, with its premium receipt book, is legally surrendered to the company within thirteen weeks from the date of said default in the payment of premiums. In case there is any indebtedness to the company on account of this policy, said indebtedness shall first be deducted from said cash surrender value and the balance, if any, paid in cash.

Cash surrender values after twenty years will be furnished on application.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGE.—The insured is requested to examine carefully the terms and conditions of this policy, and if its terms are not satisfactory, or if its conditions are not accepted and agreed to, the policy may be surrendered for cancellation within two weeks after its date, at the office of the company in the district where this policy is delivered, and the premiums paid hereon will be returned to the insured.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

INDUSTRIAL POLICY—AGE 35.

ADULT WHOLE LIFE—PAID-UP AT AGE 75.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, home office New York City, in consideration of the payment of the premium mentioned in the schedule below, on or before each Monday, doth hereby agree, subject to the conditions below and on page two hereof, each of which is hereby made a part of this contract and contracted by the insured and every person entitled to claim hereunder to be a part hereof, and with the privileges and concessions to policy-holders on pages two and three hereof, which are hereby made part of this contract, to pay upon receipt of proofs of the death of the insured made in the manner, to the extent and upon the blanks required herein, and upon surrender of this policy and the premium receipt book, the amount stipulated in said schedule. Provided, however, that no obligation is assumed by the company prior to the date hereof, nor unless on said date the insured is alive and in sound health; but should the proposed insured not be alive or not be in sound health on said date, any amount paid to the company as premiums hereon shall be returned. The company may make any payment or grant any non-forfeiture privilege provided herein to the executor or administrator, husband or wife, or any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured, or to any other person appearing to said company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured, or for his or her burial; and the production of a receipt signed by either of said persons, or of other proof of such payment or grant of such privilege to either of them, shall be conclusive evidence that all claims under this policy have been satisfied.

SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.—Number of policy, specimen; date, December 23rd, 1915; name of the insured, John Doe, age next birthday, thirty-five years; weekly premium, ten cents; amount of insurance, $136.

One-half only of the above sum payable if death occur within six calendar months from date, and the full amount if death occur thereafter.

CONDITIONS.

If the age of the insured has been misstated, the amount payable hereunder shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

This policy contains the entire agreement between the company and the insured and the holder and owner hereof. Its terms cannot be changed or its conditions varied, except by a written agreement, signed by the president or secretary of the company. Therefore, agents (which term includes also superintendents, deputy superintendents and assistant superintendents) are not authorized and have no power to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or receive premiums on policies in arrears more than four weeks, or to receipt for the same in the receipt book, and all such arrears given to an agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them, and shall not be credited upon the policy, whether entered in the receipt book or not.

If this policy be assigned or otherwise parted with, or if any erasure or alteration be made herein, except by endorsement signed by the secretary; or if any premium shall not be paid when due, this policy shall be void. And it is agreed that the foregoing provision which avoids the policy in case any premium shall be overdue, shall not be considered in any respect waived by any act of grace by the company in the acceptance of overdue premiums upon this or any other policy.

Unless otherwise stated in the blank space below in a waiver signed by the secretary, this policy is void if the insured before its date has been rejected for insurance by this or any other company; order or association, or has been attended by a physician for any serious disease or complaint; or has had before said date any pulmonary disease, or chronic bronchitis, or cancer, or disease of the heart, liver or kidneys; or if any policy on the life of the insured has been issued by this company and is in force at the date hereof, unless this policy contains an endorsement signed by the secretary that such prior policy may be in force. The company shall not be presumed or held to know of the existence of any previous policy, and in such case the issue of this policy shall not be deemed a waiver of this condition.

If this policy is or shall become void, all premiums paid shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided under "privileges and concessions to policy-holders."

In any settlement under this policy any indebtedness to the company thereunder will be deducted.

Proofs of death under this policy shall be made upon blanks to be furnished by the company and shall contain answers to each question propounded to the claimant, physicians and other persons, and shall contain the record, evidence and verdict of the coroner's inquest, if any be held. All the contents of such proofs of death shall be evidence of the facts therein stated in behalf of, but not against the company.

PRIVILEGES AND CONCESSIONS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

PARTICIPATION IN SURPLUS.—This policy is a participating contract and, while in force, except when it becomes a Free policy because of surrender or lapse, shall, beginning at the end of the fifth policy year, participate annually in the distribution of the surplus of the company accruing hereon as ascertained and apportioned. The distribution shall be in such manner as may be determined by the company with the approval of the superintendent of insurance of the State of New York.

OPTION TO SURRENDER WITHIN TWO WEEKS.—If the terms of this policy are not satisfactory or if its conditions are not accepted and agreed to, the policy may be surrendered for cancellation at the office of the superintendent of the district (his address appears on the premium receipt book covering this policy), within two weeks from the date hereof, and if so surrendered within said period the premiums paid hereon will be refunded.

ALLOWANCE FOR DIRECT PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—On receipt of written notice from the policy-holder of his desire to pay premiums on this policy direct to the company and not through an agent, this policy will be transferred from the account of the agent to either the home office account in New York or to a district office account, as may be preferred by the policy-holder; and when after such transfer the weekly premium shall have been paid at such office continuously for a period of one year, and without the premiums falling in arrears beyond the grace period as defined on page three hereof, the company will, at the expiration of such year, pay to the policy-holder a sum equal to ten per cent of the year's premiums so paid, and thereafter upon further payments in the same way the company will make, at intervals fixed by the company, a similar ratio of allowance to the policyholder.

Should the policy become lapsed through premiums falling in arrears beyond the grace period and be subsequently revived on the policyholder's unsolicited application, there will be no forfeiture of the ten per cent allowance; but should the revival be effected on the solicitation of a representative of the company, no allowance will be made by the company on fifty-two weeks' premiums received following the date to which the last allowance was made.

CESSATION OF PREMIUM PAYMENTS.—Should the insured survive to the first anniversary of date of this policy after age seventy-four, no further payment of premiums will be thereafter required.

INCONTESTABILITY.—This policy shall be incontestable after one year, except for fraud or misstatement of age.

GRACE PERIOD.—A grace of four weeks shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time the insurance shall continue in force. If death occur within the days of grace, the overdue premiums shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder, but neither this concession nor the acceptance of any overdue premium shall create an obligation on the part of the company to receive premiums which are in arrears over four weeks.

REVIVAL.—Should this policy become void in consequence of non-payment of premium, it may be revived, if not more than fifty-two premiums are due, upon payment of all arrears and the presentation of evidence satisfactory to the company of the sound health of the insured.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.—In the event of the death of the insured from accident within six months from the date of this policy, the full amount of insurance named in the schedule will be paid subject to the policy conditions.

NON-FORFEITURE PRIVILEGES.

FREE POLICY.—After premiums upon this policy have been fully paid for three years or more, then in case of default in the payment of any subsequent premium the company will, without action on the part of the holder, continue this policy as a free policy, payable on the same conditions as this policy, but upon which no further payment of premiums shall be required, for a reduced amount in accordance with the following table, but any indebtedness to the company hereon, if not repaid, will reduce the amount of insurance in such proportion as the indebtedness bears to the amount of surrender value used as a single premium in calculating the values appearing in the table:

CASH SURRENDER VALUE.—After premiums upon this policy have been paid for the periods named in the table below, upon written application to the company made upon blanks furnished by it, accompanied by the surrender of this policy and the premium receipt book or other evidence of payment of premium, the company will pay a cash surrender value in accordance with the following table, less any indebtedness to the company hereon:

10 Years.	11 Years.	12 Years.	13 Years.	14 Years.	15 Years.	16 Years.	17 Years.	18 Years.	19 Years.	20 Years.
$8.84	$10.04	$11.26	$12.50	$13.77	$15.05	$16.36	$17.69	$19.04	$20.40	$23.49

NOTE 1.—The two tables above are based on a weekly premium of five cents. The values of this policy are proportionate to the premium. If the premium is ten cents the values should be doubled. If twenty-five cents they should be multiplied by five, and so on.

NOTE 2.—While the values in the above tables are yearly values, the company will make proportionate increase based on quarter-year payments.

NOTE 3.—Cash surrender and free policy values for subsequent years will be furnished on request.

Prudential Insurance Company of America.

INDUSTRIAL, INFANTILE POLICY—WHOLE LIFE—PAID-UP AT AGE 70

The Prudential Insurance Company of America in consideration of the payment of the weekly premium herein specified, on or before each and every Monday during the continuance of this policy or until the anniversary date of the policy immediately preceding the seventieth anniversary of the birth of the insured, the Prudential Insurance Company of America, immediately upon receipt of due proof of the death of the insured during the continuance of this policy, will pay at its home office, Newark, New Jersey, the amount of insurance herein specified, to the executors or administrators of the insured, unless payment be made under the provisions of the next succeeding paragraph.

FACILITY OF PAYMENT.—It is understood and agreed that the said company may make any payment or grant any non-forfeiture provision provided for in this policy to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured, or to any person appearing to said company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the insured, for his or her burial, or, if the insured be more than fifteen years of age at the date of this policy, for any other purpose, and the production by the company of a receipt signed by any or either of said persons or of other sufficient proof of such payment or grant of such provision to any or either of them shall be conclusive evidence that such payment or provision has been made or granted to the person or persons entitled thereto, and that all claims under this policy have been fully satisfied.

PRELIMINARY PROVISION.—This policy shall not take effect if the insured die before the date hereof, or if on such date the insured be not in sound health, but in either event the premiums paid hereon, if any, shall be returned.

SCHEDULE.—Name of insured, John Doe; age next birthday two, if incorrect, notify company. Weekly premium

SPECIAL NOTICE.—No claim will be paid unless insured is over one year of age at date of policy.

TABLE OF AMOUNTS OF INSURANCE.

AMOUNT PAYABLE IF POLICY HAS BEEN IN FORCE FOR

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.—All premiums are payable at the home office of the company, but may be paid to an authorized representative of the company; such payments to be recognized by the company must be entered at the time of payment in the premium receipt book belonging with this policy. If for any reason the premium be not called for when due it shall be the duty of the policyholder, before said premium shall be in arrears four weeks, to bring or send said premium to the home office of the company or to one of its district offices.

PERIOD OF GRACE.—Should the insured die while the premium on this policy is in arrears for a period not exceeding four weeks, the company will pay the amount of insurance provided herein, subject to the conditions of the policy, but after the expiration of the said period of grace the company's liability under this policy shall cease, except as herein provided.

INCONTESTABILITY.—If the insured shall die one or more years after the date hereof, and if all due premiums shall have been paid, this policy shall be incontestable.

MISSTATEMENT OF AGE.—If the age of the insured be misstated the amount payable under this policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age.

MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF INSURANCE.—If the insured be already insured under any policy or policies issued by this or any other company, and if the amount of insurance payable at the death of the insured under such policy or policies be less than the limit of insurance fixed by the following table, but when added to the insurance payable under this policy shall exceed the said limit, the amount payable under this policy shall not exceed the difference between the amount specified in the said table of limitations and the total amount of insurance payable under such policy or policies already in force on the life of the insured, but if the amount of insurance payable at the death of the insured under such policy or policies already in force be equal to or shall exceed the said limit of insurance, this policy shall be void, except as provided below:

Should the amount otherwise payable under this policy be reduced as hereinbefore provided, the company will return the total premiums paid upon the amount of such reduction, together with three and one-half per cent per annum compound interest.

POLICY WHEN VOID.—This policy shall be void if there be in force upon the life of the insured an industrial policy previously issued by this company, unless the policy first issued contains an endorsement, signed by the president or the secretary, authorizing this policy to be in force at the same time; or if this policy be assigned; or if the said weekly premium shall not be paid according to the terms hereof. If for any cause this policy be or become void, all premiums paid hereon shall be forfeited to the company except as provided herein.

DISABILITY.—If the insured while this policy is in full force and effect and while there is no default in the payment of premium shall lose by severance both hands or both feet or one hand and one foot or lose permanently the sight of both eyes, one-half of the amount of insurance shall be paid immediately upon receipt by the company of due proof of such loss, and thereafter no further premiums shall be required and the policy shall be endorsed as fully paid-up for the remaining one-half of the amount of insurance. This provision is granted without additional cost to the insured.

REINSTATEMENT.—If this policy lapse for non-payment of premium, it will be reinstated within one year from the date to which premiums have been duly paid upon payment of all arrears, provided evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company be furnished, but such reinstatement shall not take effect unless at the date thereof the insured is living and in sound health.

MODIFICATIONS, ETC.—No condition, provision or privilege of this policy can be waived or modified in any case except by an endorsement hereon signed by the president, one of the vice-presidents, the secretary, one of the assistant secretaries, the actuary, the associate actuary or one of the assistant actuaries. No modification or change shall be made in this policy except such as is in accordance with the laws of the State in which the same is issued. No agent has power in behalf of the company to make or modify this or any other contract of insurance, to extend the time for paying a premium, to waive any forfeiture, or to bind the company by making any promise, or by making or receiving any representation or information.

DIVIDEND PROVISION.—Annually during its continuance in force, if all premiums theretofore due have been paid, this policy will be credited with a dividend from the surplus earnings of the company as ascertained and apportioned by the board of directors. Such dividend shall be applied to the payment of premiums. When all premiums required by the terms of the policy have been paid, the dividend will be paid in cash. (See "notice to policyholder" below.)

NON-FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.—If this policy lapse for non-payment of premium after premiums have been duly paid for three full years or more, the insured, without any action upon his or her part, will become entitled to non-participating extended insurance for the respective term specified in the following table. The amount of insurance payable if death occur within said term shall be the same amount as that which would have been payable if this policy had been continued in force. Or, in lieu thereof, the insured may surrender the policy within three months after such lapse and will then be entitled at his or her option either to receive a non-participating paid-up life policy or payment in cash as specified in the following table. If all premiums required by the terms of the policy have been paid, surrender for cash may be made at any time after the tenth anniversary of the policy. If there be any indebtedness under this policy, such indebtedness will be deducted from the cash surrender value, or the term of the extended insurance or the amount of the paid-up life policy will be reduced to such term or amount as the net single premium value of the respective provision reduced by such indebtedness shall provide according to the mortality table hereinafter specified.

The basis of the non-forfeiture values is the net reserve according to the Standard Industrial Mortality Table with three and one-half per cent interest per annum. The figures in the above table up to the end of the twentieth year include a surrender charge of not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured. At the end of twenty years and thereafter no surrender charge is made. In computing values from the foregoing tables, due allowance will be made for each completed quarter of a year's premiums paid over and above the full number of years there indicated.

This policy contains the entire contract between the parties hereto.

NOTICE TO POLICYHOLDER.—Owing to the low rate of premium at which policies of this nature are issued, the surplus accruing thereunder will probably not be sufficient to enable the company to apportion any dividend under this policy before the end of the fifth year.

This policy, if not satisfactory to the insured, may be surrendered within two weeks after its date at the branch office of the company, the address of which appears on the premium receipt book accompanying this policy, and the premiums paid hereon will be returned.

Western and Southern Life Insurance Company.

INDUSTRIAL POLICY, WHOLE LIFE—AGE, 35.

The Western & Southern Life Insurance Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio, hereby insures the life of the person designated in the following schedule, and promises to pay the sum of money stipulated in said schedule, subject to the conditions and privileges contained on this and the succeeding pages hereof, and which constitute a part of this contract.

When the amount of insurance according to the terms of the adjoining table reaches the highest sum stated for an age, it will continue at that amount during the lifetime of the insured, subject to the terms and conditions of this policy.

The amounts of the table are for a premium of 5 cents per week. No higher premium than 5 cents will be taken on this Table.

In witness whereof, the said, The Western and Southern Life Insurance Company, by its president and secretary, has signed this contract at its home office in Cincinnati, O., on February 1, 1911.

CONDITIONS.

This policy contains the entire contract between the company and the insured, and the holder or claimant hereof. Its terms cannot be changed, or its conditions altered or varied except in writing signed by the president or secretary of the company. Therefore, agents (which term includes superintendents, assistant superintendents, solicitors, collectors, inspectors and medical examiners), are not authorized to make, alter or discharge contracts, waive forfeitures, or receive premiums on policies more than four weeks in arrears, or to receipt for the same in the receipt book; and all such arrears given to the agent shall be at the risk of those who pay them, and shall not be credited upon the policy whether entered in the receipt book or not.

The weekly premium stipulated in the schedule on the preceding page hereof, shall be paid to the company, or its authorized agent, on or before every Monday during the continuance of this contract and entered at the time of such payment in the premium receipt book pertaining to this contract. But this contract shall not be in force unless the first weekly premium has been paid, and the insured is alive and in sound health upon the date hereof, meaning thereby and referring solely to the state of health of the insured at the date of the delivery of this policy and not to any changes which may have taken place in the health of the insured between said date and any previous date; and shall also be void if the insured before its date, has been rejected for insurance by this or any other company, or has been attended by a physician for, or has had before said date, any tubercular disease or consumption, or chronic bronchitis, or cancer, or epilepsy, or disease of the brain, heart, liver or kidneys, and the evidence or testimony of any physician to, or medical adviser of, the insured as to such diseases or complaint shall be admissible.

This contract shall also be void if there be any previous policy in force, issued by this company on the same life, unless the existence of such previous policy be noted by an endorsement hereon, signed by the president or secretary of the company; and the company shall not be presumed or held to know of the existence of any previous policy, and in no case shall the issue of this policy, or the payment of any premium thereon, be deemed a waiver of such endorsement. In the event of the existence of any previous policy, without endorsement hereon as above provided, the liability, if any, of this company under this policy shall not exceed the amount of the premiums paid thereon.

If for any reason the premium is not paid or is not collected by the agent when due, it shall be the duty of the policyholder, before the said premium shall be in arrears four weeks, to bring or send said premium to the home office, or to one of its district offices, and in event of a failure so to do, this policy without notice to any person or persons interested therein, shall thereupon lapse and become null and void.

If the insured shall engage in, or be connected in any capacity, with or in, the manufacture, or retailing of spirituous, alcoholic, or malt liquors, without written permission of the president or secretary of the company, endorsed hereon, this policy shall become null and void, and the payment of any premiums to an agent while the insured is so engaged or connected, without the endorsed permission aforesaid, shall not be a waiver of this condition.

If for any cause this policy shall be or become void, all premiums paid thereon shall be forfeited to the company, except as provided herein.

The amount of insurance provided in the schedule on first page hereof, will be paid by the company, at its home office, subject to the terms and conditions of this contract, within twenty-four hours after receipt at its said office, of satisfactory proof, made upon blanks furnished by the company, of the death of the insured named; together with a full statement of the nature or character of the claimant's interest and demand, and before any payment can be claimed, the policy and receipt book must be surrendered to the company.

It is furthermore expressly provided and agreed, that the production by the company, of this policy, and of a receipt for the sum paid, signed by any person furnishing proof satisfactory to the company that he or she is an executor or administrator, husband or wife, or relative by blood, or lawful beneficiary, of the insured or to any other person appearing to the company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense or obligation on behalf of the insured, or for his or her burial, shall be conclusive evidence that such sum has been paid to and received by the persons lawfully entitled to the same, and that all claims and demands upon said company under this policy have been fully satisfied.

No suit shall be maintainable to enforce the performance of this contract until ten days after the filing in the principal office of the company, of the above-mentioned proof of death, nor unless such suit shall be commenced within six months next after the death of the person insured under this policy.

The benefits provided in this policy may be adjusted for misstatement of age.

Only the president or secretary in writing, may make, alter or discharge contracts or waive forfeitures.

PRIVILEGES.

This policy shall be incontestable after two years, if all due premiums have been paid, except for fraud or misstatement of age.

This policy, if not satisfactory to the insured, or if its conditions are not accepted or agreed to, may be surrendered within two weeks after its date, and all premiums paid thereon will be returned to the insured.

The beneficiary hereinbefore named, may be changed at the election of the insured or, of the parents or guardian if a minor, subject to the written approval of the company.

If this policy lapse for non-payment of premiums, it may be revived within one year from the date to which premiums have been duly paid, upon payment of all arrears, provided evidence of the insurability of the insured satisfactory to the company be furnished, but such revival shall not take effect unless at the date thereof, the insured is living and in sound health.

After this policy shall have been in force five years and the full premiums for said period shall have been paid, and within eight weeks after any premium is due and unpaid, the company, upon the legal surrender of this policy and the receipt books thereto belonging, will issue, upon written application made by the insured upon blanks furnished by the company, provided the insured shall have reached the age of eighteen years at the date of surrender, a paid-up policy for an amount computed according to Table 1, upon which no further payments of premiums shall be required for a term of years expressed by the expectation of the life insured, according to Table 2.

TABLE 1, PAID-UP POLICIES PER $1000 OF ORIGINAL INSURANCE.

If the original policy is for less than $1000, the paid-up policy will be proportionately less; thus if the original policy is for $100, the paid-up policy will be one-tenth of the amount in this table. The paid-up policy will be proportionately increased for each three months premiums paid over and above the number of full years' premium indicated in the headlines of this table, but will be issued for the nearest even dollar only.

To find the sum to which a given amount per annum will increase, at compound interest, at any of the rates per cent and number of years expressed in the above Table :

Multiply the given amount per annum, by the sum to which one dollar per annum will increase at the rate and for the number of years required, marking off as many decimals from the product as there are decimals in the multiplier and the multiplicand.

COMPOUND INTEREST TABLE.

The following table shows the amount of money that must be invested annually, at compound interest, to amount to $1000 in a definite number of years:

EXPLANATION.—How much must I invest every year, at 5 per cent compound interest, so that the proceeds will amount to $1000 in twenty years? Look under the heading "5 per cent" at the right of twenty years, and you find $28.80 the answer, etc., etc.

ACCORDING TO THE COMBINED EXPERIENCE AND AMERICAN EXPERIENCE TABLES OF MORTALITY.

The following table will be useful in pointing out the amount of insurance which should be carried. Multiply the figures for the given age by the applicant's income and you have a fair idea of his insurable value, because the product represents the applicant's probable worth to his family or dependents.

JOINT LIFE INSURANCE.

Of late years there has been created a new avenue for the advancement of life insurance in the insuring of lives of men engaged in business partnerships in order to create a fund by which the interests of the survivors will be protected in the event of the death of any member of the firm. Considerable progress has been made in this line, as the system is a popular one and appeals at once to the common sense of those approached as a good thing. We quote the rates for these "joint life policies" for an insurance of $1000.

EQUATION OF LIFE.

This table of the "Equation of Life" will enable the agent to point out from the "American Experience" and the "Actuaries' or Combined Experience Tables of Mortality" the time when one-half of the tabular number of the living at a given age will have passed over to the great majority, and vice versa, the period of which those who contemplate taking out endowment assurance for long terms will do well to fix the maturity of their policies. In other words, out of two persons alive at a certain age this table shows the time at which one will be living and the other dead.

GOVERNMENT HOSPITALS

Of late years hospital management has been steadily improving. The government hospitals are no longer the places of confinement for the indigent, but are now the places of treatment for the sick. The government hospitals are now the places of treatment for the sick, and the government hospitals are now the places of treatment for the sick.

THE SPECTATOR

An American Review of Insurance

PUBLISHED WEEKLY PRICE, $4.00 PER ANNUM

(ESTABLISHED 1868)

THE SPECTATOR is a live and progressive insurance journal, noted for its pungent and fearless discussion of all matters pertaining to the vast subject of insurance in every branch. In the many years of its existence it has built up a reputation for fair and honest treatment of insurance matters that has made it invaluable to propertyowners desiring insurance and to insurance men of every class. It contains the latest and freshest insurance news from every quarter, bright and sparkling correspondence from the principal insurance centers of the country, comments on current insurance events of the day, with special departments showing what the underwriters are doing in the different fields.

The most eminent writers on insurance in its various forms are contributors to its columns, and the aim of its proprietors is to present the science of the insurance systems in vogue without prejudice to any and in fairness to all. It is in this spirit that Fire, Life, Industrial, Accident, Natural Premium Life and Miscellaneous Insurance Companies, Associations and Societies are treated without fear or favor. It also gives the current news from different insurance centers each week, and each number is an epitome of all matters pertaining to insurance. It is the ambition of its proprietors to make THE SPECTATOR an invaluable journal to the commercial and business world and to every person identified with the insurance interest in any capacity.
